Why Do I Feel This Way?

Will this last forever?

I mean I want it to.

I wish that I could turn back time to when we first met each other.

I would change all the wrong that I did.

We've been through so much, our relationship has been like a rollercoaster it has had its ups and downs.

Our love was so strong that no one could break.

Many months have passed by and I feel that our love is not as strong as it use to be.

Where did it all go? or is this just the way that i feel.
