Love Story

I was walking in your naborhood i allways think of of you then you call me crazie i never thought of you that way you looked me in the eyes boy allways thinking of you still allways dreaming of you you boy you fix my life i cant live with out you i cant breath with out you you knock me down you take my breath and allways stay in my heart not like the other girls that call you your soo hot but i really mean it i call this my love story boy you run away and i try to cash you...

The Love Square

My lovely life
all gone
with all these girls with my boy and i say it love square all i do is say gone my friends the truth was... that my boy was inlove with one i stared to cry all these drammas was away but till now... they came back to life and ruind it agen all these days i kept thinking about last night at the ball room there you were with all these girls i ran away never called him agen till that day i broke his heart and he broke mine so we left and never spoke agen.....

What Is Like To Have It All

what is all i have to do is what.. i told my self how dose it fell to have it all so i began to write these songs i wount forget.. i all i wonder with my life and boy but the next fue days i began to throw words out of my mouth so..... my boy just said your...gone so i stared singing that song... i wonder what is like to have it all? ? ?
