Drowning In This Darkness()

Cursed

I'll reverse this curse you stole my heart but hun I had it first I'm drowning in your pool of all the tears I've cried the day I took you back was the day I died you leave me begging then break me down you mess me up then get out of town why I want you I dont even know only if you knew what you do to me but I'll keep pretending just for you only untill I find out exactly what to do

Drowning In This Darkness

I Might Be Closer Than You Think

If anything should happen while I'm away
whisper to the darkness and it will be okay I'm right there with you
in mind and in soul
girl you never know

If anything should happed
while I'm away
just give me a call and I'll be on my way
I'm right there with you
in mind and in soul
boy you never know

Drowning In This Darkness

I Said I Loved You As I Left You

you hang around like it's no big deal but I know you your not made of steal

I know what happend
I know you cryed and I know what he ask I know that you lied

Now I'm crying cause I miss you but I love him
I don't know what to do

I wish I didn't fall so fast
I wasen't over us
I'm still living in the past

Wish would have took a chance and had that first kiss maybe then I wouldn't be hung up over us like this

You saved me from drowning yet caused the most pain but you still willingly play my stupid messed up game you took your chance I missed mine you just see my shell and think that I'm fine

Drowning In This Darkness

In Jars

I want to cry so bad but the tears are stuck inside you come and rescue me and show me someplace to hide

I need a place of my own someplace to get away untill the hurt is gone please tell me that you'll stay

I'm drowning can't you tell you come to save me save my from myself

The pain is nothing compared to all these scars of all my broken hearts locked away in jars

Drowning In This Darkness

It Wont Happen Again...I'M Sorry

I watched you jump
I wachted you drowned
I loved you so I didn't make a sound

After you left me everything went dark and all I do is miss you and I miss your spark

You saved my life and let you end yours now we are just memories tucked away in drawers

I'm coming to see you I you promise soon then we'll laugh and love as we dance across the moon

Drowning In This Darkness

My Childern

I look for her day and night the girl who crys with all her might and the boy whos sorrows swallowed him whole these are my children, they are my soul

Drowning In This Darkness

The Man

The man he sits all alone in his old abandoned home

Were he lives in deep thought playing in his distraught

He waits for a call that will never come from his never for gotten one

Drowning In This Darkness

Tragedy

He got the rope all ready And text her one last time
"I'm sorry you don't love me, I guess it's time to say goodbye."

He took his sharpest razor
And pushed it in real deep He knocked the stool over
As he heard the stairs creep

Right as she walked in His ghost watched her scream out loud
The room went all cold
And the sky began to cloud

Because in his arms were written "Love and suicide are my only sins I'll love her forever or at least until the end."
And so she began to die

They found her in her room
With a note that said:
"I always loved you and now I've come to tell you so I Loved you to the end but Suicide for love could never be a sin."

Her parents buried her Right next to him
And on her tomb they wrote
"May you never be separate again."

Drowning In This Darkness

Waged This War

I've just waged a war on myself I feel the razors going in and even though it hurts I know it'll happen again

I'm falling in love

I've just met the purest dove who has the softest skin I want her oh so badly even though it's a sin

I'm falling in love

I'll ask her dad to marry us himself then she'll really own my heart and keep it on her pretty shelf

'Cause I've just met the purest dove who broke my heart again I'll wait for her forever and never love another sin
