jasmine dugas(april 3,1994)

Well what can i say about myself. Im in the army. I love serving my country everyday. I love basketball and writing poetry. Im sweet and easy to talk to. If you wanna know more, message me :)

Anger

Wake up every morning sad
Go to sleep every night mad
But why sad
Sad cause I'm alive
Mad cause of who I am
Mad that the world would never accept me
Mad cause I cant be me
Feeling like no heaven exist cause I'm living in hell
Feeling like there's no angels to take me
So why should I smile
Why should I laugh
Why should I wake up every morning happy
Frustration and anger is taking over me every day
I'm living with no happiness
Living with anger
Anger is now my best quality
Anger describes my personality
Anger is inside of me
Anger is me
I'm anger

Blame It On Me

I never knew I would hurt you like I did
I wish I can go back in time and undo all my mistakes but its too late
It wasnt worth the wait because I never had the guts to admit my mistake
If I say sorry I know you would never believe me
I shake my head cause I know I lied
I put my head down cause I know im guilty
I couldnt deny that my actions couldnt hide
My actions spoke louder than my words now my actions are heard
Blame it on me for everything
Blame it on me for my lies
Blame it on me for your why's
Blame it on me for your cries
Blame it on me if your love for me dies
I'm sorry for doing you wrong
I'm sorry for not being strong
I'm sorry for not living up to my word
I'm sorry for what have occurred
I'm sorry that my lies was absurd
I understand if dont accept my apology
It wouldnt take astrology to tell you that im wrong
I guess everybody was right all along
I dont blame you for blaming me
If I can change I guarantee that one day you will see the new me

jasmine dugas

Come Back To Me

Please, Please, I'm begging you please
Please come back to me
I know I keep messing up
But baby you complete me
Your my other half and im nothing without you
When I hear your name, I wanna cry
When I think about you I wonder why
I'm not lieing
Even though you don't want me back, I will keep trying
I wasn't lieing when I said you we're my everything Every single word I said I wasn't kidding about You make me strong when I'm weak
I don't know what you did to me to make me feel this way
I think I'm under a love spell, or maybe I'm dreaming
But one thing I kno is that my feelings are real
If they wasn't real I wouldn't of cried for you
If they wasn't real my feelings would have died for you
But now there will always be a hole in my heart
But I need you to heal me
I will keep trying til I get you back
But all I'm asking for is you to come back to me

Conversations With God

I've done dumb things I can't take back
I've said things that I regret
But you still haven't left my side
Even when I try to hide
Anytime I talk to you, you reminded me let go and let me
When I obeyed that command, my heart went free
He told me to stop complaining And be thankful for what you have
He told me yes life is tough and it'll always be that way
He told me to pick up my head and go on to the next day cause not everyone get to see another day
And then he told me, my child, living is a gift Live everyday like its your last
Stop living In the past
Soon it'll get better than ever
But now my child, I'll see you later

jasmine dugas

Distant Love

Many rivers, roads and mountains away
I await the day I can see your face
Either in sunlight or in the rain
I can't explain and I can't complain
So I thought I'll let you know when I get you in my arms, I will never let you go
So many letters, signs in the stars
Love outer space and I've fell on Mars
Sincerely, truly, and dearly love so far away
I await the day when I can say
I love you
From your distance lover far away

Dreaming

I'm dreaming of my king
And the love he can bring and when he sing its like birds in spring
I'm dreaming of a rose
A rose that grows, near a special place where water flows
I'm dreaming of an angel
An angel that I can call my own
An angel that I call mom and lets me know I'm home
I'm dreaming of you
A person that I knew, someone that makes me smile when my day gets blue
I'm dreaming of a life
A life where my dreams come true
When the only thing that matters is loving you

jasmine dugas

Everlasting Love

5'4, light brown eyes, that's two descriptions of you
My everything, my life, your my everlasting boo
Anytime you need me I'm just one call away
I fall more and more for you day by day
We have that everlasting love, that love no one can touch
Baby your my everything and I love you so much
I can't go an hour without talking to you cause I swear I will cry
Baby I will always be here, I'll never say goodbye
I hope our everlasting love last forever and we stay together
Maybe marriage in our future and I don't know what I would do If I ever lose you
The best thing about our relationship is that we have trust
We happy with eachother even though we fuss
By the end of the day I'm happy to be with you
We have that everlasting love and you are my everlasting boo

Father's

When a child is born, they're blessed with two gifts
One of them is a father, a strong, special, and protecting gift
A father is one of a kind, stronger than any man
Through the sports or activities, our father is our biggest fan
Every father is not perfect but they can love like no other
Some fathers play the father and also play the mother
Every father guide
Every father lead
Every father care
Every father cry
Every father share
But not every father can be compared
Every father is a warrior, a son under our father god
Our provider when times get tough
Our fathers stand by our side when we can't get enough
To all the fathers around the world
Because of our fathers we are strong boys and girls

Fox Company Heros

A hero can be made in a year, month, day or even seconds
In camouflage uniforms pointing weapons
They can represent yellow, red, blue, or even green
Representing seven army values and first on the scene
With loyalty, duty, and respect
We rise above to be the best
Crawling under live fire, confidence course, BRM, Apft, or even fit-to-win
Long journey to begin, we've all gained life long friends that will last till the end
From the soldiers creed to the army song 4th platoon spartans march along
Leaving their mark and sounding off
That is 3rd platoon blackhawks
With their first aid combat, they can definitely be healers
That is 2nd platoon death dealers
When they pass by, you can hear a roar
That is 1st platoon warlords
Getting through every obstacle, challenge, exercise with our gift
The foxtrot knights never quit
Brought together by luck
Succeeding, we're strong
Foxtrot company is army strong

Happy Anniversary

Seven, Seventeen; it can be seventy years
I'll love you more and more even if we lived together for however many years
I'm not perfect and someday we'll argue and fuss
But at the end of the day, we still have trust
I'm not going anywhere, I'm here to stay
God sent you into my life for a reason so I must obey
I've always believed in love at first sight but when I met you
I knew if loving you is wrong then I don't want to be right and I knew you had to be mine
Through the pain, hardships and tears, you stuck with me till the end
You are everything to me, my baby, my wife, and my best friend
I knew at that moment on December 31
Seven years ago when I said 'I do'
That for the rest of my life I would always love you Happy Anniversary to my wonderful and gorgeous wife
I care about you and your everything to me
You're the love of my life

jasmine dugas

Have You Ever Notice

Have you ever notice when you look at me I blush
Have you ever notice when you pass by me I hush
But what's there to say you have my heart, you're my crush
Have you ever notice when we make eye contact I put my head down
Have you ever notice when we at practice I'm a clown
The question is have you ever notice
Have you ever notice when you might start talking to me I might stutter or talk to fast
Have you ever notice when your by me, my concentration seem to never last
Have you ever notice when I see you I'm always smiling
Have you ever notice the things I do
Have you ever think about me
Will you ever notice I'm there Have you ever noticed me

jasmine dugas

I Love You

When I first started talking to you, my only word was hey
Then you started stealing my heart in this crazy loving and sexy way
You made my heart beat in a way that nobody can You gave me feelings that no one can give You made me smile
You made me blush
You made me happy
And now your my best friend
My life
My world
and my everything
When I'm talking to you, I'm smiling
When I'm not, I'm thinkin bout you
When I'm sleeping, I'm dreaming of you
And in the end
you complete me
I don't wanna ever lose you
I care bout you
And I love you

jasmine dugas

I Promise

I promise, today I'll never leave your side besides your the only one who can make my heart beat and rise

I promise, tomorrow I'll be there when you get home

I would never ever let you be alone

I promise, today after tomorrow I will treat you right

Despite your something like stars, your character is so bright

I promise to be your smile, your laugh

Nothing like the past since I plan to be the person to last

I promise to protect your heart; life's short but I'll never let the pieces to your heart ever fall apart

I promise to never ever disrespect you, always give you respect, give you the best and always listen to you

Never the rest

jasmine dugas

I Was Wrong

I know I messed up and I know it wasn't right
I know it's not easy looking for Mrs. Right
I can't picture my life without you out of sight
I go to sleep thinking about you, and dreaming about you day and night
It takes a real woman to admit when she wrong
I will admit it that I was wrong all along
I won't be mad if you hate me but what can I do
If I loved someone so much and got hurt, I would hate me too
Apologizing wont do nothing, crying is a waste of time
Mind over matter but your mind controls mine
I hope you know I changed, I'm done with the fuss
I hope there's not a you, not a me but an us
Life is really short, I don't know when mine will end
I will love you always Im your friend till the end

jasmine dugas

If You Come Softly

If you come softly, If you come slow
Over the horizon
Where the waterfalls flow
There was where we shared our first hug
There was where we shared our first kiss
I've always believed in love stories
But I've never pictured this
The sky was night, and the waterfalls glistened
The birds sing
While we sit and listen
That's one of the first times we've love
That's one of the first times we've dream
Nobody believed me
About this unbelievable scene
Even though he came soft
Even though he came slow
I'll always love him
No matter where I go

jasmine dugas

If You Come Softly Part II: It Felt Like Yesterday

It felt like yesterday when we first met
I'm sorry I haven't gained the courage to tell you I love you yet
It felt like yesterday that we had our first time
We connected like poetry, you were my other rhyme
It felt like yesterday, we were sitting in the sunset
The rain started to sprinkle
We got soaking wet
It felt like yesterday that we had our first date
I remember getting mad at you because you were 10 minutes late
It felt like yesterday, it'll feel like tomorrow
I finally gained the courage to say I love you today and forever

jasmine dugas

Illusion

Your far away, but somehow you feel near
Now and there im in love with you would come creeping in my ear
I thought I saw you, it mustve been confusion, because it was just an illusion
I knew I thought I saw a smile a yard away, but it was just a bright display Sometimes I picture you right next to me, right by my side, it was just an illusion that couldnt hide
People might think im crazy but I think im just crazy over you, seeing illusions and delusions got my head spinning with confusion Call me crazy, call me insane, but its not my fault im in a campagne to win over your domain
Hopefully one day my illusions will be real, and you will be revealed

jasmine dugas

I'M Sorry

I'm sorry for the way I did you
I know I did you wrong
All the people that say I will screw up were right all along
I'm crying and apologizing with so many tears
Without you in my life is all I ever fear
I need you now cause judgement day is so near I'm always talking before I think That's why I always fail
I'm soon taking this path that leads to my future
I need you to take it with me
I need you by my side or to even guide me
That's why I need you
And that's why I'm apologizing and all I'm trying to say is that I'm sorry

jasmine dugas

Is He Worth It

Is he worth the drama, is he worth the troubles
We never hold hands
It's like were not a couple
Is he worth the sadness, is he worth the tears
The end of our relationship
Is all I fear
Is he worth the fuss, is he worth the stress
It's time to start over
And forget about the rest
Is he worth my love, is he worth my heart
It's time for us to be apart

jasmine dugas

It Hurts

I feel like it hurts so much to live
I feel like it hurts so much be who you are
I feel like I have to fight to just be happy
I feel like I can't even be myself around the one's I love
I wake every morning not happy
I go to bed every night mad and frustrated
Why frustrated
Mad with who Frustrated because I ain't never gone be happy
Mad with myself
I feel like I'm dieing on the inside while actually I'm crying on the out
No one to talk to
No one to lean on
No one to hear say I will be here for you no matter what No shoulder to cry on
People are always wondering why I'm alone
Why I'm so quiet
The answer to that is that I'm hurting
I'm hurting on the inside
A place where my fears takeover
A place that's dark
I wanna be in a place
A place where my thoughts run free
A place where there's light
A real place
Maybe a place called my home
A home that I will be happy at
But since I'm living in the unhappiness
I will never find home

jasmine dugas

It Kills Me

It kills me everyday, knowing your so far away
Words on my tongue that I would love to just come out and say
It kills me on the inside, knowing your not by my side
I walk with my head down with plenty tears I'm trying to hide
It kills me in my heart, knowing we're miles apart
Searching for an ending but my feet stuck at the start
It kills me every night and day waiting for you to walk my way
Hoping when I open my eyes, you will pop up in the sunrise
It kills me every holiday knowing I can't spend it with you
If I had to say my last words, it would be I love you

jasmine dugas

It's Love

What is it.....is it love
Or is it a feeling that u cant deny or is it a dream that ur living in can it be real or just a fake thought you will never kno wat is it til u feel it can it make your heart beat fast or slow or even make it skip beat can it make you feel strong or even make you feel weak can it be lust
can it be pleasure
or maybe it can be pain or maybe it can be the best out of the best a four letter word called.....
love

jasmine dugas

Just You

I know we just met on a late Monday day
But there's something I have to say
Its hard to say it so I'm just gone let it flow from the mind
It was two days ago after nine
The emotions I started getting is something so hard to define Me and you haven't talked before but when we finally talked its like we talked forever
I started falling for you knowing we would never be together
I didn't know that meeting you would change me
Change me in so many ways
You taught me things and I love that about you
You opened my eyes to life
Your you and you don't pretend to be someone else and I also love that about you
When I hear your voice, I get these butterflies on the inside
I'm always smiling when I'm talking to you and I feel like nothing can go wrong
Wishing time can stop and the moments we're talking can last forever
But all I'm trying to say is that your an amazing person and beautiful on the inside and out and I'm happy that I met you

jasmine dugas

Long Distance

There's many reasons why I can't express my feelings for you
Cause I don't want you to fall for me
We're miles away and it hurts so much
It hurts so much that I can't feel your touch
I wanna be with you so bad but I can't
I wanna hold til you fall asleep
I wanna say crazy things to make you laugh
I wanna get in trouble so you can rescue me
I wanna read you my poems that express how I feel
I wanna tell you how much your love is my shield
I hate that I can't see you
I hate that I can't be with you
I hate that I can't hold you
I hate that I cant kiss you
At times I picture only me and you
Me and you together forever
Living a life
but not only a life, but our life Never leaving each other
Staying togther
Living not a dream but reality but I hate the fact that it may never happen cause it's long distance

jasmine dugas

Mama, Its Been A While

Mama, It's been 10 years since you past Life goes by but memories still last Mama, your daughters grown up, they're sixteen, eighteen and twenty We're hated by few but loved by many Mama, I've joined the military
Active duty four years
Mama, life gets hard sometimes thats why you see tears
Mama, I miss you
I wish you were here
Mama, I try to face my fears
Mama, I did everything I thought I couldn't do I've did everything I promised you
Mama, Ive never stopped thinking about you Mama, I really miss you Mama, Ive never stopped loving you

jasmine dugas

Missing You

I'm missing you through thick and thin
You were everything to me, my mother and my best friend
When I needed a shoulder to cry on, you were the one
You glisten like the moonlight and shine like the sun
I remember when I was young when you used to read me to bed
Now as a teenager those memories flow through my head
After you past away, I would have nightmares
Even thou your not here, I still feel love and care
Let me end it in three words, let me not end it in blue
I hope you will always know
That I'm missing you

jasmine dugas

My Baby

As the night comes to an end, my head begins to spin
Out of control because everything i heard
We sit quietly on the beach without saying a word
The awkward silence begins to get to us both
I look up at that person into there eyes and say "I love you"
No matter what happens today tomorrow or the next I will always love you
No matter what people say and how the world judge us I love you
It will always be this way and its you and me against the world
I never wanna lose you and I don't want anything bad to happen you
I kiss that person on the lips passionately and seductively like it's the last time
I tell that person if life take us from each other I want you to know that I love you and I will always love you
I promise to never leave you alone
I have your back always
Baby you're my rock, my ice, and my love is your shield
I cant picture my life without you Baby you're the one

jasmine dugas

My Dearly Old Friend

When we first met, we started as two lonely friends
Friends that would be there til the end
You we're a friend that I would ride for, try for, or maybe die for You we're someone that I could of talked to Now that's all gone
I shed tears for you, and I apologize to you but it all wasn't enough
I walk home alone and let it get to me though I was told to be tough
It's really crazy cause you we're the one that talked about what we would do after graduation
Where would we go
What would we do cause we weren't gone see eachother but now all there's left is memories
Memories that would soon later fade away in the distance
And in the end im sad
Changed my future
and lost a dear friend

jasmine dugas

My Hero

You will always be running thoughts
While I make puddles crying for you
While I fight for my life dieing for you
But it hurts so much to see you go
I will always need you
I will always be here for you
The words I say are so dear
My future is so near
With all my feelings falling with every tear
Nobody can't get rid of my crys even if they try Because it's too late cause my hero has died

jasmine dugas

My Oh My

My arms is the place that will keep you warm
My hands is the thing that will shelter you from harm
My heart is the thing that will love you forever
If I die today, I hope you remember the memories we've made together
My eyes is the thing that will only look at you
My lips is the thing that will tell you the truth
My feet is the thing that will never walk out your life
If loving you is wrong, I wouldn't want to be right
My shoulders is the thing that would always hold your tears
Anytime your scared I will always help you conquer your fears
My back is the thing that will carry you when your weak
Alone I'm one but with you I'm complete
My love is the thing you can always call your own I've hit rock bottom so how deeper can I fall

jasmine dugas

Never Letting Go

Even though we're not together I can't seem to get you off my mind
I don't know what you did but I'm blind
I'm slowly, slowly trying to get back to you but if I run out of time, I don't know what I would do
I've made my mistakes in the past, so I know I won't make them again
Just give me one more chance and the things I did won't happen again
Like Trey Songz said I refuse to let you go
And I refuse to accept no
So go ahead give me a yes and let me take care of the rest
Just be there in my presence and any scars you have, I will heal
Any tears you cry, I will dry
Any pain you feel, I will take away
Anytime you sad, I will do my best to make you smile
And everyday that goes by, I'll still be waiting for you and never letting go

jasmine dugas

Never Say Never

Never say never cause tomorrow is never promised
I might die today tomorrow or the next day
Never say never cause never can last
I never say never cause I leave it in the past Never say never cause never means goodbye
I never say never cause never makes me cry Never say never cause they'll always be a never Never say never cause never can last forever

jasmine dugas

Pain

Falling in love is like being born again
Opening your eyes to new things
Falling out of love is pain
Pain that has no name
Pain that makes me insane
Pain that makes you feel like youve been slain
Being hurt makes your heart burn
Makes your head turn
Pain hurts like hell
Like its a killing spell
I've been through that pain and it is no game

jasmine dugas

Pleasure And Pain

The pain he gave her, was also his pleasure
Before she felt it, she was his treasure
He changed everyday, a second or two
She figured out that her man was untrue
She would always call her man a charmer
What happened to the man in shining armor
When they first started talking he was so sweet
When they got married, she felt complete
She felt like her man was jus a pretend
She prayed and hoped that this nightmare would end
She found out her man was deceit, when she found out he had cheat
In the end she felt defeat
But what can come between pleasure and pain
A healthy relationship is sometimes hard to maintain

jasmine dugas

Searching

I'm searching for that missing thing

Missing letter

Missing pearl

It's like searching for a diamond in the world

Who sparkle like the moonlight and shine like the sun

When I find that missing thing, I know they are the one

Finding that person so far away

It hit me when they passed my way

With the most beautiful smile that lit up my day

It took me days to gain the courage to say

I've found what I've been searching for but sadly good things never last forever

However, I enjoyed the times we've spent together

Whether bad or good

I wouldn't, shouldn't and couldn't say goodbye

jasmine dugas

Seasons Of Love

Before I met you, my life was silent
It didn't have a beat; but the second I met you
I felt something warm called HEAT
They say love for sale but when we touched I knew my heart was sold
No matter how mad I got at you, my love could never be COLD
When life gets rough
When life gets tough
When you feel like you gone FALL
I want to be the first one you call
The person to help you stand tall
Then came SPRING
Sadly to say I was sprung
I had those three words sitting at the tip of my tongue
I should of stopped by ck and asked for a four leaf clover Cause when you walked away, I knew my seasons of love was over

jasmine dugas

That Girl

Lost and confused in this world
Words can't describe the things that happen to this girl
She always spoke and wrote from her dome
As many people she talked to she still alone
Through the blood, sweat, and tears and the alcohol and drugs
She lived on the street with the old rugs, bugs, and thugs
She cried every night wondering when she gone leave this place
She grew up watching her race fight her race
Wishing god would just take her away Praying to god to make it out this hood one day

jasmine dugas

This Is Us

What you is to me, is what the stars is to the sun
We're different but together we're one
From the rising of the moon to the setting of the sun
Your my thirst, my first
Your my chorus, your my verse
And this is us
What you is to me, is what the moon is to the sky
My other half, my sidekick, my ride or die Alone I'm weak, but with you im strong
I can climb any peak and play any song
Alone I'm cold but with you I'm warm
I was lost but now I've been reborn
This is us
What you is to me, is what paper is to pin
You complete me from the beginning to the end Against water, against wind we're a force to be rechonded with Together we're one and this is us

jasmine dugas

Time

Tick tock, the time is racing
My heart is pacing
My feelings there and im trying but your erasing
All I can do is retrace and go back five months and figure a way how I can fix this
I try to reminisce but I can rememeber is my tears
Losing you was my biggest fear
But there still some questions that circle in my head
What did I do wrong
What could I have done better
Was it worth it
And you answer all those questions when you said
'I put in my all and you act like you dont even care'
But I was never aware that you was feeling despair
I could have done better and I could have put in my all but I didnt know it all could end with one call
It wasnt worth it cause I didnt commit and all I did was quit but I might have to admit, it was legit
I wish you would just forgive and forget
And after all the wait I messed up and now its too late

jasmine dugas

To Late

Crying out quietly with no one to hear your cries
Find someone amazing and in four days all your trust and hope dies
Runs away from everyone who has entered your life
Stop doing things right now and think twice
Heart starts to race when that person says bye
First thing in my mind is why
But at least I tried
Smiles when that person calls
Stab in my heart slowly my body falls Learned to never trust anyone
Its to late
The enemy has won

jasmine dugas

Trapped

Trapped in the past, closed in reality
Searching the world but don't know what path I will be taking I'm jumping from memory to memory, the present is far from being near me
I can see them, but I can't hear
I see water
I see tears
I see a lot of pain, I can feel it but not on the outside
I can feel it on the inside
It hurts, it burn but it's time for me to turn
Come back to reality
But in reality there's still tears
Destruction
My brain can't function
I close my eyes and Im back Back to see walls and I'm trapped

jasmine dugas

We Are Spartans

From the beginning, we we're brought together from state to state
Anxious as we wait
Placed in 4th platoon by faith
Wearing the color green, we struggled to learn the means
Of the army lifestyle we soon to receive
But our four drill sergeants made us believe that we have what it takes to become the next generation soldier
As we grew we become bolder, learning we would have to carry the U.S. on our shoulders
We struggled to adjust being around each other every day
But still the spartans found a way
We argued, screamed, and yelled but still the spartans never fail
We came as one, stand as fifty-four Succeed today, see tomorrow still the spartans soar

jasmine dugas

When It Hurts Most

It hurts to love you, knowing your not there
It hurts when I talk about you, knowing that you don't care
It hurts to see you sitting there knowing that you don't care because there's another girl sitting in the place where I should be there
It hurts when I write you poems, knowing that your not reading them
It hurts when I write you letters, knowing that your not believeing them
It hurts when I think about you, hurts so much it makes me cry
I hate to runaway from you but now its time to say goodbye

jasmine dugas

Why Can'T That Be Me

Why can't that be me, the daughter you come home to Loving me all the time, and saying I miss you
Why can't that be me, the daughter you call everyday
The daughter that you miss so much, that she takes your breath away
Why can't that be me, the daughter that makes you cry
The one that touches your soul, everytime she says goodbye
Why can't that be us, daughter to father
Without you in my life, everyday it gets harder

jasmine dugas

Why Should I Cry

Why should I cry knowing my grandmother and mother will never come back
Why should I cry knowing I will never get my past back
Maybe I should cry to release the pain
But If I cry or dont cry I'll still feel the same
Or maybe I can be strong and keep it hidden beneath
Is it the world or maybe its me
Why should I cry knowing the good times will never return
It seems like all the memories from the past have burned
Maybe I can cry in a place that no one will know
And I will wipe away my tears so nothing will show
Why should I cry knowing my grandmother and mother will never come back
But not crying and keeping the pain still wont bring them back

You

When the first time I saw you
My hearted beated slow
Love or hate you I've never let go
Days pass by and I've never seen you
My heart is getting bigger and I don't know what to do
You might live across the street but I'll never be able to sleep
Without you in my life, I'll always feel weak
I can whisper, I can walk, and sometimes I can talk
You'll always be there running through my thoughts

Your My Love

On the other side of the world, where the sun sets
If you go there, I would go there too
Not to follow you, but to say I love you and that I desire you
If you go to Canada, I would go miles just to love you, be with you cause I need
you
Loving you is not something I had to do but I chose to do, cry for you, die for you, ride for you, I hate that I ever lied to you Stick a dagger in my heart and I'll bleed for you, change for you, I'm here to explain to you that I love you
I write to you, I draw for you, I'll lose my mind for you
I'll go out and search for a purple rose for you but my day is never blue with you
My heart can be stabbed, burned, or screwed
But by the end of the day, I'll still love you
