Culture Is My Nature

The culture is here. I am for the culture. the culture is the preceding deity of eyes. bright shining sun lightening the world. a vast music which flows over the whole region of the nation. culture becomes my nature. when the hills of sorrows becomes mountain of jubilation. when the stars bows for the sun. culture accros the universe. culture along my spot. my culture is never far away. Everytime I move. there is something. ringing inside of me. a wonderful sound. it manifest in my inside and outside. with many wonderful colours. Everyday as I grow. it grows along with me. I try to comprehend it. but it was beyond my comprehension. I ask a lot of question. I made a lot of research. all the reply I could get is. It is your culture. your culture is your nature. walking in it you will not be turtured. but it wil brightening your future.

My Lady

The soil becomes seedy and floody, just like a rhapsody, in a tuneless melody, exactly like a comedy, it becomes speedy, and I became moody, just like a candy, the dreams become steady, And my eyes becomes needy, so that I could capture my lady in my custodi.

My Love

I have a girl who can't do without me. I have a girl who cares for nothing but my love I have a girl who sees nthing but the smile on my face. I have a girl who hears nothing but my words. I have a girl but the desirable girl for my love.

Time

It read just as the beat of the heart. It analyse the structure of a man. It gives a vivid account to the deeds of the world. Time has come and go. Time shall come and go. Time is precious.

Your Majesty

You are too mighty You own the whole beauty Just like a river which is drafty When the trees are fruity Respecting you is my duty Because you deserve loyalty which is plenty To make every of my step safety
