Dreams..

Dreams all night long
Dreams with her standing next to me
Dreams all night long
Dreams telling me to tell her how I feel
Dreams telling me to ask her to stay here with me
Dreams telling me that if I truly love her I would not let her get away Dreams showing me a future that I only dream of.
Dreams saying I'm a fool to let her get away
Dreams all night long....

☑ Come To Understand

Iv comes to understand that life is a hard journey

Iv come to understand myself beater

Iv come to understand my friends beater with open eyes

Iv come to understand what love means

Iv come to understand the saying "if you love someone don't let them get away"

Iv come to understand a lot of things

Roses For Us

A red Rose stands for the love we shared
A blue Rose for the burses you gave me
A Yellow Rose for all the days we shared out in the sun
A pink Rose for all love we shared
And A black Rose for all the time we will never share..

Joe Johnson

Why Are..

Why are people so hurtful to those that love them?

Why do men hit woman?

Why do parents abuse their children?

Why are there so many people that just don't care about what they do to others?

Why is it that the president just sits there in the white house and does nothing for those that have nothing and live on the streets? ? ?

Why is it that no one care about that man/woman living like HL on the streets?

Why are people so cruel? ? ? ? ? ? ?

Before

Before this year I was lost
Before this feeling I was sad
Before you I was sacred

But know im free

Joe Johnson

~~Yes~~ I'M..

Yes I'm young but I act like I'm older

Yes I'm young but if you got to know me you would say I love like I'm old

Yes I'm young but if you talked to me you would like me

Yes I'm young but you just need to get to know me.

Yes I young but I'm getting wiser each and every day.

Yes I young but that's my greatest gift.

Joe Johnson

Every Day

Everyday I think about what I did
Everyday I think about what I cant forgive
Everyday I think what if I still had her with me?
Everyday I think why do I still after all this time cant forget he?
Everyday I cant belive I still love her
Everyday I still think of her
Everyday I still love her
Everyday I still dream of her
Everyday..

☐ Wonder About

I wonder about my future with this land

I wonder what this land would be like if the government stopped fighting with each other and tried to help this land grow.

I wonder the meaning of the word love

I wonder what friendship means to some people

I wonder about the fallen

I wonder about the future of this land

Joe Johnson

☐Wonder..

I wonder about my future with this land

I wonder what this land would be like if the government stopped fighting with each other and tried to help this land grow.

I wonder the meaning of the word love

I wonder what friendship means to some people

I wonder about the fallen

I wonder about the future of this land

Joe Johnson

Life.

Life is a great gift given to us by the woman that will love us forever

Life is very confusing

Life is what we make it

Life is something that is given but must be returned.

Joe Johnson

Love Is Who I Am

Love is what im made of
Love is who I am
Love is in me as it is in you
Love is my life
Love is the beginning
Love is the end
Love is who I am

Never Knowing

I turn the corner and to my surprise I find myself looking at me and it said you need to turn your life around

So just when I think im safe I find a robber stelling from an old woman. This world has changed so much since the good old days when you could walk down Main Street without the thought of death cling to you

I turn the corner and to my surprise I find myself looking at me and it said you need to turn your life around

Never knowing and never caring but always looking for the good in this cold old world

Never knowing what mite have been because that was then

Never knowing what to say to thoues that hurt others just for fun

I turn the corner and to my surprise I find myself looking at me and it said you need to turn your life around

A world so old and so cold can changes a person for the best and for the worst

A world so nice and cold need more love to warm up every ones heart.

What ever happened to LAND OF THE FREE? It has been a long time since this land has been free.

Never knowing what new law will bind me to my place

Never knowing what's going to happen next...

Some May Ask If There Is A God? □

Some may ask if there is a god?

For me there is no doubt

For I said his sacred name

And he sent his angels down to show me the truth

Some may ask if there is a god?

For me there is no doubt

For I believe in my Father

Some may ask if there is a god?

For me there is no doubt

For I have faith

Joe Johnson

The Love We...

The love we share will help everyone we meet

The love we give to others will come back to us one day

The love we have should go free

The love that is given to us should be protected with our whole being for love is the greatest gift one can receive the Love...

Joe Johnson

20 Seconds Of Courage

20 seconds of courage is all we need to change the world. Maybe if we all had a little more courage the world would be a happier place.

20 seconds of courage is all we need to tell that someone what you feel for them

20 seconds of courage is all we need to have a happy life

20 seconds of courage is all we need to change the world.

A Knife

A Knife in my heart would not stop me from loving you
A Knife in the chest would not stop these feelings of you
A knife in the skull would not stop these thoughts of you
A knife any were would not get me to forget you

A Quote By Myself

One day when all seems lost just look in your heart and you will find that hidden
In us all.

Back To The Past

Back to the past
Back to the bloody beatings
Back to the painfull rapes
Back to heart brakes
Back to the past

I find myself going to the past when I close my eyes...

Becoming A Man 2

Becoming a man is when you realized that life is more than just ones self

Becoming a man is when you realized that that the greatest part of of parenthood is when

You see that cute baby that you made and know you will do anything to protect them

Becoming a man is when you have a good heart

Becoming a man is when you would do any thing to protect the children

Becoming a man is when you would never hit a child

Becoming a man is not just part of life its part of our growth

Becoming a man is when you see some one getting beat you go and try and help

Becoming a man is just the way we are made...

Joe Johnson

Better

Better with each stride
Better with each love
Better with day
Better with each night
Better with each tear
Better with each smile
Better when I see her
Better with every kiss
Better with each stride.

Boom Boom Boom...

Hey you look into the room and u say heck no, I sit there holding my dads dead body

Hey u don't you look into this room and judge me like your better then me

Hey you don't say no when you don't know me

Hey don't try it.

NO! Put that gun down.... BOOM BOOM BOOM

Silence all around... I look down to see blood all around IS it mine? Dads?

THUMP...a bright light I see dad stands there saying its ok son.... goodbye

No not like this I wont let it happen...I get up stubbles then walks up to him

A dark hole becomes my vision... I reach out to help.... thump!

All I feel is cold... sounds coming from somewhere a distant boom

A scream? I don't know...so cold...so so cold.... good by my friends

Joe Johnson

Can We

Can we love without have sex?

Can we be friends without sleeping together?

Can we be brothers without killing one another?

Can we be married without out getting a divorce?

Come Hold My Hand

Come hold my hand.
Come walk with me in the sweet of night.
Come and share my life.
Come so I can love you.
Come so I can see you
Come hold my hand.
Come here so I can kiss your lips.
Come here so I can hold you.
Come here so I can take your hand
Come hold my hand tonight...

Crying, Prying, Smiling, And Dancing

Crying for the past

Prying the next time I see her I can say what I feel

Smiling because I think of her

Dancing because I love her

Singing because I just can't stop thinking of her.

Joe Johnson

Dark Dreams

Even to this day dark dreams haunt me. Once said by a friend that it was all inside my head. Dark places Dark beings and dead angels are what these dreams consist of.

Screams and deathly cries all because of the Dark king daimao inside. I watch as the innocent get killed and I sand there in a fiery ring. Dark Dreams are what my night consist of..

Death...

The sweet kiss of death eludes me
For thy kiss is of the forsaken
The sweet touch of the void calls
To me in my wakening hours
My own emptiness and guilt walks by me
As my shadow and my friend
The failures call me.. to thy sweet kiss of death
And my friends even now
I slip off the league
Too the forever cold
Vbid.....

Joe Johnson

Do You Have The Time?

Do you have time for me?

Do you have time for me to sit and talk to you o father?

Do you have the time for my faith?

Do you have the time for me to sit and talk about your glory?

Fear

Fear is a very real and scary emotion that makes us do dumb thing Fear is a good thing for if you were never scared then you would not learn the

I Gave You Every Thing I Had

I gave you every thing I had
And you tossed me in the trash
I gave my love
And you gave me the cold shoulder
I gave you my heart
And you gave me your hatred what did I do to deserve that?
I gave you my life
And you gave me nothing can't you give me anything?
In the middle of the night I wake up screaming your name
Only to find out that you will never be there again so I just turn over and fall back to sleep and dream of you all over again.
I gave you every thing I had
And you tossed me in the trash
I gave my love
And you gave me the cold shoulder
I gave you my heart
And you gave me your hatred what did I do to deserve that?
I gave you my life
And you gave me nothing can't you give me anything?
When I talk to you look away to and it hurt like crap
When I look at you, you say what r you stating at me for?
All I can say is I'm stating at the only angel in the room.
All I can say is girl I love you.
.... Then I wake Up.

If

If I love I get hurt

If I care I get shattered

If I feel like I belong I get pushed out side

If I say bye I die inside

If I hear someone's voice I smile on the inside

If I said what I felt I would go and hide (from the pain inside)

Joe Johnson

I'M Sitting Here

It's Raining, Snowing And Pouring

Its raining out were I stand thinking of the times we would go behind the blue grates and kiss like the young lovers we were It's snowing and I find myself sitting on a bench thinking of first love Its pouring out and now I'm driving down the road with only the memories of our young love
It's raining its snowing and now its pouring

Joe Johnson

Let It Hurt

Let the pain of life hurt
For that pain lets you know you're still only human Let the pain of love hurt
For that pain lets you know you can still love
Let the pain of death hurt
For that pain lets you know they are alive in your heart
Let the pain of learning hurt
For that pain lets you know you can still learn
So my friends LET THE PAIN HURT

Love In The Morning, Love At Night

Love in the mourning love is at night
Love is in me
Love is in you if you look
Love is always near
Love is always faraway if you don't want to see it
Love in the mornings and love at nights
LOVE.

Love Is

love is old but is is everywhere.
love is what makes the world spin

Joe Johnson

Love Mean

Love mean that you care for them

Love means that you will be there for them

Love means that you like siting down with them

Love means that you like spending time with her/him

Love means that you would take care of her/him when they are sick

Love means that you can tell them anything

Love means that you would run a marathon with them in the rain/snow/heat/cold/

Love means that when see her/him you smile

Love means that when you see her/him you become content.

Love means everything...

Joe Johnson

Love Tears Frowns

Love is when you would do anything for her
Tears come when they love someone that will hurt her
Frowns happen when you realize there is nothing we can do for them but pray

Joe Johnson

Love/Hate

love could save a life
the truth could save a bond a lie could mess a person up.
A fight could ruin a friendship a silent embrace could mean more than the whole world to someone in need.
hate could end a life
love could save a life
keep that in mind my friends

Joe Johnson

Maybe We..

Maybe we had a chance all that time ago
Maybe we had a life ahead of us all that time ago
Maybe we will still be friends in the upcoming time
Maybe our bond is deeper then we thought Maybe...

Once Long Ago

Once long ago I fell in love with someone who was the sweetest girl in the world

Once long ago I made love with a beautiful woman

Once long ago I cried for a lost love

Once long ago I prayed for the safety of my lost love

Once long ago I smiled because life was the best thing I could think of... no she was

Once long ago I cried for the pain that she was suffering

Once not too long ago I found myself thinking of the wonderful I made love with

Once not too long ago I found myself smiling because I remember good times

Once not too long ago I found myself crying because I remember the bad times and the hurtful times

Once not too long ago I found myself caring once again

Some Times I Feel Like 2

Some times I feel like I am a person that will change the world
Sometimes I feel like I can run a million miles
Sometimes I feel like an eagle flying in the sky free and strong
Sometimes I feel like God like I can do any thing Sometimes I feel like a small child because when I see something Beautiful I cant stop looking at it J
Sometimes I feel like an old man with all these old stories Sometimes I feel like a parent with all this care and love for the children and young ones (even thou I am young myself)
Sometimes I feel like a jerk for treating my good friends badly
Sometimes I feel like a lost sole in a lost kingdom
Sometimes I feel like a lot of things

Joe Johnson

Some Times I Feel Like...

Some times I feel like a ship gently sailing on the ocean

Some times I feel like I'm an owl hooting in the dark

Some times I feel like I'm alone in this Big Cold world

Some times I feel like no one cares

Some times I feel like I walk alone on a dark trail leading nowhere

Sometimes I feel like a ship droning in the Deep Dark Ocean...

Someone Special

We all have that someone special. But what are we going to do with that special person?

Are we going to love them?

Are we going to abuse them?

Are we going to forget them?

Are we going to use them?

I can't say what you are going to do with that special someone but when I find my special someone

I will love them I will be there for them I will never abuse them and I will never forget them.

Joe Johnson

Sometimes I Wonder.

Sometimes I wonder if we would have made it if I was like the other guys you date

Sometimes I wonder if I put more into keeping you by my side I would still have to hold and to love

Sometimes I wonder if I did not tell you that I loved you I would still be smiling all the time..

Sometimes I wonder if I did things differently I would still be holding you.

SOMETIMES I WONDER.

Joe Johnson

Sometimes I Wonder...

Sometimes I wonder if im dreaming because when I see her it as if I'm in a tunnel because I only see her standing there in front of me

Joe Johnson

Sometimes We Hurt...

Sometimes we hurt the ones that loves us without know what we are doing.
Sometimes we hurt the people closest to us because we are angry at something that has nothing to do with them
Sometimes we hurt ourselves when we are confused because someone or even we our own selves are in a dark place
Sometimes we hurt the person that means the world and so much more to us when we are afraid of losing that special person.
Sometimes we hurt everyone that is close to us and far away because that just how life is But we don't have to hurt them on purpose we can always do our best to help everyone we hurt... even the ones we don't know.

Joe Johnson

Sometimes When I Think

Some times when I think back to the old times I cry
Some times when I think of you I smile
Sometimes when I think of all the times you made me smile when all was dark I deserve better

Tears

Why do I hide because of fear?

Why do I run from pain when I never before did?

Why did everyone abandon me?

Why did my FATHER andan me and put me with her?

Why do tears roll down when I look at her?

Why do I feel like dieing?

But most of all, Is this what I'm going to be like when I grow up? ?

Joe Johnson

Tell Me Where Was God? ...

Tell me where was God when I was Raped?
Tell me where was god when I got beat?
Tell me where was god when my brother died?
Tell me where was god when I cried my self to sleep?
Tell me where was god when my heart got shattered?
Tell me where was god when I prayed for help?
Tell me where is god now? ..

The Power Of Love...

I used to think that if I fall in love with someone I could just shut off my feelings at any time. This past year I have learned that if in fact I do fall in love it's not as easy to shut off these feelings that I thought. The power of love is in fact the strongest power on this earth. The thing is, I have fell in love once more and the power of it is great. I'm smiling and laughing all the time now. I no longer play with peoples heart.

This New World

This new world is so old its not new
This new world is not free and safe
This new world is so cold
This new world was for all of us to become free
Not any more
This new world is heading to HI you see
Because it became sad and hurtful.
This new world is no more.

Thy

THY

Thy voice is of a whisper on the wind

Thy touch is of the sweetest feeling

Thy eyes are of the purest blue.

Thy heart.. Well there are none to compare

Thy laugh is like hearing a thousand angels talk and sing for its heavenly

Thy Kiss is more addicting then the night sky

Joe Johnson

Thy Kiss, Smile, Heart, Love.

Thy kiss is of the heavens sweet and perfect just as you are Thy smile is of the angels and o my sweet your smile brightens up my day
Thy heart is made up of the bright stars in the moon lit sky
Thy love has no comparison
And thy sweet hair is the color of the richest gold

Joe Johnson

We All...

We all fall down

We all fall in love

We all fall into the wrong crowd at one time

We all fall and then get back up

We all fall then our good friends are there to help us up

We Are The Childern Of The Light

We are the children of light
We don't belong to the night
Sometimes we fight
For insight

We are the children of light
We don't belong to the night
The Lords feast we Celebrate
At that sacred date

We are the children of the light
We don't belong to the night
Sometimes we fight
For the right to pry

Joe Johnson

We Lay Next To Each Other

We lay next to each other in the nice green grass this nice sunny day with birds singeing their nice song.

We kiss passionately for what seem like a lifetime.

We talk about our life and what we want to be in ten years.

Then in the next moment I'm standing in a church in a Tux waiting for my love to walk down the aisle.

Then we kiss to show our love for each other

... then I wake up.

Joe Johnson

What If This Land

What if this land became free once more?

What if the rich would help the poor and homeless?

What if the word LOVE was not just thrown around for the heck of it?

What if the government spent more time helping in this land?

What if there were no murders?

What if the wars stopped coming for stupid reasons?

What if there was no more world hunger?

I think if this happened we would be a better country and a world as a whole

Joe Johnson

What If?

What if the world was a better place?

What if the world was a kinder place?

What if mothers stopped hitting their children?

What if fathers stopped leaving their little girls and little boys?

What if people stopped cheating on the ones that love them?

What if people stopped picking on gays?

What if people stop being jerks to those that are different?

What if love wasn't so hard to find?

WHAT IF? ? ? ?

Joe Johnson

What You Dont Know

What you don't know is I'm a father and I'm damn proud of my kids

What you don't know is I'm not a child

What you don't know is that I would give my clothes right off my back for someone in need

What you don't know is that I have a side of me that I won't ever let you see

What you don't know is that I sometimes I sing and dance in the rain

What you don't know is that I'm a poet

What you don't know is I would give my life to save child in need

What you don't know is if I had one wish and it would come true I would use it to help kids have a better life

When I Look At You

When I look at you I find myself drifting thour time
When I look at you I find myself in love puppy love or not its love
When I look at you I find myself remembering the good times
When I look at you I find myself smiling
When I look at you I find myself dancing
When I look at you I find myself crying (for the good times and for the lost times)
When I look at you I find myself prying
When I look at you I find myself thanking god for this new chance
WHEN I LOOK AT YOU I FIND MYSELF SAYING "I LOVE YOU"

Joe Johnson

When You Say

When you say I cant do something I prove that I can
When you say I can never make it in life call me in six years
When you say no one will love you I just smile and say that's not true
When you say thing I turn my back to you.

Joe Johnson

When You Think...

When you think you lost every thing look in yourself and know you have lost nothing for it all is in your heart.

When you think you have lost your self take the time to smell the roses and find your self once more

When you think all is lost just take the time to look in your heart to find the answers

When you think life is not worth living look at that cute little baby or that elderly couple full of love walking down the street hand in hand

When you think you lost every thing look in yourself and know you have lost nothing for it all is in your heart.

Joe Johnson

When Your Gone

When your gone I go crazy
When your gone parts of me r missing
When your gone I cant breath
When your gone I sit down and cry
When your gone

Joe Johnson

Where Are You?

Where are you?

Are you in the star's I watch?

Are you in the sky when I look up?

Are you in the Heaven that I believe in?

Are you in the air I breathe?

Are you within me?

Are you in my life?

Or are you in every thing in this great world that you made for your children?

Joe Johnson

Who Knows?

WHO KNOWS WHAT WE WILL be in ten years

Who knows what we will be like in ten years

Who knows who we will be with in ten years

I know one thing thou. I will be with my girl in ten years. At least I hope.

Joe Johnson

Why

Why dus the past come back in blows that take my breath away
Why dus the pain of losing her seem to tear me apart
Why dus my heart bleeds for her with every tear
Why are my feeling back
Why is the pain back
Why can't I shut it all off
Why am I so weak
Why am I so lost
Why can't I just forget
I know why it's because I can love again and I would not change it for the world

I love you jasmine Elisabeth

Joe Johnson

Why Has This World Come To A End?

WHY HAS THIS WORLD COME TO THE END

Why did the time we spent together seem like it was life times ago? ? ?

Why did I have to die inside and wach you walk away? ?

Why did I have to cry? ?

But most of all why did these feeling come back after all this time? ?

Joe Johnson

Why It That Whenever? ?

Why is it that whenever I'm happy life turns gray?

Why is it that whenever I'm in a relationship they cheat?

Why is it that whenever I'm glad that I have another chance that chance turns out to be a game for them?

Why is it that I can only get people that cheat and pretend to care? ?

...

Joe Johnson

Why?

Why is it that people lie to every one?

Why do we all have to hide behind a mask?

Why is it that this world is so cold at times?

Why is it some of us are so scared of being in love that we run the other way?

Why is it that when we fall in love we just don't know how to say, "I love you" to that seashell someone? ? ?

Joe Johnson

Why?

Why be fearless?

For fear is what makes us human

Why be uptight?

For life's too short to be uptight my friends

So be yourself and nothing less and nothing more

Joe Johnson

You Know Life Is

You know life is so confusing sometimes

You know life is like a person it has a good side and a bad side

You know life is like a hurricane tearing through a town with no regard for human life

You know life is like a teardropp it has its sad times

You know life is like a smile because it has its good days

You know life is like a ship in the sea it sails on an open wave

You know life is like every thing because it is every thing...
