Clarissa (Rissa) Tobey (Hopefully Soon to have another)(01-11-1991)

I live some where in maine. I have a son name David he was born in september. I miss Desiree L. Gray My best friend in the whole World/galaxy.... I know i made a promise to you but i know you would be just happy if i was happy..

All These Thoughts

I wanted to be shown that you love me
I wanted to be treated like a queen
I wanted these tears to stop
I never wanted these thoughts
I wanted to hold you for life
I am mad and I don't really know why
I think that if i was loved you would be around

Desiree Gray

You where here
Now your gone
My best friend for life
Not slightly forgotten
I need you now
I need you for ever
I wish it was a dream
I wanted you to be here for this
I know now I can only wish
I want you to know that I love you so deeply
I wanted my child to become something of you
I wish one last wish that on his day you are watching

I Want To Know

I want to know if i am doing all this for nothing
I really do love you
I want to be with you
I want to know if i am being played again
I want to know if this is just a way out for you
I need to know if i am doing things for some one that just don't care
I wanted to know if at night you laugh at the fact that i care so much

Played Like A Fool

I was played like a fool
I waited for you
I feed you
I cried for you
I wanted a family with you you played me like a fool kissed me hugged me and fucked me all in the end you never wanted me
I should have know that it was just a dream

Prove Me Wrong

I am here you are there
I wait for you everyday
I never will get mad if you don't show
I do all the work
I have no real support
I am jealous of you
I have nothing to do with my life
I feel like I should do something different
I feel like I am being used
I feel like i am not really loved
