Adam Day(3/16/85)

living in a nutshell, battle for freedom has been at ones hand long striving to break the hold of the compressing hand of life

1 Hour

Stumped for words
This writer's block is tough
Lost thoughts drift away
And this morning has been rough

Many hours spent Answering the phones
Others hours spent
In my chair like a drone

Having had to piss
For the last 4 hours
None to come relive me
Wait what I smell flowers

My ice cream has melted
There's some water puddle on my floor
I decided to kick over my pen cup
And someone keeps knocking on my door

1 hour to go till I can leave for home
1 hour to go till I can finally descend
1 hour to go till I can see your face 1 hour to go till I can leave this place

Another Perfect Day

Eyes wide shut
As I begin to awake
Laughing at memories
And our times well spent Soft nestled breeze
Seeps in through the window
Brilliant smells of spring time
Twirl around the house
Another perfect morning
Because I woke up alive
Another perfect morning
With you by my side

Assist

Lost tossed down on luck
Battered buckled at the knees Metaphorical mind truck
Waiting to be saved please

Wanting to wander
Stagger and stumble
Many hours to ponder
Tummy wants to rumble

Bright light shines Sending me the path
A river of wines
Wash over my bath

Candy coated treasures
Mini mental missiles
Information pleasures
Tilted vision pistols

You struck me hard Hit in the hardest way Attack at the heart
Knowing I shall not stray

Words are forever
Our midnight dance
I vow thou Endeavor
Stalling for the chance

Bard's Song

The traveling bard
Has to make due Snapping the strings
For enjoyment on cue
Though the wolf howls
In the moon lights eve
The roster will crow
In the morning to believe
As an old house creaks Leaving unto a mouse
The newborn baby speaks
While crawling through the house

Beauty Moves

Laying in my boat
Feeling the cool mist
Yells from my love
Asking me to assist

Wandering to the helm
To take charge of the boat
She jumps out to kiss me
Like a vampire she latches throat

It's always a surprise
Being in love with the new
So much excitement
Not sure what to do

The giggly happy princess Dances with all her might I sit back and wonder
If she feels alright

To cute to turn my head
I cheer and clap along
She dances the dance of dance
Crazy moves yet never in the wrong

You can't help but smile
When you stop and glare
Her arms are freely flailing
In a fit of joy without care

Rocking the boat
Is ever much fun
Watching the dance
Underneath the sun

Beauty and grace
Is about all I can say
Your moves astound me
In every single way

Busted

Busted wide open my hearts drips freely
Pain and despair I am down kneeling Life without you will be short and stout
Long hours of drinking till my liver busts out
I cant hide my feelings holding back tears
I will dropp every dime pounding beer after beer
You cut me deep when you said he was coming
Then twisted the knife when where he would be slumbering
It hurts so bad I don't know what to do
I fought back the tears that tried to break through
I didn't want to be involved is what I told myself
I should have left well enough alone

Adam Day

Come With Me

Blinked and stunned
By your radiant essence Filled by a dark room
Candescent presents

Spirits high again
With your magic ways
Feels like a spell on me
Walking around in a daze

Warm subtle chills Zing through my spine
Like Wine so robust
You have me lost in time

Come with me now
As we walk with grace
Hand in hand as we
We leave this place

Drunken Good Bye

i wandered home last night in my bed it was so bare my body was full of fright for you were not there you ran away from me forever so much fast built up so much speed my feelings just cant last

i love you o so dear with the bottom of my heart your forgotten lostten tear forever i will cart that goes for if you had a tear deep within your soul to accually bring out fear in your depths over a bridge with no troll

Duo

The beautiful morning has come
At last
Another wonderful day
Has past

Warm splendid days are
To come
Sun shining down on Every one

With you by my side we Can be
A superhero duo you Will see

Hand in hand we take Our stride
Far off this earth in time
We bide

For You All

Sing n dance
Down under the stars Wish n dream
For futures afar

Sing for freedom
Dance for you Wish for them
Dream for everyone

Forever In Time

Dark and cold
This place grim
A single peep hole of light Shines from within Bright it may be Nothing I see
I fell weak
No reason to fight
I held my knife
And gripped it tight Away I hacked
Torn with stone
A sharp little pain
Has come on my own
My time is near Strive to break free
The light starts to dim
Have you forgotten me
It is now gone
Nothing to fear
I welded my blade
And began to shed a tear
The pain was to much Even for me
With all my struggle
I couldn't break free
Its grasp so mighty
Like a field of dreams
With one last breath
I must break free
To finally see
What's inside of me
Every little strain
Creaked through my bones
Pains of stress
Are now my own
Age can't be beaten
It's not in the cards
My heart is forever

Now broken into shards

Good Bye

Good by my dear
My time has come
For us to part
So please don't fear

Be safe in your Journey for life
Let yourself be true
Try to live without strife

I will always love you
Till the end of time
My heart still holds on Like that of a wind chime

Adam Day

Happy 21st

Trees lay restless
As time stands still Your beauty and grace
Is always a thrill

Being with you
Makes me feel large Calm as the ocean

Today is your day
Forever so sweet
The upcoming adult
Must drink till she's beat

Candy coated dreams
Are a look to the past
Your coming of age
Will always last

Past memories will be Remembered till old age
A stepping stone for life
Has given you a new stage

Take this in stride
And always believe Life is your gift
Do with it as you please

Heaven And Hell

as heaven and hell divide the land, our tiny little plane dips into the hand.
bending the minds we try to unfold,
the story of life's soul have sold.

we try to seek reality every day,
with an eye opening nirvana way.
silly wishing minds still hope to reach,
with walls so high they cannot breach.

as a smokes cloud rises high, everyone truly speaks they can fly.
with dreams stealing time, we lay down a rhyme.

can you see my heart,
I feel like a new start.
a fantastic glorious time to mend, with heaven and hell around the bend.

two mice in a milk glass, which will you be.
the one to kiss his ass,
or the one to churn free.

I Can Mend

Looking for a new Wandering the blue
Breaking through
I always knew
I need to be free
Alone is just me Solo I will be
And never a we People can't stand
Me on this land
My only hand
With no band
Hearing my call
I listen to all
From winter to fall
I always stall
Not falling to trend
No letter to send My heart will mend
As I wait for the end

I Do Wonder

As I sit and wonder
What could have been Dreaming of you
I think again
Walks on the beach
And picnics in the flowers
I could really stare
At you for hours
Biting my tongue
When you are around
Walking this earth
I really have found
None like you
In the millions I've met
None like you
In the time I've spent Record breaking falls
I've seen come and go
Time has slipped by
And I need to know
Have you thought of me
Or even took a glimpse
If I would have spoken
Would you say hi
Or just shun me off
Like some random guy
This I want to know Cause I will take care
Ill even wash your feet
Bring you breakfast in bed
To wake you up
And rub your back
When you throw up
Make you soup
When you are ill
And bring you flowers
For our evening meal
All of this I can finally say

Because no one else
Made me feel this way
So I sit here and I wonder
What could have been
I will sit here and ponder
Way back when

I Feel Free

I lay in the grass
Looking up at a cloud Making funny faces
I scream real loud
The one true place
Where I am free
Feeling the breeze
Running over me
I have lived my life
To it's fullest with the greatest of ease
Meeting new people everyday Hoping to change me
In some little way
It's like a beanstalk
It runs really high Everyone I've touched Smiles to the sky
Forgotten by none
Is my main goal
I will cross the river
And pay the toll
Skipping down the path
So very happily
Singing in the wind
I feel so free

I Missed It

Running jumping and dashing through the woods
there is no escape it is growing near what to do its almost here I toss I turn I wake up and hear my alarm clock and I fear am I late am I late dammit I just missed my date the first one in weeks months ok even years what to do what to do should I call should I write cry I might its been so long since the chance to hold hand in hand walking in copper song and dance laughter and smiles only in the movies never for me do I fear to find another date in this year

Inspired

Spiritual inspiration left me stumped
Feeling down and out of thought Bringing back memories of time Pressing issues of past rhymes

Feeling that cold wind
Of everlasting demise
Body trembling with fear
That I will never again feel fine

Sun rays break through thus Lifting the cold damp worries
It was you I saw in the morning mist
Glistening with substantial array

Inspiration can come and go Crumbling from a dead stumble
But when thinking of you
My mind does nothing but grow

Bright minded friends
You came to me abrupt Inspired me to be free
And taught me to live to be me

I thank you guys/gals
Dedicated to Lindsey Rogers, Juleena Haviland, Tammy Rambo, and Keith Vasconcellos

Its About You

Slightly of balance
When I think of you
Visions of my life
Not sure if there true

I see us in the future
Walking hand in hand
Down to the park
To play in the sand

Your beautiful hair
Stretches into the wind
Your eyes were glowing

Spreading a blanket Onto the sand
Your beautiful body

I see us growing old Still in a lust
My heart is with you Forever with trust

It's Driving Me Crazy

It's driving me crazy
The way you look at me
My head gets dizzy
This hold you have Over my mind
Has got my slipping
Into many rhymes
I can't control
What I put into words
But when I try to speak Everything sounds like curds Writing is how I can express my love
It grows deeper
Then the deepest ocean
It grows farther
Then the eye can see
When you're around
I get all jumbled
My words are mumbled
As crazy as it seems
I know you're the one
We play and laugh
And have lots of fun
I try with my actions
To show you the best
To remember the good times
And forget the rest

I've Become

I've had enough
I've been battered and bruised
I've felt crippled from failure
I've got nothing else to loose

I've tried to be
I've been the best person I can I've spent time and money
I've tried to be a man

I've seen many things in my time
I've got to learn to act now
I've spent time watching the wind chime
I've thought for hours trying to figure how

I've watched others laugh at me
I've seen it time and again
I've felt my pride buckle to thee
I've got to recover from this, but when?

I've been lost for ages
I've hidden myself well
I've held in all my rages
I've cried at times I fell

I've beat myself enough
I've finally broke free
I've learned to be rough
I've learned to only be me

Lady Tiff

Quirky and awkward life
Has told
Thou thinks one is weird
But now true Weird comes from within Forever untold Questions so great
For life Sought true
You will never find Another guy whom Loves your smart grow old enough
To push you in cart
Walk down thy street
Stretching mile after mile
Sun setting in the distance
With wind nipping our noses
If you trip from embarrassment
I will fall twice as hard
To pull attention
So you don't feel like a retard
With teeth so bright and eyes in the sun
For eternal life
I will forever run

Look To The Moon

I cry myself to sleep
On most my lonely nights
Walking for hours
Hard thoughts of fright

I know I am loosing
Part of my soul Continuously thinking
That I am a troll

I wear my mask
When others are around
Laughing happily
Just to not be found

People only see
What needs to be shown Deep laughter and cheers
My insides always groan

My coming of age
Happened rather fast
Family and friends everywhere
Then alone at last

I have had the same dreams
While staring at the moon
Wondering alone in the sand
Climbing an everlasting dune

Beads of sweat dripping Off my sun scorched brow Tainted wisps increase
Like that of a meow

Ear blasted and sun trashed
My head starts to spin
I fall to the ground
And start everything over again

Lost

Lost being consumed
Confused not being found Memories resumed
Without care feeling or frown

Thoughts of you
Scroll through my head
My persona seems blue
Wanting not to leave bed

As I lay and ponder
What I did wrong
I think of times fonder
And sing a song

Wishing my voice could Sore through the sky Pierced ears would Be shouting who is this guy

Laying in my house
Drowned in tears
Slight squeaks as a mouse
Crumbled in fears

I must break free
Of this long hard hold
I need to be me
Strong and bold

Live my own life
With non other Take days in strife
Without care or bother

Love And To Hold

I wake in the morning
To look in the mirror Another day I've aged
For this I have feared

I've worked everyday
And minute of my life Saving my money
To spend on a wife

I always wanted kids
To laugh and to hold Raise them like me
And minds I can mold

Teach the learning's Passed down be my father
Raise them just right
And not have to bother

To love and to hold
A family I dear
A family to keep near

Lust

Visions of you Fill my mind
This love will last
For you are kind

Lost in time
I'm always yearning
In my bed
I'm always turning

Looking at you
Holding you tight
I wish I was there

Being with you I must Be ever so sweet
For our story of lust
Till the day we meet

Missing You

Loving to be Lost were we Wrapped arms squeeze
Buckled at my knees

You had me
At the first hello
You had me
Wobbling like jello

Missing you while
You went away
Thinking of you all day

You need come home
To be by my side
Sit the beach and watch the tide

My Mask

Mask was worn thin enough for a one and only to see far enough through one to touch the soul of the incredible precious child known only as the awesomeness being, many many times come and gone for the mask wearer to let it down but there was never someone special enough to see what was held inside the dusty case, with the mask as thin as paper the glass canon has been released from the depths of emotions and the south end of the whiskey bottle. The young child crawls out to see the light of day that was once such a wonderful place to be. Time and time again he wanted to poke out of the mask but determination was set in stone to keep himself hidden to wait till the right someone was found, with the one in his sight the time was well spent but opened up to late in time and received the canon shattering rock of a comment one morning thus thickening the mask back to full prowess, not sure if it will be thin enough for people to see what's hidden but will forever remain a secret that was almost let out to begin a new journey for life, so for now this story will continue on its same path of darkness for years to come.

Adam Day

New And Born

An infant's touch
So soft and sweet
9 months of pain
Until you meet

Walks to the park
Swing on the swings
And adventure the land

A life time of love
For you and your kin
A special bond
Has yet to begin

Smiles of joy
On the day of birth
As in a mothers love
As big as the earth

Over

Hopping left hopping right
If I stop I have to fight
This beast of a figure Is drawing near Over logs and under trees
Running faster now I tripped
And fell on my knees
As the blood flows down my leg
I look to the heavens and I beg Please not now I want to live Father time has come to give An option for life at the cost of another Shall it be my wife or my brother Trying hard I can't decide
On my feet I run to hide
I can feel the life draining from me
With every step my time is near Nibbling all over to get away
I see a cave where I can stay
Dark as ever inside of here Praying now for the beast to steer clear Against a wall I will sit Hiding in the dark I get hit
My neck is throbbing with massive pain
I feel on the ground to find a cane
Defending myself blindly swinging in the wind
Is today the end
Kicking and screaming at the top of my lungs
Feeling like I was hung Squeezing my throat I cannot breath
Looking down there is nothing beneath
Total blackness everywhere
No bottom or top anywhere
Is this the end it's finally here
In the blink of an eye it was here and disappeared
My life in a flash has now gone, as I feared
To my friends and loved ones I leave

Princess Haley

Perfect pretty princess Dancing in her gown Always happy and cheerful
Never with a frown
Belly filled laughs
Break through the wind Marvelous smiles
Means nothing but sin
Something is hidden
Inside your wondrous mind Breaking the chains
You will soon find Your mothers love
Goes forever unsold
You're both bonded together
By means of your souls
You will walk for life
Inside one another's heart
Speak easy dreaming
For every day's start
Life long friends
You two will always be These words I speak true Trust and you will see

Searching! ?

Looking through the trees
Slipping off into the dark
I hear voices yelling please Entering the murky park

My eyes begin to wander
Searching for the pleas
My mind starts to ponder
Squeezing my chest I wheeze

Grasping for a single gulp
The air is super thick
Spitting up chunks of pulp
Beginning to feel sick

The voices grow louder
Keep calling my name
The sick murky powder
Is really bringing the pain

I want to help them so much Because I treasure life so dear
This I think is my crutch
And my crutch I will always fear

Wanting everyone to be happy Smiles and laughter galore
I learned this from my pappy
He is the hero I adore

Life is but a place to be
It's what you make of it
Life is great with a friend like me
Ill never let you quit

This voice I can feel Slicing through the air
My friends and family Yelling don't be scared

Exiting the woods
With everyone watching
Happy go lucky faces
All started dropping

In all the thunder
I couldn't see why
I started to wonder
Who is this guy

I turned my frown upside down
Everyone started to cheer
Into that party I kicked a clown
And then I grabbed a beer

The stench has lifted
With smiles from all
With that being said
Let's go off to the ball

Sifting Dreams

Sifting dreams
Trying to find what's real Tidal waves break
Spinning my world dizzily

Sun rays dancing
Skipping across the sea
Sea birds glide
Drifting carelessly

Whale vibrations ripple
Dolphins seem chipper
Dancing on top the water

You brighten my world
More than my dreams
Seeing your face

You rock my world
For your love

Every breaking day
As the sun rises high
To make our love fly

I vowed to please
Every moment of life
From the time we start
Till death do us apart

Smile

It's a living wonder
Why to not cry
Why we do die
Life long ago
Another book of page
We flip to spark the new one Smile just to smile
It's very contagious
It will make you feel outrageous Reach through For what you want
See true
Goals with taunt
You can be you
And live free forever
Don't be blue
People like you

Subtle

Like the ever growing breeze that sweeps across the land
The smell of your hair seeps through the sand
An ever growing hourglass drips at its soul
You lift me when I am weak
You speak to me so clear and bold
An always pessimistic voice
With so much cheer
This you do not realize brings me fear
But be as it may for you are the one for me in every which way
My heart skips a beat when you look at me
Gaze into the beauty for me to meet
My spirits are at there peek when you are around Like a drifting bird high above the ground,
Soft subtle skin to gaze at for days smooth as a button as much I praise
You taught me to love yet you did not know
I feel for you deeply and my soul does grow
It will not stop for years to come
I will love you forever till my days are done
I will not let go of the times we have had
And I veer to the future for the moments we will have The girl of my dreams I spoke to you once
I meant this to be true for you are the one
Till death due us part I will not look away
Like a precious flower that blooms everyday

This Is For You

As I lay on my back
Staring so deep
Looking past mars

The stars line up
To show your face
It takes me away
Far away from this place

Our own little world

Holding my breath
I would not dare
My attention in full
You had me there

As I lay on my back
Locked into a stare
Gazing deep into your eyes Motionless without a care

The smile you hold
I treasure so much
None I've seen like it
With a graceful touch

Your eyes of stars
Our own little space
And body of mars
No one can take this place

Time Doesn'T Stop

As the wind blows Pulling me in Life is but a whirlwind
You must begin

Starting as a baby
Can't stand on two feet

School begins
And your super siked

Off to high school
Trying to find you're position

Moving to college
Living in a dorm room
Sleeping all alone

Reality sets in
Worrying about your bills Did I pay all of them even my phone

Retirement is next
You saved up your money
You landed a honey

Skin and bones so fragile
Like dust in the breeze
Looking up to the lord
Saying let me in please

Life is just a place
Here on this earth
Take it for what it is
And all that its worth

Time To Ponder

Sitting staring way up high Farther than my eyes can see
Figure out I must on what to be

Maybe a bird
To fly high away
Maybe a cloud
Just to cover the bay

Maybe a tree
To reach high to the sky
Maybe the ocean
To see why fish fly

Maybe a rock
To be strong for ever
Maybe a flower
To soak up all the weather

I guess to me
At the end of the day
I will always wonder
How it is to feel that way

Today

Under the moon light
Wind swirls all around
Staring at the sky no chance to frown

Sweet summer sounds
Brilliant rays of sun

Hot summer days Thick blistering heat
Cut able with a knife
To the shade need to retreat

Walking hand in hand
Strolling on your merry way
Then to kick sand at the bay

Together

Confused we were
But together we found
Falling through the air

Impossible to gauge
Our friendship untold
Like two secret agents
Two in one body will mold

Creating a perfect us
You are my better half Completing me as a whole
Forever in company we will laugh

Trapped On The Edge

Balancing on a toe
Rapid cross fire
At the blink of an eye
I am wondering why
What did I do
To put myself here
What did I do
To bring down this fear
Feeling arrow by arrow Brought by the month of may
The weight of the arrows
Send me tumbling down
Into the valley
My body has stopped
Stuck in this rut
I feel I shall reside
Laying face up wondering Should I swallow my pride
A beacon of light
Blasts me in my eyes
And I begin to hear shouts
Of many gals and guys
There calling my name
Asking me to respond
I lift my arm
Voice has been trapped
No other words can come out
Wish there was some water

To take heed of my drought

Walking Down

Splinter broken as the tree
You can never hurt me
I will prevail over time
As I fight back with rhyme

You can to me fast
That unforgettable day
You said our love would last
Then you left me in disarray

Standing under you looking up Questions and thoughts start to flow

The effortless unbroken soul
That has given up on life
Has stopped eating from there bowl

Such beauty and grace
You once preached to me
Lived hard by life is no race
With never a reason to flee

Wind chimes now ring
From the porch were we called home
An hourglass of time does sing
Each dropp of sand, the eagle does rome

What A Feeling

Dancing side by side
With the one who knows you best

Cascading stars glisten
As moon lit trails wonder Aimlessly turning and twisting
For your mind to ponder

Warm smelling scents
Swirl around the room
Mystic flapping butterflies
Grow glow explode in big boom

A lost wondering mind
Not knowing where to go
Our memories together
I hold dearly you need to know

Regrets will haunt ones life
Till the dust bunnies lay still My time with you was a trip
The best roller coaster and thrill

What You Mean To Me

Walking around here and there
Sweet smells of you drift in the air
I never felt this way before
Looking at you I melt to the floor
The way you talk and the way you walk Screeches through my head like writing with chalk When you're around I can't think clearly Thinking of you I just want you near me
Rays of sunshine falls down from the sky
When I'm with you I believe I can fly
Fills me with joy and loads of glee Skin so soft you put feathers to shame
Skin so soft you make others look lame
The way you laugh makes me weak at my knees
I've been crawling around saying please
You may not have heard me from speaking so soft
But one of these days ill invite you to my loft
In Chicago I will retire thoughts of you will make me bold
King of the city I will be writing for gold
Making these poems about you everyday
Thinking of you in every single way
Walking and talking with such grace
I love it when the sun lightens up your face
And with all this said and out in the open
I trust you can see that I am not joking
I hope you see what you mean to me

Friends I will be with you for life
But I would love you forever as my wife

Who Will Wonder

Being kicked down the road Popping the ground
Wild dreams sift into sight
Who will save me
Wild dreams drift into the night
Will you save me
The long chase began Rope dropped and start to run Heart was pounding
Not feeling very fun
Slowing to walk
Wondering why ever try
i am walking away
Just wondering what I did

Winter Glow

Up to the sky
Past all the abyss
Here a fly buzz by Seeing you brings bliss

Your charm is a virtue
You're a mere saint
I will always come through

Winter snow flakes are falling Raising your tongue to the air
Your radiant beauty is stalling
I can't help but stop and stare

Sweet sounds of singing
Down yonder across the way
Soft chimes of church bells ringing
A breath taking moment I must say

Half way into the sun set
Across the endless stretch of snow
You brighten up the world yet
With that of an endless glow

You

My love for you
Grows stronger every day
My love for you
Makes me act this way

Looking in your eyes
Makes me warm inside
Looking in your eyes
Makes me feel like butterflies

Kissing your lips

Laying down with you
Fills me with joy
Laying down with you

You lift my spirits
You lift my spirits
Lifting me high off the ground

I love you

Your Epic

Open your book
Place your pen to the page Feel free to look Through your many years of age

Life can be hard Fun can be true
Songs of a bard
Sing for only you

Write for all your times
And elaborate the bad
Speak free of the love
That you once had

Letting your emotions go
And stand fast to be told Let your tears start to flow
As you write your epic bold

Your River

I can't get you out of my mind

I wake up in the morning and want you to be mine

My love for you grows ever so deep

With you not in my life I would begin to weep

An eternity of tears would rise across the earth

Flood the gates of hell and demand a rebirth

The wave will roar up into the sky

Crash down the heavens from so very high

This is the depths of my love if you ever left my life
