tom Le Guilcher(24/02/90 to preasent)

I've loved poetry since a kid I love reading it and writing it. Most of my poems are from memories and some of witch is about my feelings on life.

The way I love to make poems is on walks with my dogs, the nice thing about were I live is that there is a lot of country walks and I just sit and reminisce on life and some times think ahead and that's when I start making poems up.

I like to make poems witch make the readers think and get something out of it I try to repeat some lines and put in a few unused words that you don't really use in poetry. I hope that you enjoy my poems. If you do read one I would be more than grateful if you could give me hints or tips on the poems you have read if needed thanks.

All I Want

all i want is you back in my life all i want is to play fight with you all i want is you to be here you went away and didnt say bye you went away with no sign at all you just left a photo on the side you said that you were my gard you said that you were my mate i dream of the day when you walk down the drive i dream of the day when you hug me and say i love you i dream of the day when you say im here but i know that day will never come for your just a ghost in my mind but always make me hurt inside whatever i did im sorry but ill say bye till were in the sky

Darkness Has Come

The darkness has fallen the darkness has come i was on a journey to become a better man i went far i went wide now the darkness has come to stab me in the ass once again i was off the bad stuff i was on my way i was going up but now im going back down the darkness has come to make me mess up again what should i do what should i say what will be happening from now will i fall to my knees will i fall to the ground will i fall back to that way will i fall back in those days will i pick back up will i stand up tall will i say no more will i do no more

the darkness might stay the darkness might go the darkness might have light the darkness is here but ill stand my ground and make my pounds

Dreams

dreams to me are the dreams that mean dreams to me are the dreams that are i dream all day i dream all night i dream all the time i dream about life hey dreamer believer they say what you dreaming about now all i say i dream about life and dreams need to be seen seeing is believing in your dreams dreams seems to have a meaning but you need to see it in another way thats why i dream because thats how i live in my own silly way

How You Made Me Feel

I have spent my life trying to hide, From that feeling of dread, You give me inside.

Nothing was good enough, Nothing was right,
You always managed,
To win the fight.

No matter what,
I did or said,
You made me feel,
I was better off dead

I wanted to please you, I wanted to try,
But you always managed,
To make me cry.

I feel I should love you,
But this isn't true,
The pain in my life,
Is attributed to you.

Now I am moving on,
Now I am strong,
You would never believe,
How much I have grown.

I am motivated by the fact,
You ruined my life,
In the past.

I won't be beaten,
I won't be crushed,
Because I have learnt,
I am worth too much.

I know you would love,

To see me fail,
But this won't happen,
I will Prevail.

There is something inside me,
That gives me strength,
I felt I could go,
To any length.

But now you are free,
I cripple with fear,
I pray to God,
That you won't come near.

This isn't over,
I will see it through,
Even if it means,
another fight,
I will do;

Whatever it takes,
To make things right,
I have started a battle,
I will win this fight.

You controlled my life,
For far too long,
I cannot allow it,
To keep going on.

I Dont Know How

I don't know how to say to her that I love her I don't know how to say I like her I don't know what she would say if I told her that I wanted her

When I see her my hart just seems to sink When try to talk to her my words just don't come out I want that girl so bad but I'm not that lad I used to be Dose she hold a grudge or dose she feel the same way that I feel about her

I try to say that I changed but I don't think she believes me I try to get in her hart but that don't seem to go that far How can I say that I want her?
How can I be that lad she wants?
I try to hold these feelings but the more I do the stronger they get

How long will it be before she finds some one else How long will it be before she finds a love except mine?

tom Le Guilcher

I Wanna Be Yours

i love you more than the sun that shines i love you more than the air i breath i love you more than the ground on wich i stand i love you more than life i wanna be by your side i wanna be at your desier i wanna be your lover i wanna be you man i wanna be there when your sad i wanna be there when your mad i wanna be there when you cry i wanna be there for you i wanna spend my life with you the days you spend with me are the days that make my love for you the days you spend with me make me feel more in love with you the days you spend with me make me care for of you more the more days that i spend with you make me at your mursy you are the one so take my hand and hold me tight and say you love me to

tom Le Guilcher

In A Lieing Love

the love i had for you is lost the love you had for me is forgot the kisses has become a regreat the words you told me are no more than lies the days you spent with me are the days that are gone the time you told me you loved me the time when you took my hand that time that i held you in my arms when you were sceard the way i protected you from harm what was all that for you told me you loved me but now i relice you lied you told me that you cared but thats just a lie too you told me that you wouldent hurt me but you done that so well you scard me for life you made me but then broke me you took me but left me you made me look a foll when you said no more you saw the pain that my hart was in you saw the tears running down my face but alls all you done is turn your back to me and walked away

i tryed to say why you doing this but my sobes just held it back i feet no more love but i still beged for mursey but in the end i gave up hope though i see you by my side still i see you when im sleeping i see you when im chilling i see you all the time but just cant work out why everything you told me i belived but now i belive that you a lost forgotten love wicth i never wish i got into

tom Le Guilcher

In A Liveing Hell

some live in a living hell some even die in a living hell some want to break out but just cant doge the pain they sceam they cry they shout but no one seems to care some have said to me its like shouting in a room with hundrers with in but no one seems to look back some want to have a bit of love some want a bit of T.L.C some even wanna home with they dont even have i try to help them come though the pain i try to help them over come there fears i try to let them in some love to come in to let me help them some of wicth dont help them selfs they ask me why ant you helping me i just say your the only one that can help is yourself all i can do is gide you so some remain in that liveing hell and there they might just say but all i say to them is help yourself to get out and not dwel in self pitey

Just To Tell You

I can't seem to tell you how much I love you I can't seem to tell you how much I care I can't seem to tell you what you mean to me I can't seem to tell you how my love will never go away

I can't seem to help but gaze in your eyes I can't seem to help but hug you the way I do I can't seem to help but hold you hand so dear I can't seem to help but love you smile you give to me

Why is it that you're always on my mind?
Why is it when you hug me I feel so untouchable?
Why is it that I love the way you hold me when I'm sad?

Is it so hard to believe that I love you for just you?
Is it so hard to understand that I want you no matter what Is it so hard to know I'll always be there when you think that no one else will

You bring so much to me I can no longer see you cry the way I do You will never lose me even when you feel like you will Whatever happens I'll always love you girl

Life

Life is like the waves it has its ups and downs Life is like a roller coaster it has its twists and turns Life is like a sport it just depends on what we play Life is like a game of poker it just depends on what we are dealt Life can be given life can be taken Life can be a curse life can be a blessing Life can be a pain life can be in pain

Life has its ways life has its days Life has its love life has its hate Life has its gentler touch but it has its harder punch

Life brings you your knees when you feel in need Life brings you a lot of things but in the end it depends on what we do

tom Le Guilcher

Love Is What I Make It

love is what i need love comes and goes for me loves just a pain what i want is love to come and stay but dose this hapen i think not, but if love is such a good thing why dose it make you cry i want to be loved but it just never comes i had a lover that just went away i had a loved one but then just passed away i had a home i loved but then just seemed to fall away why dose love never stay for me is it what i am or is it god on to me or is it just a word that you so called have to give and have so meny times before i heen hurt by that thing called love so now all i say is that one day love will come and stay but till then ill just be a love crittic

tom Le Guilcher

My Grandad

The end is neer the end is now its been coming for all these years but now its time to say goodbye its time for me to fall asleep god has chosen me and now im going away to a better place i want you to know how much you ment to me i want you to know how much you loved you all i want is you to do well and not be a fool i have a little something i want you to have its under that floor bord were we keeped our secret things and now ill say goodnight and goodbye i will kiss you good night as i always did when your sleeping when your playing when your crying ill always still be there so love you flower and ill see when we meet again from your grandad with love

That Great Day

the day that i spent with you was the best day of my life the time that i spent with you on that day was the time of my life i remember that day so well that it will always be in my mind we walked in the wood and sat close you looked in my eyes my hart missed a beat my words could not come out i just felt so great words couldent say how great my feeling was we walked then walked some more then it came to me that you were the one you made me at my best the way you held my hand was lush the way you smiled at me made me blush then i knew i had a crush i loved you then how did you love me was it a puppy love or was it a funny love it might could of just be a silly love but i know that i loved you for real i rememer that day so well i can even remember the day at its end we sat on the shore and wacthed that waves crashing on the rocks than we wacthed the sun go down and had a kiss

i remember that day so well i just wished it would not have ended

That Poppy In The Snow

i was walking in the snow nothing or anything had green the trees were bare the water was frozen even the wind was still i was a bit down and low and the flowing river had stopped and then i came across a bit of life i saw a flower sticking out the snow the flower i saw before me was a poppy and then i felt rejoiced my feelings were reborn because that poppy in the snow made me realize something the times when i feel like life has gone when all hope is lost and when i feel alone

i remember that poppy in the snow fighting to survive it done that and gave colour which is what i try to do now

tom Le Guilcher

The Prear To My Nan

i miss the way you looked at me i miss the way you talked i miss the way you comforted me i miss our hart to harts i dont go to the your grave because i dont think that your there like i dont go to chrch to worship god i find that the person i knew i loved i cared for i played games with is still around just because your not here nan dosent mean your not around it also dosent mean that i cant talk to you the way i did i just put death as is going in the next room meaning your in the next life so what im gonna say i love you and i still play the games i picture you there all my thoughts and memores are still fresh i still remember your words you said dont give up trying dont let life bring you down dont let anyone tell you that you are not do that and then die srong see i remember good night nan love you with all my hart

The Things I Done For You i held out my hand you didnt take it i gave you my hart you just broke it i had love for you but you just didnt want it you hid your self away you ran away you cryed away i wanted to know you never told why you just told me to go but i just stayed you told me that you hated me i just knew it wasent trure you slaped me you hit me you told me that im a loser but i stode firm i stuck by my guns i got back up i got stonger

but that was then this is now you changed your better

the stuff you done and said the stuff that i done its worth it because you are mine and i love you forever

The Way You Make Me Feel

The way you make me feel is the way i love the way you make me feel makes me feel is everything i love you make me cry you make me sad you make me happy you make me great you make me a lot of things i wanna be i love you so bad it makes me feel sad i need you so much it makes me feel mad your the light in my night your the might in my fight your are the air that i breath your are the drug that i need when your not with me i want to cry when im with you i want to jump with joy when i look in your eyes i feel a bit striange when i look at me i think an angles stairing back at me the way you make makes me want to love you more you make me feel alot of things thast i cant seem to explain i love the way you look at me i love the way you talk i love the way you make feel is way i love you the way i do

tom Le Guilcher

What Did I Do So Wrong

The day we fell apart was the day i just broke apart
The day you said no more that was day i fell in soro

What ever did i do to hurt you so bad was it because i was poor was it because i was a fool or was it just because you fell out with me ill just say the day when you see me again just walk on by you left me no choice to just break down and cry you left me no choice but to do what i done how come you never said i love you how come you never said you cared how come you just naver gave me the love that you knew i lacked from you never in my life did i feel so down and dissbelived never in my life did so meny just stop and stear never in my life did feel so alone a sceard but now your gone i just try to move on even now i want to know the ansers to my questions wicth you just never said i have grown stonger by and by but however stong i get you just bring me back down so now ill say bye for the last time and leve you knowing i love you but just remember that

tom Le Guilcher

What Must I Do

What must i do to say i love you what must i do to show that i care what must i do to see you happy must i have to clime the highist mountin must i have to run round the would must i steal to give you what you need what do i need to do what do i have to say what do you want what do you see in me tell me tell me tell me what must i do to have you to be mine

tom Le Guilcher

When I Cry

When i cry i seem to fly, Each time i fly i get i get closer to the sky Maybe one day ill fly so high ill touch the sky

If and when I do touch the sky I hope to be with you So many things have happend since you been gone,

Now im alone and i want to fly so thats what ill do, So ill dry my eyes and try to fly off the cliff face where we first met.

So here i go 1.2.3 and im in the sky and flying high now im on the ground but now ill fly right into the skys but now im on my way to being with you and have you in my arms again.

Where You Are

I wanna be where you are Where loneliness is far We're a millions of miles apart But still you're in hart

Why should it be like this?
With out you in my arms I miss you every day What do I need to do to?
To get you in my life

I wanna be at your side
With you in my life
But I don't how to
What do I need to do?
To get in you hart.

Where loneliness is far We're millions miles apart But still you're in my hart.

Let me in your hart
And let me relight your flame So we don't have any shame But still you my hart

With you in my life
But I don't how to
What do I need to do?
To get in you hart.

Why I Love You

I love the way you hold me tight i love the way you kiss me good night i love the way you look in my eyes i love the way you smile when i say something funny i love the way you hold my hand i love the way you tell me its all right i love the way your skin feels on mine i love the way you stroke my hair i know that i can love you i know i can hold you i know i can see you when i need to i know i can trust you you give me a boost when i feel down you give me a hope which i never had you give me a new love which i love even now so thank you for making me yours in every way

tom Le Guilcher

Why Love

Why is love so painful why dose it bring us down why dose it make you feel like your alone we might just never know you think you love when really you dont you might try to lie to yourself hopeing it will become beter when deep inside you know it wont how do you tell when love is real or not how do you know when it comes for real why dose it make you wonder why you want to bother you think you want someone when really you dont you want the other why dose it make you want it why dose it make you need it why dose it make you feel down but thats the way it is one day love will come for real or maybe not but i love the way love feels thats why you want it when you sometimes could do with out it

You Were There

the times i felt down the times i felt low the times i needed a friend
you were there

you gave me food you gave me love you gave me hugs you gave me your hand
you were there

the times i was in need the times i was in trouble the times i was hart boken
you were there

you comforted me when i was scared you kept me warm when i was cold you let me in when all left me out you were there for me i just want to say thanks for that thanks for loveing me thanks for being there i love you so much because you have always loved me
