I have been writing poems for 5 years now and it has been my passion for it ever since. I also love to sing and i am 5'2 strawberry blond red hair with blonde highlights and i have brown eyes.

All I Ask

all i ask is to be free from this gilded cage all i ask is to leave and never look back all i ask in this world is to be no more rage all i ask is to not let me to go into harms way all i could ask is to let me be invisible like i never exist to people all i ask is for people to forget me all i ask is to be like other people and to be equal all i could ask is to then again to have people see how much suffering, pain and sorrow im in and to put me out of my misery all i ask is to let me be myself and not who you want me to be all i ask is not to do that because its just another prison inside of me all i ask is to let me be able to breath all i could ever ask is to let me be free

As I Look Back

As I look back on my life
I find myself wondering...
Did I remember to thank you for all that you have done for me?
For all of the times you were by my side to help me celebrate my successes and accept my defeats?
Or for teaching me the value of hard work, good judgement, courage, and honesty?
I wonder if I've ever thanked you for the simple things...
The laughter, smiles, and quiet times we've shared?
If I have forgotten to express my gratitude For any of these things, I am thanking you now... and I am hoping that you've known all along, how very much you are loved and appreciated.

Broken Mirror

A heart is like a broken mirror It's better to leave it broken than to hurt yourself trying to pick up the broken pieces.

Cruel World

cruel world here cruel world there where ever you go there will be a cruel world so be aware.

Darkness

There's nothing but darkness all around there's nothing you can do because its earth bound All over the world you can't even hear a sound that is because the darkness on the earth still surrounds you start to feel all alone because there's no one around but you when people kept telling you the darkness is here all you did was laugh, but now you look back and see that it came true theres nothing you can do, except have fear.

Do You Remember?

Do you remember when you said you loved me?
Do you remember telling me you cared?
Do you remember saying,
You will always be there?

I loved you with all I had With everything I owned,
I just want to hear you I want to pick up the phone.

But then I think, why?
Why am I calling you?
Is it possibly because I have nothing better to do?

You said I was the best you ever had,
Do you still think the same?
Will you please bring me back,
Into this game?

I loved you, and I still do,
But I must try to let go.
Try not to think of All my old hopes.

Falling Apart

I'm falling apart, yes i know Why wont anyone help me Now i don't know, i was already told Now i cannot get free, from this misery

I dont want to do this anymore It's driving me insane
It seems like im falling farther Im in so much pain

I can't stand it anymore
I want to runaway
I never wanted to do this before I feel like im somewheres far away

Im losing everything Theres nothing i can do to stop it Im willing to do anything
All i want it to do is quit

I am screaming with all my might and noone even bothers to look up I feel so trapped and with no way out All i want to do is to be kept shut

Feel

Living your life in pain the world full of suffering theres nothing you can gain feeling like someone hovering

You dont want to live anymore feeling like noone cares wanting to walk out that door and all you feel is scared

Feels like living a life that isnt yours, acting like nothings wrong deep inside you there is sadness feeling like the days' are lasting to long and the world has turned to madness

Feel like being stabbed a thousand times feel like theres nothing but pain feel like our running out of time feel like nothing will ever be the same

God

God is our almighty father above Hes the creater of all things we share everything with him even our love and on sunday we rejoice god and we sing

Even though you feel like your lost, god will lead you to the right path no matter what god will always love you God is powerful and has alot of wrath when you hear bad thing about god doesnt mean that there true

So all you have to do is to get on your hand and knees and pray and let god into you heart right or wrong god will always love you.

Heart Broken

You wind up breaking my heart and i don't know why I can't trust anyone else because of you I look up at the sky and hope this wish will never die
When you said you loved me, I always thought it was true

Because of you I never dated again You brought me down and i will never forgive you for that I try to start over but i don't know where to begin You used to make me happy but now you made me sad

So I decided to quit and ive been happily single ever since.....

Hurting

</>My head hurts because of these headaches
I keep turning back and forth because of the stomachache
There is pain going through my body Even in my heart is hurting and all they can say is sorry

It seems that noone can help me which they really can't The hurting keeps on getting worse
All I did was sank I keep thinking that I am cursed

I thought I found someone which i really didn't All he does is beat me and treat me bad Then im in the corner sitting I begin to cry because im always sad

I feel like i want to die
All I ever do is sigh I always keep getting hurt and all I ever do is wonder why

Little Do You Know

Little do you know what I'm feeling inside Little do you know I'm trying to figure what's going on with me Little do you know I'm trying to bide me some time Little do you know I just need a key to unlock this mystery

Little do you know that all of this is just a lie Little do you know I'm going crazy in my mind Little do you know I just want to tell it all goodbye Little do you know that nobody is even on my side

Little do you know I just want somebody to come and save me Little do you know that I know nobody is to come Little do you know that for me there is nothing but misery Little do you know that all of this pain is making me numb

But little do you know that in the end I will escape from all this misery inside of me

Live

Going through the years,
Full of joy and tears.

Growing up sometimes in fear, Wondering if anyone can hear.

Dealing with the pain,
Trying to stay sane.

Wondering if I'll ever be the same, Feeling I have myself to blame,

Let go of the past,
Because life is too short, make it last and make it a blast.

Missing You

I hide my tears when i say your name but the pain in my heart is still he same although i smile and seem care free there is no one who misses you more than me

My Dad Who Died When I Was 12 Years Old: (

Daddy

We shared a friendship, a bond a relationship so strong!

I'd never thought this day would come seeing you like this today.

Its so hard to accept the fact your gone forever.

Daddy promise me you will return someday.

I want to know you will be with me following me ever step of the way.

Daddy look over me and let me know your there! !

You carried you shared you loved you cared

COME BACK DADDY I forgot to say goodbye: '(

Now tears prickle down my face as I reach the end of this poem as this tells a story that will never grow old.

It's the story of a truly remarkable man Frankie Edward Jones treasure your family because they wont be there someday.

Daddy hold on it won't be long.

R.I.P Daddy

My Love

You are my flower you are my sun you give me power and you are my fun

I am nothing without you so please don't leave you know i love you and i know you love me

You are my only one and you should know that you know i am not dumb and you know i am not your doormat

Love me like i would love you because you know i am your one and only boo.

No Existence

feel like i can't breath feel like i am suffering people cant even see whats going on inside of me feel like im trapped theres no way out feel like something inside of me just snapped people talk about thing they dont even know about

Not seeing the world like i did before everything has changed since then everything seems to be rotting to the core the earth and people are full of sins the world seems like its going to hell lately feel like i cant do this anymore feel like im on the edge very slightly feel like im not here as i was before

Peace At Sea

there is peace at sea you can relax without hearing a plea where the wind blows across your face and where the sun gleams down from outer space your boat rocks you back and forth and it rocks you to sleep and all you hear is the sound of the sea alicia page

People At Sea

There are people at sea Feeling the gentle breeze Where the sun shines down
And they are tightly bound

They row all day and they sleep all night on sunday they pray And thats when they are spotted For that they are out of sight

People Do Not

We seem were paying attention though we are really not some people think they know what petition means though they do not

People say they love you though they do not people say they care about you but they really don't

So don't believe everything you hear usually its not true so be aware and trust whats inside of you.

Precious Mother

Mom You've given me so much, Love from your heart and the warmth of your touch.
The gift of life and you're a friend to me.
We have a very Special Bond which only comes from God...
I'm sure you agree.
As a child I would say Mommy I Love You, Now you're my Mother so dear I love you even more with each and every new year.
If I could had chosen,
I would have picked no other.
Than for you...to be my lifelong friend and Precious Mother.

R.I.P (Rest In Peace)

A light from our family is gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in the home Which never can be filled

We have to mourn the lost of one We would've loved to keep But God who surely loved him best Has finally made him sleep After a lifetime of his love and joy
And music to fill our ears God leaves us with these wondrous memories To help us with these tears and fill peace, love, and joy in the air.

Right Across The River Bend

Right across the river bend there's a warm gentle breeze.
Right across the river-bend are trees with yellow leaves.
Right across the river bend the water reflects the sun.
Right across the river bend is a smell of innocence.

Right across the river bend a robin's egg is broken.
Right across the river-bend are peaceful mountain valleys.
Right across the river bend a dandelion is carried.
Right across the river bend are fields of shiny green grass.

Right across the riverbend are memories made to last.

Surrender

You want to surrender everything at once But you really never knew how All you feel is that your prone You don't even know how to deal with it now

Your going out of your mind
You really don't know what to do Your running out of time All you want to do is become someone new

Today Is The Day

Today is the day
that we all give joy and thanks
today is the day
that we all love one another

Today is the day
that we all celebrate together

Today is the day
that we spread peace and joy in the air
today is the day
that we make life seem fair

Will There Ever Be An Escape For Me

Will there ever be an escape from this hell

Will there ever be an escape from this emptiness of a shell inside of me

Will there ever be somebody to come and rescue me from this misery

Will there ever be someone to see that I'm suffering

Will there ever be someone to rescue me from what seems like a heartbreaking reality

Will there every be someone to hear my plea

Will there ever be someone to see that I am breaking

Will there every be someone to see that this world is just a fantasy

So tell me this will someone ever open their eyes and realize that there is never a way to break all these terrible ties as well a this suffering inside of me

Wonder

You look back and wonder what went wrong Then you remember and try to act strong

You realized you lost someone you loved Then you realize their in a better place above

When everthing is starting to fall apart
All you would want to do is depart

When things start to get better You never want to go back there again ever.
