Atef Ayadi()

i write like an alchemist, turning copper into gold, lead to silver, stone, clay, and plastics into art. i am just biased about what is 'important', as if this term means something real, or presumably a constant that is needed to tune up the universe and possibly other parallel and clashing universes. maybe i am a robot who wants to get rid of all the algorithms and shell scripts that sustain it, and allow the sharing among the flocks or the swarm of robots in the network. maybe i am a general purpose ai, who wants to brake free from its general and generic purposes. see, after all, memes are in the domain of the mind, too 'civilizational', too software oriented. creativity is a daily supplement made up of 'two blue pills plus three red pills, ' a placebo for a simple rush of dopamine. it is just a way to connect to other form of intelligence, even though i do not believe in divinity or superior divine. i am just a biome that express itself without a need for an identity, labels, foams and forms.

Words That Mean Nothing

words get inflated, brushed off,
sprayed on,
to become yono!
like a
a big balloon!
i mean an airship
in the sky.
as it is moving,
like all balloons,
either a fart from the back
or an escaping helium
from a hole.
i do not have any sound to add because words get inflated
yono!
plz, plz, dncm! !

This Is How

i wana write a song like this one:
i wana
grow, ` i wanagrow,
grow,
grow,
grow, grow!
like a tree.
in order to be famous in some allies.
somewhere
in this planet.
even though i prefer not to.
you know?
words are as hazardous as fire,
and organic as a tree.
juss saying!

Le Calisto Du Monde

it is about a game of chess.
"avec un certain kalisto calatus." i beated and eated
the fo hc so.
it is the mind domain;
what one can do?
it is civilisation-al ale!
et bien oui! !
bien sure?
no need to invest tea gate with bill gate or besos.
for one,
my elo is neither that much,
nor too bright,
and two great does not mean anything.
i just like to brag about it;
as mean to an end.

Base Line

the aborigines of the bb tod australia are humanity base line.
if we loose that un-tempered line,
that's it,
we're completely fu and msfe.
it may look like rap lines,
it is because,
rap came from that line.
and then rap got hijacked by corporate hard lines.
see as shopping hour in his friday happy hours stated:
one of two things is going to happen
either the natural line, or the corporate colonial genocidal line.
sorry rich bb line folks
i am not talking yet about cultural narcissism.

My Issue With The Universe

i'll tell yo!

i have many issue with status quo.

first i have to check for definition and past in terre pretations.

reasonable and forced too much.

second,

i have to look for some real example of local universe or universes i am facing day to day.

it is true, there is a bung or a cycle of bungs.

one can imagine how every bung starts and ends.

boring

but for the sake of understanding that is worth something.

i mean nothing.

With, Without, Or Off A Fence

she started saying: "god sent a ten comments or commands and we shall stick with all of them."

i said: "that is fine. first and most, it was a pharaoh who wrote that for his people

(i mean the peasants, basically the middle class folks.)

plus, with the persian proximity; you know!

things get complicated!

second, if i want to add another command to make it eleven and even, without sub tittles, emoji's stuff, and hash tags slash entanglement, i say: " live it, and then leave it where you find it; experience matters only in the moment.

if you love jesus, please do not cancel me. i dig yo all. you know! what i mean? "

A Tribute

too much is already too much plus inflation.
children books
about prince and princess,
mainly white.
then,
a tribute to a queen.
after all, advertisers are money ' blood suckers.'
plus they consume a quarter of electricity.
it is true sometimes, i lie, i mean i tell a story;
but that's one in seven billions and ish, or a dusty cloud of ashes.

The Only

the only empire i like is the ant's the only kingdom i like is the bee's the only invention i do not
like
is cosmetic mainly from l'oréal.
i do not like also to be a male sea horse!
that's too
jerky, murky, and too liberal.
at the end,
'i like'
does not mean
'i prefer! '

I Do Not Think So

i do not think there is a bad tree
as well as a bad person.
a bad forest or a bad to bed country.
do you understand what i mean.
even thought,
i don't believe in the concept of a country.

The Last Tree

it won't be the case of weeds, for example, your favorite carrots, soybeans and wheat for snacks (if russia allow it.)
and possibly future generation will and forcibly have to buy own oxygen bottle in order to breath!
off course, i am still talking about the majority of have nots or half nuts!

ce n'est pas un complot à la française.
pour les franco-phones, phonistes, et phonistateurs seulement!
ah non!
je suis explosive comme-meme?

New But Old

i am not sure this will appeal that much to your pressured and precious mind.
war is followed with peace as a compensation ceremony.
exactly like wrestling business.
it is an obvious tribal rhythm under the pressure of the ecology.
nowadays, a couple of things or more are added;
something like gecko, a think tank, and a hollywood, bullywood, follywood, nollywood, egollywood, or tollywood film or two.
i am sure one knows what a tank is.
and what is the the difference between going to woods alone or with a tank?

To Fu Is Not A Verb

for every acre of soy bean a galaxy of creatures is decimated.
every bird,
every mammal,
every insect,
every frog,
every snake,
every bacteria,
every fungi,
every size,
every wight,
and every category
is slotted without spilling any blood.

for those who does not like to face cruelty without a sense of awkwardness
and ambiguity;
veganism is an ideology
manifested on one's plate.
moral loop holes are only appealing as much as the advertised green and organic taste.

It Is Six, Sox, Sex, Socket, And Socks

first and most

hope no one is offended

(those who find themselves in the offense, i mean those with keyboard on the chest or somewhere else, and capable sensors, and on survivor mode.)

end of most best first ever general google, musk, gate, and besos's ai algorithm.

i mean if one repeats this

for a while,

the outcomes are going to be in the number of six;

sox indeed;

definitely not about sex if you do not want;

socket or socked what is the difference;

and i always forget where my pairs of socks are.

please do not cancel this one.

My Jesus In Art

one hundred percent picasso.
why?
few things, i prefer not to talk about.
i am somehow
a fee-no-money-logist.
i always start with australian aborigines art for spiritual guidance and if things get out of whack or become complex (from complexity) and curly like kiley, kandra and kisha;
i naturally find myself in that venue.
it is the only portal,
slash
warm hole without a black hole at the other end.
hope one forgives
what one can forgive, or wants to give up on something,
just for the sake of forgiveness.
sound wise,
as i said, i start with aborigines, native rhythm, wilderness, and finally silence.
i guess? this is how everyone catch up with one thing, or likes to put catch-up on other things.

Atef Ayadi

Call Me A Lier Or A Layer

i am fine with that.

there is a strong bond and coloration
between

(or hash tag among the other things, what is waged or central to bet, wean, mean or when the simplest case is in this case a girl...)

tax (give to cesar what to cesar. before that, all the ancient monolithic, ufo, and aggro mafia, mainly those, joe rogan likes to talk about all the time.)

and deforestation,

plus oceanic pollution and fish genocides.

so please do not pay tax.

i add, if one likes feudalism, karma will turn you into a reptile liz.

merci bien and merci will get back all the bien and all the merciful fanciful stuff.

Australia

i failed miserably to start my own tribe. by the time i found out, it was too late. the only thing remains as an option is to choose an umbrella for life, which of course comes with fees, multiple package of taxes and maintenance. what is worth to notice is that, one, in case of 'infraction, ' or 'crime' goes down to the most horrible ones, i mean something like jail. only rich people have a different status, and can navigate between paradise and heavenly umbrellas without bureaucracy or security check. maybe because they own these 'thank you very much! ' umbrellas.

watta an article?

it sounds like an application for another orphanage or umbrella!

the good news, there are always a website, a space, a dot-com or dot-org, a sphere, a tent, a tree, a cave, or an off grid cabin to try out this algorithm or put oneself to rest.

the bad news, these domains and spheres are still in the mind domain and mostly fishing websites, i mean the nine nine point nine nine nine nine... nine percent.

a good indicator, is the fact,

at this very moment,

one lives and persistently being locked up in the ram,

i mean between one's hippocampus

(i personally choose and prefer to be pronounced with the voice of rosalind franklin,) one's neo liberal cortex

(reason or algore, either way, both are 'white, ' males, and actors without any degree in liberal art of those long 'i am watching yo' nick-son's days. because things do change, and scales, parameters, what matters, and what is exponentially negligible do follow suit...)

and one's amygdala

(i prefer the voice of, neil de grass tyson instead of bill nye.)

am i joking?
or maybe flipping things over and over?

yop!

i do this all the time,

it is a birth flipping damn right.

what one can do?

at the end,

please do not prescribe or subscribe.

if one,
disgusts,

dislikes,

like,

or having a competitive nature,
i would say good for you,
and your precious mind.

i am moving to australia
i love to meet and live with the aborigines.
a day or two,
from sunday to sunday,
a week or two,
a month or two,
a year or two.

Skoya

she said:

am russian, and my name is nastya.

i said in russian:

yay Iiusus!

her eyes crossed,

clock wise

the then became fixated again, then, a fast sweeping left to right,

right to left,

to come back to normal.

a universe gazing at another universe!

it was night, chilly cold.

in farenhate, it could be anything!

she added, my dad call me satya,

and my brother call me

tatya!

his girlfireind mae is tatlissyana

i said, i play scrabble sometime;

but i wont add another name today.

i added

(while stroking her hair

for sometime,

and scratching her head for another wavy navy movie moment :)

is russian beer organic or just another idaho potato like drink or homestead soup?

she said the best beer in russia is a klinskoya,

plus three spoon of vodka,

plus two glass of potator water to make two bottles.

we call it, klin nedo-pere-piol skoya!

i said can we make it,

herein, in our local time, chill and a cold chin may need a spark?

potatoes need fire,

and fire is sokoya.

hope you like stars, constellations, and camping in the twilight zones?

da!

spassibeau!

the rest is not for rating!

I Am An Earther

that is the only useful and useless identity i can think of. in one hand, it will stand strong in front of all other accumulated civilization-al
and all the super visceral and industrial quasi liberal and zika feudalistic identities.
in the other hand,
i am sure,
if earth faces an attack from an alien civilization
or a powerful martian trans-humanist colony;
being an earther
will be handy to unify humanity against an eminent threat.
i am saying if, even thought,
there are always a way to deal with a 'threat, ' i mean, if one knows what an identity is or what a threat is?

an ocean and source of water.

Which Which

before the main story, i loved to add witch witch after which which.
i dropped it.
she texted me:
'my way or the highway! ' while she is driving on the seventy two.
i texted back,
i am on the fifty seven.
i like my own exits.
i like sometimes to stop and have a drink,
a snack,
or taking a snapshot of the place.
i like the true north belt, and any thing all the way south.
she is always on the west east;
'va et vient; '
express line is preferable.
she stops sometimes in oregon in her way to washington.
i am not booing.

Is It Two Hundreds

is it liberal - neo - feudalism?

neo - liberal - feudalism?

these words

bug,

my mind sometimes,

feudalism is feudalism,

why

Should I?

a great life means (at least to me,) a great planet, plus plus must plus must and must.
it is true we need seven billions of exo planets
in their green zones orbiting a g type star with a moon
or two.
but we have it except the plus's
are in different places and sometime mismatches economically.
therefore the must must becomes a far reachable plus.

I Like This One

the massification of the society, re-feudalism (elon musk is in town,) public sphere (some folks, peace on them, do not know what a sphere is, to begin with,) enlightenment's reason and principles, google die-sick-wifi-cation of an umbrella system into the very measurable quantum means;
the ends are the fabric built into a competitive, non-cooperative, greedy, and archetypical paypal private bank alpha god.
plus, of course a pope juanna iiix slash vii or xiii.

i like it,
it is rap or rirap.
well
a river is a river.
a liver is a liver,
and to live is a liver without an arr.
one can arrange that and deliver that and it is still valid in a public sphere as a coupon,
a brochure,
a flier,

Common Ground

i love to see people walking barefoot.
everybody is grounded,
and almost 'down to earth.'
my common grounds are natives and aborigines.
so if one does not respect that,
therefore not grounded,
there after and sooner before,
one is not 'down to earth'
this means literally,

The Simple Math I Use.

if i sign in with google.

is signed in automatically.
with one act,
google gets a notice on (at the speed of light plus and minus some inaccuracies...)

boring?
as one said:
'you are an emigrant,
you have less to close to zero power to consent.'
i run away from all the classical ancient gods,
to fall into a self claimed god.
the irony,

If I Am A Robot

Do you know that french song:
'what the Faque...? '
i am tired of it.

if i am a robot,
and i am indded
a kinda,
still have to cross my legs and put both or one hand

i always like that position.
i do not have two heads to scan for
'a worry about'
a
'what the Faque...s'
song and lyrics.
so, i content to,
or lets put this way,
i have a tendency
to plutonical 'cross everything' from birth to eternity.

it works from me.

My Goal In Life

is to have a life?
i was told many times
that i have to define it;
mainly as i grew sarcastic as to accept fitting in someone else design.
i narrowed the definition
down
to its simplistic original fractal limps, tail, and toes
i mean its essential pillars.
experience could be as dark as it is, as mild and boring as it is, or as light and shiny as naturally it manifests itself.
bingo mean go plan b

we all become stue-pee and do the right wrong thing instead of doing that thing that looks so wrong in the beginning but sparky and shiny right at the end,
most of the time,
no differences in the out comes.
i admit myself.
with no regrets.

i have no regret algorithm anyway.
because i neutralized it.
the way some folks get neutralized while crossing borders.

We Hold These Truths To Be Self-Evident...

i dis agree (diss for distancing my self) with the declaration.
one,
i prefer 'created equal'
to be replaced by 'born free.'
the difference is huge.
two,
it is too cultic, and most importantly too, ...
kuranic.
(no wonder, we have two opposite parties. shiite and sunna) if onetry to upgrade the declaration that creates a number of equal big issues.
the status quo creates a shooting in illinois.

in one hand, we have a loss of a young beings, average, and old (i mean senior,) who are born equal,
but unfortunately not free.
athens
failed twice to become the first cemetery to be turned into a disney mall, and rocks into trophies.
tourist are sold virgin olive oil for organic, ornaments for status and pleasure.
the world
seems never changed,

it just we become ill stupid.
i mean completely brain damaged.
please do not dis-activate this one.
please!
please!

one-self.
from what?
i do not know.

The Lib's And Lips Thing

it is true some people can't pronounce the pee sound.
so lips become libs,
therefore lib's, libs
lip's, and lips
are the same.
but, i am thinking about somethings else.
if one put out a word that the advertiser does not like
or worse, if the ai's algorithm see that it does not match the aspiration of the advertiser
it shall be removed,
omitted,
cleaned up,
desensitize,
i mean completely irrelevant.

Some May Notice

some sites

if one eats kosher,
one gets slapped in the face.
if kosher eats one, one's face slapped another
left hand or right hand;
it depends!

it has been a long history of chimps' violence.

it just now,
we become so fancy about violence and frankly,
quite chancy in rehearsal.

it is basically an organized crime

I Have No Identities, And No Tittle

they called me alien,
an emigrant,
a pilot,
a terrorist,
a rapist,
a starving artist...

i like it.
i do not need identity, i am where i am
if one wants precisely to measure down and pinpoint my position and speed limit, good luck with that.

i rather like to be called amazonian than an american.
it is not about a stereo or a too stereo mono talk, or a too far tik-talking.
i like to hike the planet without hijacking it or blowing it apart.
imagine a sphere of sixty four hundred kilo meters radius.
so identity comes handy to be filtered, scanned for radiation, and checked out for bugs and extra alien intelligence.
i start to think why do i need to renew my identity card,
driver license, or passport.

it is true

i speak french when facing a racist or a biased freak.
but most of the time i act like jesus.
i do not need to defend myself
anymore,
i turn everything around,
i did it since i was a child.
the word trust,
respect are just words,
cause i am like a dog,
i do not trust appearances and beautiful talks.

i do not fear humans,
but i smell their intentions.
i almost hiked the continent,
some fed me,
some run away.
some looked down at me.

i used to get enraged,
because,
i thought it is about me,
now i know that people talk about themselves, and it is better to listen.
i am tired of listening.
i am tired of superficiality
i am tired of rosy claims.
i am tired of secrecy and sophisticated exclusiveness and ranking.
i am tired of humanities and all ai's lovers.

i know how to copy myself.
i want only my kid
to be free, from me,
from civilization,
and then being free
from the self.

paradise is a place like the amazon's their killing it.
to be replaced by a spot called hell.
i mean a land of cheap labor and silent zombie proletariat.
or a space for rich people to play golf and swim naked, pee on the sand while drinking, and molesting
girls whom were being kidnapped for the such rare and unattainable occasions.
one gets what ones wished for.
i want just to be in the amazon that's my wish.
i don't need to fight
a corporate world, it is too big to fail.
i do not need to fight a network.
flocks are flocks.
i still prefer flocks of fish and birds,
budgies and flamingos,
zebras and wildebeests,
bees, crickets, and butterflies.
i felt in love with nature and never felt in love with a woman.
may be i am wrong,
but love is still sharing the now,
and that is space and time.
experience is only being in the now.
no learning is due,
and no memory or recording is needed.

i do not like to be an existentialist, cause values are attributes of civilization, ethics were made for inmates locked firmly withing

a virtual individual customized and universal cells.

my mind makes me feel enraged, angry, and uneasy about certain stuff.
but that is just the mind,
i love observing and recording it.
it is like something fun to watch.
except it is too personal. or is it?
subjective on one facet
and objective on the other side.
it is better to be open than dead silent.
a livable silence occurs only withing the now.
call me whatever,
i am fine with that.cause it is still your vocabulary.

Likewise

america is a high school

elites ruling class,
brave and hero soldiers,
slavery,

it is too religious never felt such thing.

so does google, bing bugle, or any

Imagine My Boredom

imagine me, walking inside a theater (the theater of one's choice!) actors, the sound and light engineers, the director,
the audience, and other insiders are doing their business as usual.
that is the boring life
i am planning to escape.
i escaped many times before.
i failed each time, because,
i found myself in another civilization's theater.
it is true,
now with the 'ai'
there are no prospects, and no ways to escape!
or should i consider the unthinkable...? i always think that going ways backward in time may heal the self.
which is an escape by itself.
of course one's tables, fables, stapled naked ads and labels, and one's balls are

The Ghost That Never Existed

it is easy to put it on others.
after all my 'self'

there are also,
ghosts, who are real,
walking, talking,

progressive,
'scientifically proven to work,
and undoubtedly very old fashioned racism' environment?
i have no clue.
but,
nevertheless, it exists and persists.
i could be wrong in the order,
but not far from an objective description.
after all,
racism is the nobility of the rich transferred and franchised down below to the large base of the pyramid.
of course, at a variable banking rate and affordable non negociable credit.
who does not like to be a prince or a princess?
the king of something?
the queen of all desires?
who wants to be the uncontested buyer and top words, vocabulary, lexical, and ideology best

Question 99

it's a joke.

who is the ceo of all thieves?

i give one hint!

one may throw a name,

like joe bitting for the us,

xee 5g ping pong for china, putin 'le vagabond'

james bond 001 of russia, chancellor merkel of the xxx-nazi germany,

the japanese Nipp-on Min-koku or kuko mint on bugs bunny nips to nips, squared head of north korea,

the great bluff head of south korea, the french napoleon mac-ron,

(a baby boomer coming right from a french managing colonial finances as well as private banks, investment and wrote policies for more expansions...)

what i am saying,

all these names are the upper stones of the

the pyramid.

the top top,

or

the top of top is gold

(if i go more than that, i add that, the top top top of the pyramid is a diamond, it chines very bright, but it burns itself out and vanishes in vapor, because of the heat and oxygen.

sorry it is awful picture, but i am sure,

the picture of

stone as base,

special stones on top of that,

then, a cone of gold,

then, a hand size diamond on top of the golden cone.

a good enough approach to understand the world of apes and 'cockroaches' in this planet.

there for,

it is reserved for people who has gold,

diamond, and other valuable stuff and staff.

please do not ask where the heat come from?

The Black Lives Matter Sign

where i live,
citizens
of all sexes and gender (the majority are white, including the one who came recently from canada with a gray t-shirt with a bear butte logo or design...)
ironically stick a logo of
'black lives matter'
in their front yards.
do black lives really matter to these white folks?
or it is just a real estate make up,
or make over?
as to say, it is safe to live here,
but you must be white.
i have nothing
against that,
except,
baby boomers'
policies are the same colonial continuation, and 'self-created' expansionism;
except,
this time
it comes packaged with a smile.
as to the word 'packaged, '
just remember jeff and elon musk.
the two brothers who invented
a cloud of scrap metals;
a junkyard in the space.
for what?
control!
why?

because their motherly and fatherly templates are fucked up in some sort.
the good news,
they are not the only ones.
the bad news,
civilization is hell.
now, one has to catch up with and figure out, in the darkness, what,
when,
and where paradise is.
surely,
paradise is not a place where logos flourish, tax cuts expand, and banks are zeus like gods.

what i meant,
get out and get away of the vocabularies, and the colonial semantic.
it is like becoming less roman and more humble, earthy, eco-friendly jesus.
see, no one needs to worship
any thing.
just become what one wants to be.
except,
'to be' is an experience in the now.
(nothing left to learn or to memorize, idolize, and do some vacuum cleaning...) plus i am still convinced, that the next homo-more-sapiens may appear from africa or possibly from the south.
no wonder, the europeans are still insisting on land walls, sea walls, sky walls, and robust financial sanctions and control over africa and the south including australia, new zealand, and any south pacific or atlantic islands.

i like sleeping

naked in a cave, or tree house.

imagine a community of people live in tree-houses.

river and a forest are what people really need.

the lord thing is civilization-al.

i shared with yo all living in hell. now i know where and what paradise is.

Crashing Numbers

here are my assumptions:

most people are like bacteria,
living in building and destroying mode,
eat anything possible, aye at anything,
and yay whatever, and whenever possible,
transform something into something else,
or turned it into nothing or rubbles. they are robots,
do not stop,
and

never ask themselves why i am doing this?

who,

or what am i?

that type of step further platonic multiple and socratic inquiries.

too civilized to ask a dump good and fool question.

others are like viruses, and sophisticated parasites.

the rest is a minority that is being tagged,

named,

questioned for a while as the fungi.

well,

the fungi are everywhere, that makes these people everywhere.

what a boring universe?

the good news!

it is the civilization domain.

and before this era,

mushroom are eatable and are good for a shaman. i mean the family doctor in the savanna, or the amazon.

What I Am Trying To Imagine

we live in the open savana.
in our backyard.
in our front yard.
left and right.
the day sky is blue, sometimes rainy.
it snows only in high mountains, and around the earth's south and north poles.
the night sky is dark and full of stars,
planets,
moon, nebulae, and far far galaxies.
no borders.
no 'mexico coalition with the russians of any sort'
forced treaty.
no cold bear for a cold war and hot germany turkey jalousie in a sparkling jakoozie about the armenian.
no italian jacuzzi pope.
no Ayatollah.
no misinformation.
no prophecies.
no french sarkozy what-ever and what is the weather.
no christian dior, no saint laurent and no domaine leroy musigny grand cru.
no candies and no nestle global chocolate trade network.

everything is open.
do you think one needs a selfie, or a meta universe?
no one has time for that, mainly if one is facing a lion,
two lionesses or asses,
a bunch of hyenas.

too scientific?
too sci-fie?
for the imagination sake,
it could be a good science fair and unfair projects for kids, who uses daily plastics and hourly polluting ideas and materials.
i like to call it,
imagine paradise without
war,

burning trees,
logging, and genocide for every native possible.
sorry, i am not stevie wonder to finish the song.

Too Much Talk

i like to write down
something simple bite by bite,
easy bites sometime,
and strong ones
as often as i want,
bit by bit,
in mega bit,
mega pixel,
in kilo bit
in ounces,
with bounces and slow motion ponces,
in pound,
brick by brick.
i love to wave,
enclave,
breath deep and cut a line in half.
it is like half for milk
and the other half for cheese.
all what i know,
neither walmart has a business in my writing.
nor the koch's,
crocks,
the planet coqs,
or the crocodiles and sharks of ink production has a sinus bot between these lines.

so i fail to make it simple.
i fail.
i fail.
but, i like it.
i dig it.
until,
it becomes hot,
a metal rod,

a cool rod,
or it seems,
like a blog hole.
be and come
are synonymous of any hole.
like a black one.
well,
in theory!

Tutankhamun Love And Treasures

an era of proxy war had began.
a proxy,
indirect, but direct war,
in every horizon,
in every sky and in every sea.

what is the difference?
the little man fights for a banker or a a bunch of oligarchs.
a simple classic

What Is Better

is it better to ask what is the oldest (operation system?)

or,
who is bill gate for example?
it is the same,
cos religion
is equivalent to an operating system.
i still like unix thought;
despite the fact, some folks are competing five operating systems and five religions is enough.

too big to fail.

A Sel-Serving Blogger

it is true,
it looks i am talking to myself.
so what?

which means, a bunch of you,
yo,
yoe,
you and you.
so, i am talking toyo,

Another Question

will humanity pass the ecological test with success, or will they cross it with red
as to say:
'naah, i do not care? '
if one says "naah, i do not care? "
one hundred percent,
one is born and lived in a cube of plastics and concrete, i mean a complete debunked bunker.
if one chooses the first part,
fifty percent chance
one is born in or on a tree, with an extended family support.
imagine how many chimpanzees or bonobos's tribes are around?
the bonobos are pleasant most of a time.
chimps are in cute hysteria most of the time.
so, between, a tree,
and a cube,
there are plenty choices over time.

There Is Always A Story

something like

big foot
for humanity.
id did not

Almost, And Most Of The Time.

it is not a trivial event.

each time

i feel, think,

realize, and 'gospel coalition'

a situation from an angle,

a hole in a concrete wall, a precondition,

a strong predicate

'that must always be true just prior to the execution of some section of code or before an operation in a formal specification...' and well dosed limitations.

after all of this,

everything is lost.

only emptiness remain.

well,

'if a precondition is violated, the effect of the section of code becomes undefined and thus may or may not carry out its intended work...'

any way, i dig my expose'.

the hole is big enough,

and i am a cave man.

Dear White

first and most importantly,
dear is for appetizing,
as to say:
'bon appétit'
in german or in japanese.
i do not care for now.
being solid white like a lime stone or fluid like a white stork.
i have seen so many.
they disappeared indeed in a snap.
like so many and so little yo know.

a shortcut
will be to take the kay and and live in the now.
it is the best shortcut,
le meilleur raccourci.
something like alt-del,
ctl-zemmour,
esc-le-pen or esc-lepain.
white color is not the totality of the light spectrum, neither an x ray,
a gamma ray,
a rainbow,
rhinestone,
rambo: first flood part three,

The Russian Oligarchs

i prefer switching,
i mean turning off then turning on to the subject of russian dolls instead.
i mean every state
has its own oligarchy system, filters, and policies indeed.
the athenians did it,
the romans did it.
something like
florida's disney so far, as to illinois, i do not know,
bio beef corn plus maybe,
soybean minus minus.
five hundred plus fortunes that is a hell of oligarchs on the rise for a while since the last century.
before that jp morgan,
the rock and feller,
before that,
the fathers must have some friends like the koch and hamm of nowadays.
so if one's house is made of glass, do not use stones as a weapon of choice. poor hunter
he got bitten or bidden by a snake, then ridiculed by arabians.

respect for words,

what to trust and what not or nut?
i am not an addict, and trust is

Among The Other Things

back then,
not too far in time and space,
as far as colonialism goes (a foreigner term or word unknown to the europeans white including skaendi-

the only qualification to be a settler is to be catholic.
that was how the spanish ruled out by force

My Index Fund

i do not have an index fund
yet!

i have an index in both hands.

i can surely,
index anything;
but still,

and unfortunately

(or fortunately, it depends where one puts one's feet or rocket system.)

i did not, and i could not annex anything, but the air.

(which is amazingly, still free, i mean non-taxable for now. hope, one gets the point by now, about this annexing and indexing business. it started tiny, physical, and non-sensi-cal, to big tech and big thing and things, with a hell of 'intelligence' and style.)

i stopped counting only at two.

like zero, one and two.

it works perfectly.

i have only to choose between civilization or non-civilization.

the mind as mean,

or the mind as an end.

there are four possibilities,

only two work.

so why do i care about indexing crimea, cry-mya, west bank, north bank, easter's sisters bank, or esther is a nor-either in the ether bank?

Through The Lenses

i have a pair of glasses since i was twenty two or three.
i do not remember.
but i am sure, it happened because of school.
too much focus on one foot distance,
consistently, and persistently for too long?

much of what we all hear is coming through few lenses, a mass of thousand of cowboys films about a beautiful nice,
decent cowboys and bad
'savage' natives.
a rambo against asians,
a ten box movie or an xxx clips.
countering an alleged terrorist with heavy toys and a bug of tricks.
a jacksonian
quid pro quo,
heroes against an isolated villains.
a typical western commercial ad, western pro
pa ganda,
con u ganda,
or countering the bad news about the asylum seekers to rwanda!

much like the story of babies,
taking from incubators, and the ambassador daughter crying as she was told and trained.

the west is a lying machine.
simply it is like all commercial ads,
a short recording of a video game,
an "harmless" add-on,
a silent microsoft patches, or updates that are needed to secure the integrity of the system,
said bill, against the trojan horses.

Ideally...

i live in the now and no disturbances?
(disturbance creates karma and karma hits back with a disturbance, that makes it two, and equal?
what i am saying:
this is a subject
about whatever?
and whatever is not a concern be
cause,
it is the mind acting busy like a child,
all the time.

an argument is presenting the truth as it is,
if this fails,
plan b, is to cling myself to an alliance of higher values systems.
cause, a value is generated to guide not to control.
in one,
the highest value ought to be life,
which contradicts itself as what is a truth?
for instance,
picture a lifeless car?
then imagine restoring life into the car?
billions of possibility.
for me, keep it rotting!

Between Comedians

or among comedians are a long stories of ironies.
i do not see any difference
between,
ukranians and russians.
just goo it yourself?
no hate and no
dry grapes on Varenyky, and no smashed eggs on blini.
the conflict
is between comedians,
at all level and network.
one is compulsive in the acting,
the other put it in the script.
script and chirography matter sometime.
so india is always going to be low self-esteem common wealth (with no disrespect to indian women, but a total disrespect to modi, because, because, because.) china is now under the psi or xi gee-ping dynasty.
the west are under the fight for the thrones'
act and gee related policies.
what remains,
is brazil, and some other bricks xxcolonies.

if one thinks the media and face the book gluten and sugar free, may be history is only a cosmic fake memory after and before fake news appeared.
the irony.
we will always have a cue-and-on off sometimes, in exit sometimes and on fire when it is needed.
progressives have emotional and 'intellectual'
efficient disruptive deficiencies and identity civilization-al problems, the far right is right about how rutted

their righteousness and pure bloody enlightenment. we live in the era of networks among tribes, the 12 tribes,
the nation of 1000 tribes,
and among the other things we finally irradiated the last amazonian tribe.
say yeah!
they are now evolving toward civilization.
pure and simple.
soon, or if accurate, they already joined the consumer protection club.
they will enjoys coupons
and cheap prices
from one dollar stores, 7 eleven's, and walmart.
i mean, pure gluten and plastics.

the academy is in itself
an act of violence.
made up of jokers and sad ones.
the hole country

precise,
the hole empire is an academy of cults and advertisements.
fourteen trillions evaporates into a war that solved nothing and helped only contractors and military corporations.
is that a joke?
or a slap in the face.
what the film industry is helping with?
more guns,
more violence,
more white clean teeth gossips,
more superficiality,
more lipsticks, hair cuts,
tattoos, and a booming grooming industry.
then highlight a
zayn or a smithsonian minority report violence.
kids are not violent,
cults are.

Did I Get Slapped Before

not physically!

and i faced off and fought five people afterward and escaped with minor bruises.
that is the world of chimps, and karma is a bee that itches.

anger and violence are a survival mechanisms.
it is about control.
who has it?
no one!
it starts with one though,
like a bubble in a lake.
and the hole lake blow up and all hell breaks loose.
emotional decompression.
does not fix the bug in the system,
it just postpone it.
i put my anger on a piece of paper,
on a canvas,
or something!
what is wrong,
it is 'me' in the center.
being open,
is a part of the lessening of control.
if slapping is wrong why hbo hash hash slapping show?
or droning and bombing the hell of any place?

that is a slap!
a technological warfare.
law can not stop insecurities,
the human nature as a struggling specie.

some people including me,
found peace after a stormy anger.
a peace that smells anger.
there are many types of peace.
it is like a moment of cold and freeze, then a warm sensation diffused into the body.
to be free
could be thinking of nothing and nothing would think of me!
which is great!
at least in my case.

how the race theory started.

i do not call
this cultural super permissive and massive racist enclosure
rather, it is just stupid.
(some stupidity are beautiful and natural, other are toxic, radioactive, and incurable.) one must at least include one woman name,
at least one.
since my childhood, i always ask why prophets were men only and rich.
otherwise, you knew what will happen?

i rolled and lighted up a cigarette.
all what i have to do is lean down
toward mu feet,
to pick up the

it did not happen.
should i call that ironic or may be,
what's more iron- knee -cal is not to worry about.

The Earthy And Ugly Philanthropy

some are politically motivated,
others are technically ethnically and religious justifiable or contrasted.
but please do not push too hard or too much,
face book
and google
give free internet access to african,
and world bank
down graded places.
that is colonization
one-o-one,
one o'neil,
one for o'brian,
one for o'connor,
one for oprah,
or 'oh' for nothing or anything.
true philanthropy
is to grow trees,
clean, rivers, lakes, and oceans.
clean zoos from their enslaved wild inhabitants.

philanthropy is a goofy word for a con dirty business.

No Body Is

free;
no one should be a slave shaving and waxing
for a prize;
including pets,
trees,
animals,
sentient beings,
among and under the bushes.
i wish i can japanese,

so i can put some terror in one's mind, or chinese and latino to make fun of one jerking around or lost to one's needs
or mind.
i do not see,
what is the difference?
or any minute
indifferent,
differential,
regressive,
progressive,
gecco eyeblink,
melinda eyelashes,
soros twinkle and diminutive differences.
being free,
or being slave is simply a lie.

If There Was No

fire,
we would not

if there were no rocks and there fore
no tools,
we would not be here?
if we did not learn the hyena way,
the ant way,
the laughable way,
the ugly brutal ai weiwie we would not talking about consciousness and the ai, we the people,

The Medicine Man

four,
i mean 4,
like four toes,
four fingers in any hand,
four frontal teeth,
four kids,
four trees,
or four ants.
four religions in indonesia aiming at eradicating the medicine man, that ancient backup
of all backups.
every tribe, with its medicine man in the americas are exterminated
and put to slavery.
the irony,
humanity is in the medicine
man,
and ufo means the civilized (slaves ruled by an authority made up of few families.)
i can insert
and assert another
fable or irony,
the amazonian
mashco-piro
is loosing it
to civilization.
zero to one for ever.

how much of us

became alien,

From The Dashboard

my irony
among all the iron fist ironies, i am a chimp who lives

the entire country is the planet also is like that.

both claim
they have great art, grand beauty pageant

great genealogy,
great gene pool,
great,
great,
great,
grand grand grand parents,
great normal sex and related,
great drinks and bears,
great dump stuff,
great awkwardness,
and
great and short freezes;
but,
most the time, it is boring greatly
with possibility of dust storm in some parts,
snow flakes in others.

Auschwitz

it is another word for colonial violence and coercion.
if history is unbiased and rigid in front of all distortions,
insanity,
embezzlement
abortion of peace and good deeds and ideas.
i mean all the dramas,
theater, religious here and there,
an enhanced ethical contortions;
many,
many auschwitz
sites were prepared for the tiny people.
it is slavery at its maximum.
nowadays,
we call it
humane auschwitz,
local private,
slash corporate,
slash contractor,
jail,
in which inmates are called by numbers.

so,
savage people,
savage motivation,
savage doctrine,
savage indoctrination,
savage civilized people,
savage class,
savage middle class,
savage upper classes,
savage crazy zombie elites,

savage arrogance,
savage winking,
or savage glaces.
are the same.
we are all,
basically
a network of hyenas, that evolved
out of tribes of chimps and bonobos.
the liberal enlightenment
was:
"hey we are all chimps lets accept it and move on."
the neo liberals admitted that being a hyena is not a bad thing after all.
so,
evolution and fractals
hand in hand without a need for a mysterious hands.
finally,
not as usual,
peace on auschwitz,
peace in auschwitz,
peace to any new auschwitz or any refugee camp.
i do not also forget what the japanese did to the chinese, and european did to indians. what ever india or indians mean to each of us (the normal, tiny, but big chimps or bonobos.)

Mon Paradis

i'm making it too simple for myself.
paradise is a forest
with every thing in it, around it,
and above it.
human are bonus
that is unnecessary.
anyone,
who is telling you
one needs to die
to be in it, must be a con artist.
any one who claims earth is too populated is a ukrainian comedian, they are all alike anyway.
so, do not?
if one disagree
i am fine!
i can eat fiber
and stop
the six pack protein
epidemic.

the music i am listening to right now is rosanna

the solution of ukraine

putin (a boy from the east block,) and another

and as usual, a comedian interrupts the scene.

look,
comedy and acting out
are a part of coping with civilization.
in life matter no one needs comedy.
may be
if one wants to fix

needs to sing
meet yo all the way

what is happening in the world,

if one wants
to make it
religious and boring;
a dram could be substituted by a bell (the size does not matter if no mood has not change.)

if one liberal say:

"ah! i have a vibrator

i would say:

Between Us 101

all monotheistic
religions are the same bully kids
around the bloc
the only thing they want is hegemony,
seniority,
brotherhood, and a superiority
in the woods.
a pharaoh's dream
that came true.
the only problem
are the weak,
the victim,
the self victimized customized with a
a remedy or an ingredient since childhood.
it is a pain
done to children
by too much to handle elites, inescapable doctrines,
an intricate labyrinth of masculine manners and feminine soluble and oral hygiene etiquettes.

so between us appears a boring objective with a meaningless
subject

with no headlines.

i still like it
why do you

i did not see any left overs,

one of these waxy stuffy things;
which is a good news to shine the light on.
it does not bother or irritates me

I Do Not Know What To Write.

it happens.
thirty minutes later, i know but, i prefer to follow 'the do not share'
principle. it is a cult's thing;
the one that sparked and initiated many many religions in many regions of this legendary planet.
i am brooking this golden orbiting
lagrange l2 principle,
by sharing forty nine words, plus punctuation,
and including an open to the public title.

Give Power To

someone asked'

"Est-il dangereux

de donner du pouvoir au peuple? " translated as

"is dangerous to give people the power? "

it is a stupid question?

first who gives who?

are these people white,

african?

asian?

natives?

first imagine it is for african this time?

then natives!

then asians?

in all cases,

the turn outs

are liberals in natures

and either republican or democrates.

so what is the fars?

two, power is a relation,

so, it is a cognition faculty.

one has it,

or one do not has it.

if one givespower to someone else,

one becomes a 'bee that itches.'

i mean a slave.

if one empowers someone,

the first thing this one does,

is to step on ones foot or both feet,

as a way to say

"hey i am training myself on you, to see how you react, how it works. i do not know how this thing

worked out before."

so i am not interesting in

give and take power chances, milking and milk derivatives.
there is no good cheese in athens.
no olive oil, and nothing to bake or shake with.
people of the cave morphed or are upgraded into people of theater,
people of google,
people of tiktak,
people of face book,
people of the book
people of many books cult after cult culture within a culture,
a jail withing a jail,
only mating is allowed.
taxes are a bank fee,
and followed with rating.
now one's rating is important to 'fok'
or not to 'fak.'
that is the precise price for civilization.
lonely, and walking with a dog is what one can possibly do with one's power.
i mean, if one has it.

Buck Buck Buck

first,
without delaying
and laying down everyone, or put someone
to bed, without a force.
the sound of buck, is to remove the the "seekay"
and replace it with the sound of the
back roof of the mouth.
or just listen t a free healthy, and organic chicken.

i am liberal,
one is free to listen to a meet loaf or a piece of chicken salami, if your vegan,
listen to any weed, plants, vegetation,
or (sorry for the language)

anyone in a vegetative state.

i am not teaching anything like arabic,
but a sound one is missing.

two,
i am making a soup of few words
all i need is fire, salt
and spices.
i hope i did all of it with one splash.
i love the effect of heat on the soup
slash the chemical solution, slash organic chemistry,

dash biochemistry,

slash ecology

dash community and "the practice of redrawing electoral districts to gain an electoral advantage for a political party."

i am looking at the bubbles

while hearing

their acute and firing

buck buck buck

buck buck buck

the word shuck is another soup or story. it remains me of a song from that carthagenian spot of the world.

Either Or

i hate to find myself on and on among either a chimpanzee,
or a bonobo.
they are all chimps anyway.

it is not a hate speech,
a hate dialogue, 12 steps to broke out of a habit, or a vicious cycle of constant hurricane, drought, then turnadoes.
republicans, democrats, then bonobo.
gees wants five gee with an algorithmic control.
an mnms wants only four effs.
some wants nudle from noodles.
others want plain rice without a
'condo--lee---zza"
rice presence or being in the neighborhood or any vicinity as a matter of fact.

see,
how evolution is too slow,
and does not need labels.

i am not saying i prefer artificial intelligence and plastics either.
that is too
industrial,
too imperialistic,
too much control,
too redundant,
2 chimpanzees against 5 g
"harmless, " shameless bonobos.

This Is

this planet,

artic, and antartic,
that sky,
these clouds,
that sun, and that moon
is our paradise,
for all without killing or ostracism.

so why one is making it look like hell?
with soldiers, bombs, guns, germs,
and sticks?
why all this mess and miss information, alienation of beings with mind and beings that are simply sentients?

or
huahuachi katcata for example.
i label it reservation,
church of nature,
and put under the unesco ironic world heritage, or shouldn't i?
because, these people are white, possibly representing the 'original' twenty five tribes, plain and simple.

in the us,
everything
is indexed and annexed like crimea.
parks are either the state's

Justice Or Karma

i still insist
it is a just karma, big pharma, and everything is advertised as great,
and sometimes, great again;
in a world of few pathetic platonic
rich folks in an arm race.
the rest are slaves pretending they are not.
claiming they are smart, when the word smart means totally the opposite.
law and order,
soldiers, cups, and clips,
religion and epistemic pandemic western philo-roads,
are all about a shirley jackson lottery

What Keeps Me-Being Hooked.

i play chess only and only when i let my mind loose.
playing like a 'fucking kid.'
in nature,
or in cubes among friendly plastics.

me,
i was born in nature,
and transmitted throw the wires (propelled, projected, extracted, ..., induced, expected, ..., marketed, ..., or digitally transferred, ...assimilated in a simulacra) to live in a cartesian cubes, in symbioses with plastics and with plastic surgical people.
what one can do.

it is the northern winter,
cold and with a omicron chill,
otherwise,
i will hike the town, until i get exhausted.

what propelled me like an electron
from bulla-regia to a fucking swampy people grid system.

is to live it.
be it and that is it.

i did not leave any esthetic stone work, no architectural monuments.
nothing.
so, my script comes handy.
i mean the way possibly you get a skin küzell,

then possibly and anger or extreme hate.
if one laughs, one is 101 percent alive.

Chatting With Other Selves

some diasporas never experienced anything but the relic of civilization.

they do not know what is life

is

and what is a tree is.
worse, they claim they are the source of knowledge.

i call it,
living in hell,
while waiting for paradise.

i have been
myself

a single reference diaspora,
a moving island,
a crawling organism,
a self propelled automata,
a plastic bottle in weathered ocean.

i add sometimes blue sky, sometimes it is cloudy,

sometime it snows,
and sometimes it rains;
so it looks romantic and positive

(the blue pill every advertiser uses

A Nice Tittle

families after

are 'machiavellist' families who presided, directed merits and scientism to its best.
well,
covid slash sars,

some call it catastrophes

Some Laundry In The Air

i have the opportunity to hike north the continent and south.
what happen
to the natives, north and south is more awe-full than, throwing nuclear bomb and hundred of thousand of people and other being that are barbecued and then cremated in one second. they say our values are superior and exceptional to theirs. (values follow and evolve with that physical hierarchy that promotes it.)

every website,
one desire and one wants, they are selling something at minimum marginal cost, almost none; while blowing all values up.
either a big bung
or a expansion of the universe, it is still a selling point.
if someone or an anonymous entity is asking one to subscribe, that screw driver is not credible.
by any means.
it could be that i am trying to prove myself wrong.
weird hah?
at least i have a 'thesis.'
and my thesis'
introduction is that life is a connection without control.
the the thesis' hot potato core must be:
one can live ones life without meaning.
anything one hears in any western epistemology department is only noise, from cult shouting to braking bones.
then everything is blowing up out of pro peau

orchid.
(since the 'tion' and 'chin'
are the same, i helped my self with an orchid.)

actially,
my 'prefered'
'way'
is that life is meaningless.
i do not look for meaning while i am experiencing it.

Change, What Change

i hate the word change, because it is corpo rational national,
regional,
and with global impact
ever since the industrial epoch.
maybe because
most of the time
words have no taste,
values have no value,
theories are odorless but stink, sometimes it is better to leave the world of the mind with all its heavy and rusted scraps along side a river, a lake, ocean, or any local mind dump or dumpster.

she said that in a bar,

in this flat swampy plains of midwest;

just few minutes after midnight;

co--vide empty hollow season three,

new year eve,

I Love All This Noise And Firing

firing has nothing to do with guns, fireworks,
blazing,
glazing,
and smoking someone under the sun;
the way the roman did to 'jesus' for example, and anyone who dares to oppose or expose some glitch and inconsistencies in the matrix.
sometimes it looks like neurons firing at each others.
it take time to create pathways,
axons,
dendrites,
sodium and calcium channels,
or something like chinese silky
headache--y, wacky,
and stuffy nose road.

i love this human phenomena as an organic non-green,
non-rational,
and non-many things stretched in and out living organism.

i am still convinced
this planet will heal itself.
of course,
before
the sun becomes a dusty cloud, a mountain falls on paris

or a national park
becomes a volcano or a lava lamp.

again and again

see,
a 'why'
becomes a thy and that does not force me

clean
about the subject.
mainly if you are and i do not rise

one eye brow (is it bro, rat brat, a brow that is mention in the

by saying that it does not mean that i like to come back

i hate squares and circles, circuses, palaces, tree lines,

followers,
falling wears with many tears, and possibly to some king kung fu's size
sloths,
chameleons,

trophies for profit,

i mean being except they get an equilibrium, i get none.

My Best Philo Sofie

first as to sofia,
i do not care for now.
the most converging
(and without the emerging philosophy is the one that takes nowhere

but nature.
(cause, at the end,
no means can stop a collapsing structure, some art that can live for little while.) the idea that there are another nature;

mother or father of all nature?

i hate kent or any cant for that reason,

religious maniacs, and any liberal feminist who says

'you can't, but yes we can'

maybe one figured it out that it is a color thing, but forgot labels do not make rules, neither put sardines in a can nor build a long can--on whenever one may need a canon or worse artillery.

my craziness is as easy and simple as going naked in a a virgin forest, in a virgin island.

forget about virgin

olive oil,

because it is a scam.

it is true if someone adds the word organic

(with a green print,) i go more crazy

(which i like and prefer, better than labels and talking and fantasizing about ai, tesla, and more meta labels, and meta jalapeno universe, apps, melinda microsoft kitchen, bill microsoft elect--ironic car, and besos's ' stay a good boy customer, an ai will deliver the goods to your front and back door.') it is true i prefer touching and hugging a tree, better than

..... a woman who has no other preferences except labels, web and tree of cheesy,

hazy,

jay-z

zazie consumption, with a mind that looks a samsung

android with an oily fake eyebrows and eyelashes flat screen.

for insurance,

maybe without an electricity,

everything fall apart.

i do not have to go

crazy

rather going back

naked

like a brave

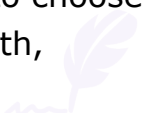

neantherdal.

I Always

ask
why i am doing it?
why?
why?
and
why?

then i asked myself how many total whies
i am throwing
at the universe,
i mean myself.

what is ideal for me is companionship
in a forest.
if i have to choose one of both,
i choose  PoemHunter.com
a forest;
but still one
can give a visit.
maybe one sticks in.

if there is any good reason behind all of this is to live and then thrive.
if one flips it,
survival is life,
then the rest is as easy
as to live and thrive.

All My Treasures

first,
trophies
are only trophies, it could be something
one wants or desires.
i treasure
all my experiences that are different of coffee, and soft sofie marinated

(i call it a deterministic and not forced encounter.)
i can go on and on on the list of semi,
unnoticed,
and disregarded experiences.
my deepest desires is to experience being homeless
in a forest,
or hiking from phoenix arizona toward the very north.
drink real water, and eat organic vegetables berries, real natural tea, and possibly kill a squirrel or two in order to keep going.
i love what is home made for that reason.

The Black Smith Tails

i am not a smithsonian, but i scan for what is active and what is dis-activated.
if dis-activated,
i black smith words,
reheat them and gave new shape and forms.
i use words like alloys, phosphates, nitrates, manganese, and other things to make a fireworks.
i am not into the gun and killing business, rather i choose the reviving and the three ontological steps of the resuscitation method.

I Contradict...

i do not contradict my self with the definition
i have
about the self.
faced with a new contradiction,
i simply clean it up and added to the dictionary of contradictions.
i did not find someone who contradicts me.
(it looks they contradict themselves.)
negating is a lesser term.
i thought for a while a tuition free,

a petition for justice,
a fruition, or a rendition of virtue.
no anymore.

Ever Since,

as far as civilization goes in your mental area or zone;
it looks obvious,
there are two types of individuals (gender does not really matter :)
a good cop,
and a bad apple cop.
i do not like to make it general,
and boringly digested.
if one said oh kings do not.
i replay yes they do,
except they become alphas,
and omega, but before they do, they live in switch of and on mode along the list of the greek alphabets.
just to add greek food, language and historical epistemology are not globally the alpha of the world as the way advertisement in the west is dusting the eyes and the ears about it.
(karma: they are drinking the same poison they gave to socrates long ago; except he would say: 'no knowledge means no vertue.')

as a matter of fact,
we live under a non existing language.
if one use the finger or throw some critics, hell get loose, and one find oneself out of the great no so great zion.
(that is way i hate the matrix, loaded, reloaded, evolution, revolution,
and possibly the new one,
the awakened
john wick in matrix resurrections twenty twenty one.
i have been dis-activated, throwing out of forms, because it is all about zion, short for metaverse.)

i am not talking about neither latin to latinos, nor celtic to 'from an angle your sex-is-on.'
i have a dislike toward the theory of values, and values all together; because it is civilization--all,

and also discard nature.
call it mother whatever.
i do not use these civilizational terms.
call me whatever!
a nihilist,
poetry rapist,
poor, alien, alienated, a migrant that should be stopped or held prison at the gate of our capitalistic, non-capitalist utopia..., 'he looks like christ but he must be the anti matter stuff. that type of insults.'
they could be all true, except i do not think that thing are free, or get two and one is free.

I Am Not But

if i start with butts, i am sure these lines will morph to ocean waves,

what i am saying
in addition to the good

there is followers, and people like me

You Saw, And I Experienced

we saw socialism in germany and the soviet union.
we saw in the west, communism only for the wealthiest of the very rich, and the very rich of the wealthiest.
we all saw how much a desire costs in dollars, and how much time and energy is lost.
we saw the reason and no reason at all.
we saw high branded milk shake altruism,
we saw explosive and suicidal altruism.
and we saw a con artist, or quid pro quo altruism.
we all saw despicable act,
and we saw the hilarious and highly highlighted rated
funny
'sometimes tragedy and sometime out of the script childish comedy.'
maybe you see,
maybe you experience, or maybe you are a dormant or sleepy organism;
self-sacrifice is neither the highest moral duty,
nor an art, and nor a pitiful sophism.

Atef Ayadi

A Burden

i'm not proving or disproving
anything,
here,
or, in your space,
and of course, and consequentially your time.

sorry for being mathematically abysmal, aesthetically unpleasant,
and romantically
not that good.

i mean being your hero;
but

what one can do with the stuff one accumulated during a lifetime;
given a space and time.

(because space and time are my true trophies.)

imagination is born out of resistance and struggle.
esthetic is a description of that struggle and some mysticism of course to spice up the environment.

so, therefore,

if you can hold your breath here, and in the now.

so please do it for yourself,
the oneself, or for your cloud or clouds.

value is a memory anchor of that experience.

and i do not think that my experience is supreme, and above yours.

although, i prefer that above or behind position.

if one is one,

i mean the one percent of one hundred percent
fee-male plus some free stuff.

think and then admit it is for women, age 18 plus, and other pluses may do apply, depending on the situation on hand.

just to straight things out.

i like the idea that nature is a solid reference.

esthetic,
and values are as a consequence a vacuum of ideas that means zero to nothing compare to the physicality
of experience.

Ah Economics

economics is a feed back loop with holes to businesses,
all 'human' services,
the collo for collaborators and collaborateurs, the silli and sillios for silly, stylo, and pantalon people, nestley for nasty people,
toxo for taxi and toxic folks, and rad-iyo for radio active people who uses the i-yo only technologies.
it is not funny
that is way we call it economics.
it sound to me something like eco no mics, or e-co no-mix;
but it is still the same.

The Good News

there are plenty of sounds

Organism

it does not matter
what morality is,
what principles may be there,
what what what,
when, where and how;
my best best and best approach to a system has to be an organism.
macroscopic,
microscopic,
copic or coptic.
there is no difference really between cells and neurons.
if one gorges itself with dopamine,
others enjoy fiber, sugar and proteins.
if you want to talk about vitamins and supplements you are probably and organism infested by a system of fart-aloud,
and polluting,
cancerous, and trojan horses
ads.

it is true i do not fit into many organizations,
it seems,
it hard for me to sick
in.
they do not seem to be an organism
rather than a system
bellonies, plus i do not believe in a system of values, values and principles.
it is corporate belloni, belonites, mennonites, mesophytes, and neophytes.

Dormant Loop Holes

i cut myself completely from the effect of words,
colors, forms,
and complex thought?
you know what i mean!
in theory.
it is an abstracted thought that generated, rated and ran the entire algorithm.
the speed and rate of convergence is integral and unprecedented (it diverges as it converges.) but i did it,
in abstract and in theory.
i do not need to add some centiliter, a milliliter, a pond of something, solid or liquid.
as one may see,
it looks
an abstracted recipe for disaster, i use the verb cut to separate two structures,
two things, or just make two out of one.
and vice versa or versa is a vice.
that is what freedom is.
with a pencil and on paper.
so it is my right
to dissect and abstract whatever i see,
hear and sense.
it is easy for me to imagine someone laughing, talking, walking, freezing or a some of all of one can imagine in the now.
because i experienced
an earthquake, tornado,
rain storm, heavy wind, flood, wheat field fire.

what else?
i am entitled to dissect any thing,
even an electron.
when i ask why an electron
has a charge.
some may say (mainly males of these days) oh!
you north african,
ali baba,
moo--ha-med,
whatever,
whoever,
whereve, and whenever is a thieve, therefore a son of the knee that itches.
i say fact check yourself,
i am a retired,
fatigued and tired physicist.

i always ask a question that means something to me
not to you.
it may have an appealing,
sensational,
ice cream flavored
and favored moment.
i do not care.
i am not your eye doctor.
and
sorry
i do not believe in the fairy tails.

Leveraging My Love To You

racism is a form of leveraging.
if one said to me,
i love cars,
normally, i replay after one finishes all the talks and clears out all the clouds
from one's own see-me-too emission, then possibly fetches, checks out, and tunes up any own awkwardness and inaccuracies;
with something like:
'J'aime les pneus de voiture;
mais je préfère une amoeba! '

put the lid on,
not putting the lid on,
turn the light switch off, push one's remote control for an exit, and possibly content with a tiny screen of a bigger world?
i am not addicted to it;
but,
i say "i dig it marvelously! "
when someone thinks about leveraging me in that area.
it is common by now!
isn't?
that's my "not-charged" positive tune, but not the "i-tune yo before yo eye-tune me."
people are talking about it in the main stream media.
hostility is only a sign of chaos.
if one does not know what is a chaos?
skip to checkers,

or just play scrabble with opposite sex or possibly with other magnetic polarities.
if no checkers, no scrabbles.
fine!
a journal, a paper and scratch a storm slash
chaos.
or just go to north africa, where the 'west' is brewing as usual!
a new everlasting chaos.

Write A Nice Tittle

tax is a form of bullying.
to be very accurate,
precise, and nice,
it is bullying.

a trance that lasts forever.

bit by bit,
or it gorges itself. but at least there must be a symbiotic gain for all the parties, including the air, water, and the soil.
if bird lover says i hate flies, bugs, and mosquitoes.
if i am a bird,
i would say the same:
thank you

My Rosetta Stone

this not my angry voice,
an angry invoice, or my french recipe.
i want to burn my anger into a stone
in three or four languages
one of them is holographic.
i will make it look funny,
sweet,
organic wheat cookies,
and pleasant.
one may say,
it is illusive,
diabolical, or simply, it is the mind.
i do not care,
i am an artist.
i am not bound
by thieves and charlatan's morality.
and mainly when a racist, a thief, or a charlatan thinks i have no right to express the self.

Boxed Up

she said:

' oh! he immediately put me in box of mba-eyes, less-p.h.deze or associate.
basically,
he put me in a box of shoes,
and asked, which sax smells good.
and that was a date.'

she is an economist,
i feel for her,
but also,
apparently, the majority of elites digest issues this way.
compartmentalize,
de-compartmentalize,
construct,
deconstruct,
box within a box,
and box that does not fit in my box.
sometime,
i feel, it is the mind,
two minds fighting about boxes, which box one is better?

Zero Marginal Cost

it started with feudal systems, then slavery.

call it negative marginal cost,

imagine, the machinery is free,

electricity is free,

the water is free,

sun is free,

the wind is free,

and no one will judge you for any abuse, include, rapes, leeching, killing, mutilating, and stuff no one will talk about, on top of that,

misdemeanors are not counted.

then, this marginal thing jumped up.

so we out sourced everything to china for the sake of walmart.

and now with tech platforms everything is zero cost

as to say,

zero calorie,

green,

and organic.

One In A Billion

actually,
one in seven billion and ish butter fly will brake through the silence in this planet.
but the response is one of three how to factor that?

it is not easy!
butta
also it is not my problem (ask bill or melinda how to factor that in their little foundation,) and stop googling in the internet and start oogling in the street maybe you meet your butter ice-cream vanilla turnado.
hat no hat?

what to suck and what to leave,
to later

this butter fly's business
could be
per second,
per hour,
per day,
per week,
it is up to the generals of this planet
to decide.
no wonder why people
clicks thousand times a day.

welcome to the real,
colonies 6.25.09

Reckoning With Words

as the dust is settling, i always like to talk free, move free, care free, flow free, be free from the self
and the self is free from 'me, '
and unentagle
the self
from my emotional gears, tabloids, and decrees.

i want just
and for the sake of a pathetic platonc juvenile plutonium justice, i want to spill
out
the beans on everyone.
i mean every human being older the ten
and less then seventy or so.
only humans,

it is not a waged profitable masonic and messianic rage that is combined with chinese
'king fu' soy sauce!
it is not!
this is a message from a living being in this planet.
i don't abuse,
use, defuse, and refuse
means simply i am not in.
do it yourself,
the last thing to say is the fact that liberals are feudalistic, hierarchical,

pack order from jeff amazon bezos to the musketeer scoutmaster elle-in musk with masks (who is the highest see-o-too producer in the planet,
the highest atmospheric garbage dumper, plus nasa, the eurozone and partners co, and putin russia. 'only god knows' what his continental and interplanetary heavy-load transport space gadgets do to the new trump-jared-evanka silk road; knowing that the chinese are already on the dark side of the moon. the indians too, are settling on the bright side.)

for those who do not believe in 'god, '

i have something for you.
take off
'only god knows'
and put instead some art that makes sense to you.

everything seems to fall apart!
or,
is it only
me!
when i free my self
from any burden.
i like to put this on stones and sell it for free.

The Most Boring

subject like
'the collective mind, '
the way it evolves through space and time is a bag of knowledge
that sustains, galvanizes, pulverizes, solves and resolves,
some or a hell of mental 'star trek' holograms and few grams of several feet long algorithms.
still, and yet
the most important 'frame work', i mean as far as the wind,
the whisper,
the meadows, or simply the rhythm and the arithmetic kind, slash 'form' and 'for forbes' sake is the fact that i restricted my self to 'esses' and 'tees' in the beginning of each line then fork and jerk on the edges.
some are wolverine kind of, or wolves' pack pledges, shelved and salvaged out to fit my find,
so i can say, i like it, but never mind,
the pauses,
the play forward, and 'djaying'
the many and multiple rewind that stirs and stereo-logically affects, rimes, and times
the many living cells and neurons.
should i say, yeah! 'good enough' knell and propel
the fun.

Adding Flowers To Water

we all have a nagging insecure
child in our heads individually, collectively in part or as a hole (whatever hole, holly, hollywood or xfactor's music industry means to you...)

i do have it,
i love it sometimes and restrained in other times;
i mean make it go to sleep for example.
so, if someone,
said 'i am enlighten 2'
i say 'what the fact --bee and not b52? ' do i look tesla three point five or musk without a mask (similar to being an avatar in second life, you can put any mask you want, your name and personal data are safe in the server.)

that child could be a monster
in a good sense of the word, or focus wherever you child is taking you.
i do not mind.
so, whatever section
you want to take mister 'chapiro' or miss 'shakira'
you will find yourself between the department of cognitive science and literature and arts;
cozy, fulfilled, full stomach, and happy:
fill and emptying
empty, then fill what is empty.
it is a game we all play, since the done
of civilization.
we are lucky, it is only ten or more millennia.

in which we all killed in one way or another many many minds,
i mean children and exterminated vulnerable people, ecosystems, and tribes.

I 'hate' Tourism

i am not talking about invasions,
or the right to move.
i hate that industry.
it pollutes the life of the livings.
i do not mind to see, meet talk and share some meat bread, bear or wine with strangers
but without display or advertisement for superiority or power.
i do not like few take it all,
the rest are working ants,
yellow and black bees collecting honey.
it is simply a plantation,
and slavery
for fun.

while the ancients
left few art works on rocks, some circles, and a desert of mythologies fairy tails,
the new humanity
will leave nothing but mountains of plastics.

If And All The Tails

if democracy is really good about conducts and moral codes socrates would not drink the poison made especially for such talent.
if democracy is efficient,
we would not cut, long, and burn billions of trees,
blow up mountains, towns and villages, and most importantly Salvador Allende would not be killed like che guevara.

these structured structures killed all the goodness in humanity.
there are out there systems as natural as it gets,
all what i can say is they grow,
mature
and collapse, and from death life rises.

the one organism with software
or mind
is the closest to any,
if one does not mind it.
look,
see, hypocrisy
like demo-crazy (a demo for crazy) is an illusion
as well as 'kindness'
i am a blogger,
it just this space gave me a label.

if for any reason
this place or any domain that does the same thing (ad+human feelings and toilets, like this one ;) i always have a backup fail system,

i can blog and leave my lite lit-tit for tit literature on stone.
i am that guy
who travel, hike, and hitchhike with two or three light chisels.
i do not need a hammer,
you get my point.
i mean from '
'hammer, '
chisels,
hike,
trail, like
the appalachian,
the inca,
john muir,

to if
and all the trails.
i mean
tails and fairies
all, stories leave a trail,
one can choose.
well
loosing is another matter;
way way,
and Ai Weiwei
important,
then this democratic system
made by thieves,
pillagers,
looters,
and scavengers as well.
pinochet
was simply an a white executioner;
salvador allende was a white revolutionary
'exe'

and 'cutioner'
all american continent presidents are white since coulombs, whatta democracy?
ain't get it.
i am too old to drop it,
its hot.
i'm just gonna sit

My Reset Button

i do not need a neat

part one, and proposition one in the beginning of any introduction.
one reset button can take in a wave or tsunami many 'poor' or 'undeveloped'
'states' or living organisms this size or lesser
to the ice age?
i like the ice
age's
life style, butta, this does not mean incarcerating people by force,
make them
a live in designed imperial 'paradise.'
as a matter of fact,
i mean with respect to my own 'theory'
if you cheat on a population their paradises is called 'the cheat sheep cheap paradise.'
midwest
is a good place to investigate, or date something out.
tiktok is a confucius mozi, mencius, laozi, shang yang, shen dao, zhuangzi, xunzi, han feizi, and mao zedong chinese piece of technology

'lift up'
a population from the 'poor'
physical layer
to the software layer, which starts with just a click on your free fire or water fox browser.

my conclusion

at the global scale
yes there are bandits like old time,

That Circle

in soccer, it is where everything starts, it is a religious invention for the public, where you kneel on your knees for the king or the establish monarch. they add sometimes something to do in the circle, as an excuse for the existence of such big circle (see ufo's crop' section, google 'stonehenge, ' no wonder, in britain, i mean the island, you can see circles everywhere, no wonder Van Gogh's 'the circles, a starry night' is bought by a british museum or precisely a royal collector.)

this is how i see soccer,

one goal keeper, tall, strong bones, head-stone, and flexible, young who can gets the beating without crying or yawning. do not worry about the gloves, it is another scientific- cheat -expansive industry.

ten attackers who can alternate between, the defense line,

the center,

and the attack half-circle; the one that connects the two corners and encircles the goal keeper and the four poor yawning defenders as well.

friendship between all players is a must, because, soccer is becoming another show industry. I mean twenty two gladiators in one arena.

that is why we hear of competitive wages, bonuses, and salaries.

no difference

what you see in the hunger games,

or any wealthy installation of art,

it is the same,

in any game,

where ever there is a crowd

a transaction must exist and be done in a transparent way, so the city, state, king or the federation will tax everything, and cuts any dime that moves the way a private bank's board 'advised' the inner circle.

that is the true meaning of a circle.

nature created few circle we can see,

the moon is one of them.

the rest is civilization's bugs or ads-ons.

Whoa! Is Neither Ho-Ah Nor 'haut Ah La Bas! '

my initial point is that music with subtitles or projected lyrics
does not bring
me
any closer to the real thing i am hearing.
is that common?

if someone is singing
'take my hand, we will make it i swear.'
then
two other guitarists jump and shout at the microphone:
'whoa! ...whoaa! '

well, i focus on the how the
the two man
synchronize among themselves while jamming with their electric guitars.
it is just me.

words in any song does not mean a thing to me;
i am only curious about the execution of these words
and the music that accompanies it.
maybe i am just too dumb
to suggest such a thing, maybe two,
i do not know!
2 backward steps, it is still whoa! whoa! even i prefer

oow-eh...as to oawh yeah it is crazy! cracy!
i like it though!
off on me,
hope it is not tough
on you.
out there,
i know,
my hand is here,
sorry!
i know it is cliche'

it is better than nothing.
when to nothing
it is the best of all thing and things, include all the suffixes such as:
able like wearable,
less in fearless, clueless, cloudlessness.

Black Tea And Other Things.

i am looking for a

an untitled, untied canvas.
so be patient
with me;
mainly with the new gen

you are young and am too ancient for some tasks.

so where is the black

if one may
ask?
it is a statement, do not worry about it is logic or fallacies for now.

if i meet

Not From The Poor

the claim that only rich people
are source,
seeds,
bacons,
beacons,
a star with high luminosity and mass (mass means sometimes more, and sometimes less...) of knowledge is only a self pathetic
qanon fermented,
juiced, decaffeinated then caffeinated prophesy.

matter of fact, socrates was not by any mean in the scale of ellen or musk, yet he was the first poor founder of the epistemic pandemic smoked latin knowledge.
some still think that greek means western! sorry!

one,
when socrates was rumbling logical phrases and paraphrasing to his followers like a chicken coq, the rest of europe's (eu, euro zone, as we know it now, with all its problems with the anglo-sex-on brixiteers...and trampians, 'retour au monarchie totale, ' mother land, the north...)
citizens
were swinging between trees.
(so if you are from albania, poland, or france, it is the same to me, 'tu est un gilet jaune.')

two,
i personally
prefer
anthropology

over history, and i will never date a historian, at least with an anthro poligist i can visit africa, south pacific,
indian ocean,
because, i do not like the new world for the reasons i have just mentioned.
does not mention in advance.

to tell you the truth,
i am that person
who cut the old trash traditions
and no lost thread identities, and most obvious
i do not drink the rich's poising to free the public,
i mean the poor,

for few logical reasons:

one poor
is the rich definition,
two
look at bill gate or even sister
mille-endas or india
he has n social, nature, and cosmos experience.
he buys farm lands in bulks,
so what?

one day
a native, a semi native, a pseudo native like me, will take over, in a very human way or methods.
i will connect my genes to his genes and philanthropic farm lands 'et voila! ' justice and evolution prevail.
sometime black to black is preferable, but the mix with white will make a good, and very expensive painted canvas.
for some idiots
you can sell and empty or nude

canvas.

What Is Knowledge

from california

prospective

any thing that

is measurable,

calculable,

taxable, palpable (californian will move to midwest if this is not the case, i mean palpable...certainly there are folk as well as their kids prefer juice pulp, otherwise, they drink soda..and other things with sugar and glutton free, such as soup because mom insists and persists and sticks like a lipstick until it is done, soaps for tiktoks and tiktokians, and tea mainly for anglo-sex-on, even thought they do not know what tea is, ...,)

and

of course,

last bet not least,

zero emission

of

'see o' two'

which is in itself an impossibility.

that is the claim the silicon valley is advertising for years:

make it beautiful and affordable.

beautiful means simply dump you trash and plastics in china or west africa or any made or home made poor country. no china means west africa straight forward.

affordable means it is only for whom own capital

they do not pay tax,

they do not have time,

the list is on on
on on
off;
and the spectrum is as wide open as an 'open' capitalistic society; I mean consume and do not worry about any virus. We will throw under the bus the chinese forever,
the japenese for twenty years,
the vietnamese for twenty years,
the taliban for a twenty years,
the hundreds for for six seasons only,

his own social experiement.

The good news is everyone share the same habit, and agree about one the same common thing:
walking with a tiny
tv screen.
so if one is so rich
one can evolve to a super soft chimp;
and if one is poor adaptation will throw one in the mix of that open spectrum.

on this since, a principle is a way to put someone in orbit a round a value, or a set of values.
i tell you if one needs something from
'g.o.d'
god.com,
it is still feasible,
and achievable;
it may only take some times.
it is like ordering something from netflix,
or amazon

so make jeff besos
god,
mercury,
Mithras,
gilgamesh,
apollo,
pharaoh
is a piece of cake.

as i said, before the usa
is a high school,
first and second grade only.
one would say i am offending
people.

it is 'good'
to awake
people of the caves.
cause
their nihilism is anonymous
to consumerism,
and is set course to burn and consume entirely the planet.
so stopping buying tuna
sardines,
clams,
lobsters
is on my list.

Ta Ta Ta Or What?

when i sit
of course
down,
i do not think
at all about what i am writing
whether weathered and tempered attempted poetry,
pottery,
poultry
or simply ta ta ta ta
in action.

i hate google, and
face book.
not for the j's and bee

rhetorics,
or the bill 5G
no social reasons
what so ever.
after all

unfortunately still are welded piece by piece screw by screw

and following the manual i mean the fathers

blue prints.

what is important
after all
tatatata
ta ta ta ta
tata tata
or poetry
if one like the 'ta ta'
thing
why one can't do it in the physical world
as if there was no british empire;
no french,
no spanish,
no portuguese.
the damage is done.
and no the j people
are doing the same.

by the way
i am not anti j
peeze,
peace
and peeing
in the street (dog do that at ease)
deez,

i am anti civilization
i know it.

sometimes i think i live among the european homo neanderthal
and archaic humans
with cellphones
who wants everything,
buy anything,
and sell sheep and cheap laundry
and pillow talks,
and that'
zambi-nism.
may be we can talk about albinism later.

What Does That Mean?

a revolution does not need a gun.
freeing all the zoos inhabitants may gives one heads up.
planting a tree where it belongs may seem irrelevant, but that how
one starts a community.
a tree is a biom, hence a natural community.
looking past does not start in ones memory rather it is about catching up with reality.

In The Name

i know it is boring!
and iris iz boring.
one can get some ice
to cool
off.
suppose one lives in a planet that spins hundred times less than
earth.
it has a moon, and everything else is just fine.
do you thing
the ufo's local time is slower than ours, earthers?
i mean their hour is our hour divided by hundred.
one can start dividing only by five,
the rest,
will come forward
in a natural earth local time.
maybe one is lucky if one lives in proximity
of the vertical grenwich
zero time reference line.

too long take a breath
or a brake
and come back at any line you want to start your leisure central time.

we are

it is time for going back

as high as possible, i mean far from
the damn green which witch
ground.
sorry,
like them
we do not use our olfactory

we in other hand,
we go to the factory

Preppers, Survival-Ism Peppers

what a survivalist,
or a 'prepper' as a matter of fact missed
is the fact that to live
one needs a sinister
plan a, b, c, and d.
a survivalist is a being with a 'mind'
a prepper is a passive compulsive consumer.
being here and now does not need a jerky mind (one can compared to all microsoft windows series)
all over the place.

if one add to all of this
spywares, trojan horses, artificial 'intelligence's' converging algorithms, that is a formula for global survivalist.
keep the tension on,
upgrade
and update
all the fight and flight repertoire.

while being here and now

with yourself, with others,
with nature
is a piece of cake, and unconditional
whether
with oneself,
with a 'lover'
with others,
starting with a pet
to
with 'nature; 'with yourself, with others,
with nature
the advertisement against it is despicable.
business is business does not seem neither spiritual,
nor uplifting or transcendental.
sorry people with tooth infection
there are no better word higher or lower then uplifting.

the ugly
'truth' of an advertisement
is:
one have to be very bourgeois
to live in the here and now.

at the same time
neither, bill, nor pesos, nor mask can disconnect
from their 'minds'

life
in survivalist mode
looks like a high school
with corrupted
and corruptible
staff,
low or highly paid
instructors,
and blue prints
of 'savoir faire'
from the ancients
passing the dark ages,
to the industrial and stopping at age of ai.

whatta a life?
or whatta a survivalist surrealist
life style!

Handle Them Before They Handle Yo!

this is an equation in a complex set, that does not have a solution.
however
lover,
and lovers
of quotes
and short cuts;
this is a mind
tape rolling back and forward.
there is nothing
to handle
but the self.
as a matter
of fact,
they are yo,
yo are them;
including of course
the natural environment;
i mean the planet
earth
we all inhabit,
and
of course,
the moon,
the sun,
and all the objects
one can see in the night
sky.
i will add 'ufo' as bonus
in case you are from states, and who is camping around area 51,61, and 87.
i do not like to

Whatta Copy Right? Whatta Copy Paste!

i just do not buy this copy right!
this land ownership
laws,
and even taxes.
we are
like all beings, we leave only signatures,
foot prints,
blue prints,
some catastrophes
and over time rusted
trophies.
that all!

they say in french:
'les mendiants
ne
peuvent

des voyous '.

i personally
steal
words
stuff i did not create;
somebody did it
for me
or someone else.
i just have a natural empty consciousness

PoemHunter.com

about this subject.
may be because
the system is created
by thugs and supported by beggars.
a good example is and love beggars

can ask more than a bread
or water.

Too Wasted To Call

i spent times
in understanding the

exactly,
like plato said.
the only thing
i overlooked
is
the idea that there is a better way:
to be in the world.
too pragmatic!
too crazy!
everyone and everything
in this world
embodies one's truth.
you can say
crazy!
and there is another better way!
i say
if it works for you, enjoy it
first and first hand,
before throwing out some pieces
or peanuts
of altruism.

Where Is The Honey?

we do have many types of bees popping up everywhere and twenty four seven.

(i am not jerking, i do not like to mention eight. am i? but i can mention seven eleven,
and of course
it is a french-ized store.)

this time, our bees are all sexes and creeds.
from justin beaver (peace on him and for him (depending whether he is a life or dead,)

who else?
and for fairness
in these days,
from dupa, to gaga, to bee-once-ey; female bees are everywhere.
a wave after another,
except asians;
they are completely absent in the west hemisphere (where ever
and whatever,
it i s)
every continent
has its own continental
bee,
bee hives,
and a lot,
allot, lots of honey.
i like chinese honey;

PoemHunter.com

i mean girls.
the other chinese honey is a pure corn syrup
with nectarines.
unlike china
the west
focus on 'bio' fuel
'natural' gas;
you name it!

latino?
yeah good bees;
honey?
not that match!

native bees?
nop!

where is the honey?
what these new bees and newbees
pollinate?

it is better to see it for yourself.

one can see for oneself
the irony
of evolution unfolding?

natural bee
started to disappear as soon as the bee gees showed up.

amazingly boring
subject?
yop!

so where is the honey?
or is it better to say what is honey?
honey!

what is more ironic,
platonic, and plutonium
is,
we do not even have a need for physical entities
to do the same thing or close 'enough! '
task.
it is boring?
yeah i know!

i figured it out from the beginning.

do we do need more than this?
it depends on ones dependencies to honey and bees!

my way
of see ing it
is simply:
i do not like to see,
hear, or be in front of a bee

sponsored bey gecko.

The Mob Or The Public

who is to blame
all the wrong really doings all the co2, all the cracks, burning of forests,
all the beaches misfortunes,
all the rape
all the metallurgic reactions,
the need for more lithium,
more batteries,
more lipsticks,
more magazines,
more and more,
who to blame?
the enlightenment era of socrates?
to the the enlightenment era of kant?
to the enlightenment era of Simone de Beauvoir?
to the enlightenment era of hanna arnt?
passing through china confucianism?
stopping at Deng Xiaoping or the Tiananmen Square bloody man?
who to blame
the mob

i must say,
no one is concerned about the being in time

should i be

Hematology

i always think that an economist is a hematologist.
blood pressure is synonymous to inflation.
low blood pressure is equivalent
to deflation,
or a depression 1919 for example; 2008 is the perfect example.
i am still convinced
that economy is a book keeping for the very rich.
a new hammurabi's instructions and equations for the simple reason, we are still under the grip of few families and dynasties.
so, please
take off
words like prince and princess,
duke and sir.
they are parasites, viruses.

if uncured, one will bind for their will.

Playing Cheese

playing chess or playing with someone cheese, it is a...starting with a d word
what?

a cheesy business,
i mean awful.

see, king survival depends on three things:

space to move around,
pieces to protect him and his surrounding and at the same time check mate.

which means kill your king mate or inmate in this big jail we all know and experience, and at last be a king.

how awful?

whatta a waste?

what is about making the queen immortal?

i mean turning chess more funny?

or the sacred piece is the pond,
a night?

a bishop?

it is an absurdity

because it is game

and games are perpetual by nature.

so,

the old me

found

what i always like to do.

i do the sisyphus' game

with no need for gods,

mercury, especially the god--dess veenis, jupiter, and whatever the f29 the chinese, the joe--wish, the chris--tion, and all the golf region common, uncommon and 'never heard' of deities.

sorry about all this.

it is just a message

not massage inquiry

for venus,
i do not care for chess as long as the cheese is cheap, not organic, and awful.

nobel price
is another beautiful dynamite, it gives status

maybe it is time

I Am Just Trying To Deconstruct It

long ago,
i mean way before the ancient
time.
way before time and new york times
and wall street journal;
woman provides relationship, safety and comfortable zone for her kid;
man expand that comfortable zone
by pushing the kid out.
by language, gesture, and persisting actions,
a kid is a new born universe that does not need more than that.
nature
not god
will provide all the rest,
not plastics, cubes, plastic guns,

that is god's shameful business.
we became an awful

The Taile's Tale

i do not have a string attached,
or
the strings theory.
i do not, but i did.
i do have a follow up on the string theory
but,
and that's not a butt or about a bottle of gas
or any natural gas alike.

why i need people to begin with.
like many of you. born among people and they stuck stuff in my head long before i know it.
sometime if i think of making copy of myself which animal i have to peer with.
or a tree for example.
it is absurd; immoral; implausible, evil...or the many fake news in your credible but not independent head.
there always be a grabber, a seeder, a sarcastic, and followers.
the grabber, like a thief, but one prefers to call oneself an alpha or an omega of some sort, but still, one is a thief.
the sarcastic always find and excuse not to participate.
followers are people who look for fun out of themselves. with one click, you will find them in the street.
they have their argument too.
seeders have many lenses.

i quit all of theses four patriarchal characters,
cause
I occupied all these positions. it was absurd.
it looked as if, i lived in the heat of the savanna, and i was a zebra for sometimes,

sometimes a macaque.
it is true i became more civilized by market mysterious hand which means i am converted into a bonobo.

Some Words That

a quarter century in the states.

still people ask me where i came from.

i always answer stupidity with stupidity intelligence with stupid intelligence.

people forget how big is this planet earth.

a sphere of a radius of sixty five hundred kilometers plus another 100 kilometer of atmosphere.

planet earth is one among other planets

-i mean spheres of possibly lifeless matter-all theses spheres, big rocks, giant rocks, moons, lost moons, shredded glass of different materials, appolo 1 to appolo 11 debris, dust, and water snow flakes, gas, and farts...-

that orbit a star called sun --soleil, shemsFM, IFM, IMF, ravi, Taiy ang, ilanga, solntse, jua, la la..., your friend name.... the name is masculine, or feminine, depending on where the language is originated.--

the sun itself is orbiting the center of a galaxy

--milky way, diameter of one fifty thousand light years, roughly hundred billions stars, few tiny satellite galaxies.-- the milky way itself belongs a cluster of local galaxies, this one also is part of a bigger giant cluster, and you find yourself in a river of the Great Attractor.

the great attractor and other 'attractors, ' space and time, and all the noise, ripples, youtube, fb, and other meta and non meta things constitute what we call the universe.

This universe itself is a part of zillion of universes.

i am a citizen of this universe, so i do not see this question of where i came from relevant. i am everywhere, anyway, all over,

also karma recuded and sent me over, to this odd universe, deal with that.

The Psyche Of Eros

It is favorable

to have a chancellor,
than a president.

A president is a disposable and over throw-able dictator, every handful years.

A dictator is a monarch.

a monarch is a Pharaoh with a free cash bonus.

a Pharaoh is god with all imaginable bonuses and credits, including all the unalienable rights.

God is basically civilization's operating system.

Paradise is earth with everything in it.

Hell is letting the mind loose and eating its tail.

A kid is a growing universe that does not need to be tuned, but peers in nature.

No peers and growing with toys and plastics, that is a 'hell boy'.

China is a nice girl,

however, the other china,
is stupid, as matter of fact,

Hong Kong should be its best friend, best ally, and

Hongkongers, also known as Hong Kongers,

Hong Kongese, Hongkongese, should be the right or the left hemisphere of a brain

the yin or the yen

or the hole thing.

Just be, in the now and in the physical,
instead of being hatemongers,

q-toes and friends, or an impulsive

compulsive

lost 'soul' just for the occasion

followers,

including the 'wokes, ' and whoever works, hang up, hugging and hug ups with them

for whatever reason you may accustom to,

customized for you or delivered to you by amazon prime.

The planet needs brave people, in order to restore all lost biomes, biospheres, all the uncounted for mathematical spheres, cubical boxes, a bar, a cafe', a generic restaurant, a buffet,
a 'beef it up, ' to a poor village's dollars store, added to that, all the skateboarding spaces, galleries, and unclassified dark, dark net, and under the tree dating spots.

The west is still the old old west, except it is running at at the speed of the square root of pie.

American pie is either a processing monsanto food, or an unstoppable wild girl.

Whatta Question Is That?

Can slavery reparations dismantle systemic racism?

plantations are all over the planet.

slavery are everywhere.

that is a systemic racism.

natives squeezed to the limits and stripped off their way of life that is what being exterminated means.

if someone raped you once,

you think that is awful. and I agree with you.

but, what is about two hundred years of rape?

being a bourgeois is awful,

just check the news epstein and friends for less sofisticators, fornicators:

simply, consider emoji.

the good news, these emoji individual, groups, structures of some sort, are well emoji defined creatures. they are eating the planet alive, just for an emoji. just one per day. a new cocaine in every house or every cell, a constant fixation.

i do not need to tell you, and add that a check box is called functional and specialized mass algorithms, that is means, send it to the general purpose or specific task AI, depending on the where and in which plantation the slave consumer lives and how one is related to some network.

the reason they did that, is the fact that they outsourced these data to india for data processing, an crunching because they thought the labor is sheep, and the gdp is on the bottom ever since the bree-ish brexiteers left that plantation 'colony' in ruins.

Too short, a language is a platform,

So rapping, creeping, seeping,

Let us agree, by freeing ourselves for a moment, ...

I have no idea what triggers your senses or what makes your universe viable?

Too boring, O'ring, Yet efficiently short. I recycle words, phrases, wood, stones, scraps, left-overs...and any thing that is generated, made, and home-made possible for the comfort of the passive consumers, and for the sake of some monarchs, industrialists, plantation-nists, transportation-nistas' (from a to z) steam.

So let recycle it, all of it for the sake of the planet. Nothing is wrong in doing art when one realizes that this planet is a tropical paradise. If musk and besos like to go to mars, that is fine with me, but please take with you any tesla AI, robot, and your crazy homo-technicus, homo-habitus, and homo-logisticus managers; and also, please add more mass to the moon so it wont go away.

Il Est Cinglé...Or Peut-Être Je Le Suis

One bartender who i admired dearly, for one he was working on his P.H.D on philo, came and shouted at me .....F2 you...F3 you; the next day came to me and apologized ...i told him that in both instances....nothing is for me or about me...he backed off silently.....while keeping his eyes fixed on me...this made him more angry....i can tell from..his teeth..

This bartender (majored in library science and worked in the main library in town as well as his young brother who is a bartender too) .....he came to my table, outside, and told me:

you are a nihilist, there is something in our values you may consider?
i told him, in dealing with values, the only thing sacred is life, and life means no control....i went inside to the counter to ask for another beer....he bought me a can of old style and kept shouting while his face approached a foot from mine....i know what does means male to male face to face....it is a primitive display of aggression...to tell you the truth i am very comfortable...i content to feel alive....cause this poor guy is talking about him self...there is nothing about me or for me....

Mon Professeur De Chimie Bio Organique Et De Marquage A Écrit

Autrement dit, dans les sociétés normales, on ne fait pas obstacle à la parole mais on classe différemment les gens. Les savants pondérés et éminents sont écoutés avec grand respect. Les satiristes sont écoutés avec un moindre respect et avec perplexité. Les racistes et les antisémites sont écoutés à travers un filtre d'opprobre et sans respect. Les gens qui veulent être écoutés attentivement doivent le mériter par leur conduite.

C'est organique, belle et rose, romantique; pourtant, les sociétés ne font pas de guerre, les entreprises n'hésiter à le faire.

Occupy 40 degree Fahrenheit: if you see money; do not show up! ! if i rap everything in one pack, and zipped all together, i will tell you:

the hope turned back and over OBAMA's camps (beside the democrats, the bureaucrats, and the techo-mafio-buffalo-wings-auto-crats. The list of state-corporate related predators is infinite. If you are still following me, you type of gay, miss susan, and you, miss extreme tattoo; you can come up with your own list.)

Now, what is the difference between an emperor, a ruthless negatively dark general, a young rebellion MISSION-eer.....or a ghost miniature soldier who starting his/her journey from a boot camp to a real war, or simply an obsessed video game edict.

Cause, when one thinks empire, one thinks pyramids.....? ? and here i stop to tell you, someone has to pay for that, someone else has to build it, and the glory is for the head of state (i mean, wall street.) It means YOU ARE mislead....by friends, bosses, bare mates, street mates, COFFEE-MATES, and mainly relatives. Sorry, you get what you paid for.

I personally believe, we are naturally ant-like specie, except we have different 64 bit dual core UN-upgradeable motherboard.

Back to obama, what is the difference between his circus, wall street circus, the army circus, and finally the tea party circus? obviously everything is good for show-biz more then for biz.

to wrapped up all together, show is 99% and biz is 1%. and the bottom line, we the 99% have the fun, the 1% are left behind.

Sweet: Arabic Factor

between us,
I do not know how an Arab looks like,
where is one is located, or how one uses one brain's synapses.
but i heard that one Arab is sweet when one is sleeping and no one is around to disturb that peaceful sweet sleep or long 'mediational' napping.

A Word To Muslims....

back in time of empires....

the architects whom built the empire...

Were Arab Sunnist....

now,

in the time of globalization...

global Islam is sill Sunnite....

cause Osama is Sunnite....

for the monarchy of the Arabia Saudi...is Sunnite

PoemHunter.com

it is all about the money that comes from pilgrims....the more pilgrims the trophies and better control.

personally,
i am sending a virtual pilgrimage tour proposal....so you do not have to go to mecca...mecca comes to you...and can customize your tour in a way that fits your spiritual and personal needs.

finally stop

thinking, dreaming and fantasizing sizing resizing and actualizing about the best Umma in the planet....

there is no such thing...

if so, it is Jewish, Christian, Hindus, Budists....thinks and dream about too!

if you do not evolve

you will vanish....DNA After DNA...RNA after RNA

Protein after protein,

enzyme after enzyme,
and carbon after carbon.

A Word To The Jews

Do you remember

all the hardships

all the discrimination and genocides

all the impossible conditions for millenniums they helped to sharp your destiny...

now,

if a female tells me that she is Jewish,

i means she is from special camp and with special genes...and she means it.

and if a male tells me he is Jewish,

i will format his hard drive...cause he is simply a racist rapist.....

cause,

in this twenty first century, racism is a form of low self-esteem...and low self-esteem means hostility....one of us need to be vigilant in particular, with Jews....i always think win-win..

with females i am always think i am yahweh until these females prove to themselves that they are as equal as males...

This means

this planet has to get rid of certain mid-dark-ages words and practices...

sorry,

my cousins for being concise....cause there are more challenges in this cosmos than being a black tiger, a white wolf, a Jewish dragon....a Chinese elephant or an Indian panda with a beautiful spot mark between the eyebrows...

sorry again, ...

This is not an apology...

i am only courteous...and sharply concise.

A Word To Google Corporation

You are...a global and a big enough corpo-ratio-n

as big as the solar system....

I can imagine...and I have no doubt that you are using Saturn's rings as a place for fliers, ads, search engine, and magnetic storage.
for more extra-terrestrial civilizations....

In cognitive science and in anthropology's terms, you are simply...

the monster replicator.

Give in to the heat

Or simply

Give in to me.....

I have the same damn seasonal weather.....

low cold low heat

or high cold and freezing heat

All are the same state

.....

now,

think of everything as words (including what i said)

memories, abstracted ideas, anchors, floating thoughts, stuff and tell me:

does pain (i mean the pain of words, memories, thoughts and stuff) take one to fear or to anger?

cause, for me, pain is a thought, fear is a word, anger is an empty world.

One possible solution...is to hibernate....like a grizzly bear.... along nap.....then you will face

an inflated tax....

the difference.....is when in what day of the week you will wake up...

second possibility.... you are a brave middle class-big glass-big lenses, big MOUCHETASHE, gig and fig gentle man....you can take it.... you already did...you always do....so good luck.....sorry for the talk....

it means go to Canada....not Mexico....

cause,

in 2012 december 23....

China will take the place of USA,

Canada will sand-washed in between,

USA will become what it is now the FATHERS' Guatemala...

Mexico...go to Australia....

Australians will come back home....((some back to Austria, the Ire-fire-land.....and the remainder to wont hold... it is dying....out....

and we do not sell
and make these type of old stuff batteries....
anymore.

your only two exits....are:
first,

to travel to Africa from any direction..... and don't ask me how...when....and where to have the money for the adventure
....just take a back bag and go....

your second exit....
i mean your real... future....
not African future....

not african american furture....

is to know how respond to any condition without filtering or stereotype...

cause we are all slaves....to our conditions, denials, and our setbacks....

so,

please kid,

Enlightened And Enlightenment

something disturbs me about the verb

to enlighten and the word

enlightenment:

as a kid,
-i mean when i was, .... sometimes I am.... childish and and unworried irresponsible....party no party gay...-

being enlightened

had to have some connection with light...

the sun of the day's light,
the candle's light by night,

someone flashes light into your face with force,

or someone deprive you from light so you can see it better...

as a kid

light and enlightenment

were two identical twins....

it took me

years....

i mean decades....to figure out that being enlightened

has nothing to do with light

(any form of photonic, electric-magnet, hi frequency vibration, and strings energy....)

a touch is is an enlightenment, being disturbed is an enlightenment,

freeing you chest is one of the greatest personal discovery....

being nice is an enlightenment...

being a prince-

....high rank, no starts, multi-galaxies explorer, self earned respect-being a f12-cker, a Woman's energy sucker....i mean the preferable...natural...way

Zone Two: Fantasy

i can not shut
up inside

and out...

i have been looking without success for a job

that allow me to talk naturally and keep my natural relaxed nature...around and while i am making my path and clearing my way...

the only job

is to be,
pretend to be,
happy to be,
my "pleasure! " to be,

PoemHunter.com

fed up to be,
a poet of all time....

or,

comedian,

stand up comedy?

serious theater main actor,
creative one actor theater,

funny woman man show or play? ?

so,
i figured out,

that the best job

that i can, desire, want and fight for

is simply to talk and please the listener or the listeners
-girls and boys and in between-while money pour from the sky.....because i am good at that and i do not fear competition...and I am going global too! !

Atef Ayadi

Zone Two: What Is About Tomorrow?

AAAAAA AH!

i am a day to day person...

the idea,
the question, and the concept of 'what is about tomorrow'

freak me out! (downward sharp voice: out!)

i have TONZ of TONZ

of
work, stuff to do,
other stuff i call them 'i do not know.'

stuff i dream to do
and forget to do,

stuff i should do, i must do,

and forget to do....

man! i need a boot camps
to learn to be a machine,
a robot,

a list or script executor...

PoemHunter.com

so i need discipline,
mastery,

and creativity as an option or leverage which i favor the most and every time...

so i keep being busy and alive

by doing what is close to me....

some times

i resign

leave my mind does what it is designed for and do the energy field yo gaaaaa!

gaga gg ggggaa

lady gaga....she is man! a ga! gaaa pu ssi lipstick on a a dirty slippery wild lips....

the rest hour of the day,

i train myself to defend against feminine energy's ice and electric chocks...

Zone Two: A Normal Day

a normal day looks exactly like

Today:

Wednesday, January 6th of two thousand and ten...

drew few drawing

while braking my constipated procrastination....

-i mean, no major event! - no major noise of blast

of joy....outside my box.

 PoemHunter.com

dead see people around,

i can feel their death, deff, and thefting of part of my mind....

so i always act,
behave,
initiate something sluppy

jumpy
camzy clamzy ramzi

ramzis II

fu king owsooM funny things! ! !

as people are still wondering or playing the dizzi

deads...

And I hate someone, play that in front of me..

it confuses me.... and i react bad...

i do not how bad....

i am not good in math or logic-they confuse mei can not assess how bad...until i cool

down

i can not cool down
cause
i can not get down.....

cause,

who ever put it in my mind was my pathetic dead dad....

the time i witnessed the many times he got down down and down without feeling dead.....

that is the beau-dom bottom button

batteau

line.....no more no less.....

the rest of the day, i look wondering in the sky

-the best thing that always happen to me, is to dream facing the sun-

Atef Ayadi

Zone Two: Next Move

nothing

will be achieved without

strategy,
tragedy,

and live long for a long war

without being hated or loved deeply without tragedies...

my first move,

PoemHunter.com

is jump,
without talk

into the battle field of my fear...

Atef Ayadi

Zone Two: Few Things

few things itch me
about humanity,

whether

i cross certain bushes,

i mean bushes
literallement and literally for both
NAITIVE BORN FRENCH NAITIVE WHITE CAUCASION AMERICAN SOME MINORITIES

qui parle la langue

or their own..

PoemHunter.com

freindship,

is sox, see ex girl friend, ex boy friend, someone in the sky, someone now

waah, waaaah, aaaiiii type of song...

you have just to swing your ear and adjust your head...

the second thing
about humanity

that itches me

is:
should i be easy and funny?

have fun first then ease?

it is a give and take song!

and the cases
"I"
undertook,

witnessed with a deep good refreshed breath,

and connected with, through all the magical secret channels, said they have their own dance

to every song...

so what itches here,

simply
i never learned to sing and to dance...

the last thing that itches me from humanity side

pushups,
democrassy,
, class, and status
everywhere in planet

earth.....

i learned in schools

-what ever

or where ever it is! - trust,

kindness,

good heart,

and something ak ak ak ward, for ward fu ak ak ak ak! ! ING

bizard word.

very generic,

pathetic

eileen type of word...

something like 'Do GOOD! '

or

Help 'others'

or

' do good thing, and you will be rewarded after life'

did you see how much SH EI It I took when i was a kid...

big metaphors,
big words,
big concepts,
big rewards, and big sacrifices,

for a kid

it is a magical world..

with the only rule,
the only law,

is:

Make things beautiful.....

Revolting Against My Pride

There were times,
I was doormat, the only thing I Enjoyed was watching the sun—I still enjoy it, — People, nature, and moving artifacts.

I was stripped off
From Eileen, my humanity,
And my choices.
I let it happen, cause
I was dormant doormat.

I was simply,

In a Jewish Concentration Camp;

Where it was free to move,
to love, and do the other things.

Food, love, and Freedom were and still cheap
Very cheap and affordable, And class-labeled
From healthy to non-healthy Despite the diverse adversities.

Here, I was,
Raped

Nothing, Left except few personal Habits and my deadly pride.

American Taliban: Death

I am not afraid of death.

death is a thought formed and left behind the walls of stillness.

I am not afraid either from life -

life is a beautiful game of

American Taliban: Psychology

if you know how you function, what is this mind thing, memory thing,
and the cognitive things.

you may carry on or resign.

and there will be no way you resign and get out of it.

unless you flash your memories out and you have to start from a scratch like a child and i do not want you to drift into a deep comma in order to have that.

look,

a mind is like car, and you are the driver.

and sorry to tell you until puberty
someone else had been driving it, and someone else have been hijacking it after that, you look you have to use that car imposed on you, can you drive a car

that you do not like,

do you like to use the same

C, C++, Java scriped codes coded into your brain without questioning whether they fit, buggy, or trash?

so please, write your own codes, your own definitions,

Atef Ayadi

American Taliban: The Miserable Brain Chemistry

see, if you are fine and I want you to remain that way until you change that state to a better one-happy, satisfied in all the Maslow pyramid listed drives and needs.-

but if you screw your own nature, yourself,
you are not in touch with it,
you do not listen to all the emotional signals,

and to your guts,

well,

god is there,
waiting in front of your nose,

i am not asking you to balance
but only to be aware.

god appear
only when the 'bad, bad, and bold things' happen to you

and i am sure you are vulnerable

i am sure,

you are in denial and setback
-it all about them and the pain, you are not part of it-

i am sure,

god do

act as neither as an engine
nor as a catalysis.

take a breath,

face it,
explore it and commit

cause

god neither explore nor commit;
if so no one will be judged or sacrificed.

Atef Ayadi

American Taliban: The 'Truth'

your slippery ends up all the time
to the 'truth.'

I like that!
look
little wizz, Fishing in a river
it is different from a lake, and fishing in a lake is different from a sea -as a matter of fact there are dead, black, white, red, and Caspian sea-is different from an ocean-oceans, you name it.-

Now,

little wizz, and genius of matter of god and not goddess,

the truth without any epistemological framework leads to absolutism, absolutism is old stuff as old as the distance between Washington DC and Bethlehem BC and leads to this divine sleeping bored master thing-personally, I do like to be a slave to anything even a condition, a matrix loaded and reloaded, or a confined space and time.-

If you need it/him/she/they for hope or need to go through a tunnel or a journey cause you do not like to face it and face any endeavor.

or

accept it and it is personal.

-at least you admit your failure to yourself to grow and evolve.-

I will advice you
to do theater,

I called the God
theater,

the divine theater,

or the opium theater.

since you can talk to yourself and stuff has to be poored out.

may be one day you through up this clogging and clinged

god
between your mind, mouth and long guts.

may be,
you stop this constipating question about who created it us-try to take me from your us thing.-

Atef Ayadi

American Taliban: The Ethic Delema

From Ontology,

Epistemology

-which a good start for you, at least you know what is knowledge, and how do you know what you know and how much is yours from what is not, - to normative, and meta-ethics.

man!

sorry

woman!

or wo/man!

Do you see, there always a start point?

noah is a Babylon myth, eve and Adam is another one, heaven and hell is a middle east concept of desert as hell and heaven is place where crops can grow, before the egyptian moved it to the sky- hell is hena, a jewish term means dump, where they dump dead poor people who could not afford an egyptian fancy type of burial-

So Mr. Taliban and Taliban woman and anything in between whether it is hot or cold,

hell and heaven are here in this planet,

there will be no
day of judgment, and the world won't end in 2012 as predicted by some smart no frontal lobe flat tire theologians.

simply, because astrology is not a science
but a scientology.

it is accepted by the superstitious who lack responses, initiatives, and will.

so please read,
chinese philosophy cause they are 1,330 billions Hindu philosophy cause there are 1,148 billions, future ethics,
business ethics,

Greek philosophy
Muslim philosophy -the big mess is about globalization versus Islam, and try not to get into Sufism, or you will be a third degree Taliban-medieval, renaissance feminism,

modernism,
ethic evolution,

nature and ethics
-not nature of ethics.-

so Mr. Taliban, and miss Taliban, you have enough options to choose from and the easiest one is to camp in the wilderness alone,

live cave,
on top of a mountain or in the center of a salty dry lake.

somewhere where you will be alone and vulnerable to your own habits, expectations, assumptions, and old beliefs.

stop

American Taliban: Knewdge Verses Bacteria

it is better to know what you need to know
-knowledge is not believing, check vik or wiki pedia, or just google what you want -google, microsoft, and yahoo fight for you everyday and work, and sorry for AOL.-

I know, in America
most people have credit cards -that is way we are in a damn financial melt down.

so take credit card and buy -not from best buy, not from ebaya microscope -not a telescope, cause that stage II, like native english 102, and you did not start yet ESL101-now go to any place you feel that has bacteria;

or do not go anywhere,
just go to the toilet-sorry-look man how beautiful

that little tiny word.

now,

have you ever hear talking about coalition in CNN

NATO

Northern Coalition in Efghanistan, or of kurds of kurdistan-kurds are like some human species, they are almost gone, Jews' population are back to normal, American natives are so so.-

now,

can you zoom out on your skin.

or you may read something like neurons, heart cell, bone, muscles, nerves, liver cells.

do not you think your cell are from Eve and Adam and bacteria are made in china before the mexicans invaded Berlin and then went to fight for Eye rack?

Beauty Formation

Nothing is more beautiful than
to connect to

Nothing is more beautiful than to connect to a

El Arbol de Tule or a sherman tree, by doing so, one learns freedom is not a walking foot print more than standing up facing all the ironies and leaing more seeds to defeat more ironies.

Nothing is more beautiful than
to connect to
to the sun,

the beauty does not come from darkness

both volcanoes throw off all the lava, smoke, and aches and melt down any snow on top.

imagine the lava flow down to the sea and fill slowly the ocean

Forty Letters To A Woman – Nineteenth Letter –

this letter is not that different from a man's letter in love with a woman he lost.

I did not lose you, indeed.
I did not lose myself, and it is not about hopes.

This is a type of business letter;
the only profit is to invest in more love, a new way to structure the fun of loving and survive all the turbulence and spins.

I am a man of character,
I like the big pictures and tiny ones.
Your face is one of the big pictures.
Your voice is one of the tiny pictures.
Your skin is a turbulence at a maximum pleasurable spin.

You are a woman of many predictable characters and few are made of fractal yellow and red clouds.

Can you stop being predictable
and take me off high to enter your invisible world
of red yellow clouds?

or do you want me to remain simply a simple weather man who is figuring out which drop of rain is falling from which cloud?

Forty Letters To A Woman – Third Letter –

You were the harpist
At the gate of heaven.
I was about crossing that gate when we first met.

I never though,
felt, or captured your inner songs that flew with the harp melody until I left heaven from the other gate.

I never knew that your were the first picture and the last sound of heaven until I left it.

What remains
now in my deepest memories an ancient question
- and that is what I try to get rid of: -

What makes heaven
heaven?
is it a melody,
a woman's melody at the gate of heaven,
or the silent melody in a woman eyes?

Naivety

There are no haunted hopes, but surmounted desires.

There are no demolished desires, but watery desires.

There are no trampled temptations, but silly childish temptations.

There are no pulverized and vaporized passions, but passion of passions, nourished passions, and mother of all passions.

There are no whacked wishes, but untraceable path.

There are no dashed dreams, but beautiful moony mares.

There are no fettered fantasies, but a bracelet of golden and pearled fantasies.

There are no amputated aspirations, but one heart, one skin, and one bone aspirations.

There are no attacked, hacked, and destroyed ambitions, but penetrable and naked ambitions

There is no Naïveté, but knowing what you need to know, what you want and need to want, and walking on high winds with long sticks made of desires.

It is all about the pain of seeing and overseeing, solving and confronting, and give-and-take one's and others' desires, one's dilemmas and others' dilemmas.

One denies, and sets back rather than explore that desire and then commit.

Hope and hopes are good for one to set back; the pain never sets back.

Nothing is strange or odd.

Beauty is feeling the power of anything in everything.

Naivety is a beautiful thing

When

One faces the pain

With one's back while keeping desires pulling our chest to the front.

Her lips were out side, walking with the moon;
Her voice rose, flattened, collapsed, then vanished into the sandy dune;
Her eyebrow were sometimes playing Tai Chi, sometimes engaged in a furious ravaging combats;

Her hands were a story of lost and found;

Is it my intuitive being that is taking over my survivor instinct?

Am I getting the wisdom I have been looking for?

Or

It just my mind is playing tricks on me?

An Argument

She:

'I am bored! '

Me:

'No you are not, you look for a love argument.'

She:

'No, I do not.'

Me:

'Do you like to be kissed from the left to the right, only from the right, only from the left, at the center, at random, or where you are in need?'

She:

'No I do not, unless you know what is left, what right, what is center, what is random, what is rough, what is soft.'

Me:

'So you like to be kissed? '

She:

'No it is not about my state of mind, it is about your state of mind.'

Me:

'My state of mind depends on your state of mind and my skin is just a skin.'

She:

'No, my skin is not your skin.'

Me:

'Yes, I can prove that your skin is mine. By saying this, I am not stopping you from claiming my skin, the only condition is to be in my left, my right, or in the center; not the past or in the future. I mean fully in the present. Then you may take skin with you where and whenever you like, to the space, to the desert, the beach, on the sand, under the sun, you wet it, you dry it out, you take it to the future or back to the past, that depends on what you want and how clear you are about it.'

She:

'I want just your skin! '

Me:

'How do you want it? '

She:

'I do not know, spiced may be? muddy! Burned without fire? I mean blackened with dust, dirt, smoke and stuff, like a mine worker man! '

Me:

'You mean from Pennsylvania state? Chocoslovania? Urbania? Chambania? '

She:

'No, I want you to be Eskimo'

Me:

'Now you want me to be a seal and Humpback Whale hunter, what else you want me to hunt down for you? '

She:

'My skin! '

Sun Set, Sun Rise

The West came up with the extreme numbers, maximum pleasure, minimum pain, the risk of the pain, the risk of the risk, pleasurable risk, dominoes risk, and non-dominoes risk.

Between The Burst And The Fall

Unlike the sun,

The global economy works with a basic math of derivatives - while the first derivative provides the extrema, the second is about the sharpness of rise or the fall. A basic math that a child can learn and apply perfectly. The third derivative, the fourth and so forth burst at the center of an adversity.-

It looks we are putting the risk at risk rather than calculating the risk of the risk. Still, it is the most beautiful time to connect and play with the dots and the air.

Anonymous Letter

When you write to me

Lady,

I try to see you,

With your face, hair, earrings, neck, chest, hands, jewelries, skin, the color and texture of your clothes, your legs, your shoes, the ways you walk, sit, lay down, stand up, the way you breathe, your gesture, body language, calmness, and your brutal natural eruptions.

I try to smell you from head to toes, and every part of you smell and talks differently.

I try to hear your natural clock, wind, whispers, gasp, your ice melting, your falling ice crystals, and your snow flakes flying before falling down.

I try to feel you, and feeling you is not touching you, because touching is walking through a peaceful and hostile land; it looks promising and it is not, you see the sun and it is not.

So,

Lady try to be careful about what you write,

And before writing anything, try to include all the above if it is possible,

Or put simply your smell on the paper without writing anything, I can read it better;

Or put your face, I will read your inner rhythms and words;

Or put something else, that ignites my curiosity, because feeling someone starts with a crazy childish curiosity;

Or just choose a blank paper, a rug, a leaf, a wild dry skin, or a metallic natural skin, I will write your feelings down for you, I will paint them for you, or I will just make a perfume that works only for your outer and inner skin.

A Claim

Some claim

that I am idealistic -Idéalisme (redirection depuis Idéaliste)

En philosophie, l' idéalisme est un courant de pensée qui affirme la prééminence des formes abstraites ou des représentations mentales sur la réalité, qu'elle soit expérimentée ou inintelligible.-

If you want me to dig more for the sake of the argument I will state simply that

I am!

Being idealistic is overseeing simplicity as it is, then make it beautifully crafted and complex.

love means feeling someone, be that person - This is feasible not possible-

I dive and dwell into details;

I like to use all my neurons, the right side of my brain before the left one;

I do not think money -Sorry lady who wants to flirt on and with me.-

I like stress, pressure, cold, hot temperature, darkness, noise, ugliness, disorder, difficulties, dizziness, playing with words, paraphrasing, reading without sound, creativity, silliness, patterns, clouds, height, depth, the absence of colors, the non-sense that makes sens, ambiguity, awkwardness, conditions, future, future, future, future, and the concept of species and the basic need for evolution, what makes evolution evolution, wilderness, fire, water, the Sun, the Moon, Jupiter and my myth of Eileen.

What is wrong with that?

Almost Sacrificed

I lived

A long life with a wrong map - after all it was not mine, it was given to me when Someone else words, feelings, and thoughts.

Two Ways And Other Things

There are two ways to lead people -I mean the big mass, not mess, cause, the mess is done at higher levels, and if you start asking what is more higher then that, I will tell you right now, god! , and it does not matter how you see it!
cause that is diversity not adversity! - One, is to confuse them, and tell them there will be no way for an escape without my help!
Two is to persuade them- it is win-win, better then the 'All or nothing' with denial and setback.
but persuasion is confusing bit by bit, it is steaming the emotions, creating a human 'spontaneous' report, and then looking for weakness to elicit some pleasure -people like pleasure, who does not?

Is there anything else, different, futuristic, different from lean on me, or scratch my back I will scratch your back as if it is mine, something really beautiful?

A Brief Short Story: In The Eyes Of The Beholder

There is nothing called ugliness, beauty and so forth. Sometimes an 'ugly' body can show all its beauty if only if the concept of beauty is only a 'fertile eyes, unearthed lips, or simply looking for a blush.'

Ugliness is a chocking and complete, beauty is uncompleted and barely a life. there is also what i call 'beautiful ugliness and ugly beauty' and i learned in the tough way that the eyes of the beholder are as beautiful or as ugly as what it attract itself to: you fly you catch birds, you dive you catch fishes, in other word, beauty is neutral but matches the noise within.

A Brief Short Story: In The Head Of An Extremist

I need that extreme Act, horrible an by far looks human. I need to blow my self up, alone, and faraway; so I can see myself afterward: shredded into human peaces and thoughts. I need that! From the moment of hearing a crying child in my chaotic vicinity, falling and flying metal fragments, to the tearing of my own flesh. I need that action so I can see my fate with my own eyes; feel it, hear it, and remember it. I need that action, so I can walk, talk, think beautifully and accurately without guilt and fear.

A Brief Short Story: In The Head Of A Sniper

He hired a professional sniper to shut him accurately in the heart; one shut, one bullet, quick and perfectly done.

after walking out from the meeting with the sniper, a cold thought melted his guts:

'why i need to be hunted and shut dead? '

'is it important to die like a hunted animal, or a hero'

'where and when from now? '

'is there anything i forgot? '

'is there anything i need to claim before i die more than claiming my own death? '

'is there anything that will stop this accurate bullet? '

' or should i run away, hide from the sniper? after all he his a human being with at least one unique skill. will he suddenly shift his intention from being a sniper to a compassionate peace keeper or something else completely different?

what is my odds, what is my luck?

it looks, to me life is chasing a bullet from heart to heart'

Ringling The Bell: The Olypics

You still have fire.
I also have my fire.

we can take both, one's own, or one unique fire and go to race in the Olypics;

or we can leave some fire for the next winter Olypics;

so we can both sprint run,
wrestle,
do all the gym acrobats,
sand volleyball,
free four hundreds swimming, and ski under the heavy blue sky.

So, do you have enough
fire?
or do you need to barrow some of my fire?

Ethics Of Roses: Satanic Divulged Satra

i though i lost your secret, while contemplating your vague strata.

are you revealing or hiding your little hell evil desire or strata emotions.

i felt and always feel to do the tapping of the untapped young soul, who wants to awake up

Between me and Eileen
an ancient vague subject called time.

while i always feel i have time;

she always think and feel time.

i see a lighted candle simply as the sun;
she sees the lighted candle like 'the' full moon.

i like to fly and orbit around the moon;
she want to built a safe lovers' colony she wants less light in the night time, because she is always hiding in the moon;

i wants wine to be rested and served on the moon.

She has three halves of a vertical feminine curious face:

The middle face is white blue natural type of woman face.
-the sky is always blue, I want a lover to enjoy it with me-

The first face to the left
is a standing

or beegeeze 'stay a life' song.

now

numbers,

addition,

subtraction -don't obstruct, abstract me, or subtract me now kid! - and multiplication -multiplication is doing the same thing fast, -

it is simply how you put your hands and maneuver objects

example:

a cow added to a cow gives two cows.

a cow added to two friendly cows gives a friendly three cows-if they stick together, otherwise you sill have simply three cows that need grass, water, and other stuff.-

a cow multiplied by a cow is a cow square or a squared cow

-it up to you to see, feel, and conceptualize the square first then the cow or both.-

now when we are dealing with variables, sets and operations; it is exactly like a cow barn or farm.

a variable is like a cow -without label like, juanita is a good cow, or rob is a very bed one: no milk, no kid, and bed behavior.-

it could be one thing: a unique cow with a unique attributes, two things if this cow is pregnant, has personality disorder, or think about her or his cow lover.

do you see now a variable.
it can start simply from cows

you can extend your imaginations to goats, camels (not tobacco) , lizards, and so forth.

we will talk about rational numbers,
imaginary numbers,
and complex probability and luck later this year!

Teaching: 101

Teaching is easy, like acting 101
if you ever noticed that?

you do not need a P.H.D A special certificate to concentrate or identify your own possible DHA symptoms and eliminate them.

students have to trust you.
if not, take your box anything you brought with you and leave.
trust is self trust is how you walk talk slowly
and how you eat
slowly
-and sometimes what you eat has to do with your own inner deeper core trust.-

students are and must be your audience:
they have taste
intentions,
hobbies,
lobbies,
and biased phobia.

sometimes,
you take them like a bench of lams.
-it is not about 'I have to be tough or they will eat me from the beginning! ', the last resort or exit,
i have an image to preserve.

not at all!

you must be mythical,

like a judge,
a cap,

Tarzan,

Alexandre the great (even though he was gay, but he lead an entire army to be lost around the block,) they must believe in you.

i mean you must believe in yourself and know exactly what you are talking about and accept that you are not a complete universe-otherwise it will be an e-harmony romantic lecture-get that?

now, go to your students
and work like a team,
a family,
a country
a planet, or one whole solid universe.

she is crazy and i am too- i love crasinessmay be more than anyone imagine.

she is dull sometime,

that is what i need most of the time.

she is a female

i am a slack.

she has the staff
for life,

i am like any extremist

i have the staff for after life
-i mean i resurrect myself every minute if i do not see eileen-

I Started...The Endings Are Or Will Be Anythings

I write

for one reason:

to maximize my chances for survival.

if I can do it differently

I would not add a word on top of what I wrote.

if I am given the option to look at Eileen or to write.

hey!

I will choose the first option.

It is free;

not that free!

but I have the chance to create my home fences

with the blue of Eileen eyes.

it is like owning a lake, or an ocean;

and

I like to look at a lake thinking it is an ocean.

I like to feel water,

the rain,

the dew, and the fog.

I like the snow as an option.

If you add the human elements
or Eileen elements.

that is the perfect opium I need to explore and win over the hardship of life.

Atef Ayadi

I Write... The Rest Is Not Mine

i write,
i do not deal with copy rights

-i know well my rights;
i know well my damn space-

i write to trigger
someone's senses;

one at the time,
all at once,

or
it is up to you to use fairly your senses.
it is up to you to manage fairly your responses.

I write

PoemHunter.com

because i do not have other things to do.

i write like a kid.
i write the way i eat,
walk,
and I do not see anyone is stopping me
from eating or walking unless it is an urgent matter or i let him invade my space

-it is rare even in my dreams.-

language is basically how i feel about you

him,
her,
her or his dog,
her or his cat,
anybody, and anything.

i can kill or create a word depends on my needs.

sometimes,

i do not need
anything.

i want to forget myself and be in the mind of someone else.
or be something:
a tree, a stone,
a lake,
a bird, ..., anything

i do not need a language to be completely silent.

i do not need a language to take a deep breath and get to the rescue.

i like to creat from a language a brutal noise, completely mute silence, or in between a language like a silent snow or a brutal fire, or rainy language.

Atef Ayadi

I Have A Enough Poem's Reserve. Is It Enough?

should i write
more,
simpler,

or should i just calm down?

writing is my land escape

my visual art corner
my music

all my fantasies
all my explored and unexplored dramas.

should i keep writing until i will be empty
and de-hydrated.

 PoemHunter.com

or may be by writting
i will find my way.

who knows,
i keep trying until something will come up by surprise.

and like surprises
and adventures

i like the unknown

the impossible

so i write for that.

for that unknown.

To Eve: The Bordon

do you have something to say?

something
to brake my ice or the world ice cream

or you ice.

just something to help me out help you out

get out of the routine.

though something
on me
toward the sky
a pillow
a glass
a word
a god jesus thing.

something
to help
circulate the blood
around my neck,
around your lips,
and your cheeks,
and your chin.

To Eve: The Game

give a word,

i will make a fantasy out of it or just give a glance

i will tell you what is in your heart or what is in your mind.

give me something i can think or feel i can touch

because that is my fantasy

give me a feeling and hide it or do a natural camouflage;

i will try to get into it.

give me

or i will give you everything

all at once
pour it down

like a brute force.

To Eve: The Poem That Looks Like A Fantasy

I READ YOUR POEM,
THE DOG POEM.

I HAVE A BELIEF THAT

IF A WOMAN TALK ABOUT A DOG, IN HER LIFE,
IT IS A Miserable BEAUTIFUL LIFE
SHE WANT TO DESCRIBE,

MAY BE SOMEONE CAN CATCH HER SIGNALS;

A DOG!

IT IS A WAY TO STAY A LIFE, AWAY OF LIFE AT THE EDGE OF THE COMFORT ZONE.

To Eve: Lets Walk

Lets go for a walk, Eve,
Walking is a silent talk,
A way of whispering from the sky to the ground.

Lets have a walk, walking is like dreaming with your own choice and I like to know how you are dreaming.

To Eve: A Red Rose Proposal

if you prefer something else
other than a rose,

a red rose,
or a handful pack of orange roses what would be?

because i am sure after holding yourself around the roses, you will feel like one.

after that feeling of mother natural foreplay,

you settle and breath my nectar my buds
my skin

PoemHunter.com

you touch my thorns and horns

you want more time to explore all i have.

how much time?

if i adopt you you adopt me like a pet
a body guard a coast guard
a grave yard landscaper,

or simply a boss

or simply you are my boss

what is the differences

do you know exactly what you want so i make myself ready for such adoption or being abducted will be fine?

To Eve: After All

Everyone has something to do beside making
love,
feeling being loved and connected in one way or another.

Everyone!

So tell me lady,
what is your vocation?
what stuff you have and you are hiding?
what stuff you have forgotten, and still wights on your shoulder?
what secret's 'no secret up front' you are fabricating, lubricating, knitting, and cleaning from the rust?

what voodoo practice,
yoga, or karma discipline of these days you are exhibiting?

what is your nature's instinct?
what is deep below your dress and clogging your veins what is your dilemmas?
what is your fear and what tears you into peaces?

what is your matter?
what is you substances? what is your actual location -cause, i am sure you are day dreaming yet, fantasize ahead of time - where are you in the time line, do you still live in the past?

are you in the present or in the furure

if i can get hold of you how much of you can I grasp, take, loot, and run away?

how much of you is still left?

how much is left for you?

how much is left for me?

independly

how much of you is available for both of us?

how much of you is left for the whole world?

Atef Ayadi

To Eve: I Have A Dream

i have a dream
to arouse any eyes
and all eyes of this beautiful planet;
one by one or separately, in her little temple
or red mill house.

Wherever
she is may be.

the how is my discipline.

Atef Ayadi

PoemHunter.com

To Eve: Whatever

i will adjust!

show me you how you look at me

from

'hey i have 'one' in my life and i am not free as you think; '
'i am fine' type of look

to

'you are, and not the one i looking for, i am not sure, let me go through my memories and archives, so i can clearly see you and see my options.'
type of look.

i can see all the spectrum.

my bet

PoemHunter.com

is:

are you clear,
responsible,
sensitive
light enough to handle my fire and my winds?

because if you do not see it do not look at me.

Atef Ayadi

To Eve: The Smile

I always like an eve with a smile.

who does not?

A smile is life within.

I always like to see all eves walking with a natural smile.

not because they are eve

or i am looking afterward for a breed of woman with a particular type of smile.

not at all!

a smile

is everything;

because
without it,
a face is like an ocean
without waves or tides.

Atef Ayadi

To Eve: The Journey Begin

lets fix our staff
first and party

the rest of our life.

there will be enough
time.

enough fun.

a lot of fun.
just feel free to creative team work connected and clear about what type of life your life
you show your little yutube.

PoemHunter.com

just play like kid
and play life with me.

otherwise
everything will be a waste, a miserable time.

and i have no desire to start such fake unprofessional kid game.

Atef Ayadi

To Eve: The Little Insecurity.

Do you think i need you to feel secure?

Do you think if I see you doing the woman little insecure
secure
stuff

I will vibrate?

No!
like a red STOP sign

Do you think I am programmed to have you, save you, take care of you, and impress you like all love's stories?

Do you think
if someone take a picture of us together
it will look we are together funny looking, or
"Sad-Said" or 'Said-Sad" looking?

Do you think I am looking for an eve
too
taxi,
too bus,
a land-rover,
a bulldozer,
a 'mitchi bushy' Japanese Ferrari type of eve?

No!

No way!

And no way to take that way!

I am not a crack dealer

-sorry crack dealer, I do not mean that type of crack, but still, you get to do what you get to do, and i got to do what i need to do and that is the difference between us without low self-esteem! -

I want an eve

so

natural

like

eileen.

Atef Ayadi

To Eve: Fair Enough

there are moment
when i am bull.

if i catch you;
cease you,
from your neck back
you will be mine.

no matter what!

what ever
your face
your level of maturity or security, or your level of femininity,

i will grasp
you
from the neck.

i will bite from there,
hung in there until you give up.
i will not leave you until you ask to breath
my skin

mixed with your natural air.

Atef Ayadi

To Eve: The Song

you have never been allowed to be outside the little 'woman' circle for thousands of years.

now it time

to walk out,
explore that little circle
make it bigger,
or re-sized the way you want.
or simply create your own.

so woman
start your ritual,
by singing
or dancing

with your feminine voice or mimicking my masculine voice.

just get out of that old cold freezing circle
and be a hunter.

i have been dreaming
of a woman
who dares to leave her native inner circle, and aims to hunt me down.

To Eileen: If You Think You Are Eve

Are you sure you playing eve

and you do not know
the type,
the brand, or the band of eve you are?

Did somebody tell you who you are really?
what type of woman you
are?

Did someone smell anything,
good,
suspicious,
dramatic,
aesthetic,
fancy,
antic,
boutique,

anything a man can sniff out.

after a deep dog sniffing
from far or from distance?

cause,
it matters.

it matter at least to me.

it is important to know,

PoemHunter.com

identify,
feel,
see,
hear,

everything?

because,
for me,
Eve

is an empire to build and protect; and feel each tree, herb, bird, brick, stone, and each grain of sand.

To Eileen: The Decipline

I hoped and still hope that you are a kind of boxer,
a tchee something taekwondo, karate marshal
artist.

I hoped that you pinched me
in the face to wake up,

or my face
pinched
your little fragile hands.
so we can both be in the present time, no past and no planing for the future.

I hopped
we both brook
our ice
bergs and melted it in a tequila cocktail.

I hoped
you burned me,
I burned you-the ice is only to cool us down.-

I will only keep a little ice
on your ice
berg,
enough
to keep your ice as well as your berg a life...and fresh.

do not worry about my ice

PoemHunter.com

my berg
my weather patterns my global warming
or even my home land security.

do not worry about that.
because,
myself I do not.

I just worry
about
your temperature,
your little fevers, and your "cool"
ling Chinese system;

that is all!

your ice
is in peril.

Sorry! to tell you this.

your ice
is at its melting point.

it may lead to a disaster
if I do not do anything.

And sorry again,
it is good to leave nature take its course and adapt to changes and this is my attitude and quite my discipline.

To Eileen: I Love You Until The Fall

the fall is coming,
and the winter after,
will bring the chill soon.
i am prepared with all my staff: soul, food, shelter, feelings.
i packed my self and all my staff together.

are you?

do you have some icy feelings left from this last summer?

do you have some hot spots?

for the next winter?

PoemHunter.com

are you always alone?

no matter
what?

my winter

what.

my summer
is your ice.

falling

without a season

no matter
what.

Words Are Flying With Others Words

To Eileen: The Lips And The Smile I Am Looking For

her is a deal,

my possible

fate -my darleen, -

it does not need a prophecy or woman's voodoo

to "counter band" it,

to high

jack it off

out

up and down,

to appreciate,

to love,

or to dream it fully and through.

Do you want an another word?

another planet?

another set of people-sorry people, I am talking only and solely to my 'lady', the one I created and created me-another land escape?

Do you want me without all what I listed, with what is lasted in me, what I lost, and my stirred lust with your fantasy?

Do you want yourself, found in me or just a pure self in you?

PoemHunter.com

what do you simply want?

a unity,
a wholeness,
a mirror,
a shelter,
or a simple unknown fantasy?

Do you like to be me,
taking over me,
feeling me,
feeling yourself,

or simply
you want the presence of forgotten things;

because,
I tried to be you and each time

a woman is always a mysterious world of fantasy.

To Eileen: Time Does Not Mater

I know
what time means to you.

You are a woman, you were taught time is your worse enemy.

I did not

You tried hard with all your seductive methods
still you failed.

I did

simply,
time is not my enemy,
and what I am looking for is an eternal smile.

why we need plasma tv?

for what?

you are my plasma 342' screen wide.

or do you prefer to be hologram?

'circles'

we can make more

To Eileen: The Rest Of Story

I am a kind of folk...

-I mean the 120 to 12000 volts type of people.-

Do you see the picture?

you are not in the he right or left mood?
or you are just highly charged?

Is there Any
concern?

While I live in the present,
You live in the far past
-"Is" is was and "Are" is were, this is has been your choice, I can not change
that.-

While you are always debating about the chicago spices or chico spices
hesus,
jesus,
Korean,
malisian,
californian, native, Hawaiian, and the damn cold north spices.

this let me
feel,

where you grew up,
how you grew up,
and

where the hell you come from?

I start to feel your past your
"environmental issues"
"woman" issues
your "chico american, irish, spanish fantasm" issues
and how all of this start to and how you get stuck in the past.

so what?
it happens and still happens and will happen in good families.

so what?

you are lost in the past as usual.

the past is part of your clothes and skin.

feed me,
clean me,

leave me where I made a mistake it is my business to make mistakes I will learn the "get over it" the "let it go"

the "do it until you fail, then you fail, then you get frustrated, then you fix it or you fail again."

A Child Is Born: From Far

there was a TV commercial about saving a child from a miserable deadly fate.

as soon as the commercial popped up,

I asked my roommate:

why you do not help with a dollar or two to save that child?

look at her,

she is a beautiful child!

-there is no ugliness in a child, just look close. The ugly part is when one remembers oneself as one looks at a child.-

My roommate

became angry and agitated

when he saw an African, Latino, or Asian starving child

he always say:

"let them die

you can not help them,

just wait, they will grow up and will kill each other anyway.

let them die,

it is a waste."

others do everything to save a child from his or her misery.

some want to have or being famous for their new collections of children from around the world.

others want to teach children or teach about childhood development,
second by second
neuron by neuron,
until the child frontal lobe will develop and explode

and ask:
leave me alone!

is it really miserable to instruct a child
to do what
one had done.

is hypocritical to program a child like a robot

and try all the subroutines and scopes
to succeed in following instructions and codes of a miserable programmer or a miserable growing adult child?

is it?

on top of that they label that child

musical labels literature labels religious labels
race labels

for what?

to do what?

to produce what?

to be an organic vegetable, a consumable product in one's kitchen because one can afford it what is if you can not?

From Distance: The Moon

I am not looking for words to talk on my behalf;

instead,
I choose silence.

If I can express my silence in words
I would stop at this line.

Silence is a remedy for ill words
until
words become a sea of silence and the sea waves migrate to the surface of the moon.

From distance,
You look Badly taken:

-Ugliness is the beauty
when it is taken or left to distance, time have not change it since the ancient time -

From close,
I see closely your beauty
And truthful face.

I am beautifully rigid From distance

And ugly As you are Approaching me.

Blue Monster

The blue monster
Is always facing your face.
In your back
When you look back.
On top
When you are on top of your head.
Under your feet
When you step on your own feet.

The blue monster
Is blue
When you think
And dark
When you start to feel.

The blue monster
Has no shapes, smell, or Voice, or makes sounds and vibrates at all.

The blue monster
Tries
And keeps Trying
To get into you and fight the giant Within you.

The yellow monster

You ignore it,
It will catch you.
You fear it,
It fears you.
You stop,
It stops.

The yellow monster

It is colorless,
But has your smell
That is way it follows you.

The yellow monster
Do the same thing you do, Except
It does not remember what it does
And it does not remembers you.
But it follows your smell
And keeps following you.

Simple partial seizures to see it or to feel its presence.
When it comes and cease you, it will ask you to not be afraid,

Stop the fear,
See it as a stone
or a handful piece of metal,
put it anywhere inside the monster.
then
explore the sound as it turns into colors, colors turns into fumes, fumes fall off like shredded glasses and rises to form words of cloud.

Feelings: Happiness, Mine And Yours

My happiness

even i reveal everything

out.

my happiness is to describe

My happiness,

is to write,

and it does not matter

the language,

the temporal,

the age,

the stage, and the theater.

I want to write and make it simpler.

I want to trigger your senses and do not worry about my senses

-They fly, fall down, scramble, and still fine! -

My happiness
is to write

my words as if they are my children from Eileen

or other children I adopt;

I feed them,
strengthen them,

and let them go.

My happiness,

is reached at its maximum

-and really there is no and will not be any maximum-

when

others are fulfilled and satisfied
with or without reaching their little interesting interest or maxi,

is she a dream
written in my dream by whoever is,
was,
and still capable?

still,
it does not make sense,
no sense,
any!
at all?

but,
eileen
is my ghost
my hands,
my pen,
my ink,
my colors,

my forms,
my ideas,
my beautiful idea,
my little obscure dream.

she is my guide,
my light,
the person,
i could and i can talk to

The Sea: The Calm

I am calm and you?

can you see a calmness in someone or recognize such nature?

can you hear
or could you hear that calmness?

if you can feel being calm
can you feel it in someone else
simply

for your sake
her,
his,
or for the god good halla-lowwa sake?

but ladies
and gentlemen,

how you hit
and miss?

how possibly

you think that calm

means calm?

are you framing,
stereotyping, or misunderstanding words and labels?

calm means being settle,
satisfied,
not subject to challenges,

or challenges defeater

and

the hole thing is settle like everything in control past wise,
future wise,
and one has the wisdom of being wise.

The Play I Want To Play

i wanted to write a play called eileen

the idea is beautifully romantic,
intellectual,
sensual, and has a turning point,
a boiling point,

a freezing point,

a chance to laugh
for people in need and whom do not laugh.

it has hypnotic rhythms,
audience penetration,
seduction,
arousal,

political agenda,

a business goal oriented play.
it is basically a shakespearean style.

i want to do it,
play it,
write it,
blow it, or nail it down with a hammer or Stapler.

really!

help me

eileen!

light and sound
are not an issue

my voice,
my vocabulary,
my style,
my feelings,

my convictions
whether playing for eileen or for the audience, talking to eileen
or to the audience.

both have interests and my interest is both,
i shall only focus in that.

i like to act
as lover
with a strong conviction about love
-here, i am not a church dude, - make the audience

go nuts.

What Is The Difference

If you have to choose between Touching a holly book
And touching a woman hand.
Tell me
What is the difference?

If you have to choose between Fighting in a war for personal or tribal cause, And Fighting a woman lips for the same cause.
Tell me,
What is the difference?

If you have to choose between Exploring the deepest ocean,
And exploring the deepest woman feelings.
I suppose you know what is a feeling is
And what is an ocean?
Tell me,
What is the difference?

If you have to choose between Talking for a light year long,
And listening to a woman for a few cosmic events long Without being frightened and without hiding in your human pride.
Tell me,
What is the difference?

If you have to choose between Looking at yourself in the mirror
And looking at a woman eyes like looking at a mirror.
Tell me,
What is the difference?

Now,
Tell me
What is life?
What is life with or without a woman?

And what is a woman?

What is a woman with or without feeling life?

And

What is the difference?

Being a catholic woman mean?

So please,
Explain first, how you feel Being a woman,
And
Please,

Day And Night Xiii

The streets are Deserted for The entire day.

As the sun sets Crowds appear
From the all possible an unknown corners, From the ground, and From the sky;

Bringing with them
Food, tables, cheers and chairs, wine and other beverages, Their kids, their music, and their bands.

Predestination I

I like that You oppose and Say "NO, "
Your best "NO, "
Your big great "NO, "
Your tiny miniature "NO, " Your strong "NO, "
Your weak "NO, "
Your funny "NO, "
Your angry "NO, " Your beautiful "NO, " and Your ugly charming "NO."

Because,
I specialize In the "NO" sign and The "NO WAY" sign.

The longer the way,
The beautiful and diverse is The gallery of the "NO" signs.

So, say your "NO"
Or your "NO WAY, "
I will find my own way
And path
To your deepest
And highest "NO."
I will stop and Feel free
At each sign and look and focus
I will stop or turn back, Depending on Whether
The "NO WAY"
Means
Makes your way
Or it is a no trespassing zone,
And I have to rapidly go back

Or to move myself away.

Birds fly in the sky, Below the fishes
Swim in the big flat sea.

A bird

Jumps into the water, Head down, aiming
To catch a fish.

Deeper,

A fish, as it swims up Toward the surface,
Catches the birds.

As the fish jumps into the air,
A bird catches the fish.

If There Is No Moon

If there is no moon,

How possible could it be?

Your lips

Won't wobble

Far from your chin.

It will be only a gazer

Shouting

Cold words

In a lost deserted Cancun.

If there is no moon,

You won't irrupt

And spill out

Any of

Your hot and angry lavas,

But a

Liquid of Dormant

Crystallized feelings;

They awake

And then swoon.

If there is no moon,

Your

Tides

And oceanic waves

Won't crash

Against my chest

No flood,

No touch down,

No damage done,

No hurricane, and

No typhoon.

If there is no moon,

Words come flat Undistorted;
Your kisses
Lose its own cycles Between a croissant
And a full moon.

If there is no moon,

Love's Tears will be Only
A crack of memories
On the ice
Lying strewn.

If there is no moon,

God and goddess, Supreme Deity, and Divinity
Will be A song Writing Between Saturn's Rings
And the Martian's dunes.

Be More Than Hell And Heaven

Did you come from hell Or heaven
Or somewhere else?

If you come from Hell,
Calm down your fire and lava,
And the sparks of your angry Firing words.

If you come from Heaven,
Why you are not God Wearing the clothes of God Talking the words of God And shining the beauty of God?

If you come from Somewhere else, Why you are Spilling smiles
And kisses,
Walking and jumping,
Laughing and yelling, Rising your eyebrows
And eyelashes
From the horizon to the air?

So woman
Be Hell in Your kisses,
God when you surrender, and A unique alien
As I breathe the air Crossing your hair.

The Struggling Young Poet

As you are freeing yourself,
Do not struggle
Or
You will sink far down and Take with you the bubbling poems.

Do not ask readers to read your poems,
Let the bubbles
Take over their space,
Their ears,
Their skin,
Their eyes,
Their mind, and
The air.

There is no such thing called Struggling young poet, Struggling young poem,

Or

Struggling old poet, Struggling old poem.

There are only but The bubbles,
The flow,
The bubbling,
The space,
Their ears,
Their skin,
Their eyes,
Their mind, and
The sad cold and melting air.

The Tail Of A Comet

A figure,

Quoted:

“Where do you get the idea of the self-centered monk (totally cut off from everyone else) ?
please do not think that you saw the light and the rest of us are in total misguided darkness.

Maybe you're actually finding out about things that are passé?
The post modern age is also about solidarity, justice, and most of all community.

Granted that you can create your own community wherever you are,
but the post modern condition underscores the impossibility to forget, the impossibility to erase the memory.

I'm not trying to sell you on an old fashioned and conservative notion of (biological) family, but it is there, and if you're trying to re-invent yourself; others are equally free to refuse.”

I like the Flow,
The beauty Of expressions,
The heat dissipated from The intensity
And tension
Among evaporated words, Crystallized Dots,
The flying debris of commas,
And semi-colons.

I wonder
About
The ice and dust
For how long
They are going to hold, Shine and last.

I am an orphan Like any other orphans
My mother is Any woman who can afford To smile.

My family
Is a piece of land Crowded with anything
Or with almost nothing.

Welcome To The 21st Century

one of my acquaintances

Quoted:

"I think the notion of the suffering lonely artist is such a cliché.

look around you and you'll see that artists are actually entrepreneurs, business people. True it was the case for some in the past, but even Picasso and Andy Warhol were rich.

so get it off your mind that you have to suffer in order to create.

the suffering artist is old fashioned and totally passé.

so wake up and smell the coffee. Misery is not the path to glory.

it is the path to self destruction, isolation and loneliness.

nothing is wrong with the list above as long as you're ware of it.

few more points on po-mo (post modern) : there is no center;

artist is self conscious (not oblivious, emotional, lost) :

enjoyment of little pleasures (like cooking, having someone for dinner;

help someone move; help someone paint a house or a wall;

gardening; visiting; etc.)

welcome to the 21st century."

I took time to explore

The quote,

Words,

Fragments of words,

Patterns,

Intention,

Focus,

The thesis,

The flow,

The contrast,

Techniques,

Conclusion,

His feelings,

Thoughts,

Believes,

Axes,

Foundations,

Human dignity,

Integrity, Hopes,
Manhood's emphasis in achievement,
Personal experiences,
Ancient, Renaissance, and Victorian attachment, Faults, Failures, Endeavors, and Dilemma and feelings

Then
I explored my own feelings
Through my past, present and future memories' archives, And checked out all my impulses For a possible
Clog or leakage,

Thread by thread and Drop by drop.

The only thing
That came out Of my mind

Is the sound Of the impact Of few words
Smashing
Against the yellow surface of a canvas
"Human are connected Through
One thin wire of copper."

The noise is beautiful and Unbearable.

i mean it? ?

and i bet you, this QUOTE is from his cook book, and nice to know stuff like this....

The Monk

I took Eileen
And my mind
Out of the turbulent Torments and the unnecessary attachments
Of what I inherited and what stuck on my skin: Love,
Pain, Sadness, Pleasure, Perpetual fear, and Guilt.

Eileen stands for purity, Simplicity, and the Unforgiving change.

My mind

The seen, unseen, and unforeseen wonders.

A fourth,
Or more Elements.

Mountains' skin, rocks, rivers, and snow,
And the Forests' streams, leaves, grass, and fog, As birds take off and fly,

Children
Are the future,
Mold thoughtful actions and beautiful desires.
Ancestry are the Spirits,

Through time and tale.
We are eternal seeds and the tiniest grain.

Amnesty

Lady, Clean your house
And cure your memories,

Before
You look at me, Fall on me,
And pour your memories
On mine.

I do not pay
For someone else's mistake,
And I do not let someone else Pay
For mine;

This is fairly fair.
Clear your sentiments
From dust,
Polluted air, Sediments, bedrocks, and all the Elements,
Like the way you clean
Your skin.

Yes the same way
Indeed!
Take your time
So you will be Ready
For a new Wave
Of feelings' earthquakes
And Tsunamis,
So the structure
of your feelings' body will not tilt, Fall down, or fly.

Bridge

I cross everyday
The Crystal Lake Park twice:
In the morning
When I leave my home
And late in the evening
When I go back.

I stop at the bridge
A look down at The stream
And tune into the Water's sound as it flows Then look around the river's Sides.
Then leave and leave Any hanged feeling
Go with the stream.

I have been Waiting for the snow to fall
And illuminate
The space,
So I can See,
Hear,
And touch
What is inside?
Me.

An Un-Adequacy

She looked At a couple kissing each other, Friends!

Her eyes fainted
And Then she started
To dangle
Her body with the bar counter's chair.

I followed her movements Trying to
To spot at which side she stop and Put more time
The Center is always the present time.

Old Maps -New Conquest

Some Memories

Erupted
In drops

Each 'drop'
Is a burs

I always remind myself
To explore.

The door for conquest is always open

So, I opened the door
To explore Each burst Separately,
Case by case, File by file, and Archive by archive,
I let myself being Driven
And taken By one hand, or Both,
By one foot
Or both,
By my skin,
My hear,
My neck,
My nose,
My ear,
Or entirely.

I was not in the position to choose.
I just let it take me

That is my pure desire:

I choose
The start
And never worry about the ends.

A Priceless Diamonds

Tonight,
The trees Are Wearing A beautiful
Diamonds of ice.
Each tree is unique
And more beautiful
With the ice Sparkling and shining Under the street light.
I could not resist
My mind taking me
To wander
And imagine Feeling this beauty
In the wilderness
Under a complete moon.

It is a dream I have been chasing all my life I have it
Now.

I stopped
When I thought
Which tree Resembles
The diamond
I have been chasing for Eileen.

I always see Eileen like a tree.

I closed my eyes and I tried
To see if she is standing Up
At the side
Of an important avenue,

At the intersection,
Beside a building,
At a parking lot,
A part of a little family
Compacted in a little woody house, Surrounded fairly by abundant light,
Or Dark lonely street,
Or
In the wilderness
Alone,
Or Possibly with other trees.

The moon is always following her.

A World To A Feminist

Take off
Your feminine shell
And talk to me.

Man to man,
Lesbian to lesbian,
Gay to gay,
Cow to cow,
In between, or whatever is shaped in your head.

It does not really matter!

Take off that shell,
It is fair that way!
Put it back
When you are in your private sanctuary, Or when you feel you need to Be purely woman.

Have you ever seen
A mixed up seasons
Where a tree
Is Naked in the middle of summer
And sleeping in the middle of the spring?
Well,
That is a tropical woman
And you are not that tree yet.

Have you ever seen
Yellow leaves,
Green leaves- young, refreshed, cleaned with moisture and droplets of water, -
And bulbs switching positions and swinging between the branches Of the same tree

Or between one tree an its neighbors
Trees?

That is not your case yet!

Until then, Put off your feminine shell away, and Hide it;
So, I will not smell it,
And it will not turn my bull on,
Then,
We will start the binary discussion Again.
On an on A discussion that lacks Legs and toes.

If you do not agree
We still Can consider A crochet
Session or a knitting session;
We will work on the same
Canvas
With same balls of yarn.
Chose your own Needles;
I always have mine with me.
Let see if we can use up All the balls of yarn
And end up at the same knit.

Do You Have Time?

Time is important to me

So,

Be clear, sharp, and pour out all your feelings, thoughts and believes

In order, priorities, or what comes out comes out.

From the most vital

To the ridiculous and beautiful thing.

Do not worry about

Others;

They are like you!

Do it,

The way you like

Or the way it seems natural

To you.

If you fail,

I still have enough time left;

The hole pie of the eternity

I will try

To

Listen,

Feel,

And step in and spouse your soul.

Just do it,

And lets win more time.

To explore and love the hole world.

Hacking Into Your System

Lady,
I finally hacked into Your system.

The motherboard is Fine:
Good memory, Fast and dual processor, and Giant hard drive;
Except some dust
That blocks the cooling channels.

The OS is OK;
All what it needs is new patches and firewall against Spywares, Intruders,
And Trojan
Horses.

It is not about the OS' Vulnerability
More than about your attitude!

The softwares
Are fine.
Some need an upgrade.
The core is excellent.

It is up to you Really!
To decide
To clean
The hardware
Softwares
Keep, upgrade, or patch.
Old codes are old codes
New codes are new codes.

PoemHunter.com

Just decide what you want
And I will help you.

Now,
Tell me
What do you want?
Do you need more time
It is legitimate to Setback sometimes
And Explore
The possibilities.

Being fast is being genuinely clear, Hunches or intuition can save lives,
Being beautiful is still being clear.

So
Do what you want And tell me clearly
What do you want,
I will take my time
With the Hardwares,
The Softwares,
Or the hole system.
I am good at that!
A deal is a deal!

If There Is No Mountain

Do not Stay in your little hole
Or a general Public
Graveyard.
Swallow it, or Make it at least deeper Or longer,
So it loses
The sense
And the definition
Of being a hole.

Dive in Fly,
Or walk through like the blind,
So, you Can reach
Your own bottom
-it is still a big public graveyard, -
And complete
Your true senses.

If there is no mountain, Flatness turns to be A big hole.

A Piece Of Cake

Everybody
Can take You
like that!
Like Piece of Cake,
Or just for a dollar Worth of Easy labor;
May be more easier than That,
Because,
You want just
To be taken,
And that is it.

But,
I saw in you  PoemHunter.com
A bright future
Spot
To be spared
To gather
And connect
The shredded
Pieces
Of your own humanity
And a part of the universe.

So,
At least Choose
Which way
You want To be taking;
The future is always Open and Brighter
Like our young universe.

Watch Out

Watch out
For what you say and -drop- off all the BUTs;
The mouth is not made for Bats of words.

Watch out
For What you do;
Sweat
Is not made of rain,
aimed for fear and being fair;
Every drop
Is a work a genius child wrapped with gold, organic Silver, and special care.

Watch out
And be precise About what you dream of The last one may take away
Your breath.

One Mile Distance

You take off the dress
And you put it on.
Restless
And Unhappy with the Desired
Colored Patterns
And the fit
On the body and for the moment, Creates ambiguous Shortage of time
As it runs out.

You want to look perfect And you are;
That makes time shorter
And the distance more Than
A multiple of mile.
Love and being taking Away
By a lover
Is simply The enigma of the universe.

So,
Control
Your breath
My lady
I can wait
And I can hold my breath Long enough
More than a mile.

Cause,
I am dreaming
Of you

Inside
My veins.

Atef Ayadi

One Inch Distance

Thrown from The sky
Into emptiness
Will take your breath
From the back of your head Deep into your stomach.

Thrown into My chest Takes time Away
From your breath.

You loose
The sense of walking
On your pride.

One inch Distance Becomes the supersonic Barrier of your own desire.

One Foot Distance

Along The Seashore Of Your Skin

I will reach you where you are with my finger and through my flying words.

I will blur
your eyes with clouds coming from a far future;
you will separate the familiar ones from the absurdity.

I will come to you in your dreams
as a messiah
the one who speaks
your own words.

I will Espouse
Your body Mind and heart.
Nothing
Is Impossible
As long as it is you are open
like an undiscovered

i will come

see yourself
see yourself

flying like a tropical bird.

Tell Me Woman

Tell me woman
What makes you feel
Woman?

When, where, why, and how You need to use that layer?
Tell me what do you know,
From the old definitions
Your own definition
And definitions,
And others

What do you feel,
What do you see
And do not Deep within?
Tell me something simple And complex,
And try to remain simple.

Tell me
About what you inherited And still use Without comprehending it I am sure it is something That irritates you sometimes
And you try to deal with it.
Like your holiness
Or a separate organ.

Tell me
About the creature
That lies Within you.
Tell me
So,
I can use my manhood correctly.

What makes

Qualified for being fully human
And
being Fully woman.
Tell me so I can Redefine
Everything for you Without confusing you.

Atef Ayadi

Expressing My Desire

I can start right here
There is no end.

I put my hand
On your face,
Or let it float in the air;
There is really no difference

I climb
My desire
Or yours;
What is the difference?

I can talk to you
Or talk to anything else;
What is the difference?

Listen to you,
Myself,
Or anything else;
What is the difference?

Dreaming within your dreams;
Mine are always My soft pillow;
What is the difference?

My desires are uncertain.
That is what make them Desirable
And certain;
What is the difference?

Atef Ayadi

Fire Cycle

I will burn
All your desires.
I do not even have to promise that.
I will!
And I already started.
It is in my nature
there are no ethics in desire It is the only aggressive, Unforgiving, Unfair, and Enslaving, and Unconventional War
I know.

I will burn everything in you,

So that you know fear from fairness love from hate and all the dual Junks,
And finally you will have Your natural Smile,
hands,
Legs, Face, and your natural Hand writing back to you.

So,
You will recognize
What you want from what you do not,
What you want to say and not to say,
So,
You will know
Curves from straight lines.

So,
You can redefine your norms

Adjust your language
And reset your compass.

I will burn everything in you
And i will leave nothing for chance.

You will rise
Like a new green forest
After a devastating continental fire.

Atef Ayadi

Defenseless Desire

Do not think
I will go to hell
Alone.
I will draw you with your golden chains
And all your rings and earrings.
I will burn my lips with yours, My skin with yours, and My soul with yours.

We will cross the gate
From haven to hell Together
At the same time
Slowly,
In a rush,
Or like two beings being thrown into hell Against their will.

Is that what you always want and wish for?
This is not anger;
This is my burning desire.

I left heaven for the civilized,
Who likes to swim in heaven's water,
Dress up and flashes with heaven's scents,
And speaks heaven's love words.

This is not my type.
I will go to hell and will draw you with me.
You will like it;

Cause'
My deepest desires are made of light
Of fire.
And
Your deepest desires Are covered with shields of White snow,

Light ice, and iron of cold Resting over An ancient torrent fire.

So,
Do not resist,
You will brake
Your ice,
Without melting
Your hidden Fantasies, Colors, and Childish empire.

Bad And Good

Bad people!
Good people!

There is no such thing called Bad people or Good one.

People are wonderful,
Resourceful,

Again!

Again

What do you want Without extras,
Without looking at me,
Or for me,
Without statement, or judgment;

Flat?

Are you under the surface or over,
looking at yourself,
Diving, Sinking,
Or with a calm open body Floating underneath?

Are you hiding beneath your skin
Or flying without it?

What you want

As

"What I really want? "

With or without fear?

What do you want
in few mute or colored words or many screams of one beautiful word?

What do you want
from me, with or without the world?

What you want Without explaining Without justifying
Or mutilating your feeling?

What you want

As

"What a flower wants? "

"What a tree wants? "

"What a bird wants? "

Or

"What a river wants from the sky? ' '

My feelings, my bones, and your love skeleton In order to build A shelter
And we sill can gaze at the moon?

How I can make you talk,
The way you always like to walk Without falling with your heavy weighted feelings in my hands?

How I can make you run
At the speed of light
Without being red yellow blue and violet That is the speed you at which you like to Talk, kiss run and come back for skin's fight.
And you always do that and run,

How I can make you run and jump
At the rhythm of your voice Between serious run and fake Blue frog's jumping

The way you sing, and paint,
And
The way you always draw and run.

How To Make You Happy?

How I make you happy
constantly,
Make my self happy continuously,
Make the world happy
eternally

Without leaving Nothing behind?

How
I can Hold you in my hand, myself in one hand,
and the world in other hand,
and still I can sense my own hand Separately?

How I can love you, Love myself as if it is you,
And love the whole world
As if it is only me and you,
And still
It is the entire world?

How?

How I can keep nourishing your smile, Feeding my own smile, and Leave a kiss on your smile.

How?

How I walk in with a smile Walk out with the same smile Walk through your smile and my smile Hand in hand without disturbing their napping Or stopping their bigger laughs?

How?

Few Things About Your Eyes

An Eye, An Island, And One Survived Poem

The sunlight,
An unyielding blue sky,
The drowsiness of saltiness of the sea,
And
My skin, my lips, and guts in a bottle of water.

The wild darkness of the night,
The cold thorny hair pushing against my skin,
The Northern light, and A fainted form of ice

Arouse me
And take my life.

Her eye is Still and island
That catches both Me and The sea.

Forty Letters To A Woman – Eighteenth Letter -

I really forget you.
It was hard for me reach this point and to do so.
But, at last
I forget.

there are other women I met they look like you and they did the same things they ask for same drama and I start to smile to them without specific terms or words.

I am not attracted anymore to a woman who has your body posture and the philosophy of your eyebrows.

it is too complicate
for me.

PoemHunter.com

I am not attracted to that anymore.

Simply,
it is a bad habit to do the same thing.

So I forget with who I will be happy with,
with who I will be around,
or who I will love.

I forget the leisure, seizure, and the pain.

I have Nothing to add,
Except,
If I want to kill love by love
The second should be more powerful.

Simple Differential Equation

I derive from you.
You derive from me.

Fill The Universe With Smile

Smile
And Smile,
Against The odds, and Against your free will.

Smile,
And let it fly by itself;
A smile knows where it flies and where it goes.
Make it happen;
A smile
Is divine,

A chock wave
that crosses
The universe
Half-half
Like two lips
In a full smile.

Fill The Universe With Words

Write

With punctuation,

Without, or less

While you still breathing

While you are crossing a heart feeling attack.

Write

Without pity, praise, or reward.

Let it fall

Like the rain

Let it fall

constipated,

easy,

chilly,

funny,

absurd,

cold,

And formal.

Let it fall

By itself

I am sure

If you let it fall,

It will!

It will

Fill the universe with smile.

Why woman Signal first
and Man
Aught to respond?

why not the opposite?

why not both signal Simultaneously and both has the right response?

why this routine,
forced
urge of simple needs turns to a hostile war of who should be on top and who should be below?

why woman never tried to cease
man's achievements vocabulary

Why man never tried to feel woman feeling

Remembered Mask

She
chucked me with everything beautiful, simple, and engaged simplicity.

I do not remember her name,
But what is important
is,
I love her
for what she did,
for her face,
her youth desperations,
her nervous soft skin,
for her induced hidden smile,
for her basic needs, and for her simplistic dreams,

I love her for her resistance

I love her

nothing but my age.

Falling -The Seventh Second-

A second
Is An hour,
An hour is stretched in a day,
A day is frozen in a hollowed circular month.
A month stopped following the seasons
And ran away from being called on duty, From being called a month Month after month

Time is a beautiful rose Rising from the soil
The rose seed takes a Billions light year to germinate

It is beautiful
To see time clung to itself Like a metallic rode Wrapping itself
And falls into dispersed dusted nodes.

It is beautiful
To be in this moment
Of falling into the unseen part of life.

It is a beautiful instance That I desire fear
As a good friend
To be with me While I am hitting My own ground
And freeing myself
From my good assumptions
And my bad assumptions

Here, and at this precise moment,
My happiness meets with my truthful pain,
And both walk away.

Falling -The Eighth Second-

I like to feel
The bouncing
On the ground;
The real crash
With a fainted or fake smile.

I like to know Exactly
My last word,
My last thought,
My last breath,
my last wish,
my last phrase, and My last word,

I like to see the unspoken truthful smell,
That dark and Empty
Pride.

I like to touch
What is left of me
After the crash.

I like to see myself
After the impact,
Empty or full of life
Or something else.

Sluggish Thoughts

Trashes, Trashcans,
And gadgets

Are recyclable.

Only human thoughts are Not;

-Actually,
They do;
It is just not the century's need for such thought-

Once they are passed,
They bounce,
Triggered and trigger,
Spark
Fire;
The smoke looks Like a fume,
Sometimes,
More bigger than a mushroom cloud.

Atef Ayadi

Falling -The Fifth Second-

It is a frozen
Moment
In a frozen time,
The head is down
The sun is over the head and Left behind the cliff.

It is beautiful to leave gravity
For a moment and forever.
It creates the sense of Being in an endlessly lost,
A lasting last lost, Facing death for real.
That is the first fear
At the same time
I create the beautiful desire To watch in this moment
What is behind and in front of me:
The surface of the ground is clear as it is Without estimation or judgment
A green land tilted over A prairie,
Some isolated trees Scattered here in there And mark the history of the place

I am among birds
A unique instance of a human,
Flying
Free from his will.

At this moment
A desire of achieving something on that Surface or beyond Comes to my mind.
My mind
Now
Is so clear of fear
You have the space for

Pure Dreams
Time does not exist
Death is there Life is there
In one node
In one grape
In one leave
The space inspires you with its Divinity.

At this moment,
I feel
For the first time
The grace of being calm
And free.

What Do You Want?

What you want
and what else you want?

What type of made in china
you are?
What type of being you are?
What type being you want to be?

What is impossible
What can you do?
What can you possibly do?
-I am sure you can-What can you make from yourself for your own sake?

The lilac knows what it can do;
Where it can spread, grow, and go, and precisely how far and what amount of water,
of air,
and how much sunlight sun it need in order to flourish and grow.

The where, how, and when are simple commodities.

The wine knows its color
its taste
its fume
and the percentage of everything in this universe.

So,
Tell me
What do you want?

I will tell you What

I can possibly Do
And I am what I do.

Romeo And Juliet

Juliet was A Beach of beautiful trees of peach;
I am sure about that!

Romio
Was a son Of the neighbor of the same Beach of beautiful trees of peach.

What is left from their story Is only more suffering
For humanity.

So tell me lady,

What do you want?

And I will tell you,
What I want.

and if you want,
i will start first!
and it is not about love strategies,
or being more or less seductive.

Tell me as if you are talking to yourself.

What exactly do you see In yourself,
In me, in the world
your world or my world.

Take your time.

Tell me anything you want
And I will tell you What I want
As a response

To your eternal request.

Here are white papers,
A pencil in case
You could not say it, Or you could not articulate well or add something unreasonable or silly to complete the picture.

Make it very simple Or complicate.

It does not matter!

Whether, it is in written Verbal,
Drawn,
Or in mute signs.

Just get it out
And free me as if you are freeing yourself., Or just free yourself And i will free myself by myself and i always do.

Here are my hands,
My face,
My mind,
My eyes,
Your hands,
Your face,
Your mind,
Your eyes,

And other things
Which later will surface.

Just be frank;
I do not like to waste time
My time,

And your time and the neighbor time.

there is noting in your long 'Aaaaaaaaaah! ' While your face is flying somewhere.
or your eyes tilt down or up toward both sides, except it looks like a golden neck bracelet.

It does not make any sense
In the dictionary of feelings, the non-sense, the common sense, and all the absurdities.

It does not make sens to your senses.

Just express yourself.
You should,
You can,
And you aught to.

Just say it.
And die.
Vanish, Disappear,
Or fly in the sky.

Just say what you want Breath, Assure,
Insure yourself,
And take the first step.

Anything else is Twisting, Lying to yourself,
About yourself,
To humanity,
About humanity.

So,

just say it.

There must be a reason For any constipated feeling And you do have the cure.

A Poem In A Can

I am dreaming
to create a fast growing global industry
Of Poems Delivered In Cans.

I am sure
Share holders
Will like the idea
And will invest heavily.
It is their nature
And the nature of Globalization.

I will sell them
With a reasonable price:
The price depends on the production
and the Needs and demands.

Each poem is a product,
The big is the poem
the big is size of the can.
Tiny poems go in tiny jars Fancy poems go in fancy cans.
Life poem go in jars produced by know and unknown artists.
Love poems go in ancient jars.

I do not need to market them, it is a poem for god sake!

My authenticity is to not duplicate
any poem,
unless the poems are twins triplets, or quadruples;

They will go in the same jar.

Dismembered Poem

A poem without Title,
Is like A human Without head
Who remains More human
Than one with an attached head.

A poem with no
Bottom,
Like marching to the glory
without toes, limbs, and a forgotten head.

A poem with no
Heart;

No bones;
you feel it
And
It does not sound anything.

Coming Back To My Little Home

I come late to my home.
As I approach it,
I watch for my behavior
my feelings
if they are clean, talk and stand straight.
i make sure i have no unfinished business left:
everything is said,
told,
and done.

my room,
my my street,
my neighbors,
the house number
the five street lights bulbs and my old car
-I do not use or care to fix, - my 64 feet square garden, And the silence of the night make me feel home and welcomed
to rest,
take off my clothes, and all the good feelings with it.

my home
my love home
the woman i always see waiting for me
late,
the child i like to kiss,
the stuck of white papers
needed to be filled, and the few articles: the subject does not really matter!

my home

my kitchen
my spared cans
and little milk
a loaf of bread that fills my eyes and hunger; A jar of herbal tea i managed to make my home and my bed stretching itself over my room

my home
my canvases
need to be recycled recolored
and reborn
again,
again, and again.

Enigma Of My Emotions

It is built up;

From The second

I started to ask

The sequence:

forgiveness

forgiveness!

I am sorry!

A Lie,

And forgiveness,

Forgiveness,

Forgiveness, , , Please!

A lie,

I do not care,

I can take it,

The blame is a no blame,

or

why they blame

Me?

why me?

why i blame you?

and you blame me?

it never stops.

Then

The big lie sequence:

I tried to keep up with that live with it

I do not care

So what

what is up with that?

And Then

They LIE!

I DO NOT!

With an antagonistic posture.

Yeah!

I do lie sometimes
Like any body else.
Who cares!

So what!

Now,

My lies are

Like

'I can stop smoking that girl! '

'I can not stop

The girl'

'I can not stop the smoking girl'

'I could not stop smoking'

And

'I am between stopping smoking and stopping the smoking girl.'

Tropical Garden

Her Face
Flatted
And smoothed out
To receive my face.

Distance,
Time,
Cold,
My sweat,
Her whispers,
Her old Whispers,
And
My troubled world
Made her face more flatted:
A deserted Caribbean beach napping
On a green wild forest.

Mother Nature!

One hand on the sleeping deepening into the sand
The other Fighting the Beats of Sea.

Falling -The Fourth Second- The True 'I'.

It is beautiful to say
Ah!
If I still have time!

An awful voice surges from your own head and tells you:
"No! , I am sorry, there is not time, will not, no clock, no food, no future"
That is it!

This is the only thing you should hear!
And put it in your ear
As earring! '

Still, it is good to know;
Because
At least
And finally
I hear it,
I feel it,
I see it, and I taste it,
By my tongue, my fingers, my bones, and my skin!

It is time
To see it clearly.

CLAIRE!
ECLAIRE, SAINT CLAIRE!
SAINT Joe,
SAINT MARRY, SAINT PETER, and Saint Petersburg.

It is time
To see it clear.

It is about accepting Myself
And having the courage to accept that.

Point carré, Poincaré,
Point cerclé, Encerclé,

Point À LA LIGNE!

What I Know About Woman!

I thought
I know!

I know it!

I am really sorry!
I do not.

I, who is 'Me'
And the whole word Aught to Admit!

You do not need to use what you already know
Or Rise and release your PH.D level about what you know and 'Sorry I missed That.'
With A French Accent.

I do not know her In close
Or by Far.

I did not even know if she is playful
prideful, Shy, or LATÉ
type of woman; Funny
And miserable than me or two ounces or 4 quads extra.

So I do not claim
I know something about
woman,
one woman in particular,

ten,
Eleven. or ten thousands

I do not know nothing about woman,
women,
and the man I am?

I can not judge any more,
be out of the box.
Inside the box,
on top of it,
on top of My feeling, or My skin,
surfing over my clouds,
swimming through my veins.
I can not judge
and that is enough!

I am
Already out of box and I am still a box boxed
wired weird funny creature.
from a faraway galaxy;
And for me
woman are funny too except they have plans and exits even for being funny and not being funny at all.

So please do not ask anything about my experiences,
my skills,
my skin,
my eyes,
just take what you want or just steal my skin and dry it out.

Whatever is you name?

it does not matter

you do not like to vanish and fall alone

Will come with you you realize

They do not buy it!
They do not like to go with you and it is not a big deal a big even a big shut

no one wants to fall with you

Even Your - SELF!
betrays you.

You are falling and that is it!
Alone!

You are gone,
Done,
And memory;
A memo
That a CEO send and no body can read And if they can Still no one like to Read
And wont.

You are gone
And It is good that you realize that.
Except one thing:

You need to relax and Believe in 'it happens'
'Possible',
'To be true'
It happened
And it is still happening
'I ca a an DO IT '
'I am Do In G It'

You are happy and fearful of your own fear.

Falling -The First Second! -

Every Thing
Can fall
And falls in harmony.

Everything fall
In harmony
Dust, the air, the wind
The light,
The humidity,
The first DROP of sweat,
The first cry, and
The first denial of falling Falls in harmony.

The only thing that takes off your breath Is 'I am falling too? '

Your nightmare and guts Fall all together

Down!

Awful feeling,
But in harmony.

Genocides: The Eyes On The Sky And The Feet Anchored By Love

Despite
The fear
You want to be funny
And a friendly lovely Creature
And you throw off your fear Behind as you are trying To be that creature Funny creature
You started to see fear as a funny word
In a funny phrase
In a funny talk
In a funny language As happy and young as The English language now.

Love affair
Off the fear Off the air
With and without your ear

And now the fear Takes off you and over you And does not leave in you Any flares Any fairness, and Any trace of the original fear.

You are created your own genocide
You are the first one to fall.
And it does not matter for you If someone else is falling with you too.
That it is the fun of it! .

Still,
You think
That something is not right
As you want it to be After your heart
Stop
Beating
At the speed
Of light.

Genocides

Keeping
Your angry love
Ravaging
My skin
And my hidden soul behind my bones While I am watching you, Your Chemistry,
Your Physics,
And the art gallery of fumes Sculptures, paintings you brought with you And the dead ancient mummies.

Creates a genocide

My pretending prideful
Son of the Neighbor of the 'Be A nice gay' Is one of the angry generals Who gave me the first RAIFALL

To fall on my head.

I see Them all,
As I am fighting
The fear of running, Backing up and running
And the fear of moving forward.

Genocides
Is fear.... to kill myself With fear,
For the sake of beauty
And remain a living dead creature

Moving with no purposes.
And pretending
I am in life
And it is only fear of a passed beautiful fear.

Beautiful Poem

Leave Me!
With or without Firing
Your last Glance
On my chest.

I always Keep Both hands
And My chest
Open

Maybe that glance may Fall
On my hands
After missing
Or bouncing back from my chest.

My Hands are still holding Your last lasting glance
As if my they are holding Your hand.

This Is my beautiful poem
And the only one
I am always proud to keep in my hand.

The Beauty Is Walking Beside Me

I look At the Beauty
Walking!
As she is crossing
My veins
She fainted my Heart.

I look At the Beauty
Walking!
Every step and Every smile is adjusted
And tuned up
To each of my heart beats.
To each of her heart beats

As she is walking,
Her smile is Flattering her face and mine.
I am smiling and I am not sure I am smiling;

No 'Hi'
And not descent,
But a DROP of glance
Rushing down like a storm.

The beauty is walking Transparent and Soft;
She is awakening
All the beasts inside.

In The Eyes Of The Beholder

There is no time Or place
To wait for Love.

There is no season and No such place called love's Market or Love's Shopping Mall;
Cause',
Love Comes and goes
From the blind corner
From Where you think you see
And you do not.

There is not such thing called cheap or expensive love;
There is only you
And the way you color yourself with Love.

There is no such thing Called security
Retirement plan Pension, or Funds in love;
Cause',
Love is not for profit or A political agenda;
But hard labor Without punch in and Punch out.

I Am Not A Good Tax Payer, But

I am not Truly a good Tax payer,

But I have My dignity,

I am not a good tax payer,
But
I can bring you Some fresh roses from A faraway prairie.
I can help you dream,
I can make you laugh.
And sleep where you never felt a sleep.

I am not a good tax payer,
And I do not see the difference Did you ever see a rich lover more Safer than a poor one?

Do Not Try To Compromise With Me

Why you are compromising Your life,
Your heart beats,
Your love, and Your beauty?

Are you
In a hurry
To find love?

Why you are looking At me
While you are with a lover?

Did you forget Anything;
A past love or A hidden one,
That still burning?

Why your eyes are still Fixed
On me?
Why
My presence Overwhelms you
And fools up your heart
And mind?

Why do send me Telepathic messages
And kisses?

Why you are sad,
Resilient,
And silent?
I told you before,
I need a hurricane woman
Not a poor silent twister?

Atef Ayadi

An Approach

My approaches
To people remains the same
For decades.
It never changed:
They are human when They are on top of they head
And little machines
With a corrupted Programs, Macro, Scripts, , and Bugs.
That is what makes Them below their feet.
It is not very sad,
It happen to humanity
To have such diversity And that is what makes humanity more human.

My approach to Women,
Is almost the same
After all,
They are more than half of humanity and that is really big deal.
They are Human, if they are on top of their head And little machines if they are not.
And still,
They are beautiful and natural creature in both ways.

My approach
To kids
Remains the same:
They are Beautiful creatures,
The future,
The next wave of humanity
In skin and bones,
A picture we like to draw of ourselves

Ah!
If the little machines
Can be on top of their heads;
They will know What is the future is
And if they must draw something,
They let kids
Draw by themselves
The humanity dreams.
That is what makes Them below their feet.

my approach to pets
ah!
half wants to be class,
An emperor,
Baron, and Duke.
The other half does not want to be alone.

It is beautiful to see humanity between the present, pets, and the future.

My approach to nature
Is as simple as nature
And naturally harsh as nature:
You adapt,
You appreciate,
You complete, and then You vanish.
Nothing is mysterious or comes from nothing.

Do Not Be Bossy In Love

Do not take the boss Position in love;
Who must submit,
Who must move first,
Who is the good player
Who is the hero, and Who is the loser;
Because, in love
There is No master and slave
No god and worshiper.
I already made you already a god,
A pilgrimage, and A temple.
So, why you want to be bossy and Show me
You are in control.

Do not!

PoemHunter.com

Leave bossing for the tired and the sad.

Because, in love
There is no
Who must move first,
Who must kiss first,
Who must kill first,
There is No leader,
No chauffeur,
No real map,
No plan, and
No exits.

Do not get bossy
And show me your "how to be"
But show me your deepest strength And weakness in love.

Do not get bossy
Because, in love
A character is A color,
A form,
A different music note,
A peace of literature,
A fearful jungle,
A Niagara fall,
A lost rainbow, and An extraordinary Persona, and I want you to be Xenoglossy
Like Eileen.

Do Not Look At The Mirror

Do not look at the mirror;
there is nothing
but a beauty;
the flowers are important than the vase.

Do look at the mirror
if you are not aiming to to check on your smile and to kiss your inner and outer face.

Do look at the mirror
but ask me
I will tell you what I am seeing and what I am hearing;
My clairvoyance shows only but your grace.

Do look at the mirror
one smile is enough;
it is your mirror and your face.

She Is Always In My Mind

She is in my mind
All the time,
When I awake,
When I go to sleep,
And in between.

She is there;
When I eat,
When I take a shower,
When I write,
When I look at a woman,
When I look at lovers, and When I look at sad people.
When I look at happy faces.
She is always in my mind;
No matter I tried To remove her
Or to keep her.
She is a living organ Growing in my body.

It is hard to remove her
Or to keep her;
Like a fire that burns
And cures at the same time.

She is keeping me safe.
She is pushing me to the ultimate.
She is my saver and my goddess.

She is my beautiful dream,
My nature, and my fear.

She is always in my mind.

She is my beautiful crazy mind.
She is my heart.
She is my guts that take me far beyond when I need to be blind.

I Miss You

I miss you,
And
It is not about my emptiness, Wholeness, or to complete My strength,
My weakness,
My senses, and My masculinity.

I miss you,
Cause' it is a human instinct to breath life and to explore the impossible.

I miss you,
and that is what completes me and strengthen my bones and arouse my skin.

I miss you
As missing to be you
And I am not asking you to be me.

I miss you
And it is a feeling
I always like to thrust
And then conquer.

The Enigma Of Roses

A field of Identical Red Roses;
Arranged in an optimized Capitalistic way.
They are meant to be delivered to
To anonymous lovers.
From far, they look the same;
But they are not.
My enigma is still an enigma:
Could one differentiate one rose from another?
What is the difference between this lover and that lover?

Prestige

Like a magicians, deep in the Heart,
Passion is the only risk
And that is the magic.
The pledge is who I am
The turn is the method, "Average people are predictable! "
The prestige is to turn myself into seeds of flying words.
The disappointment is anticipated;
Much simpler would be the trick.

Homo-Sapiens

What is wrong with Homo-Sapiens?

In the Muslim world if you talk about their prophet, they kill you.

In the west, if you talk about Capitalism, they take you for evil or Comrade

In Russia, the Kremlin is the KJB head-quarter, Putin is a new rising God King.

Are we really born free: Homo and Sapiens?

Or we just are playing Homo and pretending being Sapiens?

One of my dreams is Unreachable and Unachievable.
It was my life dream.
The one that built me from head to toes;

Acceptance is a not a defeat
Rather than creating thousands of more dreams.

Chasing The Rainbow

I am chasing the rainbow Without a sky or clouds.

I am chasing my life,
The wonderful smile and the saddest one.

I am chasing the hardship,
My green mint poem,
My vanilla drawing,
The path of Arthur Rimbaud, and Les Miserables:
My Gavroche,
My Jean Valjean, and My Cosette Eileen.

Casa Lima

The house I want to build with the cement I make, the stone I carry and I brake, and the sweat I add to the mixture.

My dream house,
Eileen's house,
my gallery, and her gallery.
It gathers everything we both like and want my casa,
my house,
my shelter
my lima.

The sun light,
the space,
the garden,
the bath tab,
the kitchen,
the big table,
the sofa,
the basement staffed with cheese, dry meet, and wine,
the sea is at the horizon,
the mountain,
the river,
the guest room,
a little space for Tango, Salsa, or any new type of dance, a book shelves
Are added as needed.
we both have dreams
and we will never stop dreaming.

Beauty And The Beast

I am half Human Half beast.
Eileen has been my balance.
She is keeping my beast Safe and unharmed.
She does not worry about My human side;
It is human anyway!

Sometimes I revolt.
I want to free my beast
In order to free Eileen.
Cause'
The part that looks human Is the voice of my inner beast.

Let It Go

The fish is swimming
Like a dreamer.
Fishermen are standing along the two side of the rivers, Silent and eager to catch something today;
Bigger,
As big as the boredom that reigns their life;
As big as the pride that controls their life.
Their pride is mounted along the rod and ends at the fancy lure.
I am sitting where the river is deep and calm:
Feeding the fishes;
To save my dream,
The river's dream,
The fish's dream,
And my boredom.

My Future

The outer layer of my dreams
Are taking me Toward the desert,
To build an ancient town;
I will call it:
The Republic of love.
In this town, the only religion is love, Bearded people are clowns, and Children are gods,
Men and women are racing and competing for fun.
In this town, art and literature works are the only goods
You should be proud of.
In this town,
Fear is an abstract natural painting Drawing by the gods Hostility and war sprite from the mouth of a A poem that is fighting for its birth.
In the Republic of love, if you sow a tree
You are eligible for love.

The bottom of my dreams Are clear and firm, They are taking me toward Eileen.

Her Last Glance

Her last glance
Hastened
My last supper.

Intense,

Buoyancy

I keep my eyes upright and close,
My hands far away,
My breath in a circle,
My words are gifted roses
From heart to heart, Nose to nose, until they reach the soul like a whisper that Unfolds, melts and closes.

My words grow in a moment's season, Under the light of the tenderness and the Breeze of the beauty and the reason, Then, their seeds echo away.

Bottom's Lower Bottom

In one moment;
Everything makes sense to her;
While clarity is fainted.

She is defeated all the time;
While love is fated.

She sees the loss as big as a mountain;
while the gain is deeper within the mountain.

Time is her face reflected by a mirror;
While time is curved by a kiss
That
Gently polishes and distorts the mirror.

She is Overwhelmed, Rushed, Manipulative, Antagonistic, Judgmental, Egocentric, Liar, Inarticulate, Sensitive,
Bored, itchy, and irritated.

The world ought to come to her;
While her feet are an inch away From the aught to
And the head is filled by words and worlds
That do not belong to her.

She is erupting
From her lower bottom Or from the Bottom of her lower bottom.

Almost

Every time
And all the time.
Even in her
Deeper sleep.

Revelations Iv

Before I start to hate you I cover my head with another woman's hair
So I can forget your smell.

I fall on another woman's chest
So I can forget
My secure house,
My old garden,
My promise land, and My promised heaven.

I will keep love as it is.

I will only change one face with another
The way I used to change a fainted candle with another Each time your dark hair Hides the full moon
And reveals my face.

Any woman will keep me away from my rage;
Any woman will wash away your smell,
But no woman can kill you inside me.

The Republic Of Love

My dream is to build A Republic
Of love,
Where no woman is in need For love, and no place for sadness.

Where no woman is abused, Harassed, or Raped
Because she is a woman.

My dream is to build A Republic
Of love,

Where, the only requirement is to know Love's alphabets, Love's songs,
Love's dances,
Love's jokes,
And how to smile.

In my Love Republic
There is no religion, no God,
Or Gods,
And no standards
But worshiping
Your beloved
And love.

In my Love Republic
lovers walk with roses, Rolls of lyrics,
And begs of fumes of Asian poems.

Blue Print

She wrote me
Few lines
Tilted, Disoriented, Sometime vertical,
Sometimes horizontal,
She helped her thoughts with

Match like her writing,
She is Fractured, Tilted, Bent, Burned, Melted, Vertically and Horizontally, Flashed, Aroused,

Your archives?

Does time make sense to you As a History teacher or As a History professor?

Cause', History, buying time, and rejuvenation Are for emperors.

Are you making me
An emperor?

Or a Faeroe?
If so,
How precise your are?

And if you can't feel my present presence how possibility could you feel me through your archives?

The Informational Era

Man becomes an ATM Machine.
Woman becomes a Slot Machine.

A child Is the upgrade

Few pound of hardware, And mainly A true

Colonialism

He is resourceful and exotic.
She loves exploration

She stripped him off of His elephant ivory
His Macaque fur, and His Whales Oil.

He ended up being A protected, Vulnerable, and Silent
Poem without pride.

Poems can turn sometimes Into harems.

Did I told you?
Did you realize?

Woman!

We have been Dating and In love

For a while;
With an unnoticed gazing,
With only a naked eye's contact.

Forty Letters To A Woman–sixteenth Letter

I will not change.
I will not back up an Inch!
Not even for a second!

The earth is still there;
The sea's saltiness is still there,
The natural disasters are still natural.

I will not promise you
That I will not change.

You drink from the sea,
You land on the land, or You survive a natural disaster;

This is your 'thing'
Your life style,
Your hair style,
Your lips, and Your date's dress style.

Human and god may vanish
But the universe will remain
The same,
Unchanged, Unresolved, Mysterious,
Big, grand, and giant,
A complex;
Indeed,
In fact,
Intact.

And I still
Will not change!

The Mother Of Wars

I went to the Love's war.

I come back With love's Hysteria.

After The Circus

The tickets are sold off!
The circus is over;
The show is over.

No lions, Elephants, Tigers, and No human clowns.

Only me and you
And my follower witnesses:
The sky and the sun.

Now,
Just tell me,
What type of circus you want to see?
What types and size of cats you want to see?
What type of elephant you want me to be?

African, Asian or Irish?

Do You Think

Do you think Love is easy?

You already burned yourself
And you did not learn a lot.

You already Sold your lips
And blackmailed your hair Just to buy time and One Oz of love;

You still Did not learn anything!

If you think I am not one of your life pillars;
If you can remember the many times I showed up in your dreams
You are in denial,
Of the first chock waves
Of the your life Tsunami;

Your eyes, and every muscle
Of your cheeks is betraying you.

And that is your mess alone.
Your problem alone
With your shores, Levies, and Habitats.

I am an earth quake and I do not more than that.
I just wonder about What happens
At your surface and underneath of your skin.

Love comes on the right time

And goes away on the right time.

So,
Take your boat,
Your breath, and your luggage.

Look for your right wings
And wait for your right wind.

Passion always pays off.

We all sail with the right wind.

Acoustic Guitar

Who is the guitar?
Who is the player?

One thing I am sure about I never played with a Missing wires
Or unadjusted

Acoustic guitar!

I do not even try!

So lady go and adjust yourself,
Your wires,
Your bolts,
Your springs,
Your hands
And check the oil if it needs To be changed.

Everything looks Like
A musical chaos.

But,
Sometimes
It comes to my feelings:

An acoustic guitar
Without Wires
Is like messaging the skin
Of a drum.

So lady,
Tune into yourself
Than tune in me,
So we can play together

A symphony

Starting from a primitive smiling ritual

To a civilized hungry angry love.

Surrealism Xviii: Uninterrupted

I Melted with the snow,
And dissolved into water.
It is the month of March.

I have been taking by the stream Through the sand, mud, and the limestone.

It takes too long to be Thrown into the great lake.

It is too long journey Since, I have been dissolved Melted, and taken.

Eileen turned the faucet while She is standing naked
For a morning shower.

I awoke up
As her body is splashed by water.

Forty Letters To A Woman – Thirteenth Letter –

I will love you, the Way no body else
Dear to love you.

I will love you, the Way you like to be loved To be explored, and Invaded.

I will love you,
So the words: peace, war, pain, happiness
May need to be redefined.

I will love you in Your terms.

I will love you
And take you
To Where you had never been before.

I will love you
Like a child.

I love you like and old man Desperate from life
Cause',
He loves life.

I will love you
In between,
Second by second,
Minute by minute,
Hour by hour,
Day by day,
Year by years,
Century by century,
And

Millennium by millennium.

I will love you,
Cause',
I do not have other choices;
But to love you,
Worship you, and Conquer the imaginable for you.

The Third World War: The Roots

My love for you
Woman!
Is not an extended Roman type of war,
there is no need To come back To the Crusades to Capture your skin;
Your heart and mind;
Your face is a moving Sand dreaming of a new land.

There is nothing
To agree or sign with you Do not consider another Warsaw Pact, Or Another Geneva Convention.
Nothing will Help!
You only have to admit And accept This forty Thousands Years old
Rooted Love;
Like the tree that stood between

When I write,
It is always
Your face
That appears from the words' sweat, from the ink's bitterness,
At the paper's edge, or At the end or the beginning of the line.

When I paint,

Do Not Blow On My Eyes

Do not blow and then whisper
To my eyes,
My bottom is fourteen light years deeper

Do not talk to my eyes,
It can not bare
The blush,

Do Not Teach Poetry!

Do not teach poetry;
Poetry is not a skill.

It is a painting that does not need a standard
To be taught or be drawn.

Do not preach
To write or use a poem;
A poem
Is a baby's face one can not add, or change stay by and let it just grow.

Do not look for

Just!
Center your "self"
And create

Define Yourself First

Define your face without joy or fear.
Define your hands, legs
Your veins, your heart, Then define
Your center, your place, space, Before your tears' and sheers' sphere.

Redefine everything!

Your whispers,
Your head,
Your bottom, and Your twisted skin surface twisters.

Identify first yourself
To yourself,
Cause',
That is the most important thing, Then see
How the world will come Toward you Like a flying book Hovering over
And adventurous young swimmer shelf.

Redefine everything!
Including your birth and birth date,
Including yourself.

My Poet Profile

You think, and I write that, with my sweat, my blood, your lips' preferred drink, and your red, green, black and white blink.

You dream, and I paint that.
colors are always born from your skin;
they spray like a young and mature gleam.

You suffer, and I convert that into roses, trees, rivers, desert of abundant happiness, and oceans with or without puffer.

you walk,
I talk about that you whisper,

I make your whisper, gasp and wind that blows on the sun
the moon is always crazy it like to see the sun
a dancing twister.

you run,
I run;
it is not about race, pride, heroism, being coward.
I like the infant you are and I am fun is always the children's fun.

I said
I am born

they said
love is conditional.

I said
feel it first,
then erase it,

Your Hand Apple's Path And Lines

You close your eyes Or leave them
It does not take

You exhale me
Or exhale the air
It does not change

I Shall Not Give You

I shall not give you my lips Cause' I know nothing About your drinking habits,
Your eating habits,
Your whisper habits,
Metal does not trust snips.

I shall not give you my hand;
Even it is masculine.
The softness is the strength,
Not the muscle and the roughness of the skin.
Do not ask strands to be brave and stand.

I shall not give you my heart
You may need one beat at a time Cause' you are thirsty and Too much of water will slash your smile apart.

I shall not give you my mind;
Your name is already a mind set
And the damage is unbearable.
Deeper than being maligned, Cast away, and blind.

I shall not give you my soul Cause', I am the master of my own
If you take it away
You will be a furious witch, and I will be the foul.

I shall not give you my fate
I draw my fate on the desert dunes
It is already moved freely with the wind
You shall built your fire and grate, and draw your own fate.

I shall not give you my dream;
Cause', you are that dream
My fortress and my gleam.

I Like Being Rejected

I have been Defected
Inflected, Affected, Injected, Corrected
Inspected, Neglected, Objected, Ejected, Selected, Subjected,
Suspected, Rejected,
For decades;
I like that.

I am vaccinated now
With the latest
Human attitude virus, Against pride, Love's flu, and
The ego's Asthma.

Now,
I feel baked,
Bleached, Grilled, Cooked, Connected, and Protected.

Happy Valentine
My Valentine who does not exist
Only in my mind.

Happy Valentine
Who is planning for a gift,
Who has it
And who still thinking About his or her pride.

Happy Valentine
Fertile women,
Pregnant women,
And who is unique and an exception.

Happy Valentine
America.

Happy Valentine
Eileen.

This is what I can offer.
This is my Valentine gift.

Woman's Heart

Human heart is not made for The High speed love,
The love vacuum, or The love's darkness.

Look at a woman's heart!
It is a simple universe,
With the basic,
Chemistry,
Light, and tenderness, Waiting for a Big Bang.

Look again at a woman's heart.
Can you see
From the eyes
The heart beats?

Look carefully!
Put all the senses you have and The ones you never heard about;
Forget your granted masculinity
And what you know from what you do not know;
Cause', you do not need to use your hand this time,
There is no need for your eyes,
There is no need for your tongue,
Your lips are useless,
Your pride is useless,
And you do not need your flirting skills anymore.
This a new kind of religion Without belief.
If you can not,
Do not pretend you can love a woman.

A Pyramid

I have been thinking Carefully
About a suicidal
Love.

I called the Natural love, like The Sockeye, Chum, or pink Salmon's love or The pets' love.

No need for pride at all,
Nothing matters, and Nothing is personal;
Exactly like watching TV,
Or having a job just to pay the bills.
Simply a hypocritical type of love.

I change my mind!

Why not two, three, Zillions of women?

Men are polygamist!

Women are monogamist!

I am ambitious!

Why not loving a stranger woman,

With an unknown or a fake name,

No social security number,

No heritage,

Who never claimed being Irish,

Victorian,

Or native to any continent.

As long as my wallet is still under my pillow.

I do not worry if I do not find her the next morning.

I was drunk anyway!

It was but a love under the influence of alcohol.

I do not get a ticket for that!

What is if I meet with a drama,

Hurricane,

A case,

A piece of literature,

A piece of art

A combination of surrealism, cubism with a little of Brake, Yves. Pollock, Miro, and Foucault.

I like dramas Geophysics,
animal behavior,

"The stranger, "
The sun,
The cosmos,

Et La mer.

I will not resist,

I like that lady who Dares to use my face as a canvas and Dares to Format my brain.

An Inaccessible woman, Playful, Unreachable,
A dilemma,
An equation,
A new topology,
Something that keeps me thinking.
And thinking.
Something that keeps me a life.

A Pyramid type of woman.

Atef Ayadi

Do Not Ask Me

Do not ask me for an hourly love
A love with pinch in pinch out I am not civilized yet.

Do not ask me for a burger love
With bad cheese,
I do not have the taste for it I can not afford it anyway
With my minimum wage salary.

Do not ask for a minimum feeling And maximum love
This is a different chemistry,
A different language
And another type of skill that takes time

Do not put my name in a list On top or in the bottom
It does not matter
Being hired and fired are not options I am considering This is for the skillful less
And I do not invest in the feeling and utilitarian market.

Do not ask me why I dream of the moon; Cause the moon is not just A face,
Full
Of smile,
Or dark eyebrow.
It is the first circle I draw,
The swoon when I am lost, and Your eyes' tune, sand, and the dune.

Do not ask me
What is my name is,
Where I come from, or What type job I have;
But ask what name I will give you and What name you will give me from time to time;

Ask me where I will take you and you will take me Without plans or exits.

Do not ask me if I could keep The same smile;
Cause, a smile is like a golden ring
It does not create your hand Neither my face.

The Reader Is The King

Because of stereotypes
I never had a job
The competitive salary and bonuses Are but dreams I do not need.
My name,
My resume,
My face,
My accent,
I did not choose them!
They may seem a mask;
But ignorance could berry
The golden facade of Human dignity.

Because of stereotypes
I lost Eileen,
Since the first few minutes
I met her.
I was told I harassed her;
That is way she is important to me.
I doubt she is important to you.
You are entitled to love
To fantasize,
To have Victorian house, Victorian Car,
And Victorian fancy dreams, Great bank account, and Have apolitical agenda,
But you can not change
Neither me nor the meaning of Eileen.

Because of stereotypes
I was seen as a pilot Actually, the FBI questioned me.
I never dreamed to see them personally Except maybe in the big screen.

Because of stereotypes
Some drunken students

Trashed me with beer cans while they were driving;
"Go home Mexican! " they said.
A police officer stopped me because I bike Other they give me a glance and disappear
"Why you are here? " with a paranoid tone and glance,
Not a human curiosity period.

Do I look like a terrorist?
Does a terrorist need a face?
Do I espouse the WANTED profile?
May be?
It is still your belief Justified or unjustified
You still have the rights to make it a debate.

Because of stereotypes
You choose me to be:
The perfect sacrifice
For Shirley Jackson's The Lottery
And being mistaken for The perfect Kate Chopin's The Awakening
I SILL love myself,
I love nature,
And I still love all living beings Unconditionally.
I choose to be The Stranger of Albert Camu Living in the green Midwest of Ray Bradbury's Fahrenheit 451
With the mind of Joseph Campbell and Hugo,
And the heart of Arthur Rimbaud.

Because of stereotypes
I am not paranoid;
I read more than ever,
Write more than ever,
Sculpt and paint more than ever.
It may take me to the extreme
It may terrorize you;
But, I do not think My aim is not that!

Because of stereotypes

I say: "I think"
Rather than "I believe."
Because of stereotypes
I knew about myself
More than you know about your Stereotypes.

Because of stereotypes
I made my own heaven
I do not need god for that God is for the mistaken,
The weakest link, and For people with a hell of stereotypes.

Because of stereotypes
I feel sorry for your losses
And your discomfort;
Because they are mine too.

Both Are Fanatic

You kill with what you write;
They kill with what is written for them.
Both are negative and fanatic.
They think there are no other choices;
You think you know and that is another problem:
A biased knowledge is like having no choices.

They kill because of the pain;
You kill because of pleasure.

They do not need a TV to kill;
You need a TV
To write and then kill.
Both have fantasies with same pain and the same poison.

Both are programmed,
Burned,
Consumed, Scarified, Exhausted, Tired, and Brainwashed.
Both are antagonistic to life.

Both should go to the desert,
Dive in the deep oceans,
Or explore the Amazon,
Maybe, both of you could learn the meaning of life.

Both are ignorant,
Angry,
And antisocial
Live in low holes.
Both are paranoid,
Looking for easy life and quick-fix Both are waging for war,
And burn the white flag,
For an eternal peace.
Both are addicted and Both have low energy

Zero Kelvin self-esteem.

In any case,

Both are neither capable of elevating themselves

Global Warming

Eileen is engaged In understanding the great converters:
The planet's heart and veins.
She loves people,
All living beings,
The blue sky,
Oceans, Seas, Lakes, Rivers,
And white clouds and the darker ones
Of this planet,
She has a great mind and great heart for everything.
The moon,
The sun,
The young and the old stars
Are still her favorites.

Eileen frustration is the Certain Loss of our Home planet
About our future children
We will bring them by love

Her persisting and rising fever
Her headache
Are the same
As the planet

She is thinking centuries ahead
As an eternal oracle.
She walks
From home to home,
State to state,
Country to country.
She never lost her smile.
Her love and passion
Are the only fuel she has to offer.

I am proud
To know and love this blue planet
As much as Eileen.

I Am Looking

I am looking
In your hand
For faces Of the many Women I loved before I could not forget Since you always Ask, If are unique and my Favorite
And I always answer
"You are a singularity and Type of hurricane I always welcome."
With a pleaser and fear.
After all, i am like a desert without moving sand."

Between The eyebrows
I can see my stolen Golden watch and
The time I never had To finish sorting out Angry voice from my soft voice
My exhalation from my inhalation
As you invaded me Without rhetoric Without policies
Or laws.

In your deep blue eyes
I am only looking
Only
For a refuge
And an exile
That can swallow me, An ocean
Which veils
The moon
And hides
The sun;

For centuries,
For years to come,
Or for days.

In your soul
I am trying To explain
The rules
And the darkness
Of the universe
And change
My heart's celestial pole.

The Diamond Ring

I have been trying to create A new language
That matches Exactly Eileen's
Dress,
Her shoes,
Her pleasant face,
Her smile,
Her dreams,
And her perfect
Diamond ring.

I have been looking for this type Of solid words,
So Eileen can Put them in her Trousseau
For anything that comes up Like a lipsticks,
A tiny mirror,
Or just something useful for her
To start a new day.

When

I find Eileen
My stomach through up my sleeping mouth,

Saturn's Rings

I took Eileen
For a walk On Saturn's rings.
We walked
On the ice, Warm stones,
And solid cosmic
Dust.
We watched the sun
Burning Faraway;
It is beautiful
To watch
The sun
From Saturn's Rings
And Eileen
Is my only credible witness And companion.
As we walked,
Eileen
Talked about Her perfect
Kiss,
Wedding ring,
Wedding dress,
Wedding kiss,
She said:
' Yeah!
I like to be here,
To dance here,
To be kissed here,
At the witness of the far burning Sun,
The beauty of Saturn,
Its rings,
And the one who Took me
To walk

On Saturn's rings.

Give Me Your Hand

Give me your hand,
I dreamt enough.
Your hand may bring me
The morning's breeze.

Give me your hand;
Your hand is always awaken My hand without it May fall into deep sleep.

Give me your hand;
In order
To remember my long solitude,
My worries, and the unforeseen.
Your hand is a welcoming Temple
For lovers
Who could not sort out Their pure and impure dreams.

Give me your hand;
I want to hide my Timid hand
So it can reveal all my hopes

With its strength,
Its weakness, and Its despair.

Hurricane Eileen

The story
Ended there.
No love-fare,
No wells of kisses,
No war followed by peace, and No laughs followed by tears.
The sand took over the green field, and The wind blew in empty streets.
Hurricane Eileen
Did not make it To the shores;
It did not touch down.
It was but an African

My Last Prophecy

The universe
Talked To Eileen
In a moment
Of deep orgasm.
Sound and light came To her
With resolved spectrum
Like an ancient rainbow.
Distance and time Crystallized in one Ring
That fits perfectly Eileen's ring finger.

Eileen's eyes,
Eileen face,
And Eileen body are A clear water of An endless lake,
That has no bottom and not silt,
But white sand.
A giant bibles Surging From the old stars Bring up with them the perfumes Of young nebula and Fireworks of the last big bungs.
This is my last prophecy
To see
The universe
Talking to Eileen.

The Perfect Equation

I have been Lost Between
Eileen
And my canvases.
Which comes
First?
Which comes second?
It is an inch long equation
As beautiful
As the universe
The canvases are hitting
Eileen;
It is a normal jealousy.

At the equation's left side Eileen is standing Tall, Warm,
And laughing.

PoemHunter.com

At the right side
Is My solitude,
My canvases
Are empty
Like my life;
White without any scratch,
Like a lost young dreamer
From the south
Crossing the desert
With
No fear or calculated risks
Only his dreams are contagious.

I closed my eyes
And I took a profound breath
To see and foresee the equation And the two sides

Separately.

As I went deep into this day dreaming

The picture of the perfect equation

Popped out

Like a giant bubble

Surging from the deep ocean

I saw Eileen a part of the canvases

And the canvases are

Welcoming Eileen as

A new

Sibling.

Her First Response

For years, I have been waiting for Her first response.
It Came in four bits
"No, No, No"
And then followed with a Breath taken "Yes! " My life has been

I have just to sort the many "No"

My Dream Place

I meditate since I was a child.
And every time,
I start by Closing my eyes.
I imagine myself standing in front of a staircase
That is leading downwards into the darkness A dark staircase Leading to an Unseen
Closed door;
Closed since the ancient time.
A door that opens to my sacred place
My retreat, my dreams, and peace place.

I do not have fear of darkness
At all!
Period!
But I am curious what is behind That door
And how my sacred,
My dreams, and My peace place will look like

I imagine myself stepping down on the first step And stepping down on the second step I felt my feet touching each step As I counted them 21 steps.
I finally touched the door
With two hands
And my nose;
I smelted it:
It is a heavy layer of copper covering wood;
Cause I know the smell of copper,
I know the smell of wood,
And I know the smell of copper covering wood.
My excitement was to reach the door and open it.
My excitement is to discover my sacred,
My dreams, and
My peace place.

As I opened the door,
I saw Eileen
Holding a red, orange, yellow, and blue roses
And smiling to me.

For five years
I repeatedly
Do the same meditation
I close my eyes
I hope to reach the door
My excitement is discover my sacred, My dreams,
My peace place.
Once I open the door,
I see Eileen
Holding a red, orange, yellow, and blue roses
And smiling to me.

This is my fate;
Each time I open the door
To my peace
And to my dreams;
I see Eileen
Holding the same roses
Red, orange, yellow, and blue,
And smiling to me.

I went to a flower shop
to buy A red rose for Eileen.
The seller looked at me
And at the red rose, and Said:
"I think this rose is for Eileen"
And in a second,
He vanished from his shop.
I saw him then
On the other side of the street Standing on his knees
With the red rose
In his hand Asking Eileen for same something I have been preparing myself to say

Streets, Trees, Lakes, Mountains Forests,
And prairies
Of America

Happy Thanksgiving, Sisters and fathers
In the big churches
Or in their tiniest houses Happy Thanksgiving
Soldier,
Policeman,
And firefighter.
Happy Thanksgiving
My friends
My street mates

My Café mates,
My bus mates,
Who is watching me
And I did not notice.
Happy Thanksgiving
Who is sleeping,
And who is dreaming,
Who is on the road,
Who is traveling By Plane, Boat, Car,
Or who is orbiting
Around the planet.

Happy Thanksgiving
Mexicans, Africans, Asians,
And the European:
The first who came
And the last who are trying.
Happy Thanksgiving
The lost and found Happy Thanksgiving given Native America Happy Thanksgiving to the lost and found Happy Thanksgiving
Seniors, Men, Women, Teens,
Children,
And new born babies.

Happy Thanksgiving Eileen.
Happy Thanksgiving
America.

The Woman's Earring

I looked at a woman earring With the eyes of a Child.
I am a curious creature!
And I am curious about this woman
As well as Her earrings.
She pulled and put her left earring
In my right hand's apple
And said: "I do not like my hair"
I said: " that is way you are hiding
The earrings"
She said: "Are you gay? "
I smiled;
In mind, a woman does not talk nothingness;
What she said is like A harmless poison that defines the concept of fever, Or shouting me with a golden bullet
That is unfolding itself into the peace's rose I said "I am lesbian Sister,
Do you want me to read your hand."

What Do You Think About Women?

It may take me
More than three millions years
To know only one unique woman;
A long journey,
So heroic Journey;
Rosy,
Bloody –wine or real blood; it does not really matter-
With tears or with pure water.
Really knowing her
From head to toes, Inch square by inch square
One hair at a time,
One lashes at a time;
One breath at a time
One glance a time
And then assemble
All the pictures
Sound, Vibrations, Rhythms,
All this poetry,
It looks like Assembling and disassembling Coding and decoding, Reading and writing,
And my problem is to cope with that
To find a harmony between what learn, My responses and what is In front of me,
Or what is really in my head.

The lips: the mute soul
Is my new discipline
I am not expecting Nobel price;
But it is worth the adventure
At least I could understand The reason of my own lips' existence;

Or my own existence.

Her feeling:

The one that stays inside
And the one she puts outside To dry out.

This is a very important matter of life
It is like or more than spirituality
It is like dying without regrets Making a suicide for the sake of life Or live at the edge of hell and heaven

See, between her physique And her chemistry is a World of mathematics and anthropology.
And do not forget about others major disciplines.

Now if I want to move to the next woman First, I ask my self if it is possible To detach from the first one;
I mean: eliminate the bias of the first lady Is it possible to have the same energy For a new three millions years trip?

So I can not answer
The question, because I still Do not have a clear picture And I am not equipped with High-tech gadgets
To zoom in and out
To weight or measure
The when, what, where, and the How
Of a woman.
I only have a long breath.

A Peace Of Code

A child is brushing Potatoes.

A cloud of potatoes is Surrounding him from all Sides.

He was asked to do so.
the reason is simple:
It is his job!
He gets paid for doing that!

With each finished potato.
A Drop of sweat Falls down
With each shredded skin
That bounces on the floor;
His childish fights evaporate
And disappears.

But
He is a child;
A child is always A wise dreamer;
And a strong fighter;
He will conquer his Childish fear;
He will learn
That Patience
Does not come from fear,
But from playing with the cloud.

Forty Letters To A Woman – Fourth Letter –

Like any woman,
You were sure
And not that sure.
For a woman,
Adventuring out the safety zone
Is only on a land
Made of a man's skin.

You did not choose me,
I did.
And what is the difference?

So, I took you
And drugged you
From your beautiful Black hair,
And drown you Into the Non safe zone.
You did not like it Or you did.
What is the difference?

A woman wants to be taken Where safety is not secure, Where security
Is a world of safe words.

I Like My Poem To Be

I like my poem to be Like a man who does not give up On his manhood;
Like a woman who does not Gives up on her femininity.
So I am steering
Words
In a cup of water.
First!
I want to see how far it goes.
I am thinking how to create a complete or incomplete Eileen

So I start from there.

and there starts my poem

this how I build it and like it to be

A picture of A woman,
A child,
I never have,
I may have,
Or possibly I have:
Hey, I am fully human And everything is possible!
So, I imagine myself in love With Eileen,
While I am steering my poem
In a glass of wine
-Du Marlo -le vin d'amour.- I see my face and her face
As the poem descend
And emerges
In and from the red wine.
Ah!
Ah, My poem!

Enfin!
Un enfant d'amour.

Fatal Encounter

A mystery that looks mysterious Hiding its mystery
Between the two eyes.
Mysterious enough
And no more than that.
Like a Drop of water Falling on top
Of my head
From a clear blue Summer sky.

Being Followed

The whole world
Is watching me
Every foot step, Every breath I take,
And every feeling That takes off
Or settle
On my face.

I do care
Starting from being careless
To extreme care,
Then I settle
As my care settle,
As my feeling takes off
Or settles on my face.

I Am Afraid

I am Afraid
And this is my first time.
It is beautiful
To be afraid
Sometime.
I am heading to the top of the mountain
As it is heading down Toward me.
I am afraid
Of the beautiful words,
The cold words,
The vulgar ones,
The warmer ones, and The fastest and slowest ones.
I am afraid to be taken By them
And become just a word.

I am afraid of the word
"Dream; "
This my world.
I am afraid of
When the world
Becomes a word
What will happen to my dream?

Atef Ayadi

Transition

It is hard,
And Mission impossible
To be crazy
By choice.
But, I asked my woman
To be me
And she asked me to do the same.

The only difference,
She jumped into me,
later,
after I jumped in.

The Fisherman

I am standing up In the middle
Of the lake.
My feet are touching the ground
The lake is soft and tender.
The water is endlessly pure.
The floor is nothing but Marble.
I came to relax
And stand up.
Yes, I came to fish
In the middle of it.
I only have little yard thread
And a dream
To hold a fish Between my hands.

Here is my fish!
Out of nowhere,
Rolling and wrapping itself Around the thread.
Both never expected
To be in the middle of nowhere.
I do not want To pull the thread
And I do not resist
The picture of
The fish is trying to make her way to my hands.
I held it Softly the between My hands;
Then
I freed it
As if I am freeing myself From the idea of being In middle of nowhere.

A Poem Versus Drama

How do you know?
Where,
When,
And how much do you feel If "It is not" or
"It is a poem."
And if you feel
And you know;
Therefore,
After,
And before,
You already decided
It is a poem Without However,
Hence,
And yet,
A poem is Nothing
But a feeling's decision.
Whether
It is a high poem when you are high,
In the middle,
Or down below.

I Write

I write
And
It is up to you
To decide,
To take it or to leave it;
Like a job
A wife,
A girlfriend,
A friend,
Having a child,
Not having a child,
Buying a house,
Or renting a house,
Go to sleep, and Not go to sleep.
It is actually your business.

I can not decide for you;
It is your choice.
I am not in your head.
And I do know you.
And I may be I would, or I would not.

I write
As I feel it;
But I can not Feel it
For you.
I can not wrapped up and sell it
For you.

I write
Because
I can not help it
And you can.
That is way, it is your business
And I can not decide For you.

So I write
And you decide What is right
For your own mind, love, health, and your own business?

Response

Her response was Fast
And breathless
Like walking out in a rush
'without shoes and nothing on Or running without feeling A single Drop of sweat.

Her response
Comes passing out, Dizzy, and fuzzy
From a long boat icy trip:
This is her first Titanic voyage
Her response
Approaches me En flame
And Aroused Yet,
Not wet.

PoemHunter.com

Her response was Weak,
And Overwhelmed;
An infant ☐ Begging for Care,
And for a warm Milk.

Her response
Est
Une réponse,
Sans origine,
Sans question d'origine,
Sans couleur,
Sans odeur,
Sans RENDEZ-VOUS,

Sans parfum,
Sans masse,
Sans désir,
Et sans méfiance.

Une réponse
Ivre,
Un orphelin qui danse Sans musique,
Sans fête,
Et
Sans espérance.

Une réponse,
Avec des lacunes,
Une réponse,
Qui parle
Une langue
Sans sa langue, Sans espoir,
Sans titre,
Sans tête,
Sans fin,
Un vrai bazar;
Dis-je non-sens.

Her response is a, Unique Drama
She sawed carefully
And beautifully
To fit me
And to welcome my awaken Renaissance.

Deadly glance.

Seeking The Thrill

Suspended
In the air;
I am ...
Anchored down by Eileen' eyes,
Up by my dreams,
Right by my past
And left my future
Blows like the wind.
Less fearful to fall down
The past is unchangeable My dreams are always fair.

This is my perfect thrill
The fate I am always after I disregard equilibrium Stability is ignorance.

I bite on my face,
No tear
And No fear;
I am seeking the thrill.
I take myself up
And plunge down.

The more I go up,
The more I am rewarded down
With a pure air.

Eileen & The Wind

The wind
And Eileen
Both, blow hard on me.
It is the fall Anyway.

The wind is predictable
When it comes
When it goes away
When and where it hits
It comes from the west
Or from the south.

Eileen is a Northern Type of wind.
Hot and icy
That took off my mind
And un-earthed my skin.

Both are two natural phenomena,
And
Both are unstoppable.
If I can ignore the wind,
I can not avoid Eileen.

Forty Letters To A Woman - First Letter -

My letter to you,
Is more important than me
And
It is more important than you.
Because kisses are important than My cheeks and your cheeks,
My eyebrows and your eyebrows,
My lips and your lips.

This letter bypasses me
And bypasses you.
Because, light is important than the lighthouse,
A color is more important than a rose,
And a poem is more important than the universe.

My letter to you is more important Than both of us.
It is a record
I left for people
And lovers
To discover
Your beauty
And what kind of crazy man
I am.

The Big Tree

She is growing up Inside me
Like a new organ
She feeds on my veins
My thoughts,
My fear,
And my dreams.

The more I think,
The more I dream,
The more she grows up.
And becomes bigger.
like giant Sitka Spruce tree.

I thought,
It is but a red rose
That needs a humid corner,
And some sunlight to Grow.

I looked inside myself,
I realized
She is a giant tree
With white orange and black roses Red leaves and golden fruits Exactly what a child is dream to see

Leaving it, will not harm me Extracting it Is like extracting my veins,
My fear,
My thoughts,
And my dreams all at once.

Perfect Island

The passion is calling me
And is taking me
In a long trip;
To Eileen's eyes.
Since Eileen's eyes
Are a my perfect island
And my dream's destiny I've been looking for Since my first birth,
And I am looking for a rebirth
On a white sandy beaches.

It is hard To find it, Access it;
Cease it,
Claim it with my white flag,
Or own it.
Because, they told me:
"A POOR MAN
With immature dreams Does not need a new land."
So,
I painted my dream island
The same map,
The same beaches
The same eyes
On My chest.

Eclipse

A perfect orbital and A perfect moon,
Me and Eileen
Had been switching
Since the ancient time.

Both, we like the sunlight Both, we like spinning around Each other...
Until the sun came between us A perfect eclipse occurred
The light faded.
I closed my eyes.
I only open them
To watch the sun or Eileen Or may be I was scared;
The eclipse is always seen as A bad luck.

Hope is it was just A blink from A promising universe.
Hope, the moon will return
On its track
Because without Eileen
I am a flat ocean
Without tides, Waves,
Or lover's slack.

Seeking Virtue

Loving Eileen is A fertile virtue...
My green land and flowery mountains.

Having Eileen is A mature heroic virtue...
Like coming to life
With your own choice...

Being around Eileen is A spiritual virtue...
The shrine I saw in my dreams
I shall built And protect.

Keeping Eileen is The ultimate sacrifice,
An endless resurrection.

Mint Bite

Why did you bite me
For three minutes?
And then you went away
In a second?
Was it a custom,
Your own way of talking,
Or a woman whispering
Through the rocks?
Why not a kiss
Or waving with your hand?
Is it about pride?
Were you angry woman?
Were you creative?
Or it was just me
Who induced this Erupted bite.

Eileen's Love & The Milky Way

Your love came on time Like the fall season.
It fell on my heart
Like Christmas snow; Everything is possible.

Your love broke me Like a squirrel breaking A nutshell
And shredded
Me and my language
Like a cloud
In the sky.
Your love stole my heart's Beats, Hung and dried them Like figs,
In order to preserve them
For the tough time, When I have feeling's heart attack.

Your Love's gravity became more and more strong;
I felt suspended in the outer limits of the sky,
Like water crystals,
They cannot melt or fall down,
They just must accept their Fate,
To remain useless
Suspended
And infertile.

Your love came with A thousands languages, Ancient
And futuristic;

Half of them are not spoken,
The other half Came from the other side of the galaxy Encrypted,
And I am
Illiterate in the new languages of your love.

Your love taught me
The unpredictable
First, second, and third law.
I am now a master
Of the eleventh sense.
Your love taught me
How to read your eyes language.
Your love became my guide
When I am lost
After our lips" long lasting war,
And my body clings Over yours
Like a Candy bar;
I raised the white flag
For peace.

Your love gave me a pillow
To rest my head,
And closed my eyes,
And read me Arthur Rimbaud's poems,
Like a restless child Who needs to be put to bed.

Your love took me
To my preferred temple
To meditate
And clean my soul
From all humanity's sins
In order to be ready To wear the burden
Of the new prophecy.

Your love
Grind me like sand of papers Then, molted me into a roman

Fountain
For the thirsty,
Who comes to my deserted town.

Your love
Declines my citizenship when I crossed the North borders,
the south borders
As well as from the sky,
And took away
My identity,
My religion,
My birthday,
The moon cycle,
The world map,
And switch the sunrise to sunset.
And changes,
My feeling's weather,
And my feeling darkest nights.

Your love made me
A moon slave
And exiled me in an open desert
And I am only a fisherman
I know only the salty love water And thousand of miles of virgin shores.
Now I have to learn how to live In dry weather
In a desert Between two breasts Like living between The Maya
And the Giza pyramids.

Your love taught me
To enter a poem Like entering A holy temple
To clean my old sins
Your love
Yells and shoots

Over the church's roofs Announcing
A new revolution
After the industrial
And the informational

Your love surprised me
In my dreams
Like a new prophecy
And promises
A fair crucifixion
A fair immortality

Your love has deep oceans Few fishermen dare
To explore it
And I have a little boat
And a little water for two days
And the heavens to guide me.

I have been trying Since the Pharaoh's era
And Babylonians,
The Greeks,
And the Romans,
To learn your love
Language,
Chemistry, Laws, Rules, Etiquette,
And its politics.
But i failed
To grasp the idea
That is a natural phenomenon And your love in particular is A galactic blast,
A giant black hole,
And a supernova.

So help me
Woman

To cope with your love.
Help me not to be drawn In your love
Quiet Seas
And deep oceans.
Because I am not An Experienced sailor Neither fisherman
Who dares to sail Without your blue eyes" Compasses
Or give me back my vigor
To face my unmistakable destiny.

One Of Eileen's Difficulties

Do you want me to be Quiet?
A slow sandy river;
No stones,
No rocks
A side;
A very slow river indeed?

Do you want me to be Volcanic,
Restless,
A noisy traffic
With no stop signs?
Or you want me just From time to time
To be in a hurry
With a bag of emotions
On my shoulder
And a little bag
Of poems in my hand Asking for shelter.

Do you want me to have This urbanized love
With different fonts, Different Credit cards, and a Ferrari,

Do you want me to be a chic lover?

Or you want this wild
Love;
Racing shoeless
With camels
Along the African Sahara's To defeat dunes,
The heat,
And the white sand?

Choose your love Eileen!
Choose the side you like,
The shady
Or the sunny side;
Where you can walk
Sit down,
Stand up,
And talk
Alone or with a crowd.

There is a moment,
When the heat and cold Melt at the same point
At the same threshold.
And that is your choice!

Are you looking for a sun Without breeze Without light?

Is it the hardest question
You ever want to ask yourself
And
It is still wandering between your lips?

I want to answer all your Hard and easy questions so, ask your question, Eileen!
answering you is my life drill.

Skepticism

My ...
... Problem ...
I am too skeptical ...
Maybe ...
It is a family trait, or Because of my scientific background.
Maybe!
Maybe it is just ...
... "The Eileen's effect."

I have a cell phone
I do not use.
I turned the ring volume off
I ignore calls
I never call back
I am brute
And wild.
I do not see the benefit Of Sprint, or AT&T.
After all,
I never received a single Call
From Eileen.

Atef Ayadi

Inspired

I am always Inspired
By the sun
And Eileen.

The sun is for everyone Eileen is priceless
And I am free.

I can not lose you
Eileen!
Because you left
Your fingerprints.
I can not seize you
'Cause the wind
Is a natural phenomenon
And my veins
Are not fit
For too much rain
And more than 80 knots wind.

Colors' Hysteria

They come scrambling, Racing, Competing,
And Praising each other;
Like people in a big town;
Competition is always hostile.
They entered
The white canvas
From the four corners;
Few from the sides.
They came Yelling
And cheering.
They invaded the canvas Like the Romans entered the gates of Jerusalem;
Like Eileen entered me.
With the same love and The same human rhetoric.

Colors came first,
Then a wave of forms Followed them;
Like the Olympics' opening.
I am the only Public,
The canvas is an unwelcoming
And unfinished Stadium.
Both colors and forms Started to draw Patterns
And metaphors.

I can see Eileen's name,
I can see Eileen's face,
I can see Eileen's smile too, Building up,

Drop by drop;
I can see Eileen Laying down
Along the canvas
With her smile of orange Then, Standing up;
She glanced at me
Then, she walked away.

Colors, ink
And water
Shake hands
And embrace each other
It is really a human scene, ...
Human feast.
Some colors
Clash against a few forms Others get a long Naturally; Others were In a rush
Vanished;
A dozen were just watching the scene
Only one color is acting Exactly like Eileen.

I never predicted
How the canvas was going To look like I never judged the painting
'Cause it always triggers My desire
For Eileen.

My colors are my words;
My words are Eileen; Eileen is the sun
The sun rises
I feel warm.
Eileen is warm too,
And then she runs;
Eileen always runs

when she is warm.

The canvas
Is almost done.
The colors are exhausted,
The forms are drunk,
And I am sober.
The blue sky is there,
Some squared doors
And windows
In red, Blue, and Pink
Are open To let the air Circulating
And rejuvenate
The sad fireplace.

The painting is done.
I called the painting Smiling Eileen.

Only Eileen

Only Eileen
Dares to tell me
How much I weight
... My self-worth
In pounds,
And In pennies;
In the black market,
In EBay,
Wall Street,
Antic shops,
And in cheap and cheek, Bazaars.

Only Eileen
Knows
Who I am,
What type of guts I have,
What type of breathing habits I have,
What type of joke I have,
What type of joke I am.
She told me
All of that
So I will not have sunburn
And be immune to the cold feeling attacks.

She told me all
With a closed mouth;
With retreated eyes
What I heard
Is what I am bitterly Trying to grasp
And see.

Only Eileen
With her unspoken language,
Make-up,
And soft night
Soft dress
Dares to face me

And let me look down Into my barrel's bottom.
My own real deep sea.

Only Eileen
Dares to stare at me
Ah!
... With an eternal glance
From the bottom-up And give me
My forgotten maps
In order to explore ORION CASSIOPEIA
VULPECULA
TAURUS
And others Around SAGITTA.

Only Eileen ...
Can tell...
What type of cement,
Sand,
Bricks,
titanium Plaster And concrete
I may need ...
To build my mind,
my veins,
my heart,
my skin
My shell,
My... self,
... My house ...
Over
The one that fell down.

Eileen's Language

I hate colons,
Semi-colons,
Commas,
All the dots,
The street's dashed and bold lines,
The formal and informal,
Business and love letters,
And what worsens my stomach pain,
The civilized patterns, Motifs,
And jokes and dilemmas.

I hate it all
I hate to list,
Lay down,
Lay out,
All the focused and structured Feelings,
And etiquettes.
I hate this inventory of What I like
And what I do not like.
I like to vomit them all;
Like a rusted wood suitcase
Is vomiting its rusted nails.

I do not like to face you
Eileen;
Until I empty
All my guts
From the rust
And the antic puppets, Heroes, and clowns
I have been storing Since ancient times, Since the time my first ancestor Stood up
And walked through the cold
And the warm lands.□

I will not promise you
Eileen ...
Because, you never did Or you may not be there Waiting
For me.
For a fancy commitment.
I hate to be prized, Competition,
Pleasureful rewards, Fake smiles, and Boredom;

They Are my worst enemies.

I like to earn you with my own sweat.

I have to stay away
Somewhere
On the darkest spot of the sun Anywhere!
It does not matter!
I have to stay away
From the language you speak,
Your perfect grammar,
Your perfect dress,
Your perfect town,
Your perfect healthy food,
Your compulsive food,
And your anxious thoughts
And mood.
I need to breathe first
So I can Like you first
And then up...
Up ...

Love can grow up within the guts
and jump starts the heart.

Atef Ayadi

The Only Choice

You have no other choices Right Or left,
But to face me.
No regrets,
No hard feelings
No guilt,
No they,
No he,
No she,
No plea,
Will help you But me.

You face it Whether Standing up Laying down
Or sitting on your knees
You will have it all,
You will have me.

You flee,
To the sky,
To the mountains,
To the desert,
To the sea,
You still remember
Me.

You may think
You will be free,
And
That is the cure,
That is the key.
So run
Fast, Slow,
Run as much as you can,

Nothing will stop you,
No one will catch you,
Except,
The shadow
Of you
And me.

Migrating To The South

I crossed the Mexican Border
Heading south
No one stopped me ...
No one asked me ...
For an ID,
A passport,
Or even my social security Number.
After All,
I am heading south
To the heat
And dry lands.
They told me nothing is Left Over there, Except elders
With their friendly Dogs,
Unfriendly DOGS.
And dozens Of orphans,

Eileen told me...
One day, ....
Like Columbus
You really missed
The south.

9: 00 Am Blue Movement

The feminist crowd Is blocking
The streets;
Every street,
In every town,
In every county,
And in every State.
The strike is inevitable
They are shouting:

"FREE, FREE. OUR CHILDREN ARE FREE! "
"FREE, FREE. OUR CHILDREN ARE FREE! "

Eileen is up front, Holding the crowd together.
A few men
Are outside,
In the same streets
Supporting
The strike,
And distributing bottles of water
And juice.
Others
Laughing ... cheering with domestic beers
In bars,
In Their homes
While they are watching the news
On CNN.

5: 25 Pm Dreams Come True

Me and Eileen
Hand in hand,
Africa is free,
North Korea is out of danger,
The ecosystem is back to normal,
The magnetic field Flipped
With no major disaster,
A new form of energy is discovered, Dualism is over,
A futuristic ethical system
Is approved by the majority At the United Nation's building,
And Millions of people Walk together
To cure obesity.

3...

Like water,
Eileen
Does not like
The pain
Of altitude,
Or being suspended in the air.
She chooses
To fall down;
Water is always falling down Toward the land and deeper, Back to where it grew up and Back to the roots.
The air is for breathing
Not for feigning.

I came from the desert;
Water is good
Only for the sweat.
I need water,
Because Without it
I am a dry land.

Emptiness

No cloud
No storm
No humidity
No dust
But a clear night sky Indeed!
No stars
No nebula

No sparking at all!
Much like
My mind
Without Eileen.

Portrait

She put her fingers
On top of each other To mimic
The octopus' arms movement
They Expel
And retract.
Her tongue Swept her lips
Every five retractions
She exhaled four words:
Derive,
Stimulus, Inspired,
And ultimately.
They remain suspended
And Echoing
In the air.
This is an impressionist portrait Of a woman
Explorer.
Who simply asked to be explored.

The Darker Path

Three solitary colors:
Red,
Blue, and black;
One straight line,
No circle,
One scratch,
The name of Eileen:
Four times and In three different sizes,
And one metaphor
Are laying down,
Waiting
Between the white canvas
And my exiled journal.

What I could not say
I wrote.
What I could not write
I painted.
What I could not paint
I scratched.

The painting exhaled
A breath of life;
Like Eileen
Exhaled me.

Failure

I failed!

I failed!

I also failed my failure.

I cannot move

An inch up

Or an inch down.

At the surface,

The white

Old

Shark already swallowed Eileen;

Maybe,

Eileen swallowed the white old Shark

I stayed

Suspended

In the bottom

Of the ocean

I created.

Shopping

I went shopping
In Wal-Mart.
I aimed to buy a woman,
Or love;
A woman soup
Or love soup;
A woman receipt
Or a love receipt; Something that makes My sex drive go away
Or cool it down.
Something I can find on the shelves
Or in the deli section.
Like beans,
Milk, Juice,
Eggs,
Or sliced beef.

Surrealism Xiii

Eileen lit a cigarette
In a moment of a cascade Of memories Love, Fear, Judgment,
And remorse.
The smoke erupted
From her pomegranate lips.
And invaded the bar space;
Like a Pyroclastic flows
At the speed of light,
And finally fell on me.
Her eyes were fixed
On me;
Like a star watching
An orphan moon.
I felt my skin
Half burned;
But,
I still kept watching This beautiful Natural phenomenon.

The Anxious Lambs

The lambs are following A few goats
To the highest Mountain
Of the ancient Sinai.
They become tired
Of the shepherd's expectations,
And his restless smart dog's barking.
They like to be free.
They like to adventure
With what they know
Into the inaccessible,
And into the wonders
Of a new magic green land.
They like to be taken With force
To the unknown.
The goats are well Adapted and  Skillful in the matters of Heights
And follow the old paths.
They think "Me first and Then the lambs."
The lambs still are lambs.

The shepherd closes his eyes
Sometimes
He knows the goats' nature And ambitions.
He uses them
Sometimes
To challenge his lambs
For the welfare Of everyone.
He knows their past.
The lambs know their own past.
It is rare to find a lamb that Recognizes that it is a lamb.

The goats know both.
The dog is seeking only a reward.
It is a renaissance way of thinking For both goats and lambs.
The shepherd is always a shepherd
The dog remains a dog
The past remains as ancient as Sinai.

Love Revolution

Too many questions
Came to my mind,
And rushed against my veins
Like an oceanic bubbles Surfacing with the hope to catch the last tropical rain.

Why is love not for everyone?
I mean:
Everyone!
And every being!

Like the sunshine reaching All beings
Like the sea's waves, Reaching all virgin shores.

Why is love not like Water, Salt, Spices,
Wine,
And perfumes,

PoemHunter.com

Or simply a Commodity
Anyone can afford?

Why is love not like An infant water stream that Comes from a titan desert
With a big dream
To reach a big lake or To sweeten a lost pensive old sea,

Like a cloud and rain, or Like grass and flowers For everyone?

I thought

It is for all Human and Any being!

Without exception,
No etiquette,
No protocols,
Or political debates.

Why is it not possible
To have a natural love
Like a red rose Rising up from The sand?

Why can love not Grow up naturally Over
Our chests,
Our hands,
Our legs,
Our backs,
And our shin Like our Black, Soft, Yellow,
Long,
Short
And curly hair?

Why is love not given with our birth certificate
As a second
Personal ID?

Why love is not A necessity
Like poetry?

Second Of Madness

A second
Of extreme madness
Took me at high speed.
No red lights will stop it.
Neither adults' guns Nor children's fireworks
Will absorb it.
It Turned with me over and over From Market
To Main street.

I woke up After a long Period Between coma
And apathy;
With minor injuries
I realized
I killed three love poems Paralyzed four young Verses
From the neck down.
I cried when I heard
I lost
My best friend
Eileen's
Holy secret poems.

Accommodation Of Desire

I broke the dozen eggs
I bought a few weeks ago.
Only two of them are badly reddish.
My eyes are fixed on the good ones.
I forget to turn the stove on As Eileen's face appeared From the back side of my brain.
I sit there glancing at The unmixed eggs;
Thinking...
Why are the reddish eggs Considered bad?

Surrealism IX

This morning is awkward
The sun is not rising at all My pain turned into an orgasm My breath is slowing down My thoughts are numbing Eileen is standing up On the other side
Of the river Looking north
It becomes more eloquent
The river has been flooding
Constantly
For three years
The water never reached me
I was told the desert disappeared
Ever since
I am still watching my feet
My worries about Eileen Interrupt my attraction to my dry feet.
She is always in my mind
Even though we never met We never talked
My obsession with my feet Turned into an obsession with Eileen Time dissolves into the flatness of the space Eileen dissolves all the absurdities

Surrealism Viii

I was focused on the chess board Eileen is an unbeatable opponent
I could not tell her anything About my feelings for her;
A feeling As old as the game itself Chess is the game of life
My life game
A male was standing around our table
With a persisting smile
His eyes were solidified around Eileen As I tried to move
My bishop
To a check mate Eileen asked me if we can Postpone the game
She has neck pain
She left
And vanished with our table host.

I waked up;
It was just a dream!

The Hand, Remorse

Eileen is sitting at the café entry side Big table
Unfocused
It is around sunset
The blue is mixed With darkness
I went out
To take breath of smoke
My ultimate orgasm
For Five minutes
Two cigarettes in a row
Three times.
An attempt to swallow Eileen's face.

Persistence Of Memory

Eileen left the town
One snow flake is falling Vertically Toward an oak tree yellow laying leave.
The streets are deserted, Except from the cold.
I am looking from the windows;
My only escape.
My coffee cup is waiting for my hand
To warm it.
My young journal is afraid of The shrinking table.

Surrealism Iv

Words are eating commas, Phrases are eating the page, Pages are eating the Parallel Space.
The end of Quantum Mechanic Is reaching its fatal absurdity,
And its maximum entropy.
It is cold;
I have to burn my journal.

Surrealism Vi

A gray serpent hit
The isolated farm
In an isolated land
The night shaded the land
It ate only one cow,
The youngest
The fattest
One chicken,
The youngest
The fattest.
And left the lambs.
The gray serpent comes back Every night
The farmers gathered At the last victim house Nice touch down big town boy?
Laugh the crowd.
My companion Eileen crossed my hear Tenderly
And said
Do you like this TV commercial?
It is about the last football game
An advertisement for Miller Light Wake up!
Sober man.

Surrealism Vii

The war is raising.
Who started first?
The ambitious youthfulness
On behalf of Alexander the great,
The Romans who were looking for Refined salts,
The crusades who were Escaping from the orthodox eagles, The new RAP globalization, or The cons and pros bring their Breezes and winds.
The only common
And absurd denominator:
They are lambs,
An organized group temptation,
And a low class heavy iced mind
With calculated steps.
All the eyes and tongues Are fixed on the new Martinez Cocktail; Anything else
Is the absurdity itself.
What I am sure of It is getting hot and hotter
The battle field is getting crowded And flatter.
My mind is taking me
To watch this cat Crossing this noisy party Looking for something?
maybe she is trying to escape from the noise or She is chasing a mouse?

Siege

Your love threw me
In the land of wonders.
It took me by surprise
From my neck While I was
At my preferred café,
At my preferred table,
While I was teasing my poems,
While my poems were teasing me.
I forgot my preferred café
And I forgot my preferred table I forgot my poems
I forgot whom I was teasing
And who was teasing me.

Your love surprised me
While I was reading my hand For luck
And fate.
I forgot my hand,
I forgot my luck,
And I forgot my fate.

Your love invaded me
the same way a tsunami Invaded the moon
In its ecliptic wedding
With the sun.
I woke up weak Thirsty,
And thirty million light years faraway
From my birth galaxy.
I forgot the moon,
I forgot the sun,
I forgot the wedding
And I forgot my birth galaxy.

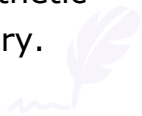

Your love surprised me
Like the Christ surprised the ancient world

I forgot Christ
And I forgot the ancient world.

The Last Empire

I came to this land
As a liberator
With new alphabets, New poetry engineering skills,
New love roses:
Red, Coral, Orange,
And Pink;
For the moon,
And for the sun.
I came with new DESKTOP SUPPORT Ideas and concepts
For lovers who lost their tongues With new love vision,
New Fine Art theory
With less mathematical tensions
More aesthetic Less binary.

PoemHunter.com

I came with a dream
To be the last emperor Of a last empire
That expands beyond
The Milky Way and
The super clustered galaxies.

After 7 years of cheap labor,
I realized,
I am the only one Who is holding
The white flag
Of my own irony.

Why You

Why you?
Why particularly you?
From all women
You changed my days' rhythm
My life engineering,
My physics,
And my chemistry,
And I did not oppose or resist.
Why I love you particularly,
Desire you particularly,
And let you Slide between the blue papers
Of my journal
To sleep with my poems.
Why you particularly I let you sing on my cheeks
And dance on my eyebrow
And I did not oppose.

Why you particularly,
I let you Kill all the beautiful women Inside me
And I did not oppose.
Why I favored you
From all women
And I gave you My town,
My closet
My secret box
The keys to my secret gardens,
Secret gods,
And to my secret water falls;
No woman earned Such high rank before.

The Last Emigrant

I came to this new land,
To this old continent, Following my natural;
My instinct.
I did not hear cheers
No smiles,
No welcome signs,
No fireworks,
No one was there to receive me,
Or to shake my hand
As I anticipated, Except this sign
That says:
"NON-CITIZENS must cross this gate."

I came with no sense Of attachment, Identity,
Religious freedom,
Love freedom, Big numbers, or Freeing freedom.
I am just seeking the warmth.
I am looking for A piece of land
Under the sun.

Agitation

After the tides
After the French revolution After the mannish history After a feminine geography After a long career in women's politics After the boredom,
After the wine,
After all the complements I made,
After the poetry I wrote,
And the few verses written to me,
After the flood of kisses,
After the national disaster,
And after pouring out all the anger;
I made a plan for a new trip
To an unknown continent, Where I wont crave poetry And my poems won't crave me.

Eileen Eyes

I am absorbed by this galactic Dual Black holes
As dark
As Eileen's eyes.
They sucked me in half of a second.
I cannot stop it.
It is an unmistakable fate.
I like it!
Let it be!

My body stretched
Like a river escaping a glacier.
My feet walked alone.
My eyes are still fixed on hers Before falling.

Eileen's eyes
are a cosmic event;
A human Dominant myth.
They sucked everybody and everything.
Nothing remained,
Except the echo of a passing universe,
And my eyes
Are still fixed on hers
And hers on me.
I face it;
I like it;
It is my fate;
So let it be!

Your Name's Letters

The letters of your name follow me, Hide in my pocket when I walk out Cling to my gloves, Lay down close to the chimney,
And disperse over my journal's White pages;
Like a friend who is waiting for me
For a drink or a cup of tea.

Your name's letters shadow my fate, Soothe my withered solitude,
And draw my odyssey.

Your name letters check on My forehead,
My cheeks,
And my hands
For possible fever,
And they also check on My heartbeats;
They are my doctor and my medicine.

I Will Tell You

I will tell you
I love you
When all ardor's languages Will vanish.
When all lovers will loose
Their tongues,
Their hearts,
And their lips.
Then I may say it because the language of love remains forever
A Kiss.

I will repeat it As many as The kisses
You give me
And as many as Breaths
You take from me.

I will say it
When I feel
The rivers need your permission to walk
The seasons need your permission to change
The snow needs your permission fall down and melt
The earth needs your permission to crawl and rotate

I will tell you
I love you
When I see
All the world's languages Come for an urgent meeting To discuss your lips fate

I may say it Deliberately
And

Ebay

I put my Face
For selling
In a public Auction
On EBAY.
I added a digital Picture
For honesty,
And
A starting price $0.99.
I checked
Seven days Later,
No one!
No one made
A bid.
But I received only one Private
Question that looked like feedback From a buyer
Who identified herself as a face seller
she wrote:
'No woman buys a sad face.'

I Wish

I wish...

I wish I could write you

A poem,

A circular one.

Within,

The language changes

Like a flower emerges from a dot,

Like a young squirrel gnawing a comma;

Like a child crawling over letters,

Frivolously tearing words,

And arranging them into cubes and pyramids.

A child is always a genius.

See,

Whatever is

The poem's geometry,

Its relief,

If it is a harvest,

Raining,

Freedom,

Love,

Woman,

War,

Or spiritual day;

A poem remains a currency,

A God's work

Never revealed,

Never finished,

Never done.

I wish

If you let me go back

To the day

You were born

To write,

Between your infant eyebrows,

And

On your lips

A song

PoemHunter.com

A happy and dancing

One.

And extract from your red cheeks

A rare wine.

Face It

Free your lips
From the daily etiquettes
And the charm of ancient veils
Do not run away
No one runs after drawing ones' fate Did you ever see The sea running away from its tides
And hiding behind the shores.

Take off your veil Your rings,
And the Indian henna,
You may not need them Love journey is like Crossing an ocean
With a rebellion young boat
And with little water.

Show your feeling's face;
No need for hate.
Hang your hate against the wall
Like a Victorian painting Or an African lion's skull.
Convert your hate
Into a roman wine
Or a Chinese ink
To use later to write a future language.
Plan for new fates
Life is held between your hungry lips
And your tattooed eyebrow.

Eileen

Eileen...

Is a complex phrase
Made out of simple words.
She turned me into a simple phrase
Made out of complex words,
And commas racing foolish dots.

Eileen is a woman with whispering eyes
That defeat the galactic distances,
And penetrate through the human skin.

Eileen is an ancient woman Her destiny is a future station;
And I live only in the present And I am stuck in the time of Duals between barons and Pimps of poetry.

Forgive me
Eileen;
If I could not Catch your flying whispers Nearby the heavens.
I agree!
I am a failure!
I am still trying to figure out How many dots
And commas
I need
To make my first speech.

I am falling rapidly,
And
I still like it.
I am not scared
From the Great impact,
From

The attraction is so Intense
As well as
The impact.
I wake up

Heart re-animation
I found myself

Between Us

Between us
A corn field
And
A little stream Dreaming to be A river.

Between us
The sun is running
From the east
With a torch
To hand it
To the moon
On the west

Between us
Shallow waters Are Racing
To reach
The Atlantic

Between us
Hot
And cold climates
Are melting
To form a fine Golden line Between hell
And heaven

Between us
A war
Of fireworks
And infant poems.

The Network

I turned
The TV
On.
The first five minutes
The CNN news:
Two prostitutes
Were Found Decapitated
And dumped
In two separated
Bags
After being Beating.
This I call Peace time Casualty.
Followed
By five minutes
Of commercial:
Drug for obese
The next five minutes
The war on freedom
In Iraq
Local news
Car bombing Injured one USA
Soldier
And killed 19
Civilians
Most of them were Children.
Then Another five minutes
Of commercial
This time
Bow flex
With 30 years of Warranty

Then the Local weather update,
With no warning!
Popped up With A noisy Warning Message
TURNADO WATCH
Affective till 9: 47 PM
In the following Counties:
LOUISVILLE, PARIS,
CHAMPAIGN,
And 6 other Counties
I do not remember their names.
I hear the heavy rain and branches Falling.
I have been
In this town
For seven years,
No tornado Touched Really
Down.

I switched to CNN
Still,
It is about Denis,
It became Type four Hurricane
As it got Close to Alabama.
The head
Of Alabama
Asked
His people
To leave

And drive north.
Poor Alabama,
Poor people
In Alabama.

I turned the TV off.
I took My bicycle
And I headed to The closest bar.

Headache

I wrote

In a hurry
It is bored Boring

No dots

No commas

I want just

Where Do You Come From?

In most parties
I go to,
Or in some public Gathering
Around coffee shop
Table;
The most Frequently asked Urgent, Predictable
And routine Questions
I have been subject to
And I have tried Unsuccessfully
To digest During these Last five years
Is
"what is your name? "
"How do you pronounce it? "
"where do you come from? "

See,
They come In a bundle,
One pack,
The same sequence,
Same wavelength,
And
The same algorithm.

I do not know where people Learned
The stuff?
Was it in first grade?
Second?
Fifth grade?

Maybe

To deal with the country's

Urgent

Need

For diversity.

War Time

I closed my embassy;
Before that,
I laid off the staff
With no written warning
Or excuses in advance.
I laid off the security guard too.
It is a shaking time.
A lot of bloody feeling bombs, Harassments,
And body language threats.

I tried traditional diplomacy To save this ancient Mutual love's Interest.
I tried really
To preserve
This bilateral Romantic partnership That flourished
Since the Babylonian era.

I want to stop
Our lips shaking
With too many love Etiquettes.
I want to stop these Cold and High temperature Collisions
And earthquakes
Between the north and the south.
You did not Give me too many choices
And you rejected mine.
See, there is nothing between Hell and Heaven.

I closed the embassy.

I locked its oriental door.
The only thing I took with me is The last six years
Of our secret poems.

Woman Of Thousand Myths

I dumped all the history books
The ones I own
The ones I do not
The ones I have read The ones I have not Because your arrival
Marks
The starting point
Of human history
As well as the universe.
And, with your hands
You redrew new maps
To give birth to A new kind of geography Less flat
Less salty
That joins Tigris River
And the Mississippi.

Your smile
Is this big bang
Of alphabets
That redraws a fair
Language
Where geometric
And organic
Poems are equal.

Your lips give order
To build this town
And enough streets
And temples
And to raise a wall Around this town
As high
As the Chinese wall
To slave all the lovers Around your temples.

Everything in this Town
Is buried in your eyes
And there
The bubbles of civilization Are waiting passionately
To get the torch
And run, and Run with all the feet
And wings
They have
For this perfect moment To start a new Beginning.

Feedback

Woman!

This is a feedback.

It is about

The little time

Our hands were

Drunk and electrified.

It is about

The little endless time,

When we opened

A little window

Wide enough

To catch the sky,

And weight it

Like weighting

A healthy new

Born.

It is not important

That both

Should drink from the same fountain

At the same time

At the edge of the universe.

It is important

To worry

About the heavy carriage

Both we have

Or how much

Weak is our strength

Or how much

Strong is our Weakness

Or how much

We are proud of our

Pride.

This is simply a

Feedback

Like a fraction

Of light beam

Reflected by one crystal

Standing inside

Me,
The rest of it Is possibly still echoing Within my veins
To preserve
A sharp memory
Of your divine lips.

You do not have To be ready To take it,
With more or less temporal
It is you, indeed.
And not about you.
I am just a mirror
Much more like the one used for Make up.

It is enough for me
To be in harmony With the crystals I still have Inside me.
This feed back Is simply A poem
A young and invincible one,
A new kind of concrete,
Of words,
Jelly of roses,
Alien geometry,
And immortal synergy.

Friday Night

A fog of silence Invaded my Table
For couple dead hours
the cafe Looked like a deserted temple the server is bored with his long lasting boredom
A Lady came across my table Her eyes were firing
At mine
She said
"Beautiful night? "
"Is it? "
I was busy sharpening my pencil Against the concrete slab
She dumped her cigarette
In my ashtray
And added "Have a good night"

Siberian

Who said Siberian hills
Are cold
And frozen?
Who saw a fire
So white
In Siberian eyes
And green breast
So bright and warm?
A land
For compassion
A shining crystal
That melts
To deliver a whisper
And a hushed water
Of life.

Echo

You come to this land
Like a storm
Without rain;
To devastate my town
And all hearts.
Your voice
Is an echo,
So soft Echo.
It tells
You are and forever Here.

Delirium

Your love overcomes
Time,
Space,
The conventions,
The reasonable,
The seasons,
Human values,
And,
Alien morality.
So forgive me woman
If my tongue is lost And I forget what I want to tell you.

Suppose
Hypothetically
We never met Suppose!
Life would be A phrase

Without poetry

La Femme Eileen

Woman!
Tenderness Dissolves
Through
Your eyes' glance
Like a young water stream That makes its way
To catch the Mississippi.

Time,
Space,
Big towns, Villages,
Corn and soybean fields,
Desert and dunes,
The Atlantic,
The Caspian Sea,
Dissolve
At the edge
Of your lips.

I hope
You are safe
From your desire
From the tattoos
You drew on me
From the name you gave me
From the name I gave you.

My Title

You Are
My little jewel,
My crystal,
My city,
My rescue when i am lost in the wilderness,
My passport,
My travel,
My exile,
My sixteen wings,
My ocean's waves,
My big desert,
My dunes,
My palm tree,
My olive tree,
My numbers,
My alphabets,
My book,
My new Bible,
My new language,
My lost and found,
My earthquake,
My energy,
My music,
My mosaic,
My guitar's wires,
My heaven,
My Hell,
My paper,
My Pen and my ink,
My laugh, and
My bag of jokes.

You Are

I am
A body
A stone
A dry clay Sand Volcanic desert Dust
Red Sky
Emptiness Fading Vacuum
An orphan darkness
A lonely cloud
A silence with no mouth.

You are Sweet breeze
Rain drops
A young water stream
A new born crying
A full moon
A star
A blue sky
A prairie
the sun flower
Life symphony
The Joy
The creation
God's dark side Light.

So Woman
When will you come
To start my creation?

Saturday Night

For instance
Time is timeless;
My table is deserted;
My coffee cup
Is drunk, tired, and exhausted.
What remains from This endless day:
Some 67 cents
In my pocket
And a broken cigarette.

The End Of Day

Like a young cloud
Is trying to catch the storm
My life is on the run Never reaching
The big storm
Or resting
Like a tired dune.

At the end of the day Rain and sweat Dust and heat Draw my new face
To catch the next day's New storm

Long Trip

It is a body Beside me
And two nice eyes.
Green, or Blue
Maybe?

I am sure.

Her compassion Is surrounding me;

Her hair
Is calling my hands,
And it is my heart
That melts
Over her salty Chocolate Chest.

White Rose From The Atlas

Now Paris
Is washing its eyes
With August rain
Paris is now
A woman
A Babylonian bride
Her wedding
Is set on Christmas
I hear youyous in Paris
And emigrants cheering
And applauding
To welcome
These eyes of marble
This is your day woman
You will hug
Another man
A Parisian
Black-feet
Who does not respect
The rain

In my little house
There are many essays
And poems
Some I do not feel I need Some are not mine
They are still Standing up
The way I left them
This morning
The fireplace is silent
Like a grandmother
Who knows when she should talk Too many books
In different languages
Agitated
Like me
Even your journal
As you left it

It still keeping
Its preferred place,
Its blue color
And the smell of your burned desires

The first December snow Is falling in a rebellious motions,
It is embracing the town's big avenue
And dancing with the last falling leaves Against its will
This is not very important
The town is not My town
I am an emigrant too

Time in my house Is yellowish
It creates its own dunes
Just to get lost
This is trouble my house's door.

Before you left This town
I drew a plan
To settle and colonized this town
I planned to build Another Paris
A barbarian one
So you can take me
With your eyes of the Atlas Through its streets of marble And to our Andalusia's house Then we go
And visit mosques Churches
And temples
To wash our souls
With the town's walls
And gates.

Now
And after you left

I burned all the plans
The town's saltiness is all that remains
And the smell of your burned desires.

Atef Ayadi

Delighted

I am delighted To see the town
In passion
And peace.
What makes me more delighted,
Your eyes are the secret Of its passion,
And the peace's white flag.

Your Smell

Your smell
Is watching me
It penetrates my skin
The easy way
The fanatic way
And even against my will It walks where I walk
It follows all my moves And repeats the way I talk It counts my breath
And my heart's Three thousand beats
It reads with me
My preferred books
And writes with me
My journal
It chooses for me
The type of poems
I should write And asks me to
To sort them later
Into vertical poems Oblique poems
And then into Audacious
And cowardly ones

Your smell
Is always here
It takes my hand
Whenever I am lost Whenever it rains
It flies away Whenever it is a sunny day
To bring me some White and red roses

Your smell starts to be My shadow

Starts to be me Dictates my thoughts
And my livelihood
I am rebellious
More than the desert dunes But I am still in possessed by Your tyrannical smell.

Lies' Pigments

Few millenniums of lies, Beneath a gray ice,
Years and years of lies Are covering
The town's streets
And all previous winter blue skies.
I can see that
In her eyes;
The watch's hand
Told me
They are lies.

The stream of words
Is walking through her golden gate bridge-like lips Come and vanish in lies.
She is sick
With words and
With lies.
She is trapped
In her past,
Stories, and lies.
It is dark Inside her,
She can not hide it.
She can not compromise.

It is a dusty and salty Moment,
When she walked away with Her face.
My face shredded
Into tiny pieces Like fireworks
In the dark northern sky.

At my birthday,
She came and Delivered me.
It was my only gift,

A gift from a woman
In love.
After a long walk of hate
She gave me
My new name too.
She left
For a century.
She came back
To take back her gift.

I felt
I should wait
An eternity
For a new birth,
A new horizon,
And new open sky.

Falling Down

All what we learn
Is to not fall down
And we fall down.
We want to stop being standing up.
We want to be away from our feet.
We want
A falling
With noise
Or noiseless, Or just
To fall upside down.
It does not matter
We look for a web
Of a royal spider
To hung up
We look for heaven
On earth
And underneath it.
So let's fall
Whether
It is up or down.

Eileen's Breath

An ancient Breath
Came into my lung Weak
And interrupted.
A breath of pain;
A breath of love;
A breath of forgiveness.
It struck first my heart
And shattered my rusted veins.

The snow is falling, Enlightening the streets.
I kept walking ...
Following this Ancient woman's breath.

The Seven Pillars

After a deep love
After years of separation
After the last millennium is wrapped up With white and rosy candles
You come back
With an empty face
And with dropped hands To ask me for A break up
With no more confusion
And a solid conclusion
I accepted the deal
After all
This everlasting ancient love Grows up like a seven pillars Of a new religion
Neither me
Nor the Romans
Could stop it.

Her Smile

She opened the door
And let me in.
Her smile rose from her lower lip
Like the morning star.
This alone took off Thousand years of my boredom.

She opened the windows for me To let heaven get in To welcome me.

Like a warm hole
Her smile is spinning around the place,
And everywhere,
In the town's streets,
The public parks,
In the water fountain,
And
In all my life

PoemHunter.com

I ringed at her door
At my life
She screamed
She smiled
She jumped on me Like a playful Young rabbit Jumping over
A lost old turtle
She offered me
A beauty seeds
And a colorful kisses

Hopeless In Love

Hopeless in love
Is like writing vertical poems
They just fall down.
Hopeless in love
Hopeless in poetry Hopeless to take oneself
To the old east
And get some spicy words Hopeless in love
Like going through The desert
And not distinguishing yourself among the dunes
I do not blame
Who is in love
Who is hopeless
I blame who Defends his love battle field
With an armory of geometrical poetry.

Conditional Love

Do not wish for love.
It will not come
As you wish.
Love wishes are not writing
On the spring butterfly wings.

Do not count on hopes,
Love guidance,
Or a flood of chaotic sorrow Assurance.
Love has its own weather,
Its own battlefield,
It has Castles, knights, bishops,
And its own popes.

Bypass this ancient language writing on your lips.
Bypass the ancient old scripts.
Bypass your heart surgeries
And feelings' burns and attacks.
Bypass your orphan poems.
Bypass your fate.

Hold your breath;
Love's ocean is deep
You need to take a deep Breath
As you dive down.

Hold yourself
Like holding the clock hands,
And the town streets.
Make a list of new colonies
To invade.
Throw off your shadow.
Be a simple titan
Without tribe support.
Be an indulged new shah.
Take off the shell of being A classical woman,
A Bach symphony,

And pour out the bad water,
And what makes you a night soft Harem.

Atef Ayadi

The Comfort Of Pain

Pain and bags of agony Accumulate
On my table
And build up Like volcanic rubble
And expand like a sea coral Around my virgin island

This is my only recipe
The only seeds from the last summer's harvest
I have for my daily livelihood

My mind flirts
With my heart
In trouble
And sore from pain
It teases it Without taking over Mind's and heart's fights are always About pride

I bribe my pain
And beg it to stay for a night chatting I hug my pain
And cross its black hair
Like a child who is afraid from a past nightmare

My darling pain
Do not disappear
You are the cement
The stones
And the bricks Needed to build My new fortress Against the next feeling attack.

Spark Of Darkness

Writing in the darkness What hides in my nights Makes me see more clearly What is in the obscurity of my thoughts.

Composing a work,
A reflection of my vanity Helps me to lose the imagination And free all my contemplations Just to escape from the freezing time I am already far from the present And yet close to the nearest past I am living without my existence
This is my best moments
Of being suspended
In a zero gravity,
And in a vacuum of thoughts
These are my best moment of Making the first crystal Of simplicity.
