Abhishek Mishra()

Hi..I am abhishek, easy going, fun loving and very helpful guy.I love the obstacles which life offers to me because they help me being more responsible and make me realize how precious life is....i like to make good friends and in future want to be a full time writer.

thanks

A Lesson

Be kind to others have faith in yourself lift your potential and try your best Sky has no limits nor the ambitions be honest to yourself and make the world dance with you Feel the rain drops and have a little fun Life is beautiful live the every moment and enjoy yourself

A Request For Nature

It's beauty is phenomenal creations has diversity yet it's invisible yet it's unbiased It has countless colours all are shining and bright but what we pay it back? even without any demand? we exploit it we are on the way to destroy it on the name of civilization for the sake of our so called comfort so today I would like to make a kind request to you-Nature is as adorable as mother wake up before its too late Let's do something together to save our planet.

A Tribute To Teacher

You are my teacher you taught me the lessons of life It's you who made me it's you who encouraged me it's you who inspires me to have belief in my own when I fall down Sometimes you scolded me sometimes you punished me at that time it felt really bad but now I can figure out even that too was for my goodness I can never pay your debt which I owe but today atleast I can promise you the wisdom you provided me the morale you gifted me I will let it be my power to bring a better and brighter tomorrow SO thanks for being thanks for inspiring you are my hero and you will be...

Awesomeness Of Life

Life is awesome
thinking of its beauty always makes me smile live it with contentment and a little fun and surely you will realize Life is awesome
we all have chance to live it only once so why not we help others and make it worth why are we making it so complicated and troublesome think a little and you will realize

Childhood Memories

In childhood
I wanted to touch the sky I wanted to fly high and high as birds do, Those were beautiful days only food, fun and play tension free all the way In night, while feeding me my mother used to tell me stories some of angels, some of hero's bravery I don't remember but she says 'you always fell asleep while listening to those 'magical' stories' Those were wonderful days indeed Neither there was exam fear Nor any hesitation in disclosing pain and revealing tears Fighting with siblings was usual but bonding of love was stronger and deeper Just Think..
If realizing those moments is good enough to bring a smile then living..... simply awesome: -)

Friends

True friends are rare they won't let you spare in both, times of happiness and grief...
They are like breeze of fresh air when there is drought around you, everywhere...
When you are in pain, they make sure you get relief when you do something noteworthy, they make sure they get a grand treat...
They are sugar, if life is a sweet They are special, no matter what, never let them go If there is something to sort out, first kill your ego.....

I Want To Be

I want to be a true human who does something for others who is not blind and selfish who is not arrogant and childish who wipes tears of one and all who makes you smile even in your pain who has nothing to lose and everything to gain Yes I want to be a true human who can do anything for a needy person...

Pain

Pain is my best friend it teaches me about the world it teaches me about the people around me their behaviour their attitude towards me when it remains with me i get to know what they really meant to me without it fake smiles are the only thing which can i see that is why i says to my pain always be with me you are my best friend...

Precious Tears

Tears are precious like pearls moments of sorrow are their soulmate only with which they can be seen tears are precious
dont let anyone see them dedicate yourself to whom who can loot them only those can be a true soulmate

Risen Hopes

Hopes have risen again as when you are with me I feel less pain People says I am mad I laughs and says Yes I am because since then you came again

Side Effects Of Growing Up

Whenever I remember those days automatically a mischievous smile appears on face and eyes becomes wet Inside me, I am desperately searching the same innocence But, sorry friends Nowdays, fake smile is an essence My heart wants to be child once again and to dance carelessly in the rain but sorry, I am young now, my mind has grown so it will have to bear all the pain on its own Being child was more enjoying more rewarding but TIME which has elapsed never come now best part of LIFE has gone: -(

Sweet Love

You, me and nothing else everything seems like a fairy tale true love has come to its optimum which crossed every hurdle of the road and reached the final destination You are my life your are an invaluable jewel And now your are my companion Now, no one can stop me before achieving the maximum...

Thank You All

Simple words, pure thoughts my emotions and your smile makes me expressive and satisfied When people praise, I feel proud I wanted to be different, away from the crowd Today I am happy and confident now success is not far away thank you friends, its your belief in me which made my way
keep supporting me, I promise
I wouldn't disappoint you just be with me, always.

The Fate

Tears started raining through my eyes I guess it was because of sudden delight I still remember that day when I met with a severe accident and found myself okay Immediately I thanked my god but meanwhile I heard a voice which was dipped in pain a man was cursing his fate as he had lost his son in the same accident I am still trying to figure it out whether I should feel blessed for me or sad for him Please somebody tell me I was lucky or he was unfortunate

Today I Saw

Today I saw a beggar Who was about to die because of hunger I looked at him from feet to head He was old and almost naked Neither properly he could walk nor could talk I bought some food for him The satisfaction we both had cannot be drafted in word I went back to home but I could not sleep the whole night The only thought which was in my mind that tomorrow who will bring food for him which infact is his 'right'...
