TO BE LOVED

A Moment For Love

This is the poem for a lovely girl
Who lost her everything
And she just want to live alone
But I as a friend or more than that (I love her)
Want to tell her

Through some words

I know u lost everything in the ashes of time
Knowing the facts u don't Need anyone more
But still I want to walk alone with u

When the pain goes to its end length
Come and see me
When the heart goes to stop a moment
Come and I will hold u.

When peoples walks away from u
Come and I will walk with u when You feel alone come and don't be ashamed to sleep within my arms

Just come near to me
Just turn around
Don't make any sound
Don't u see I am gonna drawn
Without u in my arms

Bware of the things which are going to
Or which are happened
Who is sure of life?
Existence is with our memory

Dear when u feel sleepy
Come and sleep in my heart
If u think my heart beat is disturbing u

Don't worry my love
I will stop my heart a bit 4 U

When a moment which spend with u
I feel it's like the life I spend.

Dear

I DONT HAVE MUCH TIME

And what little time I do

If you could only see,

I will spend my time with you

Feelings Already Happens To Some.....

I lost my love

One day, I decided to live alone

For ever, But in mean time, One beautiful girl, the girl with all kindness Came in my life

She is my friend

So I write a poem for her, May be this willl hurt her

But it has to, Before its too late

And she may get deeply involved

.....

U come in my life

When I feel lonely and alone

U wake me up

When was sleeping to death

U get me up

Up & and teach me to stand up again

U make me feel something

To ride again

Now a again I feel something

Something special abut u

U r the only one

The only one which is closer to me

I know u still love me

Knowing all the facts

Of life which I could never forget which may hard to overcome

But how could I love feelling already happen to someone someone who is no more with me left unknown painless feeling for me don't u think u will survive with those sticky things which left me alone.

Putting me down on the road

when the life knocks me down to my knees
I just remember that u r the person who come in perfect position to pray

Baby, I know
I know, I feel respect Respect abt ur feeling but wht can I do feeling already happens to some.....

I Don't Forgive You Ever, If I Ever Miss U

I don't forgive you ever,
But as U r my love/New friend,
And u r my everything
Then why tears come out
Then why feeling get more and more to feel out

U put me, my eyes on tears
As the life moves
And As u know always
My soul is goanna cry for u
To live with u
Till the end of my life

U put me down to my knees
U put me everything which I could even never think about Coz you put me in tear
You made my soul to cry
Till the end of my life

I miss u every second
I miss u all over the place
I miss u like anything
No one can ever feel the love
The way I Love u
My love

I Will Ever Give U The Best -That Is -My Love

When fear comes in ma mind of loosing u
My heart takes pause and feels like everything's dead

Don't u think before u leave me alone
What will happen to my soul?
My berth (breath) is like dead
My mind is like endless road
Keep on thinking the same way
I travel same road `

My believe, my hope ends up to u
My tears dropp like a endless rain
Come soon before its get dry
And winds up me in dead poison

I never think abt the things happen
The way leaves me alone
The way I loose u again
Just not to know anything
Just not say anything

Let the things let them happen
Let the flow of love
Let it flow,
let all the darkness be shine with ur kind love

My destiny leads to my success
Come and let me lead to my destiny
U always keep my words like a Rose Before let me down my self
Come and see me my babe
I will ever give u the best That is

My love.

My Pain

One day I saw the pain lying on the ground
I looked at him and asked about his feelings as he saw me he started crying.

I ask him again and again
Why you crying deep in heart.

I show him feelings
He stopped crying for minute
I seat down there for time
Peoples on the way looking at me
I found my self in the place of him(pain) really it hurts unkonown love in the Univrse

When Soul Breaths

Finally my soul heard a voice
A voice of love and my belief
Soul of all goodness and godness.
Heart breaths deeply and deeply
Making a swell of wounds
Feeling the magic of love Wants everything that feels
To the deep heart breathe
Making a noise of silent twitter
Which makes and feel me alive?
Is that true and all kinds of love?
That makes me and keeps me to live alone
Is that the love I wished for?
And is that the life I wished for I waited and waited for ever
Hoping she will return back one day
Hoping things will remain as before
But my heart didn't turn back
As she leads to heaven
Falling me towards deep and deep
The love, I could have ever done before.

Wish I Could Find U Again

Toady I am seating on the chair
And looking for something that is missing
And that is you,
Wish I could see u again in life
And I can show my love towards u.

Eyes get num to see your least smile
I love you more than my life
I was so lucky when I found you Wish I could leave with u.

I was proud as I find someone Who touches not only my heart but also my soul.
I was happy as I discover someone who stands' beside me not over me

I was happy I find someone who loves me more for, what ever I am
And not for whom I would be...
But I was rare not Lucky enough as she find someone the way "I found her'... in lifetime.....

But finally question comes in my mind
Why u left me alone
Alone like u did none business with me
I believe and I know u do love me
But why U left me alone with unknown feeling
And Unbearable pain

Wish I could give my feelings
At least for a moment
And I could happily die forever
But I know, it's not the end
I got to cry whole life and live forever
Until I found way towards heaven
That is you?
