.....I Want To Be There, It Is Your Birthday...

With everything I do I want to put a smile on your face Want to whisper thousands of sweet words in your ear
It is your birthday baby wanna be there to light up your day Actually I want to light up your whole life I wanna be there with you, wanna give you my all I am sure one day I will be there celebrating your birthday my sweet love
One day I will be there then I will stay till the end I want you to have a million nights of these sweet dreams
I want you to have billions of the sweetest reality
I am asking Allah for keeping you safe for me for eternity
And I thank him for bringing a sweet angel like you to me...

Happy Birthday the love of my life...

.....Just Some Words From My Heart.....

I love the way you lying here right beside me, sleeping in peace, i cannot say what you are dreaming but i guess it should be sweet...i love things that you are dreaming of and the way you retell them in the early morning light....

i love one thousand things about you just in early morning, but what makes me sad is your beautiful brown eyes that i cannot see myself when you are dreaming away, it is your sweet words that I miss for telling me that you want me with all your heart...but now I am already sure that it is me that you want to give love, it is me that you wanna spend the rest of your life with, it is me that you want to tell yes my brown eyed girl I am in love with you so deeply and I never let you go.....

Now for all the things that you are giving me, your care that you are showing me, your sweet words that you are uttering to me, your gentle touch that makes my life complete, for your sweetness, for your sense of humor, for your being able to understand, for your being the sweetest one in my life, one day for your being my sweet husband telling me I love you my darling wife..... I am so thankful for these things... for all the other ways I will tell you when I am with you making love under the stars, when we will be there together for the rest of our lives....for things that I have mentioned for things I have kept in my heart, I promise to be the one to walk with you the path of life, and make you sure that you will wake every morning by hearing three little words from me.....I Love you.....

.....I Have Been Thinking About....

I have been thinking about you and me for long
Of our date, of our wedding, and of our beautiful roses Jasmine, Shadan and another name from my heart
They will be grown by your light my loving sun
And I will be a soft rain to keep them alive With time passing we will know that we have been living in earthy paradise Through out our lives I will give you all the love I have But sometimes still blaming myself that I have not given you enough love Because you deserve a garden of roses, all kind of love, a sweet companion of someone you love...

.....It Is Worth It....

honey why missing you should be that much difficult? i have never found the happiness that you made me feel, and now that you are not here it just makes me sad, but i know one day this will be finished inshallah, you, me and our roses will always be together, never to be departed again...you know honey i just cannot stop thinking about that day in October...it just makes me alive and i feel a nice feeling in my stomach and this thinking will lead me to think about that day more and more and asking for more love, i just don't wanna see you sweetie, this is not enough for me, i want to be together me and you...i know maybe you found this a little strange, coz i have never told you directly, maybe because of my shyness, maybe i have never had the chance for telling you how sweet, important and a good friend you are to me, and over all the love of my life you are to me, and you mean the world to me...maybe i have not got a chance for saying yes my sweet dude, it is you that i am dreaming of every night, your thoughts are with me everywhere, every time, now they have a home to stay in...i cannot wait to see our roses...you know me never patient enough for waiting for these kind of sweet things...but i try to patient, because we both know it is worth waiting for, it is worth fighting for, this life that we both want so badly one day will be exist...me and you can be the happiest...

this is for you the love of my life from the love of your life...

.....An Earthy Paradise....

If I had one wish
It would be me, losing myself in your beautiful eyes
If I had one dream
It would be me falling asleep in your arms Never want to be awoken till I hear the laughter of you and our daughters playing around I am waiting for a last longing day Never be departed again, I will not have to call you to let you know that I am in love with you But showing you how much I love you and how your love grows each day with you by my side
Come here, take me with you, and let me see the true beauty of life in your eyes
Let me see the true meaning of paradise
Let us see our daughters blooming like daisy and narcissus flowers
This would be an earthy paradise

Dedicated to the love of my life....

.....Never Seen Myself In White...

Here is me alone sitting under the stars looking at the sky and the most beautiful feature my very sweet moon in the darkest night

thinking if my sweet love is thinking of me by now imagining what if we were here together by this time what if i get lost in your eyes even if it was for the last time? i think destiny will take away one of us from the other i am just so very sad, even have a lot of fears that i cannot keep going without you feeling sorry that i have never felt the warmth of your body lying next to me i am feeling sorry for myself for i have never seen myself in white standing in front of you feeling sorry for not giving you a promise to be there for you till i give up my last breath.....

.....Will You Wait There For Me Too? .....

If one day I belong to you Then it is the thing that I wanted Being yours, no one else but yours
But for now I wanna make you sure that I am in love with you I will keep that love in my heart Coz I know our dreams will come true Someday, somehow, somewhere
But for now let us keep that love alive Till I see you out there in paradise
No one there to bother us, no one to object us
No one to refuse our happiness Just me, you and ourselves
I am waiting there for you
Will you wait there for me too?

.....You Know That I Am Shy....

I count your foot steps till you get home Waiting for your presence here with me

I miss you from the moment you walk out the door Till once again you are coming back to me

If i could i would keep you all to myself I would not let sadness visit your life, tears be in your eyes, and depression comes near your heart But i am still optimistic that one day i will be able

I have loved you unconditionally, I have seen you in my dreams,
I have shared with you my life so far away,
But i am so sorry i could never let you know about things that i am feeling deep inside
You know that i am shy, but you already know what has been hidden by just looking into my eyes

So when you see me sitting out there alone, staring at the sky, and looking quiet Don't be afraid i am not sad, and i am not depressed I am just thinking of you, imagining myself with you...

.....I Sleep With The Thoughts Of You...

I sleep with the thoughts of you Imagining myself in the arms of you

They are warm, tender and caring,
I can imagine your breathe like a sweet lullaby coming to me

Falling a sleep with these thoughts Till you will be in my dreams Look like it is reality finding my self in the arms of my love that i always wanted to be

Don't wanna wake up from this dream
But there is always some one for waking me Telling me, 'wake up sweetheart, you are looking divine this morning, Just looking in your brown eyes makes my day to be alright '

.....Listening To 'My Endless Love'....

listening to 'my endless love' song wishing he was not so far honey, I want you to be here with me it is time for us to be happy for ever to see each other and find paradise in each other' eyes

.....Our Memory Is Enough.....

Honey I am gonna miss you Like the star missing its own sky
But I know I will never forget you For all the sunshine and brightness you brought to my life
If I will be far, so far away from you Our memory is enough to keep me alive

....Can Life Be More Wonderful Than....?

I had no idea where I had been I did not even have any idea where I was going Till the day I met you

I met you then I realized what life is all about Now that I have you I am grateful for everything provided by you For the love you are always showing me

Can life be more beautiful than being with you?
is there is any better way than waking up by hearing your soft voice whispering
"I love you" by the very first morning light?
Or can life be more wonderful by lying in your arm knowing that I am safe forever and ever....

this is for you sweetie....

...God Be With You And Protecting You...

Just thinking how much I can take From this pain, from this life
I am just wondering how it can be without you To walk alone in the path of life

Here are you with the tears in your eyes, Here is me smiling pretending everything is fine
But burning deep inside

It is hard to leave you But I have to
If I could do anything to make things right I would do But since I am not able I am praying and asking God to be with you and protecting you

...Just Walk The Path Of Life With Me....

Every morning just wanna wake up by your voice whispering sweet love words to me

Then wanna open my eyes by your gentle hands, brushing my hair and face opening my eyes, to see the magic of these bright brown eyes

But what I want is completely different from reality I know and you know that too this is something far from happening

I asked you to love me and never leave me in return you said just walk the path of life with me

But what we are living in now is not life
We are living in dreams
Some day we will be awoken
Then we have to leave these dreams

..No Matter What Fate May Bring.....

Let me be the one who will be there for you Let me be the one who you see the world through her eyes Let me wake you every morning and telling you I am glad that you are in my life

If I said I don't want you If I asked you to walk away from me If I thought I don't need your love anymore
I am not that person anymore
I have changed to someone who desperately needs your love Needs you to be there So let us be the one for each other
No matter what fate may bring

i know i don't deserve it...

I hate myself when someone wanna run away from me I think I have done something wrong for making them to do so But every time they do that I know they will be back

But I wanna know
Are they interested in hurting me?
When they know I will be sad by their doing Are they really want me to be out of their sight?
If they are, but why they always come back

I don't deserve this
I know, I don't deserve it
But I just wanna know why they are always doing it Oh God, please, help me to understand this

.let The Tears Coming Down From Our Eyes...

let the tears coming down from our eyes

I wish I could once in my life

Saw your sweet smile

I wish I could be your sweetheart

For the rest of your life

As it is clear now

You cannot be mine as I cannot be yours

But I know for sure you will be in my heart and i will be in yours

I see you deep inside me

I can feel you right here beside me

I can smell all these memories that have been left

But I never can look in to your eyes telling you my love for you was just a lie

Coz it was not

I loved you so much

My love for you was so true

But I had to move on with my life three days ago you came to me telling me "just cannot forget about you"

Then what should I do?

I told you nothing

But I kept everything in my heart

While the tears was coming down from my eyes

Sorry if I could not tell you what I want

Sorry If I did not tell you I love you as I did

Sorry if my silence caused you pain

Sorry if I showed that I had no care for you

Coz I have care more than you ever thought

But that is the way it is Saying goodbye

Feel the pain deep inside

And let the tears coming down from our eyes

A Far Away Star...

You are the moon in the sky you can give me light and make me bright but i have nothing to offer you would that be ok with you?

After All These.....

After all these time
I am standing here right by your side After all these pain you caused me After all these tears you made me shed After all these years you abandoned me After all these lies you have just told me After all these jealousy you made me feel, when you did not care about me but all you did was being in anther's arm

After all these you made me through I know you have so much more to do But i still love you as my own eyes As my lonely angel in the sky i remember when you used to come to my dark night make every thing just look bright and now i admit that i am honestly and blindly in love with you i adore you baby till the end of time and i wanna stay by your side till the day that i die i know you don't want anything from me but i know someday you will realize that i am the one that you need

But You Did Not Let Me

I tried to see a good dream
But you did not let me

I tried to live in peace
But you did not let me

You just forced me to live in my imagination And i didn't want to

Come Back

I wanna write but what can I do when all I can write is about you I am tired of writing without seeing you I am tired of myself, of every thing in this life Life is beautiful when you are in it When you are not here by my side can life give a meaning?
Can life has any explanation?
I wish you were here by my side to let me know what is going on in this life
I know you are the one who can understand me
The one can please me Now my dear come back Come back to the one who you are its shelter Come back for me
Coz I love you and I can not stand another minute living without you I love you and this is all I have to say to you

Do I Deserve It

i don't know why your love went away your kindness changed to cruelty your laughter changed to sadness when i saw you you were always smiling on me but now you stare at me like if i have done something what i have done to deserve your cruelty, my loneliness?
do i deserve it?

For My Lovely Father...

how was i supposed to know that you walk away from me that simple.i thought i will not see you for awhile not for the rest of my life. you were in my arms before that if i knew i would hold you tight and kiss you for one last time...but i did not know, if i knew things would be more different than it is now...
i miss you daddy, you are always in my heart....

Get Over It...

I used to think that i am yours and you are mine Nothing in this world can do us apart till the end of time

But now I realize that there is nothing between me and you
I am over loving you Just step out of my life

I needed you but you were not here
I missed you but there was no trace that i could take to find you I looked for you in everywhere but you were nowhere

Now you are coming to me telling me
"I have been looking for you for so long, I will do whatever it takes to make you happy even if it makes me sad"

But honey listen to me it is over Don't cry over spilt milk When it is over it is over just get over it too

I Don'T Care

Everything you have taught me Everything you showed me Everything you tried to provide for me Everything you have proved to me Everything that you told me I still think about them between now and then I know how important they are to me My baby you are the one I wanna live the rest of my life with My dear you are my lonely sweet heart
You are my love till the end I don't care how many miles are between us I don't care about our backgrounds I don't care where we have come from All I know is I am in love with the star That I could never be able to reach it I am in love with the sea if I try to be with I will sink in it I am in love with the flower I cannot smell it till the end of time
But I don't care about these too
I just know that I could never be able to forget about you Or I don't wanna forget about you You mean the whole world to me Coz you are my everything You are all I want, all I need and all I love

I Give Our Self This Chance...

i give our self this chance...

Tomorrow is mystery
No body knows what is going to happen
But there is that strange thing in my heart Telling me that you will prove your love for me some how

I don't know why but I just feel that way

When first my eyes gazed your big brown bright eyes
I feel something in my heart
But I laughed at myself for this is not gonna be love at first sight

But now I see
I see it very clearly what is going on here I see that day after day, time after time You wanna share your love with me

I don't know why but I just feel that way

I will have to think about it tonight
To make sure is the love that you are showing me is true
Is it right for me to allow myself to fall in love with you?
After lot of difficulties i went through with the other one

I give our self this chance Hoping there will be happiness till the end of time dedicated to Shayne...

I Have No Power Upon To

U Fooled me
U Cheated on me
U let me go U made me cry
U forced me to believe your lies U tried to control me
U betrayed me
U did not love me
U never knew me U never understood me even you have never ever tried Finally, simply u left me But now all I can say is I love you because this is something I have no power upon to and I just cannot stop thinking about you because this is not something I usually do

I Still Remember

i still remember when you looked at me in the special way i can remind my self when you tried to tell me 'i love you' i understand finally you made up your mind by not telling me the truth i think you thought it would be a strange love if you told me coz if you want to love somebody it would be easy but when you really want to it would be pain, suffering and crying

Little Sunshine

I Want You

i'm not gonna make you my friend by pressure coz i don't want to but I'm gonna make you sure that i want you coz i need you not only in the time of need but in every time to make you understand that i want you to be by my side

Knowing You

i wish i were never knew you knowing you just made me to know misery and pain i never knew the pain before i know you before you came to my life my only friend was smile in day and sweet dreams at night but now it is changed i know i miss you i know my heart wants you but i don't care anymore since you decided not to care about me i loved you and i still do that is the destiny which decide not to be with you doesn't matter i can take all that pain i can live without you even it is hard

Love Poem

let me write to you a love poem then i will make you its hero i just wanna know when can i write it coz when i am with you i just wanna cry and when i am far away from you i just wanna die but maybe someday i can write it when the sun wants to shine in the night and the stars want to dance in the light

Making Love Under The Stars

I am sitting here till you will be here by my side making love with me under the stars

Thinking of our old days, when we were deeply in love but so out of touch

I can remember that time when I told you I wish our life together will come so soon

You said o my love what if I had wings to fly to you

I loved these words when I heard from you coz I was waiting for you to be here with me,

To take away my lonely nights

To dry away my waiting tears

I needed you to be there with me so desperately

To tell the world nothing can be more beautiful than my love for my wife to be

At last we are together because what was between us was true love

I was in these sweet memories when you appeared in the starlight Telling me how are you my darling wife, o where are the kids have they fallen asleep without wishing me goodnight...

For my sweet love :)

Maybe One Day I Will Be Ok

i am not ok but maybe someday i will be when i can see you as much as i want you and i can talk to you the way i can feel you but my baby remember that you are the one i love the one that makes me write the one that makes me smile the one that makes me cry and the one that makes me fly that's why i never blame you if you leave me if you hurt me i love you and be sure i will always do

People Say

People say he is your ex-lover
But i tell them he is always my lover if he is not how can see him every night in my dreams?
how can i feel him when a sweet wind comes to me?
how can i live when he is not around me?

U Can Understand

there is something in my heart i don't wanna tell it but i am sure after a little time you gonna discover it coz u understand it like nobody can do it

When You Go To Sea

when you go to sea
remember me

when you need me please call on me

it is simple to join me just listen to your heart you will feel me

When You Know

When you know i cannot take anymore living without you when you know you are the first and the last for me when you know i am waiting for you till the death when you know i don't wanna tell anybody 'i love you' when you know that entire thing why are you leaving me? when you have given your heart to me!

Little Sunshine

Why Not Anymore?

I wanna know why life is so cruel to me When I was in the happiest moment in my life U were there to make my moment brighter
When I was sad U were the only shoulder to cry on When I needed something U were always standing there for me When I used to want some one A true, honest, lovely, sweet, faithful, understandable, sharing everything And someone to talk to U were the only one that was waiting out there I used to know that someone for so long But I just wanna know why
Why not anymore?
Why you have changed?
I have been a true friend to u
I have been honestly in love with u I have been addicted to u U have been my true and my lonely friend U have changed my life to better U have touched my entire life That is why any thing I do it reminds me of u Anywhere I go I think that I should go with u And whenever something wrong, I know the only one must be there for me is u
But now all i wanna know is why not anymore?

Words Are Upset With Me...

Today I missed you so much I did not know what to do Coz it was me who said goodbye
And it was me who made you cry

I could contact you But I just did not do coz I was not sure if it was the right thing to do

Then I came to write something Something which would express my sorrow and pain
Then I realized I am running out of words

No words came to my mind
To express what I was feeling deep inside I think I was so cruel to you By saying all those unkind, heartless and mean words to you now i know words are upset with me They don't need a friend like me
