Addiction

sitting here,
smokin a ciggerete,
two packs a day,
money down the drain.
the room is a fog,
smoke swirlin around my head.
feeling kind of sick,
but i cant seem to stop.
two more packs, more money down the drain, and the addiction continues to grow.

Addiction Grows

one time was all it took,
and now im hooked.
my desire for weed continues to grow, it consumes me.
another day adds another five hits.
the addiction continues to grow, it will keep on growing until it consumes me.
this is how the addiction goes.

All I Want

love me now
and love me for ever that is all i want from u hold me close and hold me hard that is what i need from u u set my heart on fire
i really dont know what to do

Brandi Knecht

All Your Falt! !

I thought you cared,
but it was all fake,
I thought I needed you, but now I don't.

I tried to hold on,
but you kept pulling away,
so I finally let go,
and now you are coming back.

You say it was all a big mistake, that you never meant to leave, so I let you back in,
We are perfect together it seems.

Now things are repeating,
the chick on the side,
all the lies,
You have broken my heart again.

Now because of you I trust nobody,
It is all your falt.

I let you in and you broke my heart,
you came back,
I let you in again and you hurt me even worse.

It's all your falt I blame you! ! !

Ambushed By Emotions

I am looking at the old pictures of you and me together, when a familiar feeling came over me, all the lost emotions that I had packed away with these photo's ambush me all at once,
I just realized how much I really do miss you! ! !

Cuts With Meanings All Down My Arms

cuts with meanings all down my arms, i know it seems foolish, i know it seems dumb.
cuts with meanings all down my arms.
you look at me and ask me why, why i cut myself so.
i try to explain,
but you dont undrestand.
cuts with meanings all down my arms.
you sit there and count all of my scars, and ask to hear the stories about them.
you tell me that one day i will go to far.
you tell me that you can help me stop,
cuts with meanings all down my arms.
the only way for me to forget, is to continue this mascarade,
cuts with meanings all down my arms! ! !

Drunken Suicide

bitch you got me goin crazy, i would rather sit around and smoke a blunt, then sit here thinkin about you.
i sometimes sit here and think, is drugs the only way to forget about you, or is there another way.
my mom says to move on,
my sister says suicide,
but my mind says drugs.
so now i am sitting here smokin a blunt, a razor blade in my hand, hoping that this will help me move on.
i am shaking so hard that i cut to deep, i laugh as i see the crimson blood going down the drain.
suicide,
i finally found the answer.

Given Up On You! !

Look at this,
Look at what you did to me.

You said you loved me,
You said you needed me,
but it was all pretend.

I know now what I didn't know before, you always lied,
you always cheated,
you even had a chick on the side.
I dont know why I even try.

I try to keep it up,
but you know what!
I've given up! !

Brandi Knecht

Goodbye

as i am sitting here with a razor blade in my hand, i think,
i think about what finally drove me to this,
the abuse,
you cheating,
and constantly being treated like shit, so now i am here with a razor blade in my hand, with only one more cut to go,
slowly i make the last cut,
and slowly i fade away,
goodbye! ! !

If Only I Had Noticed

Now as I stare at you,
I notice what I had missed before,
I never noticed that sweet look on your face,
I never noticed how when I look in your eyes all my fear is swept away,
I never noticed how that goofy smile always made my day.

Now that I notice these things I cannot have them.
If only I had noticed these wonderful things about you while I still had you! !

Brandi Knecht

I'M Sorry! !

Looking back now,
I realize allmy mistakes.

I was never around when you needed me the most.
I wasn't there when you were in the hospital.
I wasn't there when you died.

If I had been there I would have held your hand.
I'm sorry I wasn't there.
I'm so sorry.

This is dedicated to my granny who died last summer. unfortunately i wassn't there for her

Killing Me

this pain is killing me from the inside, it is eating away at my soul, the pain of how i had you and now you dont answer the phone this pain is killing me from the inside i miss hearing your sweet voice cause now you wont answer the phone this love is so harsh so cold and you still wont answer the phone

Laugh In The Face Of Death

i am sitting here with a razor blade in my hand, thinking of how fast i could just end it all, i think of all the times i've had,
the bad outweigh the good, i slowly begin to cut a long vertical line up my arm, i laugh as the blood begins to flow, i laugh as my blood goes down the drain, my life begins to flash before my eyes, i see all the misery that led to my demise, i laugh one last time,
i laugh in the face of death.

Brandi Knecht

Life Line

watching my life line go down the drain, hoping that with it my misery will also go down the drain.
but as many times as i have tried this,
it never seems to succeed, the more i try,
the more of my life line goes down the drain.
knowing that someday i will go to far! ! !

Look

look at what u did,
look at what we had,
we had so much,
and u ruined it all.
we went through so much,
and i gave u it all,
u did to me what i dreamed unimaginable, u hurt me the most

Movin On

when all i thought wa i new u, now u left me,
im stearing clear,

My Mistake

Now that I look back I realize how imperfect you really were,
you were overprotective, and you were a bitch.

You tried me worse than anyone had before.
The weird thing is that I always let you get away with it.
That was the one mistake that I made.

I put up with so much from you, but the abuse kept getting worse.

So I finally gave up on you,
I finally left you! ! !

Never Felt So Safe

I love you more than the weed in this joint,
your kisses taste like chocolate, hand in hand we stroll down the sidewalk,
I have never felt so safe.

When we are together I feel complete.
When you embrace me all my fear vanishes.
When we kiss my sadness turns to happiness! ! !

Brandi Knecht

Playing With Death

sitting here with a razor blade in my hand, a new slit each coming day,
playing with death,
the blood comes but i make it stop, i laugh at the pain,
playing with death! ! !

Brandi Knecht

Red Ribbons Of Pain

red ribbons of pain run down my face, im blinking wildly trying to see your face, realizing that all the bad you've done, overcomes the good.
red ribbons of pain running down my face, making my mascara run,
while im searching frantically for a razor or gun, until im finally done.
red ribbons of pain still running down my face! ! !

(my little sister and i made this poem up together)

Sitting Here Missing You

I am sitting here,
I am thinking of you,
all the sweet kisses that we shared, thinking of the strong embraces that we shared.

When you left me I cried,
I hope you cried to.

It seems like the more I think of you the worse and worse I feel! !

Brandi Knecht

Small Reminders! !

As I am staring into the deep blue sky I remember,
The deep color of your eyes that I so often got lost in,
and the tears that I shed when I lost you.

As I look at the sun I remember, the way your face shone when I embraced you, and the happiness that everyone could so clearly see when we were together.

As I look at the clouds I remember, how I committed myself to you just to be dropped because you found someone new.

It is these small reminders that keep me from moving on,
from getting over you.

Suicidal Love Note Written On My Arm! ! !

i am sitting here with a razor in my hand, so many cuts cover my arms and legs.
so much pain i've gone through,
all because of you.
i have one more chance to end the miserable snare that i am caught in, i am gripping the razor blade so tight that it is cutting my fingers.
one more cut to go,
slowly i make the last cut.
and slowly i fade away.
when you come home you will find me.
a message carved on my arm.
this message says ' I loved you' the last letter was the death cut, that finally put me out of my misery.
' I loved you! ! ! '

Brandi Knecht

Take My Breath Away

i love you more and more every day, you never cease to take my breath away.
i look at you and i realize, you feel the same way to.
i think this love has been blessed by an angel, it never seems to fade.
i look around and i realize, this must be what love is like! ! !

Brandi Knecht

Thinking Of Death

here i am,
all alone in my room,
thinking about death,
it was death tat separated us. i loved you so much,
i was closer to you then anyone else.
when i was sad you made me happy.
when i was depressed you cheered me up. i miss you more than anyone will ever know! ! !

i wrote this for my granny who died

Thinking Of You Makes Me Smile

Thinking of you always makes me smile.
Even though you wronged me I cant stop thinking about you.
Everywhere I turn I see your face,
I think its haunting me.
Even though you left me thoughts of you keep running through my head.

My friends tell me I am crazy.
They tell me I'm a fool.
They think it's crazy that I can't get over you.
Every time I think of you my whole world is complete.
This is how much I love you.
Even though you wronged me I cant make myself hate you! !

Watching And Waiting

Here I am watching and waiting, waiting for you,
you told me you loved me,
you said you needed me,
you acted as though you cared,
So I am here watching and waiting.

You led me on,
while I was alone at home waiting for you, you were out with a chick on the side.
You tore my heart from my chest,
I can no longer look at your face, for I fear what I might see looking back at me! !
