Tygrr Robertson(January 19,1970)

I was born in Seattle in 1970 and raised all over Washington State and parts of Idaho I am currently residing in Wenatchee Washington.

I am a fledgling to writing poetry. I try to write from the heart, expressing the feelings of the moment, in an attempt to capture them visually in words to share with everyone. I can only improve through my perceptions of others and their views on reality. Other than that I live by my moral instincts.

I had been in the Food and Beverage industry for the last 15 years or so. I've been anywhere from F&B manager to Dishwasher. I had stuck with it for the love & excitement of the life. I am now currently working towards a degree here at the Wenatchee Valley College.

Oh yes, not to forget, my Mother and my most personal friends have been the inspiration behind most of my writings. I will continue to reflect, and grow as a writer as I learn the craft and am able to regress to my earlier life, or just spew it from my present thoughts. I will continue this sort of daily log on an un-daily premise. This is no promise but I will do my best.

Please follow me on my new blog site and comment or make suggestions. I am adding poet/writer related stuff there regularly. Follow the link: □

Alone

This pain deep inside
No one to confide...
...Now there's only me...
Guess that's how it was meant to be Reflective thinking,

...pondered thoughts,
...Sick from all the friend's, I've lost!

Now I know,
...but it's too late Mistakes been made
...That's no debate

I though I was special,
...I thought I was good What a rude awakening! ...

There is just me now,
...and I am only a man

No special effects
...or wires and tricks Just me now,
...and all my undoing
If only I could take,
...some of it back I'd give almost anything,
...just to see that! !

I pray I learned,
...from my mistakes Til' then this pain,
...Keep's me awake! ! !

Always Been

Love, it rings in the New Year With new hopes, and discarded fear I hold you so tight, so glad that you're here Knowing in my heart, that you'll always be near

Life keeps changing, as time passes by With lessons I've learned, and the tears that I cry My thoughts, heart and soul, To you I confide Heart aching to share, these with you, by my side

Sitting here writing, watching you sleeping My heart races toward, a most wonderful feeling Love for you, so deep and so clear My spirit knows, that you've always been here

Tygrr Robertson

Anxiety

Chest grows heavier with each exhaust of my breath Intolerable weight looms over like an uncertain death Unfocused and frenzied thoughts blaze through my mind Attacking and wrenching something must be maligned Unreasonable fears paralyze and tear away at my pride Hard to move forward when I'm just along for the ride The world spins around as I sit frozen in time Within this invisible cell to an unknowable crime

With eyes squeezed shut
I beg my mind for silence Seeking some sort of shelter from this internal violence Clenched jaw I push forward, fight back and persist Wake up to regret all the things that I've missed

Tygrr Robertson

Blackened

Blackened inside Trusted you, I confide
I loved you You lied
Now I'm blackened inside

You say people change Seems kind of strange I say they stay the same It's just our worlds, are forever under change

Given and taken from me More than you'll ever see I'll keep giving back, and taking back My life, ... it's just me

So much more I should say lying here in decay The pain wells within Dwells within Nothing more to say

Tygrr Robertson

Butterfly

I saw you first on a summer's day You fluttered by without delay To work to work you had to be Does she work here with me?

I knew you were special right away Your love of life eclipsed the day Drawn to you like a moth to a fire Visions of you brought me desire

I made my first move in the walk-in cooler That pickup line should have got me no further From that moment, our friendship grew It wasn't too long until I fell in love with you

My love for you has grown so strong But if I kept you would that be so wrong?
My love for you is bitter sweet You unable to give what I yearn to keep

Flutterby Butterfly
I want to keep you near by But if I did that you would wither and die My love for you

lives till this day So flutterby Butterfly flutter away...
Until the next time
...you flutterby my way

Tygrr Robertson

Curiosity

Two souls meeting, to curiosity's fate Thoughts of you,
...as I lie awake

Once undisturbed, in nested slumber
My interest in you, grows with wonder Schoolboy feeling's, when we first met Your face, your smile,
...I'll not forget

Curiosity, to the things unseen What's to come, what might be?
Down at the park, sand on our feet
The playful looks,
...you gave to me

Your curiosity, to that I'm thankful!
With out that,
...I'd never kissed an angel! !

Tygrr Robertson

Dark Cloud

Dark Cloud feasting upon your soul Slowly spinning your life out of control

Blotting out all signs of light No escape from this blackened plight

Lulling you into a deep depression Disease with signs of rapid progression

Seemingly innocent to the untrained eye Well within my grasp before I reveal my lie

Killing you with my best intentions Avoidance was your only prevention

Unable to detour what you cannot see Forevermore beware the likes of me

Disillusioned

My heart lies here bleeding, crushed beyond repair
I know you want me to be over you

“But I’m not”

Standing here with tears in my eyes, knowing I cannot change a thing I love you!
But your heart yearns for another

What’s a guy to do?
Can’t change the way you feel What am I to do?
Feel like I’m dying inside
You have no love left for me, I must let you go Thought what we had was real Now tarnished memories

Disillusioned,
I trusted in you but you walked away Hopelessly shattered this once made up my heart How can I blame you?
You just wanted to feel the same as I did about you

Tygrr Robertson

Distressed Love

So distressed
I cannot sleep
This stark realization I want to weep

Reading what you thought of me A 'Dark Cloud' looming over thee

My hopes elated for a fresh start Next thing I knew you wanted to part

At the time new choices seemed right for me Not knowing it would cost me detrimentally

I thought what I was doing seemed so right There were no intentions of restarting this fight

If only you knew how much I cared for you You would see that I was truly meant for you

Eroded

In the winter of 06 my life became frozen in time My body still moves but my soul's hardly sublime

Thought I was side-stepping this downward spiral Though now it's clear I've become quite antiviral

Discarded by hosts like shells on the beach Nothing more of me from which one can leech

The pound of the surf shall erode me to sand I openly beckon the waves to return me back to this land

Tygrr Robertson

Estrange

Goodbye now and move on along Thought I loved you, decided I was wrong Took two years to let the cat out For at least a year I've known without doubt

Your problems and habits changed my inner view Images of you faded our love went askew There's so much in life and I want so much more You are stuck in a rut and you've become quite a bore

I leave you behind and now I'm happy & free No more complications
.....or your bother to me Said you were my best friend, guess sometimes things change But the more that I knew you, more my love went estrange

Tygrr Robertson

Faith

These feelings of abandonment
I cannot seem to sway My world has been overcast like a steel October day

With god by my side
I tread through these trials
It still seems I'm alone And have walked countless miles

Visions of you ensuring nothing will turn me With faith in my heart
I clamber on with this journey

Tygrr Robertson

Falling Apart

These thoughts won't stop reeling through my mind Where did you go?
Why'd you up and leave me behind?

So sure what we had was very special and real Something's different this time I don't think I can heal from these wounds you have inflicted upon my heart I try to stand myself up but I keep falling apart

Can't change what you think or the way that you feel Everything I said I meant I never once tried to conceal, my feelings for you Now I lie here bleeding wondering what I should do If you only felt the same way you'd know how much I miss you

Tygrr Robertson

Family Values

Where have all our values gone?
Were born we live and then we're gone Family time and home cooked meals Seems it's been lost to fast food deals

Credit cards are shamelessly flaunt Instantly gratifying the things we want The games we played back in the day All of that now seems so far away

Hide and go Seek And Kick the Can Now T.V, WarCraft and a CPU fan The wonderful things we had planned for our children I hope, that one day we will be forgiven

Tygrr Robertson

Fate

Fate, ... has brought me here Where?

...Here!
I am not sure, where here is

But I am here Bound to this life
For it is mine,
...to nurture

That... not unlike a flower As everything goes
...It takes a lot of shit, to make the best of us grow!

Tygrr Robertson

Finding My Way

I pray each day to find my way back into your heart My strength your desire to make a fresh start A second chance you gave me and I left you feeling deceived Now only time can tell when I may be permanently reprieved

My heart, love and will,
I know is all there But when the time comes will you even care?
Faith tells me things may someday be set right As each day passes
I will fight the good fight

This time apart has only made my desire for you grow fonder God give me the strength to never again let my faith wander Perfection in an imperfect world it is so very hard to find You are all that I need and I acted as if I were blind

Life has given me the chance for clarity and sight I count off each day until I'm back in your light I know in the past I've caused you trouble and strife Baby I'm changing and pray someday you'll be my wife

My promise to you is I'll never again do you harm You know they say that the third times a charm

Tygrr Robertson

Forever

Sticks and stones may may break my bones But your actions really hurt me...
When attempts to pry the truth out of you failed.
You ran, called the cops,
and then had me jailed.
Now I'm spinning my wheels In this cold fucking cell.
Another nightmarish trip to this god forsaken hell...
I thought I did what's right, to catch you in a lie.
You just laughed in my face, and spit in my eye...
The restraining order's, placed some distance from thee.
From three hundred feet,
Your beauty's so hard to see...
Said you'd never known true love before we had met...
Now you look at me like,
I'm your biggest regret...

People once used to say...
"Ty, you need to be more sensitive."
I say to hell with that,
Now I have no sense to give...
Mileigh, sorry I'm not there baby, to be by your side.
Seems your mom thought it best,
to take me for a ride...
I cry out these verses, and there is no reason for faking.
Feel somethings died inside me, I can't seem to stop shaking...
These thoughts of our love, forever engraved in my mind.

You saw it slipping away,
I was so fucking blind...
Turned your back on me, when I needed you most.
I've never felt so alone,
I'd become some estranged ghost...
I love you so very much,
and I thought you could see.
But I know now you'd decided, he's more important than me...

Frozen In Time

Pressing in from all directions, constricting with every breath Past thoughts loom over thee no escape from this wakeful death Here frozen in time for all to see, no more cares to all this strife With crushed heart and soul, losing all ambition for life

Lying in this restless slumber never awake nor quite asleep Once strong, now forever broken, how could this have ended so cheap?
Longing for love and affection, words come without any meaning Once I had so much love to give over cliffs my heart's careening

Love and affection, no more than words used loosely for personal affection Time has proven once again that it's always missing key retention Doomed to walk this earth alone, no real love in which to confide Every one who came and went saw green pastures on the other side

Tygrr Robertson

Go Away! !

What did I ever do to you?
For your actions, are unlike you Haven't you done enough already?
This is where I ask...
Could you,
...Go away! ?

I never set out to hurt you

I only did what you asked

You cut me,
... hard and deep
So I decided,
... to retreat
I had to,
... except defeat

Now I've lost trust
..you see,
For this pain is,
... killing me
You can't feel,
... the same as me

You used your tongue, like a knife Feeling's like you took my life Then pierced me once again, just for good measure

"Now I'm dead! ! "

Can you just
...Go away! !

I don't need this!
I don't want you,

...anymore!
You can go away
You can hurt me,
...no more! !

I am numb to you!
Or just to dumb for you I don't care,
...anymore

Please just leave me alone
...Or I'll even the score!

Just go away!

You don't know what love is I was staring you,
...in your face!

a part of me died
For over a month,
I cried and I tried Now that I'm gone, you want to resume?

Go away! !

You'll get no more of me, to consume

Tygrr Robertson

Golden Days

As I sit here alone and thinking Distracted thoughts yet contemplating All the while aggravating
This soul of mine won't stop debating

It cries to me that I am free Through clearer eyes
I should see Hold no regrets to the past Just cause some things didn't last

I try to see through this emotional haze In hopes of a future in which to praise Not thinking of past as my golden days I'm living them now right here, my way!

Tygrr Robertson

Happiness

Hello happiness you are back again.
How I've missed you my oldest friend.
Through all of the darkness.
Light comes in sight my friend.
Hello life you are back again.
As my life changes it keeps getting better.
The paths that I've taken I would reconsider.
But if I hadn't followed this road, all the way.
I would not be here with you today.

Tygrr Robertson

I Give You My Heart

I know at times it seems so complicated But sometimes I feel as if feelings are evaded Busy life continually abounds all around us Our doubts and fears always seem to surround us

You're so full of life and light shines so bright Your warmth that protrudes me is such a delight My love and world to you I will gladly give I pray you don't reject, please don't be mis-give

I've felt like a junked out beater on some old farmer's lawn But a new life has risen since you've come along I know I have issues but I'm a diamond in the rough You have my heart baby, Let me show you that I'm good enough

Tygrr Robertson

I Love You

My feelings for you
...are on the table.
Do you act on it?
...Are you able?
This next step,
...what comes with it
Not in the past,
...what's in front of it

What do you think?
...With me on this?
To be closer to you,
...absolute bliss
The distance between us
...melts to thee.
My love for you
...is clear to me.

Both our lives
...are drawing closer
I give to you,
...my love,
my shoulder

My life I want to ...share with you I can't imagine
...a better thing to do In my heart
...I know this too truly I love you my darling! !
...Come be closer to me!

Tygrr Robertson

Jealousy

Jealousy striking me in the strangest of ways
I know I should trust but it preys and preys and preys Knowing I should abandon all of these thoughts Worst case scenarios my brain plots and plots and plots

Tell tale signs get me to thinking Next thing you know I'm clawing at the ceiling Green eyed monster won't you let me be?
Can you not see the weight that I already carry?

All I can do is stand by and see I refuse to let you get the better of me I make a phone call restraint to make accusations Resolute to avoid my inner contemplations

All I could want is you there by my side You're the only one that I wish to confide I know you want this time to make your life better Look in your heart and see we could do it together

Tygrr Robertson

Love Faded

Just because your love faded Can't let my heart turn jaded I felt at one with you But here I am, ... once again alone

I know that it's not your fault Too many demons in my vault Smart that you fled It's just now, ...
I feel so dead inside

I'm the same ☐ as the same as I ever was! !

You've long been gone
No choice...
I must move on

Tygrr Robertson

Lovelies

Drawing me in with promises of unity Looking back now I know it has damn near ruined me

Like sandcastles to tides, crumbling out of existence All that was built is gone in an instant

No more will I build these castles of sand With shovel in pail
I start moving inland

One last handful of sand
I throw back to the sea
My tattered heart knows It's not you it's just me

Tygrr Robertson

Meant To Be

I've never loved this way before There's not a moment
I constantly want you even more My heart my spirit You've raised it, it soars I'm wanting, wanting so ever much more

I know your feelings you can't ignore Within your heart you do adore To each moment
I long for thee
What a perfect pair I see, How could you possibly not agree?

Seems through passion new life has come to be Fate thrown aside, gleefully I must love this blessing with thee Before this fate came to be I already knew I wanted I can't imagine a better life than to spend it with thee

Tygrr Robertson

Missing You

Beginning of a new school year I feel so lost without my dear

Empty shell my heart lie breaking Shaky and crushed my nerves are quaking

I lie here in a scattered mess
My Feelings of love
I cannot suppress

My love for you will never cool
My past mistakes,
I've been a fool

A connection so strong can be nothing but fate To renew our love I'm prepared to wait

Tygrr Robertson

Moving Forward

My chest grows tighter, with every heartbeat Synaptic misfiring, trying to draw my retreat Hands sweaty,
...shaking,
it seems so unfair I tremble, clutching my head in despair

How did this happen?
This wasn't to be
Is not life expecting, much more from me?
I bail and bail, to keep this vessel adrift For fear of sinking,
...into a cold dark rift

My love of this world, and all that it offers Not wanting to be trapped, and sealed up in a coffer Forever yearning to put, these feelings to rest Ever relentless in striving,
...to be a success

New path stands before me, I know I must follow First step is taken, with a sigh and a swallow To much my surprise, as I look around to see Support and direction,
...it's all there for me

Family and friends, who've chosen to stay

I wish thanks to you, no words can convey!

Muse In The Mirror

Taste the night from my lips Lowered head
I caress your hips
I want to taste your essence your soul Inside of you lie the lien to your goal

You brush me off like a crumb from your plate I lay here coiling your obvious hate I'm the same person as when we first had met My special love, and to you just another regret

Why do I bother why do I try?
Lighten up, live, laugh and cry We are only here for a limited time Love one sided such a silent crime

My heart burns hard for you but I must suppress Crushed heart in chest
I must digress
What the hell happened?
Where did we go wrong?
After this round
I will be immanently strong

I gave my heart
my soul my trust Feelings now

lie festering in the dust Our lives spin so out of control Now nothing more than a muse in the mirror

Tygrr Robertson

My Gift To You

White noise fills every void of this room Tearing at my sanity it starts to consume These voices seeping throughout my mind Suppressing thoughts my teeth start to grind

Feelings so strong you're all I could want A love so beautiful it's so hard not to flaunt.
Moments spent with you are wondrous bliss Alone in my ponderings I long for your kiss

Visions of you as your fingers caress my hair
I turn toward your presence but nobody's there I sit here alone as your spirit lingers around me Our spirits entwined, oh God how I love thee

Tygrr Robertson

My Heart Adores Thee

New love has formed Paths ahead to be shared Lives drawing closer Are you scared?

My ...Heart
Adores
...Thee! !

To this I know My soul,
...Aches for you.
My mind,
...Thinks of you.
My body,
...Waits for you

My heart,
...my darling contains all this
...for you

This has already,
...Been given to you.

Tygrr Robertson

Numb

None of this,
...would I condone Sitting upon,
...this dusty throne Spilling feelings,
...into writing Nothing left,
...that's worth fighting

Slipping into a,
...depression slumber Waiting for life,
...to call my number
I gladly opened,
...myself to thee
Obviously more,
...than you cared to see

Sadly I crack,
...another beer
And try to forget,
...why I'm here

Tygrr Robertson

Old Things

A sweet old spirit,
...whispers by Asking me, if I'd like to say hi
I respond back to you,
...with best intent
No way will I ever, misrepresent

A new friend I've found,
...I'm sure of this Just chatting with you, makes me nervous
The nerves,
...are not long to stay
As your wit engulfs me, Totally

Drawn towards,
...this spirit before me Your charismatic energy, drives me to implore thee Please tell me more,
...I want to know all about you Feeling certain,
That you are about to Even though we are,

...new friends to be I feel it will have,
...an old familiar quality

Tygrr Robertson

Pondering

Living with swill and praying for slumber Waiting for God
to call my number

Once I thought I'd take this world by storm Realities prove these dreams remain unborn

Staring off into nothing until first twilight When will I gain refuge from this unending plight?

Writing late in the night gives some hope to thee Other than that all other has failed me

Why has life become so complicated With it's advancements why cannot I become jaded?

Even meagerly surviving life's been decent to me Sometimes striving for riches but never reaching poverty

Love unconditional or unconditional love Feelings so pure it shines white as a dove

When I pursue I'm oft left standing alone in the rain This grand rank of love, surely I'll never obtain

Ty R.

Tygrr Robertson

Remember

Remember, of a simpler time Troubles were,
...of the moment
Not in the past,
...or the foreseeable future What future?
...Past?
Already happened

There is now, what happens now,
and what is next to,
...now

No worry's,
to the welfare of our,
...children
No worry's,
of the bills to be,
...paid
No worry's,
...to what we've done,
or whom we've,
...become

These worry's weren't ours,
...to have
For we were but just,

...Innocents!

Saturday Night

Saturday night,
is here again.
Want to go home,
And be near my friend.
Don't care, what band is playing.
I'm leaving here,
no more delaying.
No tavern or bar, contains what I want.
No need in giving that,
a second thought.
I'll wait for this creature,
that lies before me.
Don't know why,
but she seems to adore me.
The feelings I have,
are there for her too.
Silently waiting for her,
to come to my zoo.

Tygrr Robertson

Senseless

So wanting for things to be right in this world Seems from every direction it's consistently unfurled My senses overwhelmed into another synaptic error Like a trapped stallion eyes wild with terror

My heart's beating so fast feels it might just explode Darkness surrounds it as I watch reality corrode Now I'm slipping away into a blackened abyss Too little too late now, wish I hadn't been so remiss

Been through so much and I oft make little sense But with cautious abandon I must lower my defense My head filled with sorrow as I brave through this night Despite of it all I refuse to give up this fight

Tygrr Robertson

Serenity

I lost my heart, but now I found it Serenity begins,
...to melt around it Lessons learned, in life's game
A better man,
...I've become

Humbled by, my friends and peers Never expected,
...in a million years!
A wake up call, was so needed
No more hiding,
...being self-defeated

Though my crutches, I'd always enjoyed

To them I no longer,
...remain employed

Tygrr Robertson

Something More

My love for you transcends space and time Each moment with you is purely sublime Usher your doubts and come to me I'll be the good man you know I can be Things have taken a twist and I can see your fear Be calm my darling my love is strong and clear There's nothing more that I could long to be Than you right here standing next to me

There's much more to me than at first one can see Give me a chance to show these gifts to thee

Down on one knee I ask for your love to stay Feel a life without you would turn from blue to grey My commitment to us required no decision
A wonderful life with you such a splendid vision

Tygrr Robertson

Summer Rain

Clouds whispering by on a warm summer day
The sky peacefully
...turns from blue to grey Thunder rolls in the distant hills I feel the air
...it's growing still

Cumulus engulfing the hills all around From the west
...there comes more sounds Soon after that I see the first light A flash in the pan
...a lightning strike!

Lightning and thunder drawing forward
A rain dropp dashes
...off my shoulder Summer storms they're like no other Like old friends
...and young lovers!

Standing here
as it showers down

Warm summer rains
...standing here

Tygrr Robertson

Sunshine

An angel walked in.
Like sunshine,
on a warm summer day.
You cast your beauty'
upon me.
And asked if I could,
come out and play.
The attraction to you,
was instant.
No hope for me in,
being resistant.
Don't want to seem,
to persistent.
Please put away,
your running shoes.
Come play with me,
I'm here.
On broken wing
I'll fly to you.
I won't deny these feelings,
I have for you.
I am returning your love.
My heart,
I give to you.

Sweet Sorrow

Wrapped in your warmth in the early twilight As the stars bed down and the birds take to flight Out in the orchard
oh how we used to play I still think of those moments most everyday

I destroyed a love that I will never forget So sweet your essence lost to much my regret How I wish I could take back that time Funny how life's filled with riddle and rhyme

Pretending each day to look forward toward tomorrow My heart forever knowing you'll always be my sweetest sorrow

The Way I Feel

To this, to this, I must appeal.
Save my heart I mustn't squeal I claim the fifth to this ordeal.
Iron bars and prison chains.
Could not get me to explain.
Locked away deep inside.
The way I feel is mine to hide.
A relationship has come to be.
Feelings for you held deep within me.
No iron bar or prison chains.
Could have got me to explain.
But the love that you have shown to me.
Are more than walls and locks and keys.
I gladly open myself to thee.
And know you'll do the same for me.
I guess that is why I have to say.
'I Love You'!!!
Thank you for making me feel this way.

The Way I Feel #7 'Revisited'

To this,
.....to this,
I must appeal.
Save my heart,
I mustn't squeal I'll claim the fifth, to this ordeal.

Iron bars, or prison chains.
Could not have got me,
to explain.
Locked away, deep inside.
My feelings,
.....are mine,
....and mine to hide.

A relationship, has come to be.
Emotions for you,
have grown from seed.
My heart for you,
is locked and keyed.

The love you've shown, beyond temptation.
My love in return,
pure exhilaration! !
I gladly open,
myself to thee.
And know you'd do, the same for me.

I guess that's why,
I've got to say.
I am so grateful, ... for feeling this way! ! !

Thoughts Of You

If I had known,
I had an ability to write I'd have gotten it right,
...and started so much sooner

The poem's that I've written,
The one's that were to you They would have been so, much different
They would have been,
...for you!

I don't expect,
...your forgiveness
From all the things, I've done

Thought's of you,
still pound,
...in my chest
Because I know,
...that your the one! !

Tygrr Robertson

Time

Time marches on As much as we would like to, pinch it...
 hold it back...
Or just restrain it for one moment It is unstoppable, forever moving forward Gaining distance, from the instance Feelings fade into a warm abyss
The hurt and pain subside inside
.....
 To this I cry

Tygrr Robertson

Transforming

Transforming this earth,
that lies before me.
Pulling away the weeds, to see the whole story Shifting dirt and rock, to the eye's appeal.
Pathways and terraces, are starting to congeal.
This kind of work,
is therapeutic to me.
An accomplishment,
with substance visually.
To make order out of chaos, on a little plot.
My heart and soul feels,
it hit's the spot.
Life can be reshaped, much like the land.
Live out your dreams,
that lay in your hand.
At any time,
there could be tragedy and sorrow.
So live and love,
like there's no tomorrow.

Tygrr Robertson

Trapped Within

Unsuited for domestication Only adding to my frustration Trapped within,
the skin of this creature Ever waiting, ... for the next feature

Praised upon from a distance...

"Come closer"...

You'll be my prey,
...quickly putting up resistance

Untamed heart thunders my core My spirit left cold and sore Until I can shed the skin of this beast Alone I'll wander till my next feast

Tygrr Robertson

Trust

Excited to come home, and see signs of my dear.
Even though she's not, anywhere near.
E-Mail's and phone messages,
I sift through to see.
If there's any notes,
left there for me.
Anticipation,
"2nd week in a row."
Waiting to see,
if my angel will show.
I open my e-mail, eager to see.

What wonderful letter, she's written for me.
Read the first paragraph,
that's just fine.
The second and third,
my heart starts to bind.
I guess I'm not worth the time we seeded.
For her to appreciate.
How much,
she was needed.

Turn Around

Turn around,
...runaway
For fear that love,
...may come your way Emotions locked,
... deep within Acting as love,
... were a mortal sin

Thought's of you,
...everyday These feelings for you,
...won't go away
My heart yearns for you,
...with every beat Refusing to accept,
...my ultimate defeat

In time I hope,
...you will see Just how happy,
...we could be

Tygrr Robertson

Turned Away

A thousand knives tear through my existence Left my lying there in dire need of assistance I thought you'd pick me up if I'd fallen Turns out you're the one who put me there

Was I a fool to think I could trust in you?
Should I have known that you'd say we're through?
Given to you my most precious gifts Love turned to ash, to the ground it drifts

Heart so heavy chained inside clenched chest Spirit's so tired wishing it could be laid to rest Mind ablaze, eyes like windows staring off into grey What I thought so important, I guess never mattered anyway?

Tygrr Robertson

Unfocused

In a stupor I write this Mind fighting for words, Diluted focus,
misting my mind.
Alcohol, nor drugs,
lay culprit to this.
Thoughts spinning,
 out of control.
Past and future events, keep me chained here.
Locked in this prison,
 the present.
Shrinking from,
this ominous task,
that lies before me.
This merry go round, in my head,
needs to slow down.
I paid for this ride.
 Let me back on! !
I promise I will hold on, tightly with both hands.
Till next time,
 we go round again.

Tygrr Robertson

Unforseen

Forlorn this love
you gave to me Deciding it was not meant to be

Love for you still beats so strong Your return to me I do so long

Even though I know that we are through My gift of love
I bestow on you

Restless heart forever screaming Whether awake or when I'm dreaming

A promise of love you could not keep what I valued as priceless now appears so cheap

Love unconditional
vowed never to be lost When you profess emotions it comes with a cost

Unspoken Words

Unspoken words

No consideration of how I may feel only judging me while I'm popping a pill Aposing your morals and lacking appeal the pain inside me your so sure it's unreal

Appearing as hopeless totally lacking in zeal accounting for nothing no hope to conceal Your life tells you that I'll never be whole no more than a junkie/fisher casting his next troll

Swirling round and round in this endless fishbowl no chance for escape from this bottomless hole You personally resent my attempts at well being every dislike has you contemplating in leaving

Man with good morals whom strives to be pleasing seems now to you I'm constantly underachieving An altered path is what I strive to achieve the harder I try the less you believe

Your looks, words and silence strike out like a lash displeased persona leaves me feeling no better than trash You might just as well have struck out in violence your actions so painful when you leave me in silence

I love you so deeply it seems you don't know I reach out to you but it feels it may snow

From the beginning my hearts been given exclusively to you withholding your heart unlike the way mine had been offered to you I will pass on the pills if that's what you insist I never once abused them, and stuck to the scripts list

Someday I hope to live without letting you down I'll offer out my hand and pray you'll come round Chalk another one up to my long list if of sorry's stick to my meds and get this accident behind me

Now moving forward no holding back one day you'll see that I'm not just another hack There's no point for you to cling to the past yesterdays gone but tomorrow will last

Virtual Breakdown

Sitting at your computer,
...day after day Another world,
...in which you play

Characters created
...by your own hand Born from you,
...to walk these lands Friends you've gathered,
...along the way
Bonds have formed,
...from cyber clay

For years your family's,
...been waiting for you Waiting, ... for your head to unglue From that beast,
...who stole you away Constantly calling,
...Come in and play!

Love you've found,
...in your virtual world?
What's next?
...A virtual boy and girl?
Your cyber world,
...must be so much better Don't worry about me,
...please try to fetter

Once you were,
...my whole life
Now you are just the,
...hole in my life

I'm free now! !
...Free from you

Free from you,
...and your virtual brew! !

Waking Up Late

Love lost, to what cost?
This disease betrayed.
I wished you'd stayed.
To what cost? Oh such a loss.
Had I been able to see.
What this disease was doing to me.
To go back in time.
That would be most divine.
To expect you to stay.
Would have been wrong anyway.
All it took to see.
Was for you to leave me.
Your greatest gift.
Was my greatest loss.
Sad, Now I see.
All I had to do,
was do it for me.

Tygrr Robertson

Watching From The Wing

From a distance,
 you watch over me.

Sensing, your presence.

I turn and look.
 you are not there.

Feeling your eyes, thoughts,
 upon me.

Wishing,
I could see,
 you were there.

Knowing, this is not,
some cruel, delusion.

Friends, companions, lovers! !

All of these things, were in our hands.

We cast all this,
to the wind.

Thinking we could not, want this.

We're but just two fools, in the night.

Hiding in the shadows.

Hiding, from our hearts,
 true desire.

Tygr Robertson

Why

I gave my heart,
my soul...
my love
to you!
What did I get in return?

False memories! !

Why did you tell me you love me...
if you didn't?
Why did you tell me you love me...
if you couldn't?
if you wouldn't?

Was I strung along to keep me happy?
Or did you fear
I'd go out of my head?

You're wrong! ! ...

But I still love you I still love you I still love you...oh

Even if you don't care! !

You left me standing there Alone with my heart in the dirt
I should have known, this was going to hurt

I must be a beast... because no one stays close to me I must be released...

love seems so pointless to me You're always displeased...
Something's not right with me

It wasn't you it's just me
It wasn't you it's just me
It wasn't you it's just me

If it's not meant to be Then it's not meant to be...
If it's not meant to be
Then it's not meant to be...
If it's not meant to be
Then it's not meant to be...

Sometimes I feel I just wasn't meant to be Sometimes I feel this world wasn't meant for me Sometimes I feel nothing was meant for me

Sometimes I feel like I don't want to feel I don't want to feel this out

Tygrr Robertson

Windows To The Past

Images captured Random moments, forever frozen in time Focused on the subject Never knowing the outcome, until after the flash
"Flash"! ! "Flash"! !
Light bursts out, like bullet's,
From a weapon, stuck in reverse Trapped in the cross hairs You've been shot! !
No injuries made, but the prize was taken Instance trapped instantly A little portal to the past

Tygrrr Robertson

You Got Me! !

You got me,
with out appeal.
This I know, is for real.
You came into my life,
like a flame.
Then you went out,
with a hell of a bang.
I wish your fuse,
was a little longer.
Not seeing it's getting, smaller and smaller.
BOOM! ! !
Sad you weren't here, to see our destruction! !

Tygrr Robertson

Your Little Brother

The one's I've placed on my center stage
But now my values have been rearranged Love... family kept within my legion
The only ones that precede my demons?

That chip on your shoulder, I can see through your lies For what lies within us you seem to despise
I do not deserve this played out demise
How can you trust in your closed pair of eyes

I offer your hand as a friend and a brother Past circumstances need not be recovered Our lives our past... there can be one for each other Neither you nor I can be replaced by another

What path to take to find your way home?
What's to be gained from a go all your own?
I show my experiences that have influenced me Why do you belittle the things that I see?
