I Cant Say Goodbye

I cant say goodbye to you My heart has tried its no use!
I was so sad this time of year I am filled with so much fear will I see you? will you love me? to my heart you have the key I will never live this life fair
I still have your teddybear I remember the tears in your eye that day they would not let me say goodbye

I Cry Alone

Why do you walk with your head always low?
your beautiful, you shine, but why dont you know?

who hurt you so much that you cant see?
the wonderful woman your meant to be.

will you let me help to open your eyes?
I will help you forget all of his lies.

I want to hear you laugh out loud
I want you to stand out in the crowd

I need you here in this world with me not lost somewhere in your painful sea

HES GONE MOM its time to love me.....

I Face The World

I face the world with a smile, no one knows what's hid inside
They see happiness, They can't see all the tears I cried When I'm alone I hurt, I hide so no one knows the real me I try to fit in, for a while I do, But I slip out and run before they see They want to play judge and jury and convict me, everyone has a say I'm innocent yet, you judge me guilty, , why do they get a say they don't know me anyway
How can they judge me if what I've done is right or wrong?
In the end I just gave up, I knew my body heart and soul did not have long where is the strength I know I once had? How can I find out when I'm walking under dark clouds raining sad
They say life will go on, and I must learn to cope with this loss and live again But how can they even know my pain and guilt without being where I have been.

I Will Never Give Up

I cry alone for you at night mostly I miss holding you to me closely I want to hear you say my name but I am alone..It wont change I have cried so much there is only pain left now Can any one tell me the why when where and HOW They do not know the love in my heart they took you..we were torn apart I am hurting its a constant ache I wish I could sleep and never wake But I live for the day you come back to me Always know your my baby

I'M Gonna Be Ok

My eyes cry as I sit alone the tears fall please tell me why my heart is full of pain I wonder 'am I still sane? ' you cant take everything from me its you I finally truly see you never loved me not even for one day All I ask is please stay away I'm not as strong as you think, you make me weak your love and devotion was all I would ever seek I will love you untill I die Now please let me go everything about you was a lie I'm walking away as my tears leave a trail I look up to see your hand its too late I already fell

Lost Here With You

I sit here as you hold my hand, I look at you and see pain and broken dreams you act like everything is normal, but yesterday you ripped my world at the seams.

I touch my cheek and I wonder what I did to make you so angry

Will I make the same mistake again? do you even know you hurt me?

My heart is filled with love and I am in awe of all you are

But as we sit here together why does it feel so far?

Do you not know I believe in you? You can do no wrong in my eye

I am the one that will pick you up before you fall, no questioning why

Yet I am the first one you strike at when your angry and mad

Is my love not enough? You are what I want..But, why am I so sad?

I know my love will heal your wounds, all you have to do is let me in

I forgive you for all you may have done, and I know loving me cant be a sin your so close to me yet your miles away

Please I need you to tell me its okay

I wont leave you I will be the one to stay when its clearly easier to walk away

Just take my hand gently..no more bruises

I will take away all your pain with my loving, healing kisses

I am here for you always I wont give up on you all I ask is please love me the way I love you

Love Lost

I hurt everyday, nonthing takes it away
I see your faces, fragile like Brocken vases I see your smiles..But, I only know you by files They took you from me now my dream is gone of WE I will never feel better just please one day read my letter I never wanted to give you away I was sick with no help, My only hope is youll find me someday Always know I LOVE you more then life

Rip Lauri

Tears fall and its gets all blurry My loss is whats killing me I held your hand yesterday But I didnt know the way where did you go?
do you even know?
Your pain was on your face now your gone without a trace If I had one more day
What would I say?
I lost you long ago you were dying so slow I should have stepped in and took you away If I had One wish it would be to have that last day but god stepped in and took you home I just wish we would not have left you alone!

She Took My Love

There's no love left in your eyes and everything you tell me is lies. Yet I am here I can't leave you because I am e just answer your eyes are so tired from heart and soul are slowly hand needs held and your arms need to hold is it so easy to walk away from your eyes and see. She can't love you like I do..our love only happens to a took my strength and I'm gone just sit and think loving her and leaving me made no sense....

Tears Lost

Where were you the day I cried?
I was alone, lost, I know I really tried Did she give you more then I could?
Did you love her more then you should?
I believed you when you said shes just a friend I saw the way you touched her hand my heart broke..hers was on the mend As you helped her, you forgot me and to my heart you own the one and only key Where were you the day I died?
I was all alone as I cried and she had you by her side did she need you more then I? on that sad lonely day I died....

They Took My Heart That Day

I cant breathe not knowing where you are It helps to look up at the sky and hope we are all looking at the same star I am alone without you, there is a sad void an endless hole I remember all your brown eyes and I carry your sweet souls I want to watch you grow into strong beautiful men and always I want you to win....
Loving you is what gets me through the day forgiving them is how I make my way they took my heart that day....

Where Is My Heart

I cry alone most of the time I have nonthing to call mine my heart always hurts its gone someone took it the day he did me wrong my heart is in pieces on the floor I cant find not even one open door I will fall there is no one to catch me someday they will look in my eyes and see the one once there has faded away now whose safe arms will I stay I know its time for me to make my own way its destiny....dreams..and fate

Why

There is a pain not few truly know.. it takes you away and drops you low it will make you question all you are it will leave you alone, but it wont go far you see it waits..to take the heart out of you it leaves you hooked, lonely, and friends if any are few your alone now in this battle, your the only one ITS TIME TO FIGHT, GET UP, SAY IT IM DONE!
Have you not had enough? you have lost and it all had such a painfull, self-destructive COST you are worth something..why cant you believe in you its okay to cry now, let it all out, let it all go, be your own HERO your stronger then you know, so hold your head high its time to change, it will be hard, just let go and say bye no more questions of why its time to save your life oh daddy I have never seen you cry
