Life Theory

My life is a like a movie, and I wrote the scripts, the whole world is curious how the father of creation put water into coconut. There's no competition in nature, I swear on my honour if you don't believe me.

In the world of the living, they told me that ' not all living thing is human being, not all breathing thing got conscience'
You have to face your fear, and learn your lessons. Say no to doubt, and don't get move by side talks.

This street loves nobody, politicians rides on the selfish side of the masses, and youths falls into calamity.

Am reaping what I sow with peace of mind, Jah is my my mentor; and there's no blood in my hands; but only God knows what's going on in my mind.

Beyond Today

Many people will get me wrong, but that's alright. Some people will hate you for no reason. Life is beyond today, life's a legacy.

The fake news is spreading like fire in harmattan season, they want to shuffle my dreams; they want to send me to early grave.

The vibe is strong, the atmosphere is the atmosphere of serenity. Nothing can stand against the force of love.

The Silent Graveyard

Somebody pray for me, this is not what I bargain for.
Some people are living, but they are dead spiritually.

Life is like a slow poison, it's killing me slowly.
No one will make it out here alive.

Everybody want to go to heaven, but nobody want to die.

Death is the dark shadow of the vanity life.

Poverty And Property

It's asaying that all fingers are not equal, and it's crystal clear to humanity that poverty begat insanity.

It's not a crime to be poor and needy, but life becomes terrible when there's no food on the table.

Living in this sin city is like a deadly curse from the ancestors, no one pay attention to spirituality anymore; we are all in the rat race to nowhere.

My Business

The devil want my soul, but the blood of the lamb sanctify and save me. This is not the first time evil forces want my business to become sickness, please don't push me into the pit of darkness; live and let live.

Am in my office laughing like hyena, working through every hour while drinking holy water. There's no break, no time to reminisce with my conscience at the lake. Am a businessman on a success level, nothing can bring me down not even the devil.

Am not here to bust brains, am here to crack skulls; take it or leave it you will soon realise that the consequence of love comes with pain and fear. The preacher is here again, screaming loud in the street about salvation for lost souls; my business is the refined old money empire.

Silver Face

You hate me because am better than you, but it's crazy how you try to shut me down from your life. The fake must die, and the real must live. Am here for progress and breakthrough, no time for bad romance and empty emotion.

Stop robbing Peter to pay Paul, life's a mirage and making money is motivated by greed. Listen to your conscience, be real and don't let situation take you out of the picture of success in the sanctuary of purity.

Those who are weak need some energy boost, show them love and bless them with holy ghost. Please call the Vet for these sick dogs, soft your mind and don't let your imagination take you back to yesterday.

Another Christopher Wallace

Am born to win and conquer my fears, there should be no limitations to what we can achieve together as one family bond together by blood and love.

Beat them and don't join them, conformity is another parasite sucking the future of the youths. Fake people are already to laugh and point fingers to my dark hours, but nothing can stop me now cos am the young Christopher Wallace.

I want you to remember the last December, everything well down sweet and smooth. I want you to see the perfect picture of the future, whoever try to stop me from getting to the podium of success is at big risk.

Doubting Thomas

Give thanks and praise to Jah for the gift of life, a man without faith is like a vanity gambler; it's foolish to waste your life chasing pleasure and illusion.

What will be will be if Jah say so, nothing is impossible in my world; but it's impossible for darkness block my shine.

Am very sorry for the doubting Thomas in my neighborhood, you can say whatever you like; you can't talk faster than my parrots. Only Jah can help you out of the slum and mental poverty.

Soda Sofa

The boy was good and nice, easy going; ever smiling and ready. Whatever the elderly ones says must be cherish and never to be question.

The sofa was ready, the boy and his friends were sitting and sipping cold soda on the sofa. We are on journey but we're not running, the battle is not over until we won.

The soda is always with Lola, the journey was a lonely path to enlightenment. We went deep into reality, but illusion was far away, don't be afraid to trust a stranger in the land of uncertainty.

The New Scripture

We need to unite and fight the spirit of mediocre in our land, nothing is more important than love. follow your conscience, but don't be a slave to your thoughts.

No one is holy and pure, don't let hypocrites blindfold your spirituality in this sin city. Love with all your heart and soul.

Naked Noodles

Waking up from early morning trance with happy mood, people will always talk about what they don't understand; and judge without justice. If you don't know God, something will drive you to Satan; impossibility is not written in the scroll of success, hard work and prayer always lead to greatness.

Today is the greatest of all day, no need to slow down for illusion and fantasy, we can all be what we want to be. empty talks without action is like a naked noodles, people will honour fools that dance to their tune; and criticise those that don't bow down to crowd mentality.

The time is now for them to feel what we have been feeling, life without love is like living in the belly of the beast. The people keep complaining about poverty and inequality in this sin city, the prophecy is real like neocolonialism in Africa.

The Silent Poet

Tell me what you're waiting for, am good in listening to the Lamentations of the world; and praying to God with holy words.

Don't just talk in the sanctuary of life, let your words impact positive energy to the world. Am still looking for the right words to say to my ancestors, but too much talk always lead to emptiness.

Sinners Theology

Time will tell who is ready for this holy journey, am the man of the people; but the people are not ready to run away from their comfort zone. If you trust me, I will trust you too; fire will always burn, star will always shine.

No one will go unpunish for the atrocities committed in the slums and the ghettos. Am a holy man in a ghost mode, the journey is wild and hot like the sands of sahara dessert. Am saying the truth to my people out there, there's no sin in shutting down evil operations.

This is the sin city of vanity and illusion, am a straight up man without money to please my curiosity. say no to confusion and fantasy when you're walking through the street of temptation. Walk the path of holiness and be yourself, what will you do if you find yourself in a room full ofdaughters of Jezebel.

Rap Mansion

The noise is getting out of hand, slow and steady open way to success land.. Am not a ruffian nor ragamuffin, no pain no gain but am coming through with a pack of morphine.

Nothing last forever baby, take it easy when you're balling with me because I don't nurse crybaby. The story is about to change, motivation is coming from every corners with steady range.

Am trying to rap like your famous gangster trap, it's a banger, but nothing high my homies like ganja. there's fire on the mountain, but faithful people don't panic on love fountain.

Loud Talkers

Am loving the hype I got from people that talk behind me, no matter what people will always talk about you; the story and sad ending is what they love to talk about. Don't judge a book by the publisher, judge it by the writer.

Am from Africa, living in Africa; you're free to investigate my school of thought but you can't control my spirituality; all I ever crave for was a serenity with mother nature. we all need love to grow mentally, don't ever exchange your soul with Gold and silver.

Keep talking about me, but make sure you talk about my success too; life is simple but it's complicated by human mentality. Am not a magician but I can see clearly in this stormy world, everything will fall in the right place at the right time.

Story Time

For how long am I going to remain calm and ignore all these fools, they talked trash about my dreams and hustles. I have nothing against you Mr. perfectionist, you don't love me and I don't care about you.

Am a perfect gentleman from the other side of Africa, my tradition and culture are well preserved by my ancestors. My shrine is my meditation spot, am still still wondering why there's a lot of Judas in our society.

This is another tales by moonlight, listen deeply to the voice of the wise one; green snakes love to hide in green grass but fools love to hide behind mediocrity. You're not who am searching for, who are you going to follow in a room full of losers. It's painful listening to the love song of caged birds.

Africa Soil

Am African by birth and my ancestors blessed the soil beneath my feet with purity and spirituality, nothing is useless in my land; the leaves and roots are my herbs of miracle and healing.

Africa my Africa, my jungle of pure love and serenity. Please hold on before you take that step, don't always believe the negativity you hear about Africa. Take a walk with me through the hill side of my land and the good land filled with pure emotion.

My Africa Queens are nice not rude, she's beautiful and full of charm like Cleopatra. I love my land and value my culture. From Kenya to Nigeria, everyone knows that I don't joke with my Nigeria jollof rice; all am saying is that Africa is my Zion not zoo.

Dark Days

Nothing is clear to the world anymore, illusion and fantasy are busy blindfolding humanity from the path of salvation. The shame was unbearable anymore, death seem to be the only way of the traps of life.

Nothing is impossible to those that walk in the path of light, no matter the fear and confusion darkness cannot prevail over light; and fear cannot begat success. Today is another chance to set things right, no matter the trouble and the pain of the past; let love motivate you to a joyful life.

The days are dark and politicians are busy playing pawn with the masses, beware of the adversary and his mighty army of fallen angels. We are living in the epoch of darkness and fear, the dark day is like a bullet in a gun that's ready to blast.

Deadly Poison

Life's like a movie, do your best and let the judgement day have the rest. The deadly poison that kill the positive mentality of the youths is depression, am a young African boy and I love my life; nothing is made to be perfect, and money is not everything. It's unwise to let sorrow steal your happiness away.

Don't worry about the future, make the best out of today and everything else will fall in the right place. Too much negativity drive the soul to the pit of failure and regret, let everyday be your happy day; the world is waiting to see your star shine, live your life and don't compare your dreams to others, but walk with the wise.

Depression is a deadly poison, don't let it kill your life and destroy dreams; money cannot buy you happiness because the rich also cry. All that glitters ain't gold, and it's foolish to compare your life to others. We are all gifted and blessed in different ways, occupy your mind with positive mental thoughts and depression will flee away from you.

Empty Promises

This is another great fallacy and mighty deception, It's a pity we are clothed in the dark epoch of illusion with misconception.

The downfall of a man in the valley of vanity is nothing to write home about, It's time for humanity to gear up and take control of reality.

Nothing is free, if you look wisely you will see. Fantasy cannot begat reality in the city of vanity; only the wise will see thorough the traps of empty promises.

Simple Remedy

The world is in turmoil and the philosophy of men cannot lead mankind to the path of purity.

Love is the remedy to the illness of this sinful world, always give room to peace and equality.

No one is save from the clutches of death, the mark of death is written bodily on the forehead of man; live above hate and jealousy. Fight for your right and for freedom from forces of principality.

Closed Arena

The road to prosperity is full of conflict and struggle from the power of principalities, if you can't beat them don't try to join them; don't be a dog to the ideologies of men.

People will talk and point fingers to the dark side of your life, and this same people will still want to share in your Sunnyside. There's no point in fighting the devil with fallen angels, it's certain that all that's done in the dark will be brought to light.

Judgement belong to God, but whatever you say can be use against you in the court of law. A wise man will never be a friend to hateful men, the arena can't be the same again; even a time machine can't bring the old good days back.

Program Progress

Ghetto life is a party at the moment of silence, people talk about it and no one is ready to die for love; these are the same people who are trying to please the crowd.

Some things will never change, and those fake smiles will never fool you again if you stick to the program, avoiding dreams killers is a good idea but eliminating them is the wise thing to do.

Until you are free from your own thoughts, you can't be free from the clutches fools. Keep them alive and feed them with love; the program is for the progress of the people who are ready to be free from this Babylon system of the world.

The Gentle Spot

Please take it easy and don't hurt your neighbors on your way to the mountain of wealth, no one is there yet; everyone is busy trying to please the boss to get the gentle spot.

Loyalty is not meant for betrayers just asholiness isn't fit for sinners, some will hunt the forest of vanity looking for the beast of fortune; but fantasy will invade their reality and lead them into the city of destruction.

Salvation is free from the power and principalities and sin, but only wisdom can save humanity from the pit of lust.

Family and friends may want to chill out with you at gentle spot of Life; but only loyal people will be there in time of rough voyage.

Dark Night

We have been there before, but we don't want you and your generation to go down there. The night was dark like pitless dungeon; this is the realest fantasy and reality.

Darkness can never overshadow the glory of light, purity and love; mercy with divine bliss. God first because only him deserve all the praise and worship. Be the light in this world of darkness, let your light shine all over the world and beyond.

The Good Shepard

Despite all the tribulations and confusions in the land, some of the youths still value wisdom over mediocre; silent is the best answer for a fool that try to fool you into insanity.

Take the simple step to purity, wait for your time and cherish God's time. Let everything about you give glory to God all the time. Love is the key to the heart of the good Shepard, deep emotions runs through the veins of true believers; but blood runs through the veins of humanity.

The good Shepard don't disguise like snipers nor pretend like fake friends. Joy and happiness will always flourish in the land of love; the good Shepard will never let his followers fall into the pit of temptations and tribulations.

Dangerous Life

Dangerous life don't last long, fast lane to wealth is another name for shortcut to fantasy island. Humanity will disobey the law, but the animals in human clothing will destroy and break the law.

One love conquer all the hatred and fear in the land, there's darkness every where right from the day of creation. God is one and religion cannot pave way to the sanctuary of holiness. God is always there all through the way, only the mercy of the most high sustain humanity till today.

Am not better than my neighbours nor holy than the prophets, let the love flow natural and don't try to add to the stones of ancient boundaries. The signal was weak and not visible, it's clear to the youths that dangerous life is like a candle; it will burn away at it prime of glory.

Jill Jones

This guys want to relate with me, but am on a low key like Jill Jones; I don't know what they want from me, money or my honey pot.

The treasure rooms of Jill Jones never go dry, good intention and humility will always pave way for the righteous ones.

One love is all we need to break free from evil torment, Jill Jones is always silent like a calm sea on a cool day; Jill Jones taught me a great principle of life, wisdom is better than foolishness, neither can love share a table with hate.

Smooth Tidings

Nothing can possible go wrong with overdose of love, everyday is not an holiday and the things we do today will define the outcome of tomorrow.

No garage no cars, if empty barrel make the loudest noise then love should be the brightest light in the tunnel of fear. You're not like them and it's unwise to compare your dreams to others.

The future is here with smooth tidings, don't let wisdom out of your sight in a room full of folly. Let success speak for you when failure try to harass you.

Silver And Gold

Money cannot buy everlasting peace of mind, but it can sure buy pleasure and fun, they don't want us to go down there and see the atrocities men commit for the love of money.

Man made money, but money made man mad; every man is not the same, some love purity while some are blinded by vanity. There's no friend in the jungle of money chasers, don't let the love for silver and gold drive you away from your insanity.

Modern slavery was dressed in jobs and wages, the smart ones work for money; but only the wise invest and send money to work. Believe it or not money is essential, but the spirit behind it is powerful and full of lust.

Noise Makers

The class captain was my best friend when I was in primary four, but my name was always on top of his noise makers list; that was when I started to build my friendships on mutual benefit. Am grown up now, but noise makers are still trying to be relevant in my community; some will brag like brat about everything they cannot achieve. Empty barrel make the loudest noise and that is the real noise maker.

I was chilling with my mentor when I heard positive whispers, it's crystal clear to me how to move on to the next level; all these side talks are nothing but distractions and waste of time. Too much talk don't solve any problem, mingle with the winning team and success will surely prevail.

It's wise to keep it on the low, please don't loud it because i enjoy listening to jazz on a low key. Silence is another form of wisdom, even a fool is consider to be wise if he keep silent without uttering any foolish words. Noise makers will always want to be popular and relevant in the society, but the wise ones will always outshine them.

Tribalism At Work

We all saw it with our naked eyes, and witness the eruption of molten magma of tribalism at its peak; this is a nation built on love and equality, but it's a pity how the mindset of some men was corrupt with hate and tribalism.

Let honor our great men and never try to overshadow the efforts of our women; a house is not a home without love and family. Sow the seed of equality and peace will reign through the land, always remember that every man is equal before the father of creation.

Reality is not far from this sin city of tribalism, some will pretend to love and care; but their souls are dark like the tunnels of hell. The righteous ones will see through the mask of deception; but it will be hard for those with tribalism mindset to break free from hate.

Year Of Restoration

Walk with wise men and avoid flying bullets from killing your dreams, let me explain how humanity was lost in the vanity race of insanity.

Don't pull the trigger, instead be on action like a prayer warrior, give all you got to love and be a blessing to nature. No one is perfect because we still mess up with sin everyday.

No food for lazy man, it's only a lazy man that eat the leftovers of losers. Stay positive with your goals everyday, don't just be a survivor; be a winner. This is the real me, am a productive man and I will never turn my back to the food of my labor.

John Cena

We all don't want to be a slave to poverty, that's why some of you become a slave to money. Am not a prophet but I want you to pay attention to my words like John Cena in wrestling Ring.

Money cannot buy true love, but the world is in love with pleasure and vanity. Am not a wrestler but you can't see me like John Cena. Enemies here, enemies there; but my true enemy is myself and my selfish dreams.

Now am positive and fully charged with motivation and inspiration; I the right time to take over temptations and illusion in the world. The kids need to know the truths and grow.

Prayer For Strangers

Don't close your door to love, and don't give up on your dreams. I told myself not to give up. Am the greatest because I don't give up and I can be whoever I want to be.

This is not a joke but you're free to laugh at it, no one will pay attention to your dreams and possibilities of a dream come true; put your trust in God and not on humans. Cherish the words of God from holy books and dwell on Holy land.

My room was thrown into creativity studio last night, I can't scream nor breathe; we all came from the same place, but our final destination we lead us to the end of time. The world moves in slow motion, but time flies like a jumbo jet.

Golden Den

Let pray for the showers of God blessings, let it flow from the sanctuary of the Almighty GOD to every corner of the world.

We all need to be discipline and tolerance, not every question deserve an answer because the joke of today may be an insult tomorrow. Let walk with wise men and build tolerance castle among the youths.

Too much talk don't make a dream come true, the world is under pressure from vanity and daughters of Jezebel. Every man to a pole, every closed doors will be open unto every sons and daughters of Adam and Eve.

Mental Slavery

I want to be there for people who don't know the road out of mental slavery, you can call me the therapist helping humanity out of mental bandage. Come under my canopy if you need comfort from harsh weather of emotional twist.

They pray every second like pilgrims on the way to Mecca the holy land, nothing is new under the sun; the reality of this world is an illusion in the eyes of humanity. Every man to his own cross, no one will die for you in this vanity world, the mentality of humanity is corrupt with insanity for pleasure.

Twenty four hours for seven days, you can catch up with the economy but poverty will still blindfold the reality of life. It's wise to meditate and view life from new horizon of possibilities, free your mind, body, and soul; don't be a slave to mental slavery.

November 20

A day well spent offers a joyful night sleep, it's clear to humanity that only the love of God can last till infinity. Let it be know to the fools among us that wisdom is the fruit of perseverance.

Today is a day to recon with, this is the day that history was rewritten for humanity to be free from mental slavery. You can't force a fool to wise, but you can manipulate a fool in his own folly.

Gone are the days when civilization blindfold the spiritual eyes of humanity, and the whole world was thrown into the pit of darkness. Time wait for no man and the right time to put the house together is now.

Wicked Policy

No peace for the wicked and no food for lazy man, watch your back and see the result of your past actions. Why the evil and hate in your neighborhood. Stand up for the champion and say no to wicked policy.

Selfishness is another great wickedness eating the soul of my people, we can't be mad at all the mess that life throws at us; some will hurt you and push you to the wall, but meditate with beautiful mantras all the time. Be bold and strong; be free from wicked policy.

The bar was overcrowded last night with friends of a friend, no empty plates, no empty cups. love don't cost a thing if you let it flow naturally. Love will always prevail over darkness and wicked policy.

Chameleon Lover

Nothing is constant in the universe and beyond, the weather change from seasons to seconds; while my chameleon lover display rainbow colours in different situations.

Where's the love? what's love without trust, it's a pity how easily we fall into the pit of lust and get lost. Show true love to the world no matter the hate and jealousy, love is the light through the dark tunnels of life.

There's no smoke without a fire, watch closely and calculate the slow movement of my chameleon lover; this is the kind of love my mother use to warn me about. It's clear to the world now that only God is love.

Silent Prayer

The world is coming to an end brethren, be prayerful not to fall into the pit of torment and regret.

Not all question deserve an answer and not all that glitter is gold; my mentor told me to meditate about the path of righteousness; but am busy with my silent prayer for wisdom and divine understanding.

It's crystal clear to me now, no matter how hard you try to impress the crowd not everyone will appreciate your creativeness. Everything belong to God, he's the father of creation and the holy supreme ruler of heaven and earth.

Holy Mary please give me another prayer points, the kind of prayer points that will uplift my body and soul for the righteous path. Am a sinner and I can't pretend to be a born again, only God can judge me but it's wise to walk with purity in the sanctuary of God.

No More Tears

There's nothing new here anymore, the narrow path cannot accommodate vanity and pleasure seekers. The rich also cry and lament with sorrowful songs, there's no turning back in the vanity race of life.

What will be will be if God say so, pray and fast like ancient prophet of the Jew; focus on the blessings and grace of God in your life today and avoid the pit of sorrow and fear of tomorrow.

Ask and it shall be giving unto you, knock and the door to the sanctuary of the most high will be open; no more tears except the tears of joy. Let love and peace be your trademark, walk with the wise and sorrow will never occupy your soul.

Forget all you know when you're in my city, the club is jumping and this shooters are ready to die for the cross. My homie just got back from the dealer den, don't talk if you don't know what am talking about.

They don't want me to succeed, rest in peace Mungo Park; be safe. What's your issue about my dreams, am all about my life and the love for success. The real money is like the old money, am not stupid and foolish; all we need is one love, before we die let do the right thing.

'Over confidence kill faster than ebola virus'

God please take me away from this crowd mentality, please lead me away from the path of destruction; don't let vanity take my sanity.

Life is a big tussle, some situation may try to break you down, but focus on the moment and don't worry about tomorrow.

Take one step at a time, don't panic to freaks; be the master of your life. Pray without going for a break, give to the widows and orphans. Another day another challenges, always be ahead of your game.

I Don't Need A Company

Am alone but not lonely, don't fool with me because loneliness don't know the address to my house.

Sometime it's wise to fly solo, the whole squad is waiting outside for me to walk through the out of bound door. I want the money and am willing to share it with anyone that can take a bullet for me.

They pushed me out of their hearts, but they can't stop dreaming about me; they don't want love, all they care about is sex. More fortune, more wealth; the more the henessey the more the enemies.

Am not new to this game and rules, what will be will be if Jah say so; the sky wide enough for all angry birds to fly without disturbing my roof.

Be real to your dreams and don't copycat my goals, making success cakes is the plan; kissing lips that tell lies is not part of the attitude of my African clan. Money is my drug, I got so high anytime am paid; am not changing like the weather, but this copycats will always go down for another man dream.

Am a band leader and my girlfriend is a cheerleader, but my best friend is a rapper. No is holy like Jesus and this believers will never stop believing in miracle. Don't copy the cat because it got nine life and you only have one.

Common Sense

The federal government is talking bold like Blackberry phones, yet recession is still busy eating and injecting poverty into the economy. Common sense is not common like steady positive actions from losers, they pretend to be dead in the west, but reality invade their babylon system.

It's a sin to ignore human beings and hugging robots, ignorance is not a six year old kid without sin; some people don't care about the future and some don't have anything worth dying for. Nemesis will surely catch up with those that betrayed trust and love.

Give me food and I will distribute my creativity like a wholesaler, breaking the law is not been smart; doing the right thing at the wrong time is a sin in my hood. This love is not for sale, don't laugh when the king is talking; he sit on the throne although he doesn't have a castle. Use your head and focus on your dreams, common sense couldn't sleep on top of the food chain, pray for me not fall into the pit of folly.

This is no longer making sense, for how long will you rub me with toy gun. Back and better with the right moves, I know am an ugly black guy but God always shower me with love and bliss. Arguing with fools is like walking into death trap, enough is enough baby; you don't need to make sense to make a point here.

Celibacy Drug

It's a tough call to kill a sexual drive in the blood, and it become tougher when it involve sexy queen. The love for beautiful things can easily turn to vanity feeling when illusion blindfold reality, too much of everything is bad; but the food for the soul is enlightenment and purification.

Self-righteousness cannot open the gateway to the sanctuary of God, do the right thing for a positive impact on humanity and avoid the traps of vanity.

Daughter Of Jerusalem

She's beautiful like an apple tree among the trees of the forest, thinking of her charm uplift my soul from the epoch of pain and sorrow. She's welcome everywhere she go, daughter of Jerusalem don't need a gate pass to access my heart.

There's a place I can be, but nothing can compare to the peace and serenity she shower on me anytime am in her arms. I need her love like a bird need a tree to dwell, this feeling is real and her divine spirituality enlighten my world.

Only the brave and honest souls can take a walk through the garden of love, this love is beyond sexual feeling and fantasy; babylon can roar like an angry lion but our love will forever grow strong and nothing in the world will separate us.

When Am Gone

Rumors will spread like bullets from a machine gun when am gone, only few of my friends will remember the good deeds that have done. Some will point finger and nail my past to the cross, all the sweet memories of my love life will be a loss.

Even though there's nothing new under the sun, but those I trust with my dreams and family will betray me and my son. The road ahead is dusty and full of snakes, nothing is safe here anymore like a room full of fake friends.

Life's a journey through the valley of uncertainty, even the place we call home is a sin city, many people will smile at you when you're prosperous and forsake you when you're under pressure.

Success Mirror

Everyone of us on planet earth want to be successful, we all aim for the sweet adventure of a dream come true. Experience is the best life teacher, and wisdom is not for everyone.

No more tears and pain if you keep your faith in the father of creation strong, learn to pray; and fast till your dreams manifest into reality. Don't waste your life chasing fantasy and vanity, the journey to success island require focus and motivation.

Success don't have double face, the sweet aroma of success always captivate the souls of positive thinkers; look beyond the scope of failure, and see things from the horizon of a new dawn.

Make positive plans to ride over failure to your success island, there's nothing sweet like the victorious taste of a dream come true.

Kill Them With Success

There's no point fighting the devil with a demon, only good deeds can conquer evil desires. Empty barrels will make crazy noise to distract you from motivation but it's wise to kill them with success.

Don't let failure destroy your dreams, be strong and brave like the lion of Zion. Say no to defeat, step on your obstacles to the podium of success. There's no where failure can hide in your world when you're focus and motivated.

Avoid the fantasy traps of failure, there's no shame in falling from a horse, but it's a disaster when a horse step on you. The battle is not over until you won, be successful and kill your enemies with success.

You can blame me for the pains of the past, antagonize my life; and crucify me. The past is dead and gone, the sorrows of the past are not mine anymore. Cute creatures gone extinction from the reach of mother nature, this is another epoch of encroachment. Let save nature and preserve her beauty.

We can do this together again in another day, sharing bananas with monkey while riding donkey through Sahara dessert. After the pain come the gain, caring for animals is not an insane thing to do. We all need love and affection, the blessings of mother nature enrich humanity from generation to generation.

The power of the almighty God stretch from the beginning to the end, let give thanks to God for all his mercy; and love. There's nothing impossible for God to do, the creator of heaven and earth got the key to everything.

Wisdom is calling from the valley of purity, many words will be spoken; many men will try to corrupt the future. They say 'if you can't beat them, join them' but it's wise not to join them in the party of folly.

The beauty of mother nature cannot be overlook, the beautiful ones are not yet born; but mother nature is the source of all beauty around. She was a beauty queen, more like Africa Queen; the true meaning of beauty is beyond the pretty face and the figure 8.

Deepest Crush

I know the world will soon come to an end, but before then; i want you to be my friend. Ain't got no time to worry about what people say about me, the only time i got is to get to success islands.

David is the master of Goliath, baby me and you can work wonders; your heart is too cute to be a host to this parasite of doubt. All i ever want is loyalty from you baby, the beauty of love is like watching the sun rise in the sky; it's so beautiful to be free from worries, and fears of life; strangers of today are the best friends of tomorrow.

Tell me something i need to know because i am in a hurry to get to the promise land, am in love with you, the serenity of your soul attract divine blessing. Please this will only take a few more second, take it easy with me because am deeply in love with you.

Friendship Of Vanity

They all pretend to be your good friends because they enjoy sharing in your wealth, friends of benefit are many in this system; none of them care about your legacy, nor pray for your success.

Always watch your back for those sneaky snakes, and scorpions; green snakes under green grass pretending to be saints, but their hearts is full of evil poison. Don't share your dreams with strangers, neither should you place your trust in worldly treasures.

You can't hide for them forever, but you can stop them from corrupting your goals, and dreams. The journey ahead is for the bold, and strong in spirit; never let the agony of the past tear you apart on your path to enlightenment.

The Big Picture

Seeing is believing, but the more you see; the less you know. Don't pay attention to the taunts of vanity, focus and let motivation defend your dreams.

Navigating through the epoch of fantasy and illusion, avoiding daughters of jezebel with pure soul. Flying to the moon on a sunny day of dream come true, here come another day to set success on the right path.

The glamour of lucifer is hot like lava, don't be lost in self righteousness; no weakness should be taken for granted. People will talk about the big picture, but not everyone can paint the picture of new world order clearly.

Reality City

Stop guessing and speculating, don't lose your cool even though you have been waiting for your miracle a long time. Situation and condition shouldn't stop you from accomplishing your goals, what doesn't kill you will make you stronger.

Free your mind and soul from the bondage of negativity, choose your words wisely; share philosophy and dreams with positive mental attitude people. The darkness in the land create confusion, and turmoil. No peace for the wicked, no joy for betrayal.

Don't stop for failure on this holy journey to Zion of success, let the house of God be your hide-out, love with all your heart; pray without the spirit of doubt in your soul. Keep the faith alive, and the light of God will guide your path in life.

Reality Of Life

Some reactions on Facebook make me laugh my brain out, please don't get me wrong; i got million of things to do than wasting time listening to your sad news.

She got a new bae, but they say everything got it own bad side. No profit no loss, you can't eat your egg and have it; grandma want the kids to make it in life. Making money was always on their mind, they curse poverty with passion because they want everyone to be happy, and progressing.

People are asking how to separate the truth from the youth, the holy spirit of God is still here with us; let come together to fight the spirit of mediocrity in our city. God bless the love of my life, she was my motivation and my beginning. Keep believing and your faith will set you free.

Don't Ask For It

Please brethren, don't ever ask for it; it's wise to ignore it with your sanity. Vanity is coming like a super model with chopstick legs, don't let them fool you with pleasure in order for to steal your heavenly treasures.

Tribulations and temptations will always roll into our reality, but keep the windows of prayer open; satanic forces want to blindfold the world from righteous path to destruction.

The storm will rage and fade, always remember that after the rain come sunshine; live and let live, don't ask for vanity pills.

The Backyard Of A Lazy Man

Waking up from a lazy night with a song of praise to Jehovah, there's only one God to worship and the rest is history. There's success for everyone, bird is made to fly, and fish to swim; avoid the lazy path of non praying believer.

The fancy smile of the lazy man is intoxicated with pleasure, and fantasy. Some dreamers over slept, and their dreams slip away, come over the hill of faith with pure conscience; show some love to motivation, and let go of the mistakes of the past that hold dreams down from getting to the horizon of success. The journey to the backyard of the lazy man is another epic revelation, the wise will always choose the path of holiness, and peace.

Don't walk alone in the jungle of mediocrity, hangout with motivation and make inspiration your fantasy. Peace is like opera, tender like mother nature. Dreams water with motivation, and prayer grow into empire of success.

The Horrible Image Of Failure

Waking up on Sunday morning from the pandemonium sound of fear and doubt, a brand new day with fresh challenges ahead. My mentor told me to avoid gold diggers, but it's hard to deflect failure when you're a goal getter.

I want the goodies of life on my plate, but success don't come easy without be frustrate and irritate, many dreams die from failure malnutrition and commotion when one care about motivation. There's time to dream, and time to jump into action for the future.

Sitting on the front row of life while waiting patiently for the arrival of my success, it's unwise to give up on your dreams and ambitions; get your daily dose of motivation, and be free from failure infection. The future is bright only when you walk in the light of your dreams.

Motivation Highway

Don't let failure boo you away from success, give motivation everything left in you.

Live your dreams, and don't compare yourself to others.

Avoid mediocres, make your goals your first priority.

Nothing is impossible with God, stay focus with motivation; and you will run through success without obstacles.

We are all gifted, but dreams die without motivation.

The future is bright, and two wrong don't make a right; water your dreams with inspirations, and you will harvest success.

Delay is dangerous, don't waste your time chasing broken dreams.

Let Motivation talk when failure harass you, stay calm and plan wise.

We all made mistakes, and wrong choices; get up and don't look back to the past. Live for the future, and not in regret.

Success is helping people with your talents and creativity.

Let Be Kind To Our Brothers

Listen to your conscience, and be in peace with your soul; show some love to brotherhood, and avoid hateful potions.

Let love flow around like river Nile, you can't change the world without changing yourself. Living in the world where people follow trend and hype, love is exactly what I feel; it is easy to see that we all need love.

Life is sweet, let enjoy the sweet taste of life; it is hard to avoid temptations in the darkest time. Stay on your knees, and pray for your friends and enemies; don't betray your brothers like Judas Iscariot. Celebrate with the winners, and never overlook the losers.

Take it easy with the mistakes of others, remember no one is perfect; don't runaway when troubles hit your brother. We are all made in the image of God, we all can't be superman; but with love and unity we can be supernatural. Let be kind to our brothers, let make life easy for each other

A Moment With You

We are meant to be, birds of the same feather flock together baby, I can't stay away from you; my love for you sail across humanity. Ask yourself why I care for you so much baby, your smile intoxicate me; take my hand baby, this is not a one night stand.

I will show you how free I am tonight, this love won't weigh you down; am taking you to see the purplemoon.

Only the strong will continue, love is a journey through a jungle; we made it through, and I feel great when am inside you.

You and me tonight, no one satisfy me like you do; fantasy will fade away, illusion will crawl out, but my love for you will never blackout. Life's what you make it, loving you is real no one can fake it.

You never can tell what the next man is going through, it will be hard to see the pains he harboured under his veins. Life's not a joke when you're broke, don't laugh at the downfall of the next man, respect humanity and show love to the needy.

Life's a teacher of experience, learn not to make the same mistakes again; get back on your feet and don't give up to defeat. Man is the image of God, God is the father of creation, always look up to the creator no matter your situation.

Live fearlessly in midst of scorpions, pray for your daily bread on the altar of faith; enjoy the fruit of your labour without regret. Nothing lasts forever, don't let the vanity of life blindfold your reality. No one knows tomorrow, give a helping hand to the next man; and behold the honour of humanity.

Africa is a jungle of love, and our ancestors purify the land and soil with affection and black heritage.

Snakes on the stake is the tradition of stone age, morality is the blackman culture. Birds roam the spiritual shrine of black deities, the sun smile down on Africa and walk throughout the sahara desert.
