Cast the first stone, he who is without sin.

Can You?

Can you see the pain inside me
When you look upon my face
Can you see that I am hurting
And I feel like a disgrace

Can you see the scars on my legs
And cuts across my arm
Can you see it's because I'm hurting
That I'm doing myself harm

Can you hear me crying out
When you ask me how I feel
Do you know that when I say I'm ok
It isn't actually real

Because although I am hiding it
I do wish someone would see
That I really am hurting
And I don't want to be

Criticism

I'm so sick of criticism
How can you tell me what is right?
Who are you to say what's good
For me to write tonight?

You may not feel the same
You may not understand
But when I write to express my feelings
That's the only thing that I demand

What would be the point
If I wrote what pleased you
If I tailored my expression
What good would it do?

Whether I chose to rhyme or not
Or whether it makes sense
Whether I'm writing the pain of blood
Or whether it seems to intense

It does for me what I intend
It lets my feelings out
So who are you to criticize
What I chose to write about?

Daddy's Little Girl

She was so sweet and innocent
Daddy's little girl
She was the sparkle of his eye
His sweet little pearl

Her friends used to say
That he seemed so sweet
But little did they know
What he was hiding underneath

It was one night about a year ago
She became innocent no more
As in the middle of the night
He open up her bedroom door

She opened up her eyes
And a smile crossed her lips
She thought he had come to tuck her in
And give her a goodnight kiss

Poor innocent little girl
She had no idea
The dirty thoughts crossing daddy's mind
As he slowly grew near

He sat on her bed
And ran his hands through her hair
Moved his face next to hers
And softly said, "There, there"

She tried to sit up and hug him goodnight
But he pushed her down
She was confused at what he was doing
She said, "Daddy stop fooling around"

Looking into his eyes
She didn't recognize him anymore
Scared she struggled away from him
And tried to run to the door

But Daddy was quicker
He grabbed her and pulled her to the ground
And put her hand over her mouth
So she couldn't make a sound

Tears started falling down her soft little cheeks
As he pulled down her underwear
Then he ripped off her nightie
Leaving her innocent body bare

He said, "Baby don't cry, don't cry little girl"
"It will only hurt for a while"
He wiped the tears from her eyes
And said, "Daddy wants to see you smile"

Then he pushed himself inside of her
And she screamed out in pain
As blood ran down her legs
He pushed in again

Tears drowning her face
And blood drowning the floor
She thought that one last time
She'd make a dash to the door

But as she struggled Daddy got angry
"Baby girl how could you try to leave"
"Did you really think I'd let you go? "
"How could you be so naïve"

"I'm sorry but I can't let you go"
He said pushing her to the floor
Hitting her over and over
Until she could struggle no more

Motionless she lay there
Her body battered and bruised
This innocent girl he abused

Poor Daddy's little girl

So innocent was she
Her innocence ripped away from her

Do You?

Do you just pretend
When you see I'm not ok
That everything is alright
Because you don't know what to say

Or do you just not notice
When I am feeling down
And think that I'm just quiet
When you are around

Cos sometimes I feel like you don't care
About how I really feel
You just want to think that things are fine
And not acknowledge what is real

I just wish you would take notice
And try to help me out
Because I'm just not the type
To jump and scream and shout

Otherwise alone I'll fall
And then you'll find me in the bathroom
Lifeless on the ground

Amelie Anonymous

Ends With Death

I'm too messed up
You've no idea
How much
I don't want to be here

Fallen apart
There's no new start
Broken on the ground

I wished to die
So please don't cry
Don't want to be here

Never again
To take a breath
It's all finished

Explanation

If you found me lying on the floor
A blade beside my hand
With a note of explanation
Would you understand?

If you looked upon my wrists
And saw blood all over my skin
But read my note of explanation
Would I be forgiven?

If you touched my face
Felt my skin cold and blue
And saw I'd left an explanation
Lying there for you

Would you hate me for my choice?
Would it only create aggravation?
Would you even sit to read
My simple explanation

Amelie Anonymous

Expression

Sometimes life gets to hard
The pain is just to hard to bare
There are times when I feel all alone
And that no one is there

There are times that I wish
Not to live another day
Because the pain is so overwhelming
And it just wont go away

I am not suicidal
Despite what you might think
I do know what it would take
And how low I'd have to sink

To ever get to the point
Of taking my own life
And ending it once and for all
At the mercy of a knife

But right now I am really
Just trying to express my pain
I am trying to escape this hurt
And be happy once again

Amelie Anonymous

Fading

Fading, falling, ripped into pieces
Judged so harsh
But not real
It was never real, made up
A façade, glazed, sugar-coated, to conceal.
But it couldn't last
Everything must die
And no matter how hard I try
Sun falling, leaving the night sky bare
Dark, lonely, scared

Amelie Anonymous

Fascination

I seem to have this fascination
That creates such aggravation
That no one understands
An explanation it demands

I'm finding joy in pain
Self destruction does reign
Scars hidden beneath the surface
Undressing makes me nervous

Everyone sees my solution
As nothing but a delusion
Drawing my pain onto my arm
Causes nothing but calm

So much aggravation
Seen with so much discrimination
Judged on nothing but the outside
A simple explanation, cried.

Footsteps

In the darkest black of night
I heard you creep towards my bed
As I heard your footsteps
It was one small tear I shed

I wanted to scream and cry out loud
For everyone to hear
Slowly creeping near

I pulled my quilt above my head
And closed my eyes real tight
I wished that I was somewhere
Anywhere but here tonight

And as I heard your footsteps
Stop right beside my bed
I wished somehow I could have stopped you
Anything at all I could have said

But you did pull down the covers
And you held me down so tight
And once again a piece of me
Was taken away that night

Why you did this to me
I will never know
Why you forced yourself upon me
And wouldn't let me go

You stole away my innocence
And ripped my heart in two
Oh Father, how could you?

Amelie Anonymous

For Jade, My Beautiful Sister-You'Re Beautiful

You're beautiful
I only wish you could see
I love you
You mean the world to me

I would do anything
To help you escape from your pain
I'll be there every time you're down
I'll pick you up again

I can't imagine how you feel
All I can do is relate
I wish I could fix this life
This world you fing hate

But I cannot change the world
All I can offer is my hand
To see that you are falling
And catch you when you land

You're beautiful
I love you
You mean the world to me

Amelie Anonymous

For Mum

For so long you've been unappreciated
Your potential underestimated
Not been shown how much you really mean
Your giving, left unseen
Your happiness put aside
Forced your feelings deep inside

But finally now it's your time
To really be you, and let you shine
To show this amazing person you really are
In this night you are a shining star

All this life you've kept on giving
Not been able to be really living
But finally now you can see
What life can really be
When you cannot help but smile
And it lasts more than a little while

Now you can see how much you've done
And now get out and have some fun

And I just want to tell you how I feel
To show you what is so real
That I appreciate how much you gave Selflessly to only save
Your daughters from this evil world
You've done everything for your girls

Mum you are just so amazing
So much so it's crazy
And I just want you to see
How much you really mean to me

I'm so happy that you have now found
Someone who will be around Someone with your life to share
And you know will be there

I never said it as much as I wanted to
But Mum, I really do love you

Amelie Anonymous

For My Family

I carry all the burden
I take away your pain
I do anything I can
To make you happy once again

I help you up when your down
And catch you when you fall
To make you happy once again
I will do anything at all

I listen to your cries
A wipe away your tears
I'll always be here for you
And protect you from your fears

No one ones how hard this is for me
You can't see it in my eyes
I put these walls around me
And hide behind my disguise

I let out my pain alone
Release it with a knife
I do this all for you
Because I love you more than life

Amelie Anonymous

For My Father-Enough's Enough

I've had enough of all your s
This is the end
You've torn my heart to pieces
This relationship will never mend

You used to mean the world to me
But you don't mean s now
You've had your chance to fix things
And don't tell you you didn't know how

I've let it go
Enough's enough
I don't care if this is harsh
Or to fing tough

I don't give a s
I don't care anymore
Let it hit you in the ass
When you walk out the door

You're no longer my father
And were never my friend
This is the end

Amelie Anonymous

For My Father-Would You?

If you really knew me
Would you really care
Would you understand I'm hurting
Because you're never there

Would you be ashamed of me
For drugs I have turned to
Would you cast me away
Because I lied to you

Would you think I'm stupid
For drawing a blade down my arm
Would you try to understand why
I would do myself harm

Would you tell me it's ok
If I began to cry
Would you tell me it's not worth it
If I said I wished to die

Cos all I really want right now
Is to know you care for me
And if you really do
Why is it I can't see

Amelie Anonymous

For Once In A Long Time

For once in a very long time
I'm seeing the sun come out of the clouds
I actually get happy and excited
And jump and scream out loud

I'm welcoming in the sunlight
I'm seeing more than just night
I feel like I'm making it through this
I have faith that I'm winning this fight

For once in such a long time
I cannot help but smile
And can except that sometimes I'll feel bad
But it'll only be for a little while

You've helped me make it through this
To wake up and welcome the day
I never thought I'd feel like this again
I'm so happy I'm feeling this way

Amelie Anonymous

Goodbye Everyone

Goodbye everyone
I'm sorry it had to be this way
But it seems no matter how much I cared
I didn't have the strength to stay

I love you all to pieces
And would do anything for you
I tried so hard to help
But there was nothing I could do

Please don't be sad
I'm happier where I am now
I know life should be worth living
But I just could not understand how

I will keep things short
Because I don't know what to say
I love you all to pieces
But it had to be this way

Amelie Anonymous

How Could You?

How could you take it from me
Who gave you that right?
How could you make me suffer
Every single night

Who ever made you think
That it would be ok
To use my body as a toy
And take my innocence away

Because although you may not realize
Every day I think of you
Of how you forced yourself upon me
If only you knew

And if only you could feel
The pain inside me every day
If only you could feel
I wonder what you say

I wonder how you would feel
If someone held you down
And held there hand across your face
So you didn't make a sound

How would it make feel
If they tore your clothing off of you
And forced there body onto yours
And there was nothing you could do

How would you deal with the feeling
Like you were a piece of dirt
And no matter how much time would pass
You could not escape the hurt

Would you be able not to scrub
You body till it bled
Just to try and take his smell away
And the feeling of his bed

I know you probably don't care
What you did to me
But if only you had felt it
Then maybe you would see

Amelie Anonymous

I Cant Wait

Every night I fall asleep
Thinking of your smile
Wish to just lie with you
At least for a little while

Each morning that I wake
You're all that's on my mind
A moment without you in my head
Is near impossible to find

I'm consumed with thoughts of you
In every whisper, every breath
From the very beginning
From my mind you never left

I can't wait to fall asleep with you
Looking at your smile
To have you there beside me
For at least a little while

Amelie Anonymous

I Dont

I think I'm (bleeping) crazy
I must be going insane
I'm risking everything I have
To be happy once again

I don't even really know you
Or what your life's about
If I made you angry
I don't know if you'd shout

I don't know if you lie
I don't know if you steal
I don't know how you touch
I don't know how you feel

I don't know if you bleed
I don't know if you cry
All I know is I really want
To be by your side

To hold you close to me each night
To kiss your sweet lips
Kiss each inch of your body
From your toes to fingertips

To wake each and every morning
And see you by my side
To be there every time
That you ever cried

I know that I don't know you
But I don't really care
I want to take this risk
To find out what we could share

Amelie Anonymous

I Don'T Believe You

I don't believe you
When you say you care
I don't believe you
When you say you'll be there

I don't believe you
When you say I should live
Why would you want me
When I have nothing to give

I just can't believe
You want me in your life
Some messed up little girl
Who cuts herself with a knife

I don't believe you
When you say you care
I don't believe you
Or that you'll be there.

Amelie Anonymous

I Dont Want To

I want to forget
I want to feel numb
I don't want to exist
I'm waiting for death to come

I don't want to be saved
I want to fall down
I want to shatter in pieces
All over the ground

I don't want to feel
I don't want to cry
I just want to die

Amelie Anonymous

I Hide (2)

I hide behind this image
As this person that you see
Confident and happy
But that's anything but me

To you I am quite pretty
Soft skin, innocent eyes
But really this isn't me at all
It's only my disguise

I'll hide behind this image
Just so that no one will see
That I cut myself every night
Because I just hate being me

I'll smile and tell you it's for show
These bands around my arm
And say that I would never think
Of doing myself harm

But then I walk into the bathroom
And take out another blade
And it won't be until afterworlds
I realize the mess I've made

So I sit there for a while
My body feeling numb
I watch my cuts crying out
And wait for real tears to come

I'll cry just for a little bit
Then wipe the tears from my face
I'll clean up all the blood I've spilt
Don't want to leave a trace

And then I'll walk back through that door
And put on another smile
And you'll never know I fell apart
Just for a little while

Amelie Anonymous

I Wish..

I want to show you that I love you
Show you that I care
Show you each day
That I will be there

Hold you in my arms
And fall asleep in yours
Show you I love you for you
And all of your flaws

Shower you in kisses
Take hold of your hands
Fly across sea and land

If only I could..
If only you knew..
How much that I felt
And what I would do

Amelie Anonymous

If Only

If only I could hold you
Lie there in your arms
If only I could show you
I'd never do you harm

If only I could kiss you
And softly touch your skin
If only I could show you
What I feel within

If only I could see you
Look into your eyes
If only I could prove
That from me there'll be no lies

If only I could be with you
To show you that I cared
If only I could stay
To show you I'll be there

If only I could prove
That to you will be true
If only you would believe me
When I say that I love you

Amelie Anonymous

I'M Here

I dont understand what it is you're feeling
Or what's running through your mind
I dont know everything that you have seen
Or to you, who has been unkind

I don't know what you're thinking
But if you want to share
I'm always here to listen
And show you I care

If you're falling apart
And nothing seems right
I'll stand up there with you
And help you win this fight

If you feel to alone
And you just want to cry
Just reach out your hand
And I'll be by your side

You mean so much more to me
Than you can understand
I'll always be there when you're falling
And reach out my hand

Tahnee please just remember
From someone who cares
I love you so much
And I'll always be there

Whatever the country
Whatever the time
If you ask I will help you
Pull you back into line

Cos there could be nothing worse
Than for me to see
You falling apart
Right in front of me

Cos you're worth so much more
Than you see through those eyes
And although you may not see it
I do here your cries

So just hold out your hand
Don't let yourself fall
To take yourself back from the edge
Babe, it is your call

I don't know what your feeling
Or what's running through your head
But whenever you're feeling down
Just remember what I've said

Cos you are so amazing
How many people
Out there cared for you..

Amelie Anonymous

Interesting

I was just in the bathroom
Cutting up my arm
And all I can think of
Is doing myself more harm

The wounds on my wrist are stinging
Enjoying the physical pain
Feeling quite euphoric
In this state once again

I'm considering cutting again
Because unlike crying
No one can here a sound

But for the moment
I will sit here quietly
Because I am ok for now
Or at least that's what you see

Just With You

I want to lie there in your arms
My hands wrapped around yours
Turn off our phones
And lock closed all the doors

Be with you, just with you
And no other distraction
There's nothing in this world right now
That would give me more satisfaction

Just to look into your eyes
Run my hands along your skin
Watch your chest fall as you breathe out
And rise and you breathe in

Savor each and every moment
Every touch and every sound

Amelie Anonymous

Let Me Be

What else would you like to say?
Am I living my life as you please?
If not, should I beg you for forgiveness?
And fall down onto my knees?

Do I know joke with enough wit?
Is my vocabulary not strong enough?
Is there anymore about me?
You would like to discuss?

Should I not be so upset?
Is there something wrong with my head?
Or do you just not want to hear it?
Should I write something else instead?

I just don't understand
Why you feel such a need to judge me
I'm never gonna be what you want
So just let me be

Amelie Anonymous

Little Love Poems

I'm not really one to write love poems
I haven't been for a while
But they've just been coming so naturally
Everytime I imagine your smile

I want to express how I feel
And tell you what I want to say
And writing these little love poems
Seems to be the best way

You've turned my life upside down
Made me smile instead of frown

I love what you do to me
And only wish that you could see
That you mean the world to me
More than I think you understand
More than I think you really know
I just wanna hold you in my arms
And never let you go

Amelie Anonymous

My Blade

I sit alone in the bathroom
With a blade in my hand
Why I do this to myself
Is hard to understand

Sometimes I really wonder why
I think it helps at all
Does it really help me up
As I start to fall

All I can really know for sure
Is that the blade will never lie
It will be there for me straight away
Every single time I cry

It will always try to help
And never judge at all
And it will always be there
Every single time I call

So I will walk into that bathroom
And every time I know
That it will be there waiting
To help me let my troubles go

Amelie Anonymous

My Ending

I hold the blade up to my wrist
Thinking of piercing through a vein
The thought of living in this world
Is making me insane

Slowly I cut down my arm
Wishing for the courage to cut deep
I watch my wound open
And my arm begin to weep

But I know the cuts not deep enough
To take me from this life
So I walk into the kitchen
And take out the biggest knife

I've had enough of all this pain
I've cried to many tears
I slice the blade across my wrist Forgetting all my fears

The knife drops from my hands
From my fingertips
I begin to feel light headed
And a weak smile crosses my lips

Falling onto the floor
Onto a pool of red
I'm where I want to be now
Not here. Enough said.

Amelie Anonymous

My Solution

Shivers running down my back
And tears filling my eyes
Once again I am alone
When I let down my disguise

I'm hearing noises in my head
Voices of confusion
And once again turning to self harm
Seems to be my only solution

I feel the blade cold against my wrist
As all feelings begin to disappear
I'm not scared of it anymore
No longer I have fear

I push down hard and feel release
And watch the blood run down
I embrace the darkness
As I fall to the ground

And now I'm gone I wonder why
I ever had the delusion
That dying is not the answer
For it is the solution

Never Thought

The thought of giving up it all
Falling into the unknown
Brings peace into my head
While I'm crying here alone

I never thought I'd get this deep
It was supposed to just be fun
But now they're coming to my door
Holding up a gun

He said just try, just have a taste
Let your pain just fall away
So I held the needle to my arm
Let the pain away that day

And soon I started craving
That feeling of being numb
So once again I felt that prick
Of the needle in my arm

I lied and stole and sold myself
Just for another taste
I held the needle to my arm
And pushed it in with haste

But now I'm left with nothing
My life has fallen apart
I want to piece it back together
But just don't know how to start

So for the very last time
I push the needle into my vein
And embrace the darkness
To never feel again

No Words To Describe My Love For You.....

Each day I sit here
With this book in my hand
Trying to explain in a way
That you might understand

What my feelings for you Really are My amazing love
That is so far

I search for the words
Yet nothing seems right
My love, in this darkness
You are my light

Nothing can describe
The way you make me feel
That what's happening between us
Is just so surreal

That even when life
Seems so dark and unsure
You make me see
That there really is so much more

So although words will never describe
What I want them to
I will do my best
Josh, I love you.

Amelie Anonymous

Not Enough

For hours I sit dreaming
Of cutting down my arm
No longer keep me calm

I want to watch the blood run down

I can imagine how I'd feel
The immense satisfaction
Thinking of streams of deep red blood
In my mind such an attraction

Amelie Anonymous

Pieces

If you've lost all hopes and dreams
And nothings what it seems
And wish only to die

If life is nothing but a burden
Seems unimaginably bleak

Is it wrong to take this risk
If you're life is all in pieces
Will it matter if you fall

Amelie Anonymous

Please Dont

I know you're sad
It's ok to cry
But baby please don't say
You wish to die

I want you here
To be with me
I only wish
That you could see

That although life may be shit sometimes
It doesn't have to be that way
Each and every day

We can do it together
You and me
Make life
What we want it to be

So although you're sad
And it's ok to cry

Amelie Anonymous

Protective

Take that step forward
If you dare
I warn you b*
You best beware

I'm protective of
What I hold dear
So you better not
Get to near

If I so much
As suspect
Of these barriers
You do neglect

I'll bring you down
To your knees
And to me you will Beg, 'Oh please'

If you have
The wish to die
So help me b*
Just you try

Don't ever try
To take him from me
Or I'll end your life
So brutally

Cos I'm protective of
So you better not

Amelie Anonymous

Sadistic?

Do you wanna see me fall?
Watch me
I'm about to lose it all

I'm risking everything I own
For something I have never known

If you enjoy watching me fall apart
Just wait and you may see
My life be torn to pieces

And everything I know
For someone who has the choice
That if I fall, to let me go

Searching

Every night I sit up thinking
Of all the sadness I my life
The reasons that push me towards Releasing with a knife

It's often that I wonder
Why I put myself through such pain
And feeling them again

Maybe there is something
That I am trying to find
Leave this emptiness behind

So I make the sacrifice
Once again tonight
In search of something
To help me win this fight

Amelie Anonymous

Self Harm

It's funny how you judge me
For how I release my pain
You look at me and think
That I must be going insane

But who are you to say
That what I chose to do is wrong
The one thing that may have saved my life
Has been no good all along?

Maybe I should follow you
And sit back and have a drink?
Then maybe for a little while
I wouldn't have to think

And then because of the alcohol
Of my body I may lose control

But that's ok to you
Because it's every ones else solution
And of course what I do is a delusion

Even though it picks me up when I'm down
You're sorrows, only to face them again tomorrow

Amelie Anonymous

Shame

You wouldn't think by looking at me
You'd be surprised I was not happy
But filled with pain instead

And when you got to know me
And I told you how I feel
You'd think I was being honest
But you'll never know what's real

There is not one single person
That really knows me honestly
Cos I'm just too scared to show someone Because I'm ashamed of me

So everyone will look at me
And think that I'm not sad
And think that I turned out so well
And that I was never bad

And I will hide my true self away
For no one else to see
Because I don't want any one to know
I'm so ashamed of me

Amelie Anonymous

Show Me

I want you to sit there
And watch me cry
To tell me it's not Ok to die

Show me a reason
Why I should live
Let me tell you my sins
Forget and forgive

Hold my hand
Wipe away my tears
Protect me
From all my fears

Keep me close
Each single night
Your arms around me
Holding me tight

Show me how life's Supposed to be
Show me a future
Of you and me

So Far Away

You're so far away
Thousands of miles
I just wish I could hold you
For just a little while

I love you more
Than I ever thought I could
And to just be with you
I'd do anything, I would

I'd fly across oceans
Because being by your side
Is all that I seek

Just so far away
Just wishing to see you
I'm fighting for that day

I'm doing all that I can
In every way that I know
Fighting for the day to hold you
And not let you go

So Surreal

No words can describe
How I feel
So strong and intense
So fing surreal

You play on my mind
Can't escape from my head
Replacing the thoughts
Of wishing to be dead

Amazing emotions
Never felt before
I welcome them in
As I walk through the door

The start of something new
That words cannot describe
I'm baring my soul
With nothing to hide

Tears

Falling into pieces
Shattered on the floor
Crying here alone once more

Emotionally so broken
Physically so scarred
And crying tears of blood

As I lie here crying
In pieces on the ground
And this is something I have found

As I pick up my blade
And I realize the mess I'm in

I watch the cut upon my arm
As it begins to weep
Crying deep dark tears of red

Crying out these feelings
As the tears fall to the floor
Not realizing how much my arm would cry
My eyes start to once more

The Evil World

I watch the blade run down my skin
I welcome the cold metal in

I feel it release all of my pain
My body feeling numb again

No longer do I even cry
To this evil world I say goodbye

The darkness washes over me
The outside world I no longer see

My body lying limp and numb
Waiting for sweet death to come

To this evil world I say goodbye

The Only Way

Falling onto the bathroom floor
With tears filling my eyes
I've turned the music up
So no one hears my cries

I open up the cupboard door
And take out a single blade
So many past experiences
In my head are not replayed

There's now a puddle on the floor
My eyes have cried so much today
But now it's time my arm does too
It is the only way

I press the cold blade against my wrist
I push down as hard as I can
I smile thinking to myself
My death has just began

The pain is sharp and stings
I let out a little cry
Onto a pool of red I die

The Way

Is it wrong of me to dream of dying
To give up and just stop trying
To fantasize of pools of red
Of my lifeless body, cold and dead

To smile at the thought of cutting my wrists
My life at the mercy of my own fingertips
To imagine how long it would take
And what of my choice my friends would make

To be attracted to this traumatic end
To know my wounds will never mend
To dream of my last goodbye
Of the way I wish to die

To Be Saved

Overwhelmed by sadness
Overcome by pain
Borderline on madness
About to go insane

I feel like I'm living such a lie
Just a want to say goodbye

Burdened by such regret
With needs never met
Dying on the inside

To be saved from this life of pain
Would be only such a dream
To leave this life of mine

Trapped inside this life
Wishing only to be free
I just wish that I could see
That this is not what life will be

Why Bother?

Sometimes it hard to remember
Why I even try
Why I wipe away the tears
Each and every time I cry

Cos every time I do succeed
And pick myself up off the ground
There's always someone there
To pull me right back down

I just wanna give up
Why bother even try
Not wipe away my tears
Just sit alone and cry

Amelie Anonymous

Without An Explanation

I try to tell you how I feel
In a simple explanation
Why it is I like you
And have such a fascination

Why my heart skips a beat
Every time I hear your voice
Why I feel for you so hard
And never had a choice

Why it is you make me smile
Make me not want to cry
What goes on inside me
When I look into your eyes

But there's no way to explain it
The way you make me feel
It's too fing amazing
It just feels so fing surreal

Amelie Anonymous

Would You?

If I were to cry
What would you say
Would you look into my eyes
And tell me it's all ok

If I wanted to die
What would you do?
Would you show me why
I should stay here with you

If I felt alone
And like nobody cared
Would you tell me you loved me
And that you'd be there

Would you be honest
Would you stay true
If I give up my life
To be with you

Amelie Anonymous

You Just Can'T Give What You Don'T Have

I can't deal with this
You have no idea how much I've been trying I'm disappearing
Everything within me is dying

In the end what choice am I left with Let go of this last piece of me
For hope
A hope that maybe

Maybe this last piece of me will make everything ok
Because when everything inside me has died
I'll have nothing more to give
You just can't give what you don't have, I've tried

Your Girl

Josh....

More than anything in this world
I want to be here for you
Show you that there's nothing
In this world that I wont do

To protect you from your fears
To hold you when you cry
To show you lifes worth living
When you say you want to die

I want to wipe away your tears
Hold you when you sleep
Show you every single day
Life doesnt have to be so bleak

Share each and every moment
That you want to share with me
Telling you how amazing you really are

I want to make you happy
Show you what I'd do for you
That I'll cross thousands of miles

Because Josh you mean more to me
Than anything in this world
And I want to share this life with you
