I live with my husband in manassas, virginia in a wonderful end unit townhouse. I have been married next year it will be 30 years. How wonderful and blessed I am. I am so happy to write and love to garden too but writing is my passion.

The drug of heroine and cocaine took him so many years ago I think of him often and know that the Lord has him in heaven and he is good forever more

Gifts From Heaven

Loving animals

My dear pet gunston be it so he passed

He went where St Francis takes all of the cares

Even though we miss them, they are always in our hearts

Bless all the animals that have gone before as they as I see it are human most of all

God

Let the light of God shine upon you today, remember to lift up your heart each and every day in every way.

The light of God shines bright even in the littlest sight.

The light of God is giving us passion, love, uniqueness and grace.

The light of God is praying, each and every day to let the Light of God go to our hearts and share for all the world to see.

The light of God is singing, no matter what, love God with the utmost!

Going Home

We all know that our time will come the Lord will call us and we will be going home

Remember to love the Lord with all your heart for when He calls you Home you want to be sure

You have tried your best and realize that there is an afterlife

You need to know that the Lord loves us so we need to prepare for that going home

We have a home sure here on earth but our Heavenly Home is what we want utmost

Remember to say I love you Jesus and remember to pray for going home is what we want to do one day!

Heavens Breath

There is a time when I am outside it seems the air is so still, I sit in the chair by the birdfeeder trying to be calm when I wonder if my father can hear me, when I am in such a mess I miss him and loved him and am waiting for heavens breath.
I am quiet for a moment and think about dad, are you happy are you safe where you are I get this answer every time I begin to think and sit down I feel the gentle breeze comes in where the stillness used to be I know my prayers are answered each and every day. The gentle breeze from heaven is the heavens breath for me to know dad is safe and happy with the heavens breath how could you not be?

Husbands Love

I can't promise you that dark clouds will never hover over our lives or that the future will bring us many rainbows.

I can't promise you that tomorrow will be perfect or that life will be easy. I can promise you my everlasting devotion, my loyalty, my respect, and my unconditional love for a lifetime.

I can promise that I'll always be there for you, to listen and to hold your hand, and I'll always do my best to make you happy, and make you feel loved. I can promise that I'll see you through any crisis, and hope with you, dream with you, build with you, and always cheer you on and encourage you.

I can promise that I'll share my dreams my world, and every aspect of my life with you. I'll willingly be your friend, your family, your everything. And I believe that's what love is truly all about.

Loss For Words

I get a litte feeling sometimes when I am asleep that someone is there watching and trying to communicate. It is hard to know from who but I am blessed for I think I do know who.

I have lost a true person, my brother for sure, I feel he is with me in all I go through. I praise God for what He has done And so thankful that God has made his miracle appear to me!

Loss Of My Dad

I loved my dad with all my heart, He died from cancer what a horrible start

He starved himself to make sure that no one would have to worry for sure

He died from lung cancer on october 28th buried on All Saints Day what a tribute for sure.

I loved my dad with all my heart. He didnt have to worry about anything for sure.

I did what I could he was failing so fast he did whatever he was asked.

He tried to do rehab the hospital cruel, knowing that my dad had this and would not break a rule.

For insurance would not pay without him doing this, I remember he did and struggled for sure.

I miss my dad and did all I could, I wish I could have changed his suffering for sure.

I know he is in heaven with mom and my brother. I am the last bertman in our family today. One day may I meet my dear dad, I love you and miss you every day that I have left. Be at peace dad and know I love you so much I miss you every day and will for the rest of my life

Love Always Family

The times are tough enough now without adding added stress

Love family and most of all recall all of the best times now and in the future Love conquers all and know that along with the Lord God all is possible

Reconcile when you can as time is fast fleeting

Love and strive to be the best as family is always so proud of your accomplishments

I have been married for these many years

The love of my life is ever near and oh so dear to me times that he had made sure that we were doing something fun

If I go to the heaven gates one day I hope that the love of my life will follow me into eternit

My Forever Love

I have been married 31 years
The fun and laughter we have shared Cant be measured in whatever form
The love of my life I can truly say He is a wonderful husband and of course my best friend
We have gone through many good times and bad
But the love we have has held up since we first met I have been asked many a time, how do you do it And have stayed together for so long?
I always answer with this special saying The love you share each and every day, be kind and compassionate Even when the times are so hard, remember to laugh and have a good time
For you never know when the Lord will call you home.
Say I love you each and every day, dont be mad when you sleep for the night, say a prayer like I do every day I am thankful Lord for what you have given me to share Love comes from your heart show it for sure.

The love of my life is here for I say forever and ever I will always love you

My Husband My Love

I have been married for almost 30 years
I could not have asked for any better life

He is my greatest supporter and my greatest love

He gives of himself always thinking about what he can do for me

If I were to die tomorrow I would not have a regret from this life. he is my all my everything he had made my life great and peaceful

One day for us to be together in eternity too

Neverending Love

Neverending Love

My love has grown over the years, though we have shed many tears it is the love we have in our heart that gives us a wonderful start I would not trade any of the years we have spent so happily. love will last through eternity.

Proclaim God's Love

Proclaim God's love in all we do, for He sees us through!

Proclaim God's love in our life we share, for He really cares Proclaim God's works in every thing for He writes in His book of memories

Proclaim God's love for all we do, as He sees us through.
