A Great Book

Life is a great book
We need a close look
We must read
In order to feed
Everyday a new lesson
Every moment a new session
Learn the hidden wisdom
To achieve freedom
Search for good
As your best food
It tells you the gems of knowledge
And your right privilege
Go word by word
There is a meaning in every cord
Try to keep everything in your heart
To find the true goal of your birth...

Cherries

Tip-top tip-top
Winter have come,
Through my window pans
I see cherries in happy blooms
With the kisses of dew smiling brights
The bodies in full dresses
And so, Cherries ready
To welcome the winter fest,
I love and love to see
I love and love to be with
I love and love to smile with Cherries.

Come And See

What does the war give?

Come and see

What does the war do?

Come and see

What does the war bring?

Come and see

What does the war make?

Last Night

Last night you came
You came as a thief
Through my window
When there was dancing of leaves,
You came and show
That i was on peace,
So you came and went through
A thief by giving me a Kiss,
I woke up on morning
And found something
That was nothing then your lipstick sign
When i fined.

Lov Of Rain

Let the rain touch you
Let the rain kiss you

Let the rain make you feel

And let the rain love you.

Science And Arts

Science and Arts
Two branches of knowledge
To be learned,
Science is tough
And Arts is easy
We often put argument;
Indeed both are equelly valuable,
Science is critical and Arts is creative.
To learn scientific and artistic line
Let me say, keep in mind
Systematic study and concentrative learning
Make it easy to understand.
So Science and Arts both are same
To contrast between them is a hopeless game,
So my Science and Arts students
Let's go hand in hand.

Thanks To You

Through your beautiful pink eyes
I show that there I was
How beautiful is your heart..!
That I can't let my hurt shut;
Thanks for giving me a place
On your comfort heart nest.

Swrji Basumatary

We Are All

We are all the branches of the same tree,
And each of us is a leaf.

We are beautiful

When we are alltogether.

We shine with the lights of love, science,
Virtue and spirituality.

Each of us want to be in the gardens

Of friendship with love, tolerance,

Humanity, brotherhood,

In unity and in peace..

We want to unite with love

And do away with grudge.

Swrji Basumatary

When I Was

When I was a little boy
I Used to cry,
Now I am a big boy
And I feel shy.

When I was a little boy
I used to have fights,
Now I am a big boy
And I know what is right.

When I was a little boy
I was poor in studies,
Now I am a big boy
And have self ideas to solve it.

Women To Man

Today, we all the women
Says to you-
If we are nobody to you
If we are nothing to you
Rape us
As your wish
As your thirst,
Murder us
After raping us,
Sometimes after doing by force
Give us a neckless of rope,
When you don't get at a time
Come thievelly and take,
Bring back by making lifeless toy.
Your wills will be ok
Your thirst will be ok.
So we say-
Come and do
As your wish
As your likes
Whenever you get
Whenever you find ok
If we are nobody to you.
