An Broken Heart

Love is a essence
That have to grow within A broken heart that loved, could never love again My soul is full of shame My world is full of blame I trick my self over and over I will never love again A relationship thats played by two, leads to nothing but a game
And some how, some where, some one get hurt Their soul is lead with pain So here iam again with a broken heart living a life trying to love, does nothing but tear who you are apart So life is now a puzzle trying to figure out what piece to start with, and how it goes together its a struggle to love the second half of your heart A couple without love is a couple that departs

I Can'T

I can't refuse his luv I always seen to fall into his trap his face trigga off my emotions and my hormones start to react I can't speak the truth to him im afraid of the respose he'll give i rather keep it inside if he don't except, atleast my soul will live I can't go a day without wanting his body to touch mine i feel relieved to feel his love i await for his lips to mine i can't stop thinking of the passionate luv we make i couldnt live with out his touch the way i luv him is far amons a crush I can't wait to live with my love for our feelings would be shared everyday but what he feel im not sure whats on his mind i cant say! im ready to tell my love, my heart for our dreams will never faint i need his love i try to speak
my heart stop beating

Just Let Go

its hard to let loose a hand that has guided you through life but beyond the rain and pass the darkness theres always a second life the feeling that you feel for him may not always be good at all but if theres no foundation in your luv yo heart is bound to fall just let go, try again the pain will fade away you'll soon recover fron all the hurt look among a brand bew day i decided to let go of that hand to face my fears alone i awake to reach for my lovers hand but remembered i let him go

My Spell

a lovely word run down yo spine your hormones rush, youre surely mine your face is frest fallen and your mood is bombed but i have the power to turn you on your body is stout and i love your smell your life is mine youre under my spell dont fret my dear, i have you now youre in my world, let me show you around bring your provisions and all your pride buckle up baby youre now on my ride by and by your body belong to me just let your mind go youre under my leash time is up youre done on my ride your soul belong to me and youre now a spirit in disguise

Suicide

lying down helplessly knowing that no one could hear yo cries feeling like no one love u realizing that theres no real truth to livin as u lay there, u hope for freedom but really dont know if u r able to hope or feel anymore u cry louder to ease the pain u felt before for squeezing your pillow at this point cant help u ball your self up to forget the pain and gried you have guiltyness has crossed yo mind your mind goes on journies telling yo hand to pick up the gun yo muscles send signals to yo hand as u reach for the gun u load up the gun with clips for suicide has over taken yo mind u close yo eyes and put the gun to yo head nohting matters to u now u pull the trigga to let go of all the things that lead u to this point for you will never have to feel so lonely again your cries were neva heard yo pain was never felt yo soul shall neva rest

Why Did I Let You Go

i rock my self asleep at night to endure the pain i felt i wished our luv would last 4eva but i couldnt love by my self i ride the cold dark nights at night dreamin of a peaceful night i wont sleep because of the thoughts i have some dreadful nights WHY?
i should of hung on to your luv it tore me apart inside thats true and u were the only one i loved i see yo face through mirrors and i feel yo presents near i look over my shoulders to see yo body but memory is all thats there i search for clues to play back on but nothing seem to come we were together 8 to 9 months and you said i love you once i now know why u had to leave because the luv u had didnt show i still blame my self for the absense of truth
