Early Summer Thunder Storm

Clouds over lake flash Groan grows to bellowing boom Drops wet projectiles

Electricity
Refuses half the county Poet grabs pencil

Magic energy Withheld from appliances Light bulb ignores switch

Loss of power sucks People show human nature
For better or worse

Insert this side up Caution severe tire damage
Come to Jamaica

Blinding thunder clap Deletes modern convenience Empty streets run off Hadn't been for love

I would be in jail again
Not in Birmingham

It's time to learn things
Not just quiet listening Smack the butt of spring

Newlyweds cuddle
Give up electricity
You are all I need

Wind lashed summer rain
Now electric goes offline What next? Gravity?

Computer stopped working Repent! These are the end times!
Easter Bunny's real!

Fleas And Galaxies

'Tiny fleas have littler fleas Upon their backs, to bite 'em.
While these wee fleas sport smaller fleas,
And on, ad infinitum! '

...So many know how life must flow Beneath man's microscope Yet never mind a vaster kind Of life with which to cope...

Our wide world has titans curled Within their orbits, turning Around those suns roll larger ones
And thus the stars keep burning

Jaey Peele

Gunsaku Demonic

Dragons and demons
On their bellies broken blind Would take me with them

Jagged black mold runs Through the baseboards of the house Stinky wet demon

Though born without eyes
The creature has the insight To avoid my snares

Broken backed demon Dry eye sockets mouth sewn closed Keeps crawling toward me

Skull blistered with rot Collapse into chalky dust
I can't stop screaming

Happy Birthday Nona May

Husband pens his love After one year of marriage Proud to be your spouse Partner in deepest spirit Yesterday and tomorrow

Blessings of a happy home Irresponsible poet Responsible Nona May Turned it all around Horizons unbound
Dancing through the galaxy Astronomical glitter Yearning to be creative

Never giving up on you
On this very special day Notions of passionate love Anon and henceforth

Merrily we sing Astral connectivity
You and me both bless'd

Man-Shaped-Wind: The Abecedarian

Last night I dreamed hard;
A man shaped wind walked past me Changed his mind, returned

Feel his mind wonder Haven't I seen you before?
I sleep-laugh-out-loud..!

The noise wakes me up Night clock reads three thirty three I fall back to sleep

Head first tumble up A leaf wafted from my tree Caught on a stray breeze

Fellow dreamers cast Unsettled slumbering sighs Nocturnal vision

I was being watched Plucked from our common dream-scape Alone yet followed something spooked the cats Haikudo forgets purring Meta leaps from bed

Her collar tinkles aweigh down moonlit staircase quiet dreams return

Childhood home kitchen everything in proper place daily chores finished

Afternoon cartoons

Back following messages Cereal box dance

Delicious breakfast Energy for playground games Faster than the rest

Grownups in the house Haunt responsibilities
I watch dream T V

Jet powered action
Kids save their town from monsters Lunatics and thugs

Mountains streak below
New character friend or foe Only time will tell

Preview of next show Queen of dream sends champion Racing with Jet Kids

Saving the future Tune in tom arrow and see Ultimate showdown

Victory assured Waving heroes, credits roll X factor revealed Youthful television dream Zooms away, I'm still asleep

Almost awake view Banished from reality Creature made of mind

Dream-scape citizen Everado Man-Shaped-Wind Face another day

Grasp February Handle your business in the Indigo yonder

Meta-Gunsaku

gathering haiku storm clouds spitting three line rain this is not the first this is not the next

but one another

Nor is this one next
In a series of poems Closer to loose group

you might stand right here or here if this feels better only you decide but now look around this may be the true First One Somehow I doubt it

Certain so was I Bottom to upwardly read I was so certain try to find handle exit door painted on wall will you write me out if out ever was how did you get there just now and where are we now this is not the last verse in some linked poetry all I have to say this might be the last you hear from me forever are you listening maybe this goes first rearranged by your own mind free to move about

This might be middle surrounded on every side by dreams of haiku

Meta-Haiku

March to your own drum Eliminate excess words
Try a tiny term

Art of simple verse Honest writing warts and all Affect emotion

Imagination
Kaleidoscopic world view Unexpected truth

Something About Hummingbirds

Untitled poem Something about hummingbirds passing for haiku

Sits in a notebook Pondered but then rejected
Not enough spirit

Is this poetry
A sad echo of nature with no fulfillment

Scratch out start over Find the clarity of truth Or why even try

Metallic feathers
Stop on a spinning dime edge Then rocket away

One single sun beam Shines through a hole in the clouds poked by tiny bird

Run to where it shone Face turned to where sun should be Thick blanket of clouds

I can smell the rain Green mud on patches of breeze Squeezed from between grays

Fate blended with choice Always good enough not great Willow only sighs

What is this stillness
Not even decent darkness Foggy almost art

Jaey Peele

Squander

Create simple verse Accept my literary Rare but easy style

With nothing better
In which to squander my time Than compose haiku

Metahaiku strains Against the seams of my mind Yearning for eyeballs

Years of practicing Original rensaku
Using acrostics

Such as the above Is read CAR WIT MAY YOU SIT Tricky but that's me

Jaey Peele

Steady Winds Of Time

Steady winds of time
Blow silver onto our hair Wrinkles in our skin

Don't have to like it Just be there as it happens Grins come on strange winds

Feeling much younger Than my grandkids say I look Laugh erases years

I'll live long enough To play work and play some more I have already

Ugly innocence
Not trying to hurt feelings Too young to stay mad

It's alot of work
To be five years or fifty I've had more practice

Child's curly wild mop
In the way combed every day Wishing he was bald

Looking back on it I've had a pretty good life Even the dim parts

I tell clean jokes and To keep the tot entertained Play with wooden trains

Unfolding Sky Song

authored by Great Creator on one single page

One Great Creator holds clear title to this sphere magnets mud and all length width depth formless nothingness before chaos infinite zazen

open empty space seventeen dimensions deep good place to put stars

Great Creator speaks each word a new universe shining and vital in the beginning one First Flash not some big bang order from chaos orbits by design every star lets there be light see that it is good vacuum filled with light forever after shining lotus from the swamp galaxies are born live through their allotted time become something else our 'Big Bang' one pulse cycle of open and close heart of the monad mind of God creates planets of evolution universal truth made after His kind every star has its species given eyes to see

thus spake Creator
'Light shall be for eyes to see fill this void with it

Let light spread and grow gathering in galaxies shine on countless worlds

Each world shall wonder at the beauty in its way light shall become life

Each spectrum of life shall share its world of light so there shall be Love

Love from life from light ever after balancing against cold darkness

Now let there be light evolving life into Love on worlds without end

Love of Creator creation and each other shining ceaselessly

Wisdom between stars each a unique entity alive and aware.'

Cassiopeia

waits upon her starry throne to be recognized the seven sisters Pleiadean galaxy sends Earth fond greetings

Man is part of Earth Milky Way galactic life Universal mind

One thousand stars shine Within one hundred light years
These are our neighbors

Ancestral home stars Elders and younger cousins Whose lives are precious

Let us become friends Open sharing light life Love We with eyes to see

Let's evolve past war.
Peace and love to you and yours,
~Namaste~~~J.E.~~~

War End

Welcome to the edge
A new unknown approaches Remember to love

Lingering vision
Ignite groups of winning smiles Promise to return

Common brown beetle Orbits saucer on back porch
Not cracked like its cup

Enjoy this for now
No spring shower lasts all year Drift with early snow

Wings

Her wings have hardened Caterpillar all grown up Now to find a mate

Words Of The Wind

as i sleep dreaming from deep day a wind in the park the trees dance flocks of shrilling letter clusters cut clouds then in the leaves a man shaped wind Hai
kudos too Love in you Holy mission Change fear to
Depends on a grace rather than pigment dappled summer suite decided to take a nap the wind in guy points inward upward love wave write that in your composition book Engage the rapid eye movement mind dancing with one wife meta muse eternal Warm laughter rolls thru thunder moon We have loved you as god-poets stepped Mother of Muses Mountainous element
At ease around apexes Very sweet faces Versus Verses faces muses dance
You Follow Me whispering Notions of nationhood Everado Aeonado Edurado Mountain Time Zone Momentarian Eleven Galloping out of deepest dream images

Pausing only to flourish plumed pen over Parchment wild with wind winged mind of My one truth is love all else echos away on nine muses versus Yard work
Milk and hot dog buns
