Can V B Friends

I would like to dedicate this poem to every girl who has gotten this response from a lover. I know how you feel. This happened 2 me I know how heart broken you feel every time your song comes on. I feel your pain. Find a way to get that anger out. If you keep it bottled up for to long, you will regret it. Thank You!

You kiss my cheek

and walk away

I am waiting for you to say

I love you

But instead

you break my Heart

with your unkind words

'can we just be friends? '

I look away

A knife through my heart

You try to touch my cheek

I turn away

Why can't we be more than

Friends

That is all

I ever wanted

And More

when you said

those unkind words

you ripped my heart to shreds

I won't forget you

Every time our song

comes on

I will think of you and sigh

Every time you call me
I will hang up without an explanation why?

That is the question that I asked that day
The day you said

Can We Just Be Friends?

Every Beat Of My Heart

With every beat of my heart
I feel yours inside of mine,
Together they beat as one
Keeping perfect time.

With every beat of my heart
I hear yours inside of mine,
Our chance to be together
The beat says it's nearly time.

With every beat of my heart
I know that yours does to,
And every time it pumps
I know I'm feeling you.

With every beat of my heart
I listen close to what it says,
I hear yours calling mine
And it knows it must obey.

With every beat of my heart
I feel mine loving you,
And with every beat of yours
I know you love me too.

With every beat of my heart
It hurts when you say good bye,
And with every beat of my heart
Drops another tear I cry.

With every beat of my heart
I miss you all the more,
The beat grows ever louder
Until it's like a thunderous roar.

For with every beat of my heart
Inside I feel the pain,
Right now mine beats alone
And I'm missing you again.

With every beat of my heart
I need yours here to stay,
For I miss you all the more Everytime you go away

First Feeling Of Love

You approach me differently and caught my eye.
You caught my attention, I don't know why
You were so sweet, you made me smile.
My first girlfriend, so romantic so wild
You took me on my first date,
And made sure I had a good time...
It was really great, just like old wine
I miss your true love,
I'll never find anyone like you...
Only you are my first...true love.
I won't forget you, our past, our love, the present, the future that has not begun.
One day I will have you, my first...true is u

First Love

This is the first time I have ever loved;
Yours, the first face I can not forget.
I think you are afraid, perhaps, and moved To wonder whether you should do this yet.
I also am afraid, and yet I know
That wonder is a thing that needs a yes;
Should you step back and let this moment go,
Both you and I will have to live with less.
Please trust my love, as I must trust in yours.
It's strong as steel, as delicate as lace,
Immovable as battered granite shores:
I feel its power and unremitting grace.
So come, my love, and try this love with me;
Let your love speak, and then you will agree.

From Friendship To A Lover

We were just friends at the start,
Always having fun, never apart
Then one day, something sparked
The next thing I knew, you had my heart.

The days flew by,
I lost track of time
Every time I was with you,
I was on cloud nine.

Then one day, you asked me to be your girlfriend
I exclaimed, yes! and prayed we'd last until the very end.
No one could look into my eyes and say I wasn't happy, Happy that I was with you, and you were with me.

With me in your arms, you told me you loved me,
Then gently kissed my forehead and gave me a squeeze.
I was convinced you were the one for me,
Apart from you, I would never be.

Just when I thought all was well,
Was when you began to put me through hell.
You said, we should just be friends
That's when I knew it was the end.

I looked into your eyes, trying to find out why,
It was all I could do, not to begin to cry.
Where I once saw love, I saw nothing,
I couldn't believe you no longer felt something.

I lay in bed, counting my tears,
Each representing what I'd hoped would be years.
Years of happiness, for us to be together,
A long-lived life, forever and ever.

But in my heart, I know this will never be,
For in yours, no longer is there a place for me.
I gave you my all; I gave you my heart,
Little did I know that you'd tear it apart.

Everyday I place a smile on my face,
As for tears, there is not a trace.
You ripped me apart, but yet it's true,
Forever and always, I'll still love you

Ajay Vyas

I Love D Way U R

I love you so much
We are perfect together
I cant live a day without you
I want to be with you forever

I'm so glad i found you
You have changed my life
You have made me see things
In a totally different life

I love the way you try
To make everything all right
I love the way you whisper
Sweet thing in my ear at night

Almost everything you say and do
Makes me so happy and you know its true
That you are the one for me
And I'm so in love with you

No one can ever take your place
Your everything i need
Please baby do me a favor
Listen while you read

When you came into my life
I felt so complete
I understood everything
No one else can do this to me

You give me reason to be on earth
You've given me a reason to smile
If you left me one day
My life wouldn't be worth the while

Whenever I'm upset
Or sad and don't want to tell
You see right through me
And i can do the same as well

When i look into your eyes
I know we are meant to be
There's nothing more perfect in life
Than you and me.

Ajay Vyas

I Tried My Best

I tried so hard.

I tried my best.

I gave you my all,

and now there's nothing left.

You stole my heart,

then tore it in two.

Now I'm falling apart,

and don't know what to do.

Divided by decisions, burned by the fire.

Confused by your words.

Tempted by desire.

I'm living in the present.

My mind is on the past.

Not knowing what I'll lose.

Not knowing what will last.

linded by fear.

Drowning in doubt.

Struggling to be free.

Looking for a way out

Ajay Vyas

I Was Hurted

My love for you was plain to see
It was written all over me

A love so strong
Could not be wrong

It should last an eternity
Now it's just a memory

I've asked you why a thousand times
But lies filled your every line

Money took you away from me
Happiness you'll never see

My heart was filled with so much love
I tried to bring you back to me

Good-by was all you said to me

Of life's woes that is the one
That tore my heart and drained my soul

When the one you love will not stay
All you'll do is cry each day

Your mind is lost
There are no thoughts

The joys of life that move your heart
Are gone right at the start

Now pain was there for all to see Even my friends abandoned me

The pain continues to this day
When will it go away?

Words were spoken to touch your heart
But boots and vacations closed that part

Lies and deceit right from the start Cruelty came from your heart

Lies are what you said me
They hurt both you and me

Love like mine you will not find It's gotten stronger over time

You know you're wrong in what you do Does life have any meaning to you?

Hurt is what you gave to me
For you we'll have to wait and see

Ajay Vyas

I Will Try

Like the sun shining through a window in early morn, That's what your friendship means to me.
Your caring concern and the love that you show,
Not only for me but for others as well, the whole world I would tell,
What your friendship love means to me.
But the words do not come, they are caught deep inside
Of this person I am, who would much rather hide Than face this world in which we live,
A world that cannot give of itself,
A world that has died.
I wish that I could spout words in verse or in prose
About what your friendship, as everyone knows,
Means to me.
It's so hard to be open when one's always been closed,
But I'll try just for you
Since the feelings I have run as deep as the sea.
Yes, I'll try very hard, be patient with me.

Ajay Vyas

I Wish

i wish i was you lip gloss, every day your lips i touch, always with you in your purse, i would see your face so much,

i wish i was your eye liner, in your eyes i would be,
finally theres a moment,
where all you see is me,

i wish i was your pants, actually your belt on your waist, wrapped tightly around you,
as we went place to place,

i wish i was your sweater,
a turtle neck preferably,
i could smell your scent,
and kiss your neck indefinitely,

i wish i was your mirror,
id be the first to see your face, every morning you woke up, only us in a confined space,

i wish i was yours,
i wish with all my might,
just for one more time,
which we could spend a night..

Ajay Vyas

In Ur Arm Tonight

My heart beats for just you my love hear it calling to you in the night to fill your heart with pure delight a sweet song of joy sent from above.

Let me take you in my arms tonight hold you close and dance so slow we move together in the candlelight
I whisper words of love to let you know.

You mean more than the world to me This is what we've been waiting for a time of healing love and joy so sweet a place where we can be as complete.

Let me hold you into my arms tonight press you close and dance so slow we move together in the pale moonlight
I belong with you love I'll never let you go

Ajay Vyas

Its 3: 00 A.M

I stare at the skyline
Spread ahead, then disappearing
Lights blinking in and out
Writing stories in the sky
And telling tales I can't hear
And I think of the ripples of water
In the inky sea, too dark for me
To see anything but wavering
Reflections in; distorted stories
And trembling tales I'll never know
And all I can think of is the fact That I'm thankful for the skyline
And the lights
And the stories
And all I don't know
Because if it was only the sea
Stretching without a break
In front of me, I'd think of things Like forevers and promises and You. I'd think of things I can't have
And I'd think of words that mean Everything, and nothing
And I'd be a wreck because all I Know is that infinities scare me.

Ajay Vyas

Its Over Now

I used to love so much before she's the one that i adore but the ending, is not what I've been expected for knock! Knock! on the door my heart won't open anymore.

I've groans and moans after all these years I've to runaway from all those fears hide my face away from my tears its hurt so much to be this sincere i tried to cover up all my pain all i feel is much the same for this emptiness running through my vein cause me to live forever in vain

Ajay Vyas

Lost Love

My love for you is so passionate and true
I wish I could prove this to you
I will climb the highest mountain to touch the sky
And bring down that rainbow so high in the sky.
Oh if I could prove to you that my love is real I'd swim that river
oh so wide to prove That you are my joy and pride
And my love is so real.
But all these things are so impossible for me To do I can't climb a mountain oh so high and Bring down that rainbow from the sky, and no I Can't swim that river that is oh so wide.
But to Prove my love is true
I really want to be with you is say I love you and mean it with all my heart!

Ajay Vyas

Lost Soul

It doesn't matter how hard I try
I can reach down in my soul and wring out my mind
I can't seem to find the right words to use
I can't express anything anymore
My writing is shot
My creativity is a lie
My fountain of inspiration has run itself dry
And his memory does more harm than good
One day I'm fine
The next day I wish for things that can't be real His heart is hollow right now
And my mind is drawing a blank
Together we could revive one another
But there are too many things between us right now
And late night walks don't do anything for me anymore

Love

Being with u is what i need...

Feeling ur love again is the spirit of my heart...

hearing u telling that u love is is the best thing in my life...

all this while im hoping that u will still love me..

No one can ever break us..not even God..

but truly..God is great..

i believe in faith..

that's why God sent us back together..

I believe in u..

i trust u.. i love u..

truly..madly and deeply..

my love is only for u..

there's no one else...

I'm bringing only u in my heart..

day by day...

listening to our song..

makes me feel so good...

wishing u were with me..

all this while...

holding me and never letting me of your sight anymore

all i wants to say is.

Love The Way U R

When did my feelings get so deep

Why did they take that big long leap

Going from friend to crush

What a rush

And I don't think she knows

Since when did her smile make me go weak

Since when did her tears make mine start to leak

Why does this happen when I'm always so strong

When people called me Superman I guess they were wrong

And I don't think she knows

When she talks I cant help but watch her lips

To notice their shape and curves when they dip

Wait, why am I looking? I don't even know

And I cant help but wonder if she even knows

Her beautiful eyes are nothing like ours

They're so deep and bright you'd believe they were stars

They pour forth emotions in raging rivers

They could make even me believe that Santa always delivers

And still she has no idea

Her body is perfection though she denies it

It makes my head spin with every glance I give

She could put any man under her spell

But she doesn't know how I feel and I don't think I'll tell

I love how she looks and who she is

And how she makes me feel like this

I love how she's beautiful and smart with a heart so strong

And how she lives every day like nothing could go wrong

Still she hasn't got a clue

Now school is at an end on the 11th at noon

I wonder if she cares that I'm moving soon

We're parting that day after schools many months

I just wish I could have kissed her just once

Now that I've said it with my poetic skill

I don't think she knew, and now she never will

M All Urs :)

I do not want to get drowned
in false desires.
I do not want to get muffled
in the net of attachments.
I have no home, no dreams,
I have no one to call my own except you.
I do not know how many times
I have come here,
how many lives
and deaths i have experienced, how many desires
and dreams, I acquired.
All have vanished in thin air.
I do not need money fame and acclaim.
There is no happiness now in this materialistic world.
Drown me, O God! in your love.
If i cannot be saved from the cycle of life and death.
let me be in love with you,
O God! in every birth I take.

Ajay Vyas

Memories

They are just like dried leaves falling from the strong branches like tears from my eyes lying on the ground scattered all around waiting to be thrown oh! they are overgrown they run with the breeze and the storm when burnt, gives the warmth they are supposed to fall like the leaf of that tree, so tall because with every fallen leave comes a new one with every bad fallen memory we have something more to learn they are washed away with the rain like tears wash
the memorable pain.....

Ajay Vyas

My Beloved

All my desires have combined and have merged into one wish to hold you close to me.
All my tears have gathered and turned into a stream to wash your feet, my beloved.
I am in total silence as my tongue will sing only your songs, my love.
I am awake whole night,
not blinking
fearing I might doze off.
You may come
at dawn or midnight.
I am all attention for your light steps which might get lost in the sound of the breeze.
Ticking of the clock tells me, time is passing.
Chirping of birds
gives the signal of dawn.
I am not disappointed,
I know you will come
one day.
If you so wish,
I will wait for you till eternity.

Ajay Vyas

My First True Love

When we first were truly acquainted,
I nearly fainted.
You were everything I was looking for,
and even more.

A couple months later you asked me out,
I gratefully accepted without a doubt.
Now you mean the world to me,
I know we are meant to be.

I think about you day and night,
Never wanting you to leave my sight.
The first time we kissed...
Oh what wonderful bliss!

I love you more than I can ever express,
Your my first love that I confess.
I will always remember the way we held hands,
The way you never gave me any demands.

Your an angel that God sent to me,
If only we could forever be.
I don't ever want our relationship to be through.
Hopefully we never have to say a final 'I love you'

Ajay Vyas

My Love For U Is Not A One Night Stand

There are many thoughts and fantasies
Wandering in my head.
While I dream about you,
And when I am asleep in my bed,
I wish many things.
I wish with no fear
That right here beside me
You would be here.

I wish you could tell me
In person every day
Just how much you love me.
And never would we say
To go our separate ways.
It would just break my heart
To have to know
That we were apart.

A dream can go Where a wish cannot.
A dream can bring true
What a wish never thought.
When I dream about you
You're holding my hand.
My feelings for you;
These I had never planned.

Gazing at the stars
On a dark, cold night,
We utter sweet words
Under the pale moonlight.
If you were here beside me,
I could look at you.
It would all come together;
That you are my dream come true.

I am smiling as I realize That although we are apart,
It is only in body;

Never in heart.
I hate not having you here,
But I know that some day,
Fate will bring us together
And never push you away.

If I could only see your face,
If I could only feel your touch,
I'd tell you how much I love you.
Is that asking for too much?
I have been thinking about you all day.
I do that often it seems.
But I just can; t help it
When youre in all of my dreams.

Meeting you was fate,
It was a choice becoming your friend.
This relationship between us
I hope will never end.
But when it comes to falling in love,
That was beyond my control.
There is no way to stop these feelings I have Deep inside my soul.

Will you promise to always be here for me?
Always be by my side?
I couldn't explain how much I love you
No matter how long I tried.
Even though I have met you
Just a few weeks before,
I have learned so much about you
And want to learn more.

At night I close my eyes,
And in my dreams all I see is you.
My only regret is that These dreams have not yet come true.
I want you to be near me,
but you're so far away.
I hope you feel me in your heart, as you travel your path today.

The Hard Feeling

It hurts my heart
How you could so easily walk out on me
After all those promises you made Every word of love you professed to me

It pains as hell to be the one Left standing in the middle of where I dont really know
When you can just walk away without even turning around once Looking rather happy if I say so

And here I am stuck in that last moment we shared Playing again and again in my mind like a broken record Theres silence everywhere around me
But inside my head its banging like an off beat guitar chord

And I look around desperate to find an exit Anything to drive me away from these memories
I keep on running yet I keep coming back to the same point Seems like a freaking maze of trees...

And here I am nearly at the point of giving up on it all Yet there is this hope inside me..that you wont let me fall when anyone asks me,

I am not afraid to die is what I say What I am really afraid of is... your face wont be the last thing I see, before I finally close my eyes and go far..far away..

Ajay Vyas

U Left Me Alone

You left me alone, I didn't cry,

I didn't call you didn't try.

Out of all the things I chose you,

I said I love you I really do.

But now that you are with her,

I don't know why I really care.

I tried to get over you,

But I realized that my love is true.

I did all I could to forget,

But I couldn't do it you bet.

I waited for you on cold nights,

And watched over you from great heights.

Now that you have forgotten me,

I always stand under the tree.

Waiting for you to hold me tight,

And then I see you with her at night.

Finally you start coming to the tree, just to say, you never loved me.

Ajay Vyas

What I Feel For U

I feel like I have known you before I feel like we have already Walked through this door
I feel like I knew you
In a past life
Maybe we were lovers
Maybe you was my wife
I feel like we have
This strange connection
I feel like we have lived before
Is this a love resurrection
I run my fingers through your hair
And sparks fill up the air
I never laid my eyes on you before
But somehow I still care

Ajay Vyas

When I Hear Your Name All I Feel Is Pain

I feel my body shaking

I can tell my heart is breaking

I wish there was a way

That away from you i could stay

Everyone sees my pain

It hangs around my neck like a chain

I wish you could see

What i hide inside me

Im afraid if i let it out

My anger and sorrow would thrash about

I wish i didnt have to hide the pain i feel inside.

I've waited for you before but i cant do that anymore

You made me wait to long and now I'm long gone

I've found a new friend

Who will stay by my side till the end

And this loneliness

Doesnt treat me like a disposable toy

I hope for your sake

You see you made a mistake.

Ajay Vyas

Y? ? ? ?

Why, when I wake up in the morning the first person comes to my mind is she,

Why, while when I m eating I think of her,

Why, when I m sad I think of her,

Why, when I m happy I think of her,

Why, when I smile I think of her,

Why, when I get scholded by my parents I think of her,

Why, when I study I think of her,

Why, when I get better I think of her,

Why, when I see any girl I think of her,

Why, when I see a girl I only compare the girl with her,

Why, I m not feeling good and only thinking of her,

Why, a tear came out of my eyes when I see her picture,

Why, her smile makes me so crazy,

Why, when I m with her everything like stop for me,

Why, while she comes to see off me at the railway station, I see her till she disappear from my eyes,

Why, when she sits besides me, I feel it's the wonderful feeling of the world,

Why, when I look into her eyes, they captures me in them, and I don't want to get out from there,

Why, I would like to spend my life in a prison, if she is the jailor,

Why, I forget everyone when I m with her,

Why, when she talks to me I hardly listen her and only looking at her,

Why, I obey to everything, what she says,

Why, on my mobile phone I had her pic on the wallpaper,

Why, when I send a message, she is the first one to receive it,

Why, when I m alone I think of her,

Why, when I think of her something happens in my body,

Why, I miss her so much,

Why, I want to be with her badly,

Why, I always want her to keep smiling,

Why, I can see tears on her eyes,

Why, before going to sleep I pray to god to keep her healthy, and away from any kind of problem that can harm her, and she get success wherever she goes.

WHY, she is the first and last person, i think of when i wake up and go to bed.

WHY..... WHY.....WHY.....

Your Eyes

I love your eyes, those twinkling eyes,
They speak of a thousand things.
It glows and I drown in its intensity,
I would love to stay there forever.
It evokes myriad memories,
And leaves an imprint on me.
I consider myself lucky enough,
To have experienced its warmth.
When cupid's arrow strikes,
The world seems apparelled in celestial light,
Like the glory and freshness of your eyes.
Just like the morning dew,
Exotic and beautiful.
Every time I look into your eyes,
I'm lost in innumerable memories,
Thus forgetting the world behind me.
I wouldn't expect anything much,
Than just being the Apple of your eye!
